FREELAND TRIBUNE. An Adaptation of the Popular Glass and Ribbon Box Idea. Ribbon Box Idea.

Established_1888.
PUBLISHED EVERY

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

Four Months. 50
Two Months. 25
The date which the subscription is paid to is on the address label of each paper, the change of which to a subsequent date becomes a receipt for remittance. For instance:
Two receives a receipt for remittance and 25 June 72
Keep the figures in advance of the present date. Report promptly to this office whenever paper is not received. Arrearages must be paid when subscription is discontinued.

century has been fought and the Repub-Hobart are elected by an overwhelming majority, and every Democrat will man-fully abide by the decision.

ing the result of Tuesday's vote, are not dismayed. Men who are sincere in advocating reforms believed to be of great benefit to a nation or people do not become discouraged because their Y. Sunday Times. first attempt to succeed fails to meet with the approval of the body politic.

continue to stand by the declarations enunciated in the Chicago platform. That they may ultimately be adopted by the country is the hope of every Demo-crat, and to accomplish that the battle will be waged again four years hence.

That better success will attend their efforts then is more than probable. The Republicans, with every branch of the government in their control, cannot egislate in the interests of the masses when by sad experience, the voters of the country learn this fact, a change in popular feeling may confidently be ex-the doubtful citizens, the threats and calamity shricks of Wall street frighten-ed the timid ones and the floating voters were tenderly cared for by experienced politicians. The result, therefore, instead of dismaying the old Democratic ship, will spur its advocates on, and day after day from March 4 next their ranks will continue to swell with recruits from

Those who expect permanent pros-perity in all walks of life under McKinleyism will be disappointed.

The vote in the county shows that the Post.

Many of the anecdotes told of Father Taylor, the celebrated preacher of the Boston Seamen's Bethel, show that he was ready with a smile whenever occasion for one arose. One evening a prayer meeting had lasted long beyond the usual hour for closing, and Father Taylor's talk was increasing in fervor and energy, when some restless young men arose and shuffled hastily out of the room. "That's right, brethren," said Father Taylor, shaking his head as if his anticipations were suddenly realized, "the tide is rising; the driftwood is beginning to float."

Testimomais ireu.

Orchestra Ready for Engagements.

T. J. Watson, leader of Watson's Freeland Orchestra, is now ready to during human and all kinds of orchestra light properties wishing to engage music are at liberty to engage one, two, the core or as many performers as they prefer. Terms reasonable. Address T. J. Watson, Main street, Freeland.

PLEASURE CALENDAR.

November 25.—Sixth annual ball of Jeddo Progressive club at Yannes' opera house. Admission, 50 cents.

November 26.—Turkey supper at St. Paul's P. M. church basement.

PUBLISHED EVERY MONDAY AND THURSDAY
BY THE TRIBUNE PRINTING COMPANY, Limited.
OFFICE: MAIN STREET ABOVE CENTRE.

Make all proper orders checks the words.

PRIDOR BOX Idea.
Those who admire the grass and ribon boxes much in vogue a few years ago will be ready to attempt some new things in that line which are now seen. These are glass cabinets. They are made of ground glass and clear grass, he panels joined by ribbons or by the better and not more expensive way of having an intelligent carpenter join them with wood. Either ground or clear glass or both combined may be used. The great political battle of the century has been fought and the Republicans are the victors. McKinley and Hobart are elected by an overwhelming majority, and every Democrat will manually abide by the decision.

GLASS CABINET.

The followers of Bryan, notwithstanding the result of Tuesday's vote, are not dismayed. Men who are sincere in the manual professional services and the simple landscapes in gold and aluminum paint.

Ferral silves may be tacked behind the clear glass, or the glass left to disclose the contents of the cabinet. Several shelves may be placed inside the clear glass, the height of these little houses or pagodas varying from 13 to 25 inches. better and not more expensive way of

FOOD FOR INFANTS.

The Democratic party will, we believe, ontinue to stand by the declarations nunciated in the Chicago platform. That they may ultimately be adopted by ne country is the hope of every Democrat, and to accomplish that the battle fill be waged again four years hence. That better success will attend their fiforts then is more than probable. The topublicans, with every branch of the overnment in their control, cannot agislate in the interests of the masses y following out their platform, and, then by sad experience, the voters of he country learn this fact, a change in hopular feeling may confidently be exected.

