

SPAIN HAS NO ALLIES.

HER OVERTURES TO EUROPE FOR AID WERE ALL REJECTED.

She Recognizes That Affairs in Cuba Have Reached a Crisis—Making a Desperate Effort to Save the Pearl of the Antilles. De Lome in Disfavor.

New York, Nov. 18.—Don Fernando Rodriguez, the Journal's Madrid correspondent, cables the following:

The phenomenal success of the new Spanish loan has excited and enthralled the Spaniards here, and at no time since the Cuban war broke out has patriotism been at such a white heat.

The language of the press is so trenchant and resolute that it is clear every one feels that the country is approaching—nay, already has approached—the great crisis in its destinies.

Spain's eyes are now fully open to the fact that the Cuban campaign has entered on its last decisive phase.

Much has happened during the progress of the American election campaign. It was in August that the Duke of Tetuan drew up a memorandum to lay before the European powers, giving a full account of the Cuban question and the entire relations between Spain and the United States. It was thought that there was nothing in it to give offense to Americans.

Its object was to show that moral and material support had been given to the insurgents by Americans despite the correct attitude of the American government. Its deepest purpose was to have Europe exercise a pressure on the United States to obtain a stricter neutrality.

No Help In All Europe.

Minister Taylor heard the paper read, and his instant and firm objection to it led to the abandonment of the project, but it is known now that Spain has been feeling the pulse of ever chancellery in Europe to find blood that beat with hers.

There is none. France is allied with Russia, and Russia is America's friend. Germany's commercial interest and England's policy keep both from siding with Spain. Italy goes with England, and Spain is left to go alone.

A dozen public utterances by such leaders as Canovas, Sagasta, Silvela and Azoraga, minister of war, have established the fact that those statesmen have been preparing against two dreaded events—a failure of crops at home and the recognition of the Cuban belligerents by Cleveland's successor.

Two months ago it was pointed out that up to that time Spain had yielded to all American demands, no matter how unjust they seemed to Spain.

This course has been adopted in consideration of Cleveland's policy favoring Spain, but the moment the belligerency of the Cuban insurgents is proclaimed from the White House, Spanish public opinion, which has been with difficulty restrained, will burst all bounds.

Preparing For "Eventualities."

It was Canovas who declared that "the extraordinary credit which has been granted was needed because it was necessary to place the country in a position to answer possible offenses against the national dignity."

In asking for the grant of the present loans he said that most of this money would be spent in preparing the country for possible eventualities. At that time, and even since, Spain anticipated these eventualities by hastening to increase her navy with ironclads of 11,000 tons and with cruisers and gunboats ordered abroad.

However, this was the outbreak of two months ago and was not heard in the United States because of the deafening noise of the presidential election.

Now it finds its echo in America, and Spain, in her turn, is comparatively silent, though very active in preparing for Canovas' "eventualities."

Spaniards Self-Confident.

Reading the Spanish papers now, one is struck by the entire and absolute trust shown in the country itself, single handed and by the utter silence respecting extraordinary aid. The reason for this is clear.

In spite of the other independent efforts which a certain portion of the press recently made to set up the idea that steps had been in progress tending toward collective action by European powers in order to hinder American intervention in Cuba, the majority of Spaniards cherish no illusions on the subject.

They feel quite convinced that in this respect only platonic sympathies can be counted on. No European power would quarrel with the great American republic in order to maintain Spanish domination in the Antilles.

The Madrid press, however, is generally regarded as representing the sentiments of the Spanish nation when it asks for nothing serious to be feared before the 4th of March, when McKinley takes possession of the White House.

Every Spanish newspaper now admits that at a given moment, if the Cuban insurrection drags on and does not take a turn very favorable for the mother country, it is quite within the bounds of possibility that the United States may intervene. Hence, everything possible that can be done by Spain will be done before March 4.

If the Cubans Can Hold Out.

But if the Cubans can hold out till then they will win much, and possibly everything. At the same time the Spanish government knows that the Washington authorities would be perfectly willing to use their efforts to bring about a cessation of the war if Spain would grant Cuba and Puerto Rico the measure of self government the inhabitants desire; in other words, administrative economic autonomy. This makes the Spaniards inclined to sneer at American "disinterestedness."

There seems to be no chance yet of Spain's weakening, the bullets, and the bitter end, "having been put to the nation, which seems resolved on any and all sacrifices."

