Nathaniel Dorsey, a seventeen-year-old bootblack, who is ambitious to become a labor agitator and organizer, and organizer, has ended his first experience in his line by going to jail. Yesterday they were joined by another priest.

Accident on the D. S. & S.

A very peculiar accident happened on Tuesday on the D. S. & S., by which six men narrowly escaped death. Engine No. 9, drawing a small train near Harwood, jumped the track when rounding a curve. The crew was on the engine and before any of the men could jump it toppled over. The engine was damaged considerably. Fireman Harry and Conductor Deist sustained severe cuts and bruises, but none were dangerously injured.

Wagner.—At Upper Lehigh, September 14, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob B. Wagner. Interred on Tuesday at Freeland cemetery.

MURDERER SENTENCED.

John Gosseck Given Eighteen Months in Luzerne County Prison.

John Gosseck, of Exeter, was placed on trial before Judge Lynch on Tuesday, charged with the murder of Michael Herka, a fellow Hungarian, on Easter Monday night. A jury was chosen and several witnesses were heard when the defense at the afternoon session offered to make a plea of voluntary manslaughter, which was accepted by the commonwealth.

Gosseck was at once sentenced to eighteen months in the county prison, the term to begin from the date of his confinement, about five months ago.

The crime with which Gosseck was charged was the killing of Michael Herka on Easter Monday night in the saloon of Henry Bierdean at Sturmerville, near West Pittston. The defendant and his victim and a number of companions were drinking in the saloon when a fight was started, in which chairs and fists played a prominent part. The proprietor put all the men out except Herka. A few moments after, it was alleged, Gosseck hurled a large stone through the open door which struck Herka on the head, fracturing the skull and breaking his neck and causing almost instant death.

A Victory for Assessors.

In the case of E. C. Brinker vs. the county of Northampton, Judge Scott has handed down an opinion giving judgment to the plaintiff for $10. The case was agreed to by Mr. Brinker and E. J. Fox, solicitor for the county commissioners, to find out whether or not the assessors of the county were entitled to extra pay for doing certain work required by the compulsory educational law and if so who is to pay it. The act of assembly is silent on the subject.

Mr. Brinker is the assessor of the third ward, Easton, and in compliance with the compulsory education law, made a list of all children between the ages of eight and thirteen years within the said ward, giving the name and residence of each and whether in charge of parent, guardian, or other person, which enumeration was returned to the county commissioners. He was engaged for five days in making the enumeration and sued to recover the $2 per diem compensation paid assessors of election.

The decision of the court is, therefore, that the county must pay the assessors for enumerating the school children.

Easterday's Remains Found.

From the Hazleton Standard. The remains of Robert Easterday, the colored insane man who strayed from his home in Conyngham the forepart of last week, were found near an old saw mill in Butler valley on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Haas, of Butler valley, accompanied by a friend, was strolling through the woods in search of rattlesnakes, and when nearing the base of the Butler mountain detected a sickening odor and upon investigation was horrified in discovering the partially decomposed body of the unfortunate colored man.

From the condition of the body it is evident that death had resulted in the early part of the week, probably the night upon which he strayed away from his place of residence. William and Charles Tresler, under whose supervision Easterday was before death, were notified and at once recognized the body. Interment was made on Tuesday in Conyngham cemetery.

Married Yesterday Afternoon.

At the home of the bride yesterday afternoon, W. U. Fetterman and Miss Lydia Moses were united in marriage by Rev. J. T. Griffith, pastor of the English Baptist church. Miss Bertha Schledy, of Upper Lehigh, was bridesmaid, and Thomas Moses acted as groomsmen. The young couple left last evening for Niagara Falls, where they will spend their honeymoon. Upon their return they will occupy a handsomely furnished home on Front street. Mr. Fetterman is a traveling operator for the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, and his bride is a young lady who is highly respected. Both were the recipients of numerous congratulations after the wedding ceremony.