The Journal of Practical Medicine quotes several articles on the feeding of infants—a subject to the importance of which the profession has only recently awakened, Practical and every-day sperience shows that then milk is boiled it is not only more easily digested, but that it has a nutritive value quite equal to the raw article. Experiments undertaken by Dr. C. Chamonin, first with kittens and afterward with infants, showed after exhaustive and repeated trials that the kittens fed on boiled milk were "twice again as full and that the boiling of milk is the means of preventing the loss of innumerable lives by gastro-intestinal disease. Not only so, but it is more easily dilgested, and agrees with a far greater percentage of cases than unfoliticlans. The result, therefore, intended of dismaying the old Democratic hip, will spur its advocates on, and day fiter day from March 4 next their ranks will be disappointed.

The Journal of Practical Medicine undertaken by Tractical and every-day waskened. Practical and every-day waskened. Practical and every-day developed the first them in the floating value equal to the raw anticle. Experiments undertaken by Dr. C. Chamonin, first with kittens and afterward kettens fed to be did milk, and that the boiling of milk is the means of preventing the loss of innumerable lives by gastro-intestinal disease. Not only so, but it is more easily dilegested, and agrees with a far g perity in all walks of life under McKinjevism will be disappointed.

The vote in the county shows that the leaders of the foreign elements were true to the boodlers of Luzerne once more. No other explanation is required, and the same, in a more limited sense, is applicable to the result in this legislative district.

Had to Work Their Way.

"A great many years ago," said an old army officer, "I was stationed on the government reservation at Kibisillah, on the coast of Mendocino county. About the only amusement I had was working tramps, and they were searce. The hills along the coast from Kibisillah to Fort Bragg are very precipitous, and in those days there was nothing but a little trail that wound along the sandy beach at the base of the bluff. Whenever a tramp came

THE ARTIST'S STORY.

TELL you, ladies," declared handsome and cynical Wilton Robeley, the art-ist, "a fortune tell-er showed me the image of my wife two years before I ever saw her in the southern California enjoying the n inal virtues of the climate, and fir subjects in some of the delig

IT WAS HER TURN TO BESURPRISED.

with the inspiration of an anxious lover I added: 'But I have a cousin of that ine who bears a striking resemblance

'My immediate reward was a revival of strength and spirits on the part of the young lady. The mother intro-duced herself as Mrs. Gilsen, her daughture husband."

"Before we rowed home it was all explained, and the sequel of our strange experience was a happy marriage. The dusky prophetess who had confused the name of the two girls was a cultivated fraud. It was all a trick of the mirrors, ladies."—Detroit Free Press.

When 4 years old she thinks of sweets

At 13 she dreams night and day of her

At 7 her doll is her sole anxiety wo where in the flesh and thousands of miles from the place I first met her."

"Younre the last man in the world who see mind I would think obscured by the clouds of mysticism," replied the rich Mrs. Austyn, his friend and patron. "You have never shown any patience with the charlatans who pretend to expose and expound the secrets that a wise Providence has ordained we should not fathom. And yet you are taxing our credulity with a statement that would be marvelous, if true."

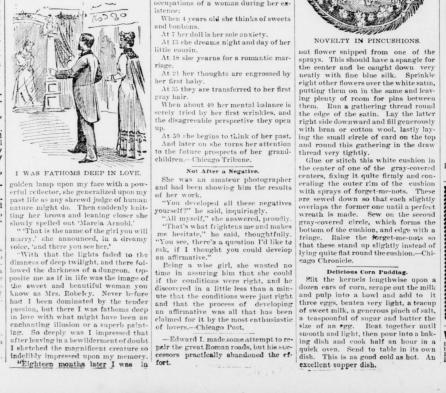

"I must insist upon my veracity in this instance," smiled the artist.

"Now don't stop to argue, mamma," urged the elder of the Austyn girls, "There is a story in this, and after Mr. Robeley has told it you can reclaim him from the darkness of his superstitions and air your theories. Now do tell us all about it;" and three pretty sisters sighed their curiosity in chorus.