Jackson and Walling Must Die.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 18.—It is stated that the court of appeals has agreed on a decision confirming the death sentences imposed on Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling for the murder of Pearl Bryan and that the decisions will be handed down not later than Friday or Saturday.

Committed Suicide In a Church.

BROCKTON, Mass., Nov. 18.—George E. Taber committed suicide in the South Congregational church, the parish committee of which he had been chairman for ten years. He shot himself and died almost instantly. The cause of the act is shrouded in mystery.

A Youthful Fire Eater.

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 18.—Little Clint Geary, aged 11, saw the fire enter at the museum and tried to imitate him at home. He filled his mouth with gasoline and touched a match to it. His physician says the boy may live unless he inhaled some of the flames.

WASHINGTON TOPICS.

MATTERS OF PUBLIC INTEREST AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Question of Freeing From Taxation Alcohol In the Arts—Bearing Sea Commission Ready to Report—Deep Sea Harbor Commission Meets—Silver Dollar Coinage.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The joint select committee of congress, created at the last session for the purpose of investigating the subject of freeing from taxation alcohol in the arts, and the committee in charge of the subject of freeing from taxation alcohol in the manufacture of arts, will meet in the rooms of the committee in finance of the senate on Monday, Nov. 23, for the purpose of hearing any parties interested in the matter who may desire to submit their views. The question is one of great interest to persons interested in the manufacture of hats, furniture, patent medicines, compounds, perfumery and other articles, and the committee is very desirous that the many and important industries of the country which would be benefited or injured by the use of alcohol free of tax shall present their views to the committee in order that it may intelligently report to congress at the coming session.

The committee is composed of the following members: Senator Platt, chairman; Aldrich and James H. Jones, and Representatives Evans, Russell and McMillin.

A series of interrogatories have been sent to leading firms throughout the country asking detailed information on the subject of the inquiry, and it is expected a number of these will have representatives present to state their views to be affected by the removal of the tax, so far as it affects manufacturing enterprises.

The Bering Sea Controversy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford university, is here. He is a member of the Bering sea commission, and is in Washington to make his report to the secretary of the treasury. Speaking of the work of the commission, Mr. Jordan said that he had been for four months in Alaska, Kametka and in the Bering sea. "We hope we have left nothing undone," said he, "and we hope for a speedy and honorable settlement of the long dispute. Our herds on the islands of St. Paul and St. George are three times as large as those upon the Russian sea islands. They number about 140,000 breeding females, or about 420,000 of all ages and both sexes. This is about one-fifth of the number we had on those islands ten years ago. They will recruit their number fast enough if they are left alone, and the females are being killed. The Japanese herds have been exterminated by European and American killers. There were formerly four of these herds on the Kwil islands, north of Japan. We were on the islands. These herds were there five or six years ago, but are gone now."

The Northern Boundary Line.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—It is quite probable that provision will be made in the coming session of congress for a boundary commission to determine the divisional line between Minnesota and Manitoba. Representative Heatwole reported from the foreign affairs committee last week a resolution providing for such a commission. The dispute is over a tract known as Hunters island and hinges on whether the main channel of the Rainy Lake river runs north or south of the island. It has been suggested that the Alaska boundary dispute may be coupled with that of Minnesota and an amendment offered to the House resolution providing that the same commission shall determine the Alaska boundary. Objection is made to this by the Minnesota men, who say that it will be difficult to determine the ownership of Hunters island, while the dispute of Alaska might engage the commission a long time, to the delay of the other question.

Coinage of Silver Dollars.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The records of the treasury department show that from Feb. 1 to Nov. 1, there were coined at the mints of the United States 1,993,923 standard silver dollars from the balance of bullion on hand purchased under the act of July 14, 1890. The seigniorage upon this amount was $5,051,430, which has been turned into the treasury. The balance of the silver bullion purchased under the act of 1890 on hand Nov. 1 was 125,063,212 fine ounces, which cost the government $112,865,523. The coinage value of this amount is $161,693,000.

The Deep Water Harbor.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The commission appointed by President Cleveland some weeks ago under the authority granted by the river and harbor act, passed at the last session of congress, to locate a deep water harbor in southern California, met here and organized by electing Rear Admiral Walker as president.

Appointed by the President.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The president has appointed William C. McCree collector of internal revenue for the St. Louis district.

Getting Back at the Germans.

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—According to the Frankfurter Zeitung, negotiations continue between the United States and Germany regarding the importation of wine and malt liquors, presumably in connection with the proposal of Mr. Morton, secretary of agriculture, to exclude adulterated articles, which is a retort to the German exclusion of American cattle and meat. The whole question will probably be discussed in the Reichstag.