600 New Citizens This Week.

Monday was a day of naturalization court, and the crowd of aliens who filled the court room and corridors to receive citizen papers completely blocked all other business. The crowd which gathered in the building, applicants and witnesses, was estimated at over 2,000, and Judges Lynch and Bennett were busy all day making citizens and voters. The applicants were nearly all Hungarians, Poles and Slavish, and the quarters and methods to hear them properly was totally inadequate. About 600 were naturalized. Each squad was in charge of a Republican leader.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's catarrh cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. HONEST VOTE WANTED.

Reward of $500 Offered on Behalf of the Workmen of the County.

From the Wilkesbarre Newsdealer. So many stories have come to the Newsdealer office within the past two weeks, in regard to the coercion and intimidation of employes by mine foremen and superintendents, that we make the following announcements in relation to the same:

$500 reward will be paid for any information that will lead to the arrest and final conviction of any boss, or agent of any corporation in Luzerne county, for intimidation or coercion of any voter at the coming election.

The Newsdealer guarantees to push to a final conclusion any case presented against any offending superintendent, foreman or agents, and the strictest confidence will be maintained as to information presented.

The Newsdealer is determined to secure every protection for the workmen of this county in the matter of a free ballot and will esteem it a favor if any workmen who believes his employer or his agents are trying to force or intimidate him to vote against Bryan and Sewall will give the facts at this office.

When workmen sell their daily labor they are not obliged to throw their vote in with it.

This offer is open to all, Democrats, Republicans and Populists.

The Wheelmen's Excursion.

On Saturday the wheelmen's excursion to Bear Creek will take place, and it is safe to predict that a large crowd will attend. Special rates have been secured from all points on the Lehigh Valley road between Wilkesbarre and Hazleton. The fare for the round trip from Freeland is 80 cents for adults and 60 cents for children. The excursion train from the lower end of the county will leave Freeland at 8.20 a. m. The time of trains and rates for other towns in this vicinity will be found in the ad on the second page of this issue. The returning train for this region leaves Bear Creek at 5.45 p. m.

For the accommodation of Freeland business people and others who may not be able to accompany the regular excursion, special arrangements have been made whereby the excursion tickets will be accepted on the train leaving here at 11.54 a. m. Tickets should be procured at once. The list of stores where they are on sale will be found in the ad.

Don't fail to remember that the net proceeds are for the benefit of good roads in the lower part of Luzerne county. Reliable men are at the head of the movement.

Mine Accidents at Jeddo.

William Ward, of town, a laborer in No. 5 colliery, Jeddo, was injured on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Ward was loading a car, and was working close to the rib, when a huge piece of coal slipped out suddenly and struck him with much force on the thigh. He was badly cut and also squeezed a little by the weight of the fall. He is now resting easily at his home on Ridge street.

Joseph Gallagher, of town, a miner employed in the same colliery, was also injured on Tuesday afternoon, by being dragged between the roof and cross piece of the car, while ascending the slope. He was painfully squeezed, but not seriously hurt.

Jacob Shrader, a driver in No. 4 slope, Jeddo, was squeezed between a car and a prop on Monday afternoon. He was injured internally.

Entering Business Life.

Many people of the old school still have the idea that the proper way to enter into business life is in the old-time way of beginning as a boy, and if life lasted long enough and the individual had sufficient ability, being admitted finally to an interest in the business. But this is no longer possible even if it were desirable. Those who would engage in business must not only have a good general education, but they must also obtain the special training demanded by the magnitude of modern commerce. Probably no business school holds such an advanced position as regards both the general preparation for business life and the special training demanded, as the well-known Police school, Philadelphia. It combines in a most happy way general instruction with specific training.

Guide for Voters and Election Officers. The Tribune acknowledges the receipt through the publishers, Wm. G. Johnston & Co., Pittsburg, Pa., of a copy of the "Voter's Guide," which is a digest of the election laws of Pennsylvania defining the duties of assessors, county commissioners, sheriff, constable, overseers, watchers and election officers, and a complete description of the manner of holding elections under the revised Baker ballot law. In addition it contains in full the new ballot law, the law relating to primary elections and much other interesting information regarding elections generally.