"Just so you don't ask me to explain," said the artist, with a quizzical look. "I shall give you the remarkable facts and leave you to wrestle with them. Eight years ago I was in Paris, pursuing my studies, and lived the life of a Bohemian from choice rather than from necessity. We fellows held the responsibilities of life very lightly and laughed at all human phenomena that would not yield to the test of materialism. I was chief among the scoffers, and found barefaced fraud in everything from clairvoyancy to the piercing of the future through the medium of tea grounds.

"Then as now I occasionally broke entirely away from my usual surroundings and was one day sauntering alone through Rue de Bouges. As I passed one of the most pretentious houses I was startled by a scream for belp and dashed through the open doorway, to find a woman battling with flames that with great leaps and flashes were consuming the white draperies of what struck me as a consecrated altar out of place. Our combined efforts soon mastered the incipient conflagration. As the woman anointed my hands with some soothing lotion I saw that she was adark as a gypsy. Her hair rippled lack, her eyes were brilli

Throwing the white light of

THE SUNSHINY WOMAN.

When we come to count over the qualities that endear our friends to almost all of us think first of cheerful ness, says a writer in the New Orlean southern California enjoying the m.d., inal virtues of the climate, and finding subjects in some of the delightful scenery. One morning I had my casel at the edge of a wooded precipiee overlooking a charming spread of landscape. The velvet carpeting of grass and moss had falled to warn me of approaching footsteps, and when I turned it was the startled movement caused by a half-suppressed scream. There were two ladies, the elder anxiously supporting the younger, whose face was blanched and whose eyes were fastened upon me as though I were a terrifying apparition. It was the girl the Indian sovecrees had shown me in Paris; but what did she know of me? As she sank down under the weight of her emotions I hastened to a nearby spring for water, and when I returned her eyes were upon me in that same fixed and troubled look.

"What can be the matter, daughter? You have always been so strong and so vigorous." almost all of us think first of cheerfulalmost all of us think first of cheerfulpleayane. Sunshiny men or women, who bring a bright thought or word or even a glad smile with them, are always welcome as the first flowers in May.
Each heart knoweth its own bitterness, each soul has its own troubles and traals and vexations, and so we turn to the one who can lighten our sadness with the radiance of a cheerful spirit.

Sunshine of the soul is largely a matter of cultivation, for there are few so fortunate as not to have some grief.
The selfish sit down and brood over their sorrows. They give themselves up to fits of despondency and moodiness, and are a kind of moral wet blanket on the pleasure of all with whom they come in contact. They tell you their sorrows and bedew you with their tears until it seems there must be a kind of fluxury of woe in which they rejoice.

After all, the cheerful spirit is but on. You have always been so strong and a vigorous."

"Is your name Henry Morton? asked the younger of me, without heeding the mother's question.

"It is Wilton Robeley,' I responded, quietly. At that instant it flashed upon me that in a desire to conceal my identity I had given the name of Henry Morton to the fortune teller. Then

After all, the cheerful spirit is but an kind of luxury of woe in which they rejoice.

After all, the cheerful spirit is but an example of "that brave attitude to ward life" of which Steverson wrote. It is the courageous bearing of inevitable burdens; a determination not to fret and not to add to the sorrows of the world the griefs of one's own heart. A woman who had many sorrows and heavy burdens to bear, but who wanoted for her cheerful spirits, once said in explanation: "You know I have had no money. I had nothing I could give but myself, and so I made the resolution that I would never sadden anyone else with my troubles. I have laughed and told jokes when I could have wept. I have always smiled in the face of every misfortune. I have tried never to let anyone go from my presence without a happy word or a bright thought to carry with them. And happiness makes happiness. I myself am happier than I would have been had I sat down and bemoaned my fate."

This gospel of happiness is one that every woman should lay to heart. What It means to a man to come home at night to a cheerful wife no one but he who has had to fight the hard battle of life knows. If he is prosperous it is an added joy, but it is in misfortune that it shines like a star in the darkness. A complaining wife can kill the last bit of hope and courage in a sorely troubled heart, while a cheerful one gives new courage to begin the fight over again.

The mother who lets her children grow up to be moody and discontented, subject to blues and sulks, is failing in her first duty. She is handicapping them in the race of life. Cheerfulness is one of the prime requisites to success and happiness. The sunshiny man or woman has everyone for a friend, for this sad old earth must borrow its mirth; it has sorrows enough of its own.

