

All Wool Clothing Is the Best And Cheapest.

Don't imagine that a cotton suit sold by a tramp clothier will do the work of a suit made from our All Wool Cloth. It's not in the goods and it can't de done.

In Buying Clothes Be Sure to Get Full Value.

Cotton goods or shoddy goods at wool goods prices is a mistake you will often make if you buy from certain so-called clothiers. Avoid these mistakes by buying from the all-wool dealer.

Coxe Bros.' Chicago Dock.

From the Coal Trade Journal.

Last Saturday was celebration day in Chicago for Coxe Bros. & Co. The occasion was the public inspection of their new dock and yard. This dock has rall connections with the St. Paul road and most excellent facilities for yard trade. It supplements the company's dock on the south branch at Bridgeport and thus gives the company a commanding position on both north and south side either for local or country trade. The many hundreds of visiting coal men were received by General Western Agent George Morryweather. Melvin Pattison, superintendent of docks and yards, and W. H. Comstock, city sales agents, and by other officials of the company, and were shown a gem in the shape of a model coal handling loant. It has a canactiv of other officials of the company, and were shown a gem in the shape of a model coal handling plant. It has a capacity of about 40,000 tons. Over 16,000 tons have been unloaded since November 1 and about 10,000 tons more will yet be received this season.

Fire was discovered shortly after 6 o'clock last evening in the Presbyterian church on Front street. By prompt work the flames were confined to the immediate vicinity of their starting point, and when they were finally extinguished it was found that the damage done was comparatively small, considering the flerceness of the fire and the difficulties encountered in properly locating it.

with three hoists and twelve men in six-teen hours and a half, which is a run-ning average of three hoists, and the barge McLachlan (a 2,464-ton vessel) was unloaded at the dock with four hoists and sixteen men in sixteen hours, which is the running average of four the pretty edince was thorough, desired.

When it was satisfactorily settled that the blaze was extinguished an examination was made. It was found that a heater in the cellar had burst and set fire to the woodwork. The flames had eaten their way through the floor to the church proper, burning several joists, parts of the carpet and part of three pews. largest, it is the best equipped coal handling plant on the great lakes.

Commissioners' Appointments.

The recently elected county commissioners, Messrs. Hay, Jones and Guiney, held a meeting to make the appointments of their office, into which they will be inducted in January. They unanimously decided upon the following: Chief clerk, M. L. Dreisbach, Wilkesbarre; assistant clerk, Thomas R. Peters, Wilkesbarre; clerks, L. P. Holcomb, Pittston; L. H. Woodruff, Shickshinny, and Elmer Carpenter, Pittston; solicitor, Galus L. Halsey, White Haven; watchman, John Llewellyn; janitor, Lewis Price.

The only clerk retained who is at present in office is Thomas R. Peters. Mr. Dreisbach, the chief clerk, has been a coal operator, and one of the most prominent business men of the county. Mr. Holcomb is the chairman of the Republican county committee.

Some damage to the pulpit was done by the water from the hose, and the large pipe organ was wet slightly. Great care, however, was taken by the firemen to avoid harming the organ.

The total damage, including the heater, will, amount to about $600. The building is insured in the companies represented by Mrs. S. E. Hayes.

The loss is felt keenly by the members of the congregation, many of whom did not learn of the fire until their arrival to attend the evening services. Rev. J.

A Change of Curates at St. Ann's.

Rev. Edward A. O'Rielly, curate for Father Fallihee at St. Ann's Catholic church, was notified last week that Bishop O'Hara had assigned him to assist Father Curran in the new parish of the Church of the Holy Saviour, at East End, Wilkesbarre, and he left here on Friday. His departure was a surpise to the members of the congregation and other friends whom he had made during his stay in this parish.

Rev. O'Rielly came here from the Scranton Cathedral parish on January 10, 1893, successor, who arrived on Friday from Archbald and officiated at the carly masses yesterday, is Rev. Mack.

Prisoner Taken to Wilkesbarre.

Joseph Balanski, of Sandy Run, was taken to the county jail on Saturday morning by Deputy Constable John W. Slattery. He is charged by John Giasoky, of the same town, with felonious wounding. It is alleged that the prisoner struck Glasosky on October 17 with a stone and that he has suffered severely since from the wound. Dr. H. M. Neals removed a large piece of the stone from the man's head on Friday.

Died in Missouri Last Week.

Charles Sweeney, who left Driftomome years ago and made his home in Missouri, died in Doniphan, that state, in Thursday morning. He was engaged in farming and with him lived his wife and son Andrew. He was well known unong the older residents of this section. He was the father of James J., harles and Thomas Sweeney, and Mrs. atrick Kennedy, of Freeland. The informent took place at his home.

Men's and how steems. Bits of the Programme.

One of the most novel and interesting programmes yet arranged for an entertalnment given by a local organization is that which has been prepared by the Travelers' Athletic Club for Christmas Eve. Among the features are the following: Richard Welsh, Freeland, scientific exhibition of bag punching, showing many new and clever manoevers in in this great exercise; Prof. F. P. Boyle, of Allentown, in sensasional feats of club swinging; Robert Peters, of Hazleton, songs and dances; the little Burns sisters, May and Katie, in new songs and dances; J. H. Mundle, of Mauch Chunk, in vocal and comic selections. Instrumental music will be furnished by St. Patrick's cornet band, and a host of other artists will take part in the entertainment.

Sodality Reception. Men's and boys' gloves in great variety at Oswald's. Dress and working—large assortment of both kinds.

will take part in the entertainment.

Sodality Reception.

The Young Ladies' Sodality connected with St. Ann's church will hold the annual reception tomorrow evening. The society now has a membership of almost 200, and over sixty more will be admitted at the reception. The ceremonies in connection with this are very impressive, and much interest is taken in them by the young ladies. Rev. F. P. McNally, of Scranton, who organized the sodality, will deliver the sermon, and Rev. O'Rielly, of Wilkesbarre, will also take part. The services will begin at 7 o'clock.

Connecticut Painter Falls Into But as He Is a Tectoteler and a Pro-hibbiton Leader He Bid Not Dare Touch Even One Drop of the Tempting Liquid.

Touch Even One Drop of the Tempting Liquid.

House Painter Williams, of the true-blue democratic town of Preston, Conn., is short and thick, and he weighs over 300 pounds. His chief professional rival in the village is lean and slim and peaked looking, whose fight ing and painting weight is a trifle less than 100. By a freak of fortune a day or two ago the contract to paint a neighbor's cellar ceiling was awarded to the compact and ponderous heavy weight, and he went at the work with alacrity, mounted on a shaking and fragile-looking scaffolding that restell on the chimes of great casks, whose contents were known only to the house-holders. Twice the rotund and massive painter, brush in hand, had rolled, like a miniature planet, up and down his narrow orbit, on the frail and treacherous planking, marking his course with the trail of pink paint on the ceiled firmament, and he halted to breathe a little on a punky patch of board overhanging the biggest cask in the middle of his truck. He was feeling fine and frisky, and he took a couple of quick steps in the double shuffle Jimited). He didn't take the third one CF-rk! Wh-r! Kh.! With a dull, rending, tearing sound of mushy, half-rotten boards, the big painter came down solidly on the head of the cask, but halted only momentarily at that half-way station. The next instant, under his mighty impact, in went the stout cask head, k-flop! and with a great splash, waving his arms, like a patent scareerow, and, whooping, the painter shot down, down out of sight into the barrei, buried up to his collar bone in 40 gallons of first-class, nomentary sentents.
