

BRYAN IS IN CHICAGO

STUDENTS THREW EGGS AT DEMOCRATIC LEADER'S ESCORT.

Reward Offered For Their Arrest—Mr. Bryan Addresses Large Audiences and Receives an Ovation—Vice President Stevenson Also Speaks.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—While the Democratic parade in honor of the arrival of Mr. Bryan in Chicago was passing the corner of Michigan avenue and Monroe street several eggs were thrown at the young students in the Metropolitan Business college. The eggs were thrown at Mr. Bryan or his wife, and neither of them knew of the episode until after the parade was over. All sorts of stories were current about the affair, one of them being that Mrs. Bryan was struck with an egg, another that her carriage was hit. Neither of these stories was true.

The first egg thrown at the parade came from a boy standing on the sidewalk in front of the Powers building, in which the Metropolitan Business college is situated. The egg was, to all appearances, thrown at the parade generally and at no particular individual, as was not surmised with any violence. A policeman who witnessed the act made a rush for the youngsters, who darted up the stairway into the building. A second officer joined the first, and as the two ran for the doorway several more eggs were thrown from the windows of the business college, which occupies the fifth floor of the building. The Cook county Marching club, which was escorting Mr. Bryan, received the bombardment, and several prince Albert coats and glossy black ties were spattered with yellow. One or two eggs struck the sidewalk, and the crowd was decorated accordingly.

Arrests Demanded.

Later a delegation from the Cook county Democracy descended on the college with every symptom of hostility and demanded that the students who had done the throwing be turned over to it. They held possession of the college for a time and finally left without learning who the miscreants were. The police had no better success, and Mr. Powers, the owner of the building, who is also the president of the college, said that he did not know who had thrown the eggs, although he admitted that they came from students in his institution. He was much distressed by the occurrence and declared if he knew who had done the work he would have no hesitation in turning them over to the police. Later a reporter for a morning Republican paper, while looking up the facts in the case, was severely beaten by a party of men who had taken part in the parade. Mr. Powers has offered a reward of $500 for the apprehension of the person or persons who threw the eggs. Chief of Police Eaden has put a dozen detectives on the case and says he will exhaust every effort to find the egg throwers.

Mr. Bryan arrived in Chicago over the Alton road and was met at the depot by a large and enthusiastic crowd of admirers. The crush to see him was so great in the narrow space of the first floor of the Alton depot that the police had a difficult task to prevent people from being injured. The Cook County Democratic Marching club and several silver clubs, with a large number of bands and drum corps, were waiting for him on Canal street, and as soon as he appeared the crowd was taken up for Battery D on Michigan avenue. A short parade through the downtown streets preceded the arrival at the battery. Entering the city from Brighton park, where Mrs. Bryan appeared on the platform and distributed flowers, there were crowds at every street crossing until the Union depot was reached.

Several People Injured.

While the crowds were dispersing after the Bryan demonstration at the depot the sidewalk in front of 121 Canal street gave way, and nearly 100 people were precipitated into the basement, a distance of 12 feet. Many received slight injuries. The most seriously injured were Patrick Houson, Michael Finan, Albert Powers and William Nolan, all middle aged men. None of them was fatally injured, but all will be confined to their beds for some time to come.

Mr. Bryan's first address was at Battery D, following which a half dozen shorter speeches were made at various places, being greeted by large and enthusiastic audiences. The star meeting, however, was at Tattersalls, a huge structure which was a rival of the Coliseum for the Democratic national convention. The vast audience, numbering far up in the thousands, cheered Mr. Bryan for five minutes. He was presented with two floral tributes, one from the Fourteenth Ward Hebrew Democratic club, bearing the inscription in flowers, "No crown of thorns; no cross of gold," and another from the Journeyman Horseshoers' association in the shape of a huge horseshoe, with the inscription, "Good Luck."

Vice President Stevenson Speaks.

Preceding Mr. Bryan, Vice President Stevenson made a quite a lengthy address. He said he brought advice of good cheer from central and southern Illinois. The Democrats were in line and marching to certain victory. He declared the question at issue in this election was whether or not to adopt the Republican idea of waiting the consent of England for the restoration of bimetalism.

Mr. Bryan's address dealt chiefly with what he termed the grotesqueness and the absurdity of the gigantic government bond operations following the crusade of the gold standard advocates against the Sherman law, which he said America furnished millions of gold to pay bonds that she sold to get gold. He was particularly severe on the Rothschild Morgan bond contract and declared there was nothing in his congressional life to which he looked back with more pride than his part in writing the minority report against that contract. Agreements that the Democrats were to protect the treasury simply meant that they were to let us alone. The speaker believed that this nation ought not to humiliate itself by hiring people to let it alone. He said the banks chose the coin in which they pay their creditors and the nation has equally the right to protect itself the same way. When Secretary Carlisle declares it is the duty of the treasury to redeem silver dollars in gold, what use is it to retire greenbacks and treasury notes by an issue of bonds if they could silver dollars for redemption?