Clay Elected Senator.

ATLANTA, Nov. 18.—A. S. Clay, the Democratic caucus nominee for United States senator, was formally elected to that office by the general assembly, 196 votes being cast, of which 161 were for Clay. The Populists cast their 34 votes for General William Phillips, and the Republicans gave their three votes to Major J. F. Hanson.

Won Queen Wilhelmina's Affections.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—A Paris dispatch to The Daily Mail says that according to The Echo de Paris the regent and the queen of Holland will attend the winter in Italy, where Queen Wilhelmina will be betrothed to an Italian captain of royal blood who has won the queen's affections.

Virginia's Official Vote.

RICHMOND, Nov. 17.—The total official vote of Virginia has been ascertained and is as follows: Bryan, 155,988; McKinley, 135,351; Palmer, 2,216; Levering, 2,347; Matchet, 106.

Pettus to Succeed Pugh.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 17.—In the first ballot in the Democratic caucus General E. W. Pettus was nominated for senator to succeed Senator Pugh.

VENEZUELA DISPUTE.

Terms of Settlement Agreed Upon by the United States and England.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The Chronicle this morning publishes a summary of the agreement for the settlement of the Venezuela boundary dispute between the United States and Great Britain, adding merely, "This momentous news reaches us too late for editorial comment."

The agreement as published by The Chronicle is very short, covering only two pages of printed matter. There are four separate heads to the agreement.

The first head provides for the appointment of an arbitration tribunal to determine the boundary between Venezuela and British Guiana.

The second head provides for the appointment of a tribunal consisting of two to be nominated by the justices of the supreme court of the United States, two to be nominated by the British supreme court and five, a jurist, to be selected by the other four. In the event of their failure to agree, Oscar II, king of Sweden and Norway, is to select the fifth member.

This fifth member may be a judge of the said courts, or he will preside over the tribunal as its head.

The third head of the agreement directs that the tribunal shall investigate all the facts necessary to decide the controversy as to the extent of territory known to belong respectively to the United Netherlands and to Spain at the date Great Britain acquired Guiana.

The fourth head provides that the arbiters shall ascertain all the facts necessary to arrive at a proper decision and shall be governed in their findings by three short rules, the most important of which provides that actual holdings, or a prescription of 50 years, shall make good title.

The arbiters are empowered to give effect to settlers' rights. In establishing the ordinary rules of law shall prevail.

The agreement is dated Nov. 12 and is signed by Mr. Olney and Sir Julian Pauncefote.

The agreement will be the basis of a treaty to be concluded between Great Britain and Venezuela—in fact, it will be a treaty in itself, only requiring clauses to be added relating to the procedure, the compensation of members of the tribunal and other minor routine matters.

The Chronicle has a dispatch from Washington which says that Mr. Olney has urged Senator Andrade, the Venezuelan minister there, to go to Caracas to get President Crespo and the Venezuelan congress to accept the agreement. This dispatch also says that Mr. Olney advised the resumption of diplomatic relations with Great Britain by Venezuela.

Blaze at Beverly.

BEVERLY, Mass., Nov. 18.—A lively fire, which destroyed the Torwood Shoe factory building here at midnight, gave to this city quite a scare and occasioned a general alarm. Quite fortunately the fire was confined to the one structure. The total loss will be $15,000, the bulk of which will fall on the Seth Norwood heirs, who own the building, valued at $30,000. The insurance is $10,000. The fire caught in the laundry on the ground floor and quickly spread to the roof. The building was four stories in height and about 100 feet square in area. It was occupied by several small firms in the shoemaking trade. Considerable machinery was destroyed, on which an estimate cannot be given. About 100 hands were employed in the building.

Asphyxiated by Gas.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 17.—Edmund G. Crosby, a young farmer of Prince Georges county, Md., was found dead of asphyxiation at the home of Mr. William Shriver, 1534 North Carey street. Mr. Crosby had come to Baltimore to see his sweetheart and plan arrangements for his wedding and honeymoon. It was evident that Crosby, in his anxiety to turn the gas entirely off, wrenched the stopcock so that it slipped readily. Mr. Crosby's betrothed, Miss Hallie Hall, who is a niece of Mr. Shriver, was utterly prostrated on hearing of the accident and was with difficulty restored to consciousness.