The young ladies and children of the English Baptist church will give an entertainment on Saturday evening next at the church. An excellent programme has been arranged. Admission, adults, 15 cents; children under 12 years, 10 cents; which will also entitle them to lunch in the basement. Ice cream, etc., will also be on sale.

There is nothing cheap about the Wear Well footwear except the price. It can't be lower. Try their shoes.

IT WAS A SHORT SESSION.

COUNCILMEN HELD HALF A MEETING YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Members Had Other Matters to Attend to and Were Unable to Go Through the Regular Order of Business—Some of the Bills Passed and Some Did Not.

The members of the borough council met yesterday afternoon. All were present except Councilman Ruitter, who is out of town. Councilman Neuberger was appointed president pro tem. The reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was laid over, as the members appeared to be pressed for time.

Street Commissioner Moore presented his August report, which was approved and ordered paid, as follows: Street labor, $57.65; manhole labor, $56.14; labor laid over since last meeting, $11.89; sewer labor, $359.43; total, $485.11.

A large batch of bills was next taken up. The following had been read and ordered paid when a motion to lay the remaining ones over until next meeting was carried: L. V. R. R., freight on pipe and stone, $20.60; Mercantile Company, Limited, cement, $16.46; Tribune, printing order book and Board of Health stationery, $6; John Danaker, stones, $8; John A. Hutchins & Co., sewer pipe, $118.45.

A list of taxables against men who have been employed by the borough was presented by Collector Malloy, amounting to $13.94. The secretary was instructed to deduct the amount due for taxes from each person's order, and to pay the same over to the collector.

About this time some of the members had to retire to attend to other business, and an adjournment was taken until 7 o'clock on Tuesday evening, September 23.

BASE BALL BRIEFS.

The out of town schedule arranged by the Wilkesbarre players is as follows: Elmira, September 16; Waverly, 17; Albany, 18; Syracuse, 19 and 20; Sayre, 21; Towanda, 22; Williamsport, 23; Milton, 24; Sunbury, 25; Bloomsburg, 26; Freeland, 27.

The last scheduled games of the Anthracite league will be played on Sunday. There are several games in dispute, however, and the officials expect to have some trouble in settling them to the satisfaction of all the clubs.

POLITICAL PICKUPS.

Roger McMonigle left for his home in Seguin, Texas, yesterday, after an absence of six months spent in the East and Europe. Mr. McMonigle is an old-time Republican and has voted the ticket straight every year, but he now feels that his party has gone astray and will cast his ballot for Bryan in November. He lives the Mexican line, and knows the exact condition of that "silver-ridden" country. He can tell you more about the silver question in one hour than all the gold men's organettes would tell in a month.

The Republican club of town hoisted a handsome banner across Centre street last evening. The names of McKinley and Hobart are across the top, with the candidates' pictures and the national colors underneath. Below these are the words "Protection, Honest Money, Rectitude." The banner is a credit to the artist and the club, and that part of it which shows McKinley turning his face from the American flag (probably looking, as his platform says, for help from other countries) is a very appropriate feature.

The Democratic county committee met on Monday morning, and in addition to the usual routine business the following executive committee was appointed: Ig. Freeman, first district; Charles P. Campbell, second district; S. W. Davenport, third district; Condy O. Boyle, fourth district; John J. O'Hara, fifth district.

Carbon's Republican ticket was named on Monday, as follows: Representative, Dr. W. W. Robert, Lehigh; register, Robert McMichael, Mauch Chunk; treasurer, T. M. Whilden, Lansford; commissioners, Lewis Koons, Audenried; Robert Bauman, Parryville; auditors, James Smyrl, Summit Hill; D. B. Albright, Weatherly.

A special train of ten cars passed up the Lehigh Valley road Tuesday bearing 400 Tammany men to the New York state convention at Buffalo. They stopped ten minutes at Wilkesbarre. The spokesman for the delegation said New York city would do its duty for the Chicago nominees.