Big Fire in a Small Town.

HIGHLAND, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Fire broke out at 7 o'clock last night in the garret of Eugene Patton's dwelling at Milton, and in two hours had swept away the business portion of the town. The loss is about $50,000; partly covered by insurance. The fire was checked by the Cataract steamer and the Crockett Hook and Ladder company from Poughkeepsie, which were brought down on the steamer Miller.

SPEAKER CRISP DEAD.

The Passing Away of a Prominent National Character.

ATLANTA, Oct. 24.—The death of ex Speaker Charles F. Crisp occasions great sorrow in this city and state and will be deeply regretted throughout the nation. Mr. Crisp died at the Halyon sanitarium in this city, where he had been an inmate for several weeks. Though it had generally been known that he was seriously ill his condition had not at any time been regarded as critical, and the news of his death was a painful surprise to his friends and admirers.

Charles Frederick Crisp, although of American parentage, was born on Jan. 29, 1815, in Sheffield, England, where his parents, who were actors, were playing in a stock company. He was educated in the public schools of Savannah and Milledgeville, Ga., and enlisted in the Confederate army the first year of the war, being then only 16 years of age. He was a lieutenant in the Tenth Virginia infantry when he was captured and taken to Fort Delaware as a stock company. He was admitted to the bar in 1846, he soon built up a considerable practice. In 1872 Mr. Crisp was appointed solicitor general of the southwest judicial circuit of Georgia, and five years later he became a judge of the superior court by appointment. In 1878 he was elected judge by the general assembly and twice re-elected. He resigned to accept the nomination for congress from the Third district, which was equivalent to an election.

He served as a representative in congress until the time of his death. His knowledge of parliamentary law was not exceeded by that of any man in the house except perhaps Speaker Reed, with whom he was frequently in conflict on points of procedure. During the memorable fight against the so-called force bill Mr. Crisp was the leader of his party on the floor, displaying remarkable self control, alertness, boldness and patience. In the committee room—and Mr. Crisp at one time or another was a member of all the important committees—he showed unwearied industry and grasp of detail. In the spring of 1886 Mr. Crisp was chosen speaker pro tem during the absence of Mr. Carlisle, and while serving in that capacity he made his first speech advocating the free coinage of silver.

Mr. Crisp had displayed such ability as a parliamentary tactician that he was selected by his party in the first session of the Fifty-first congress to make the fight against enforcing Speaker Reed's rules. The Republicans won in the end, but only after a series of the most exciting scenes ever witnessed in congress. When the Democrats secured a majority in the next congress, Mr. Crisp was chosen speaker after a contest with Roger Q. Mills of Texas. Mr. Crisp added to his reputation by the fairness of his rulings and his uniform courtesy toward his opponents. He and Reed sometimes clashed as to old.

A Venerable Bishop Weds.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The Right Rev. Henry Benjamin Whipple, bishop of Minnesota, whom the Indians of the north-west years ago named Straight Tongue and who is now 74 years old, was married for the second time in St. Bartholomew's church. The bride was Mrs. Evangeline Simpson, a widow, who is still comparatively young. She was a friend of the bishop's first wife. Her husband, who died a few years ago, was Michael Simpson, an aged millionaire cotton manufacturer of Massachusetts, much of whose wealth she inherited. She is now about 65 years of age and resides in Saxtons river, Mass. Bishop Potter officiated at the wedding. The affair was a very quiet one. Even the Rev. Dr. Greer's assistants did not know that one bishop was to solemnize the marriage of another in Dr. Greer's church.

Two Men Blown to Atoms.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 27.—Two men were killed and five persons injured, three seriously, by an explosion of 1,800 pounds of nitroglycerin at the Acme Dynamite company's works, near Hulton, Pa. The explosion killed two employees engaged at work in a department 300 feet away from the scene of the explosion, which was in the mixing department. The cause of the explosion is not known, but it is supposed that the men killed had been thawing nitroglycerin. The building was completely demolished, and the bodies of the two men who were killed were mangled beyond recognition.

Boy Sentenced to Death.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Oct. 27.—Elmer Clawson, the 18-year-old youth who was convicted of murdering Henry Hodgetts, a farmer of Plucknett, was sentenced by Judge Magle to be hanged on Dec. 16 at the Somerset county jail. Young Clawson was employed by Hodgetts, and the two got into a dispute as to the amount of wages that should be paid to the boy. They had hot words, and the boy went away, but returned later on his bicycle to the farmer's home. Clawson finally drew his revolver and shot Hodgetts while he was standing on the doorstep of his house.

College President Assails.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 28.—Rev. E. H. Capen, D. D., president of Tufts college, has filed a voluntary petition for insolvency. The causes which led to the assignment do not in any way affect the institution with which he is connected. Too liberal indorsement of paper of friends and overestimation of value of securities was the cause.