FLOWER PINCUSHION.

duced herself as Mrs. Gilsen, her daughter as Miss Gilsen, and then said: 'Lucy, we had best get back to the hote!,'

"'Lucy Gilsen?' and yet it was her presence that had been conjured up as my bride to be. She was the girl of my sketch and my dreams. The next day I called at the hotel to inquire after her. I called often. We walked, drove, painted and boated together. I came to know through the intuition of love that she was not indifferent to me. One evening as we drifted lazily through the water lilles she handed me a sketch of myself and asked: 'Is that a picture of Henry Morton?'

"It's perfect,' I answered, though

FLOWER PINCUSHION.

FLOWER PINCUSHION.

An Elaborate Affair, But by No Means Difficult to Copy.

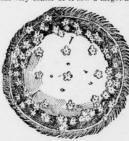

In recalling some of the pretty and tasteful kniek-knacks seen, the flower pincushion appears an elaborate affair, by no means difficult to copy. The materials required are two dozen syrays of artificial forget-me-nots, two circles of stiff cardboard six inches across, and some gray silk with which to cover them; one circle of cardboard-4½ inches and one of white satin 6 inches across; also some tiny gilt spangles and three-quarters of a yard of narrow tinsel fringe. First cover the two large cards, each with gray silk, interlined, if the silk is poor in quality, with muslin.

Interline the white satin also, and to Henry Morton?

"'It's perfect,' I answered, though dumfounded. A shadow of anger crossed her face, and she was about to tear the picture to pieces when I caught her hands and suddenly showed the reproduction of herself that I had made in Paris. It was her turn to be surprised, and when I told her of my experience at the fortune teller's on Rue de Bouges, giving her the date, she quickly exclaimed:

"Why. I was the variety." claimed:
"'Why, I was there with Marcia Arnold. Mamma and I did Europe that season, and we two girls visited that Indian princess just for a lark. That was where I saw Henry Morton, whom
I was told fate had decreed as my future husband!

Interline the white satin also, and to

NOVELTY IN PINCUSHIONS

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

HIRTY years' observation of Castoria with the patronage of millions of persons, permit us to speak of it without guessing. It is unquestionably the bost remedy for Infants and Children the world has ever known. It is harmless. Children like it. It gives them health. It will save their lives. In it Mothers have omething which is absolutely safe and practically perfect as a child's medicine.

Castoria destroys Worms. Castoria allays Feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd. Castoria cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves Teething Troubles. Castoria cures Constipation and Flatulency.

Castoria neutralizes the effects of carbonic acid gas or poisonous air. Castoria does not contain morphine, opium, or other narcotic property. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep.

Castoria is put up in one-size bottles only. It is not sold in bulk, Don't allow any one to sell you anything else on the plea or promise that it is "just as good" and "will answer every purpose." See that you get C-A-S-T-O-R-I-A.

The fac-simile hat H. Fletcher.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

FIELD TALLE FOR FIRE HE

FREE TO EVERYBOD

E. ROSENBURGER & CO., 204 E. 1024 St., New York City

The New Home Seving Machine Co.
Onaxon Musa Roprov Masa Burnov Spran, N. Y.
Chicago, Int., 87, 1078, N. Dallas, Texas.
Sas Filascisco, Cat. Atlasta, Cat.
FOR Sale By

FOR Sale By

MANUALL

Ewing, general agent, 1127 Chestnut street, Phila., Pa

Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained, and all Patent business conducted for Modenart Free.
Our Orrier is Opensire U. S. Patrich Oppice and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo, with description. We advise, if patentiable or not, free of other forms of the control of the con

C.A.SNOW&CO. OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

WANTED-AN IDEA Who can think of some simple thing to patent? Protect your ideas; they may bring you wealth. Write JOHN WEDDER, BURN & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C., for their $1,800 prize offer.

Printing!

A Card is a good thing to carry with you when you go to strange places. It is one of the easiest methods of telling your name, and will be found very serviceable in stating the business you are in. It will identify you at all times, and will firmly connect your name with your business, so that the trade you are in will always recur to every person hearing your name. No business man should be without a stock of cards.

The Tribune

GENTRAL : HOTEL

LEADING HOTEL IN FREELAND.

M. H. HUNSICKER, Prop. Rates, $2 per day. Bar stocked with fine whiskey, wine, beer at d cigars. Sale and exchange stable attached.