Tailor-Made Clothes

Are the proper kind for all men to wear. Why spend your money for ill-fitting ready-made suits when the same amount will get you neat, stylish clothes, with the material and workmanship guaranteed? Refowich is the acknowledged leader of tailor-made clothes, and he has hundreds of webs of cloth to choose from, not samples, but the real material. Call on him when you need a suit or overcoat. Prices at his establishment are lower for tailor-made clothes than others charge for the product of New York sweat-shops.

He Is Not Anybody's Agent.

Remember that Refowich is a manufacturer, not Mr. Somebody's agent. When he takes your order the work is done right here in Freeland. The money stays in town and is paid out to Freeland men and women whom he employs. Don't think that agents can give you as much value for your money as he can. It is an impossibility. He manufactures cheaper than city merchants, and, having no commissions to pay, no large rent to pay, and no other unnecessary expense, he can and does give you more for your dollars than any other tailor.

Patronize Home Industries.

Not because Refowich tells you, but because it is to your interest. If he can give you better clothing cheaper than an agent can, and your orders give employment to your friends who make clothes, is it not to your interest to patronize the home industry? Consider carefully before you send your money to some city sharper whom you never saw and who cares not whether he ever gets another order from you. Leave your measure with School Directors Meet.

The November meeting of Freeland school board was held on Monday evening. Directors Smith, Timony, Ferry and Sweeney were present. The following bills were ordered paid: Mrs. S. E. Hayes, insurance, $75; A. H. Freas, coal, $3.50; Hines & Noble, books, $43.68; D. O'Donnell, coal, $10. The bill of William Birkbeck for supplies, amounting to $6.37, was laid over. The officers were authorized to sign orders for teachers' salaries and county institute allowance.

The secretary was authorized to write to Harrisburg to learn what is the matter with the state appropriation, also to notify J. D. Myers that the board does not desire to purchase a tellurium globe at present.

A. H. Freas was given the contract to haul coal from Drifton at 50 cents per ton.

Principals McBrierty and Hanlon were authorized to grade the schools as well as possible for the balance of the term.

The treasurer reported a balance of $758.00 in the treasury.

Another meeting of the board will be held this evening.

Some question has been raised as to the right of Director Smith to retain his seat on the board, he having removed from the North to the South ward. It is expected that the matter will be decided soon.

Stole Flour for a Starving Family.

From the Wilkesbarre Leader.

John Everts, a respectable looking young man from Plymouth, pleaded guilty to the larceny of a sack of flour valued at $4.20. He had never been in trouble before and when asked if he had anything to say before the sentence of the court was imposed upon him replied, "Yes, I have this to say. I have a wife and five little children. I was out of work and had no credit. There was no bread in the house and I could not see my wife and little ones starve. I noticed a freight car standing on a siding. It was opened and filled with flour. I took one sack, just to keep the life in my wife and children. That's all."

His voice was filled with emotion and everybody felt sorry for him. He was sentenced to six months in the county jail.

Not Safe to Buy These Properties.

In the commissioners' sale of unseated land, which takes place on December 15, at Wilkesbarre, there are a number of properties advertised from Freeland and Foster which have no existence at all, as those who are designated as owners do not possess any real estate. Over a dozen such names appear in what is now part of Freeland borough, but which was formerly Foster township. The taxes for which they are to be sold date back to 1888 and up to 1894. They are properties which intending purchasers should not buy.

Union Thanksgiving Service.

Union Thanksgiving service will be held this year at St. Paul's P. M. church, Fern street, on Thanksgiving Day, commencing at 10.30 a. m. The sermon on this occasion will be preached by Rev. J. J. Kuntz, of St. Luke's Lutheran church. Among those who will assist at the service will be Rev. J. T. Griffith, of the English Baptist church; Rev. R. E. Wilson, of the Park M. E. church, and Rev. H. A. I. Benner, of St. John's Reformed church. The pastor, Rev. S. Cooper, invites all to attend.

Sues Treasurer and Bondsmen.

The Miner's Mills school district has brought suit against William Tasker and his bondsmen, Thomas F. Quigley and James McCabe. Mr. Tasker is treasurer of the school district and it is alleged refused to honor orders when presented, when at the same time the secretary reported having sufficient money in the treasury. The school law designates such refusal to pay money on valid order embezzlement. The case is returnable the first Monday in December.

Arrested for Stealing Coal.

For some time past several persons have made a practice of taking coal from the cavels below the ball park. The Cross Creek Coal Company owns the land, and yesterday Coal and Iron Police Setwell and Jones arrested a number of small boys on the charge. They were given a hearing before Squire Shovlin, who allowed them to go upon payment of the costs and a promise to keep out of the cavels hereafter.

Entertainment and Lecture.

Rev. C. T. Splinter, of the Order of Dominicans, will lecture here on Thanksgiving evening on "Marriage and Divorce." He is now stationed at St. Vincent's college, New York city, and has a widespread reputation as a lecturer. The lecture is under the auspices of the Young Men's Corps, and will be preceded by a musical and literary entertainment.

Luzerne Republicans Go Visiting.