Archbishop Benson's Successor.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The Right Rev. Frederick Temple, bishop of London, has been appointed archbishop of Canterbury and primate of all England in succession to the late Most Rev. Edward White Benson.

JACQUES BREAKS JAIL.

ONE OF THE CHARACTERS IN THE BEDFORD TRAGEDY ESCAPES.

The Prisoner, Left Unguarded, Drops From a Window the Bars of Which Had Been Sawed and Is Driven Away by a Confederate.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Peter Jacques, or James, one of the trio shot by William Adams at Bedford Station on Aug. 29, on the night on which Postmaster Walker Adams was murdered, has made his escape from the jail at White Plains. On the memorable occasion of the murder of Walker Adams two of the men concerned in his death were fatally wounded by the bullet which struck Adams, and Jacques, at that time, was supposed also to have been mortally wounded. He recovered sufficiently, however, to admit of his removal to White Plains, and since he has been confined in that portion of the prison set aside for women on account of his seeming weakness. On this account also he was not very closely watched. During a 20 minutes' absence of the keeper Jacques made his escape. He had sawed through the bars and made his way to the ground, where a confederate, with a horse and buggy, was in waiting for him.

A hurried investigation showed that the cell door had been pried open by means of a bar, thus giving the prisoner the liberty of the corridor. At the east end of the corridor is a window about 14 inches wide and 16 feet high. This window was secured by three iron bars three-quarters of an inch in diameter. Two of these bars were sawed through and forced out. Directly in front of the window is an electric arc light, which was burning brightly at the time. The bar from which it is suspended offered an easy step and means of making the 15 foot drop from the window to the ground. Once outside the jail only 100 feet board fence was between the prisoner and the street. A recently constructed coal box and shed furnished an excellent ladder, which Jacques used, and in a moment cleared the fence and sprang into a buggy that was waiting for him.

A Witness of the Escape.

Benjamin Kieley, a gardener employed at the Bloomingdale asylum, is the only person who has been found who witnessed the escape. He was passing along Martine avenue, which is back of the jail and within 150 feet of the building. When he was within 200 feet of the jail, he saw a man jump to the ground from the window and quickly disappear over the fence. He saw the buggy and what he has seen before. He observed the driver and thinks he could identify him if he saw him again. He saw the man get into the buggy, which was quickly driven off down Martine avenue in the direction of the railroad station. At this time he did not realize the import of what he had seen and did not inform the authorities of the facts until after the escape had been discovered by them.

Deputies John P. Brees and Frederick M. Underhill started after the fugitive in the direction of Mamaroneck, while Deputy John C. Verplanck and David Stiefel proceeded toward Mount Vernon, down the post road, which seems to be the most likely route taken by Jacques.

Jacques was held under an indictment for murder. He was one of the band of four burglars who on Aug. 29 attempted to break into the postoffice at Bedford Station. Postmaster Adams, who was aroused by the burglars, and in company with his son William set out to protect his property. In this attempt he was shot dead. William Adams, with a Winchester, shot three of the burglars, the fourth making his escape. John Jenkins, who was captured as the last of the two thieves, characterized as the little man, were both shot through the lungs, and Jenkins died four days later. The third burglar died a day or two later. After Jacques recovered sufficiently he was removed to White Plains, partly on account of threats of retaliation and partly because it was thought the White Plains jail was more secure. His escape was evidently well planned, for the imprisoned man had been well supplied with paraphernalia, by means of which to secure his liberty. Notices have been sent out throughout the country calling upon the police to aid in his capture. Jacques is about 35 years of age, has a light complexion, light mustache and wore a gray suit of clothes. He is about 5 feet 6 inches in height.

Burglars' Rich Booty.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., Oct. 27.—The residence of James Van Alen, at Esopus, Ulster county, was entered by two thieves, through a window, while the members of the family were absent. A quantity of valuable wearing apparel was stolen, besides several gold watches, diamond rings and other jewelry, to the total value of about $5,000. It is believed that the men who committed the robbery crossed the river at one end and that the safe burglary at Sheldon's grocery in Hudson, where $1,700 was stolen, is their work.

A $1,500,000 Fire in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—The Pacific elevator, at Hines street and the north branch of the Chicago river, has been burned. A large amount of grain was stored in it. The flames threatened the large malting house of Hales & Curtis adjoining, and ten extra fire engines were called. Both elevator A and elevator B of the Pacific Elevator company were also destroyed, with other small buildings. The loss will approximate $1,500,000. The wheat, it is said, was insured for $750,000.

Dr. Lee Gets Five Years.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 28.—Dr. J. Edward Lee, who has been before the courts on three different occasions, was found guilty of malpractice by the superior court and sentenced to five years in prison. The jury was out but 15 minutes. The only witness presented by the state was Miss Bird M. Palmer, the alleged victim, and the story told by her was the most revolting in the history of Connecticut courts.