The Attempt to Kill the Czar.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—A correspondent of The Daily Mail at St. Petersburg says he is able to confirm the report that Constantin, a Belgian, was the discoverer of a plot against his life. The Belgian police seized a parcel of bombs which were en route for Paris just before the czar was leaving England. On the same night the Paris police arrested 40 suspects. In the absence of absolute proof the matter was dropped.

Rockefellers' New Industry.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 18.—The Cleveland Steel company of this city, owned by the Rockefellers, is erecting a big crucible steel plant and will manufacture that article on a large scale. It will be the only one of the kind in this country, as all crucible steel, which is used for the manufacture of cutlery, fire tools, etc., is now imported from Sweden.

Village Swept by Fire.

WILKESBARE, Pa., Nov. 17.—The village of Port Bowley, north of this city, was swept by fire, and seven houses were totally destroyed, entailing a loss of $12,000. The buildings burned were the three story brick hotel of Timothy Calvin and the houses of Mrs. William Garriod, John T. Brady, John Klinton, James Clune, Mrs. Edgar Boland and John Mallary. Nine families are homeless and have nothing but the clothes on their backs. They are being cared for by neighbors.

Illit Distillery in Rochester.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 17.—Barnard and Morris Davis, who claim to be managers of a retail liquor business conducted at 147 to 151 St. Joseph street, were arrested by United States Deputy Marshal Schell upon the charge of distilling liquor illicitly. The two men arrested allege that the business is owned by Hymen Davis and Isadore Davis. The two men arrested were taken before United States Commissioner Gilbert, who placed the bail at $5,000 in each case.

Republicans Indorse Evans.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 17.—A meeting of the state executive committee of the Republican party met here and adopted resolutions requesting Mr. McKinley to appoint H. C. Evans of Chattanooga to cabinet position. The resolutions are laudatory, and also state that the Republicans of the south are worthy of recognition. There was only one vote against the resolution, by R. W. Austin of Knoxville, who held the proxy of Committeeman Shively.

Prominent Clubman Killed.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17.—Edwin Adam Damon, a well known society and clubman of this city, was shot and instantly killed by the accidental discharge of a pistol which he was loading. Mr. Damon was 30 years old and leaves a widow.

NOTARIFF THIS YEAR

SENATOR ALDRICH OF RHODE ISLAND GIVES HIS VIEWS.

Tells Why Neither Tariff Nor Currency Bills Will Pass Congress This Winter. Says That Revenue Is the All Important Consideration.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 18.—Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, who is regarded as one of the highest Republican authorities on the tariff in the United States senate, furnishes a signed statement to a New York paper in which he says:

In my judgment it will hardly be possible to secure the adoption of any satisfactory financial or revenue legislation at the approaching second session of the Fifty-fourth congress. My reasons are these:

First.—With a free silver majority in the senate it must be evident that no remedial financial legislation that would satisfy the advocates of sound money can be adopted.

Second.—In the senate 89 members there are 39 Democrats, 6 Populists and the 6 silver senators who supported Mr. Bryan—or 51 senators in all who have been, and are likely to be, with a very few possible exceptions, opposed to the Dingley bill, or to any revenue legislation that would have the approval of the 38 Republican senators.

The possibility of securing an adjustment of the differences between senators on this question is so remote that I believe it may be safely assumed that any attempt to pass a tariff or revenue bill, or even to enter upon any serious consideration at this season would be unsuccessful.

In this connection it should be remembered that the session will contain barely 50 working days, and that the consideration of the appropriation and other necessary bills will absorb every available day.

Most Important Topics.

The question of the precise character of the legislation on these two great subjects that should be adopted at the first session of the Fifty-fifth congress is by far the most important one with which the members of that congress will have to deal.

The future of the Republican party may depend largely upon the measure of wisdom shown by the responsible majority in its treatment of this question. The details of party policy in this respect can only be decided upon and announced after the most careful consideration and fullest consultation.

In the meantime in a general way the obligations and purposes of the party are fully understood.

It should not be forgotten by those supporters of the president elect who have heretofore differed from us on the tariff question that Republicans are protectionists by the explicit pledges of platform and candidates and by the traditional policy of the party, and as such are bound by every consideration of fidelity to the American people to apply their principles to any changes which may be made in revenue laws.

No amendments to our tariff laws, however, should be made unless necessary to cure defects or to provide the requisite revenue.

The task of amendments should be entered upon in a spirit of true conservatism and with a determination to make the needed changes as soon as possible and in a manner which will create the least disturbance to business interests.