From the Philadelphia Times.
A delegation of Republicans from Luzerne county called to pay their respects to the mayor on Tuesday. In the party were Congressman-elect M. B. Williams, Senator-elect Scott, Jacob Roberts, a member of the general assembly; County Commissioner Jones, ex-Postmaster Landmesser and Sol Bacharach.

Board of Trade Business.

The Board of Trade met last night in regular session, with Vice President Malloy in the chair, in the absence of President Price, who is sick. Treasurer Butz reported a balance of $7.30 in his hands after the payment of a number of bills. John M. Carr, Esq., reported favorably on annexation, also that he will speed the work with all the means at his command to have it completed within two months. The report was accepted and Mr. Carr tendered a vote of thanks for his good work in the matter.

A discussion took place in regard to the advisability of asking the Jersey Central Railroad to extend to town. Mr. Birkbeck told the board of his experience with the Central officials five years ago, mention of which TRIBUNE readers at that time are well aware; how all the inducements that could be offered them were placed at the company's disposal; how Mr. Twining, of Mauch Chunk, came to town and looked over the ground and went away satisfied that it would be to their interest to extend; but also of how they never came. The secretary promised something in regard to the extension at the next meeting.

Testimonials were read from a number of business men and firms in regard to their dealings with Percy Townsend, the lawn mower manufacturer. Mr. Butz, chairman of the investigating committee, reported that after examining into the matter the committee decided to report favorably on his proposition to locate here. The secretary was instructed to notify Mr. Townsend that the board does not feel inclined to try to raise so much money until they see how the loans they have already made will turn out.

Efforts will likely be made to organize a stock company in order to not lose the chance of this industry.

In regard to the silk mill, Mr. Sweeney reported that the first shipment of brick was expected from the Pond Creek works by Monday, when the work would be pushed with all haste. Mr. Sweeney was instructed to send Mr. Johnson's claim of $192.50, for excavating, to Mr. Simpson, as the architect has not paid any attention to it.

The receipts of the meeting amounted to $8.

Then He Was Sorry.

Mrs. Burdock—"That man Cole is absolutely worthless. His wife told me they did not have a stick of wood on the place."

Burdock—"And we have two cords. That is the difference between him and me."

Mrs. Burdock—"Well, you had better go out and split the difference."—N. Y. World.

Keep Her Word.

"And yet to think that only one short summer ago," he hissed, "you vowed to me that you would never marry for gold."

The maiden smiled with the air of one who had a lead-pipe cinch. "So I shall not," said she. "His wealth is all in real estate."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Hopeless Case.

Van Ishe—"Will you marry me?" Penelope—"No. I don't know you well enough, yet."

Van Ishe—"Well, will you marry me a year from now?" Penelope—"O, I'll know you too well then."—N. Y. Truth.

Uncle Eben's Philosophy.

"Doan spen' too much time playin' de banjo onless yoh's gwinter make a business ob it," said Uncle Eben. "De man dat pays too much 'tention ter 'tittle 'complishments ain' likely ter 'tract notice foh big achievements."—Washington Star.

Knew the Importance.

The Wife—"Be careful, John, and don't let the baby drop on the hard floor."

The Husband—"I will, my dear. I wouldn't wake him up for the world."—Town Topics.

Considerate.

He (playfully)—How old are you, Miss Brown?
She—I cannot tell a lie. I—"Oh, if that's the case, I will not take a mean advantage of you. I withdraw the question."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Without Advertising, Too.

"Ah, good morning!" said the early bird to the worm. "Looking for a job?"
"That's what. Anything I can do for you?"
"Yes, you'll 'bout fill the bill, I think."—Day City Chat.

A Real Advantage.

"I wonder why it is that young girls like to marry widowers?"
"It is because they know that wid-owners have been cured of their foolish illusions about women."—Chicago Record.

Justice Personified.

First Lawyer—"I must say that I can not see the point of my learned adversary's argument."
Second Lawyer—"You ought to be on the bench, then, for Justice, they say, is blind."—Boston Courier.

His Excuse.

Dashaway—"I got through last summer without being engaged once."
Cleverton—"What was the idea?"
"I am saving up to get married."—N. Y. Truth.

Legion of Honor Wins.

Judge Holmes, of the supreme court of Massachusetts, has dismissed the bill in equity brought by Benjamin Cohen, of Baltimore, against the supreme council of the American Legion of Honor. The bill asked the court to appoint a receiver for the order on the ground of alleged insolvency.

A disclaimer, stating that the bill in equity was filed through error and asking that it be dismissed, was filed later.

When the proceedings began in Massachusetts many of the members in this vicinity were alarmed, fearing that the order was insolvent. The action of Judge Holmes, in dismissing the suit, should reassure all who had doubts of the organization's ability to meet its obligations.

Stockton May Resume Work.

From the Hazleton Standard.
P. M. Boyle, for many years inside superintendent for the Cross Creek Coal Company, at Drifton, now superintendent of a colliery near Wilkesbarre, arrived here on Monday. He came in the interest of a syndicate which has under consideration a lease of the abandoned mine at Stockton. Mr. Boyle left for Stockton in the afternoon to make a thorough examination of the place, and if his report is satisfactory a lease will be entered into with the land owners, and at no distant day will the old place again take on its former air of prosperity. The syndicate which Mr. Boyle represents is a wealthy one.
