THE AUDITORS' REPORT.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS ARE SURCHARGED WITH $10,400.90.

This Was the Amount Paid for New Court House Plans to Architect Myers. Also Censured for Extravagance in Employing Detectives.

The county auditors have finished their labors on the accounts of the various county offices for the year 1895, and on Thursday evening filed their report. P. T. Norton, Thomas Dullard and Thomas Smith, the outgoing commissioners, who paid the sum of $10,400.90 to Architect Myers, of Detroit, Michigan, for a set of plans for a new court house, have that amount surcharged to them. This money, the auditors state, was paid upon a contract for the erection of a court house, which never has and in their opinion, will not materialize and the money which has been paid is a complete loss to the county.

The commissioners are also censured for paying $25,000 to the Barring & McSweeney detective agency for running down the murderers of Barney Relek, and the sum paid is considered "extremely exorbitant." The manner in which the contract was executed is also condemned, and the auditors recommend that employment of private detectives be abandoned and a system of rewards submitted. The findings of the auditors referred to, in full, are as follows:

"First, That the moneys authorized to be expended by the commissioners were not legally and judicially expended. We find in the disbursement of the county funds one item of $10,400.90 paid to one Myers, of Detroit, Michigan, as part payment of a contract drawn up between the commissioners and the aforesaid Myers for the erection of a new court house, which never materialized, and in our opinion, will not, thereby entailing a complete loss of $10,400.90 to the taxpayers of Luzerne county.

"Therefore it becomes our duty as auditors to surcharge equally between the commissioners, P. T. Norton, Thomas Smith and Thomas M. Dullard, the amount of $10,400.90 thus expended.

"Second, We further find the sum of $25,000 paid out of county fund during the year to private detective agencies for the running down of criminals, which amount we consider extremely exorbitant.

"During the investigation which was held in our office the glaring fact was revealed that the contract drawn up between the commissioners and the Barring detective agency was signed by only one member of the board, the other two having signed it one year later.

"We therefore censure the board of commissioners for such a careless and reckless expenditure of the finances of the county. We would recommend that contracts with private detective agencies be abandoned and a liberal reward be offered instead.

The following will indicate what it cost to maintain Luzerne county for 1895: To amount of cash paid out of the county fund by county treasurer on warrants drawn out on said fund, $337,977.78; bridge, $12,959.45; road, $3,744.31; school, $10,860.83; poor, $8,894.77.

Messrs. Smith, Norton and Dullard will appeal from the report.

Changes in the Court House.

From the Wilkesbarre Record. Today will be moving day at the court house. Officials who have served the terms to which they were elected by the people will take their departure and those who were among the fortunate at the last election will take hold of the wheels of government. The officers affected by the new order of things will be commissioners, treasurer, register and auditors. The change also affects the clerical force and after Monday strange faces will be seen among the busy pen-pushers.

The new commissioners, A. D. Hay, John M. Jones and John Guiney, will succeed P. T. Norton, Thomas Smith and Thos. M. Dullard. The new board will make nearly a clean sweep in the clerical force, Thomas R. Peters, assistant clerk, of Wilkesbarre, being the only one retained. The new chief clerk will be M. L. Dreisbach, a well known business man of this city, while L. R. Holcomb, of Pittston; L. H. Woodruff, of Shick's Run; and Elmer Carpenter, of Pittston, will occupy the places formerly filled by William Peters, Wm. Robinson and Thomas W. Haines. T. M. Dullard has bought out the bakery of S. L. Dougherty, and will hereafter conduct the business, to which he will give his personal attention.

In the treasurer's office William T. Reed will be succeeded by ex-Sheriff Robinson, who has filled the place of deputy treasurer during Mr. Reed's incumbency. So far Mr. Robinson has not indicated whom he has selected to fill the place made vacant by his promotion and also the clerkship filled by George A. Reed.

Stanley W. Davenport, the present register of wills and clerk of the orphans' court, will be succeeded by Hiram P. Kuntz. Mr. Kuntz has selected J. J. Poettiger, of Hazleton, as his chief deputy to succeed Charles P. Campbell, and William Willis, of Nanticoke, to succeed John J. Brislin. Campbell, the retiring chief deputy, will remain in the office about three months until the new clerks master the ins and outs of the office. Mr. Davenport will confine himself to his growing law practice.

Joseph R. Westover, Edward Morgan and W. E. Bennett, auditors, will be succeeded by Mr. Morgan, W. L. Higgs and A. C. Good. The retiring board made a good record during its term. Since the office of controller has been declared legal by the supreme court, however, the powers of the auditors and the salary have been greatly curtailed.

With the changes on Monday all the offices will be filled with Republicans. The only representation left the "unaffiliated" is minority commissioner and a minority auditor.

Received a Death Blow.

From the Hazleton Sentinel.

A telegram was received in Hazleton on Thursday announcing the death of William Kelley, the South Wyoming street tailor, at Southern Pines, near Asheville, South Carolina. He died on Tuesday night. Deceased was about 24 years of age. He resided in Shenandoah until about a year ago, when he moved to Hazleton, and it was here that he met with an accident that gradually brought about his death. It appears that while visiting an athletic club room one night he engaged in a friendly sparring bout.

During an exchange he received a rather severe blow on the nose that caused free bleeding of the organ. The constant and profuse bleeding caused alarm, and Kelley was taken to the home of his brothers in Shenandoah. He was given the best of medical care and attention, and seemed to recover, but the hemorrhages revived and complications ensued. The attending physicians finally concluded that a sojourn among the pines of North Carolina would be beneficial, and the young man took his departure about eight weeks ago. The change was at first beneficial, but his condition again took a serious turn and grew worse gradually until death.

Mr. Kelly was a member of Hazle Club, and was a popular young man whose death will be mourned by a large circle of friends hereabouts.

Junior Mechanics' Officers.

Freeland Council, No. 348, Jr. O. U. A. M., has elected the following officers: Junior past counselor—Thomas Klingerman. Counselor—John A. Smith. Vice counselor—John H. Powell. Recording secretary—Joseph McClellan. Assistant recording secretary—John Yoch.

Financial secretary—John M. Dwyer. Treasurer—A. W. Washburn. Conductor—Wm. Lindsay. Warden—Thomas Howey. Inside sentinel—Charles O. Worley. Outside sentinel—Joseph Troell. Trustee—Alfred Shive. Drum corps commissioner—Jacob Wolf. Representative of Federal Benefit Association—Joseph McClellan. Chaplain—James Bell.

Secured Another Great Success.

Whatever success the members of the Tigers Athletic Club expected to attain with their ball on New Year's Eve, it is certain that the results, social and financial, exceeded by far anything that they had looked for. The ball was the largest held in Freeland for over three years, and was unquestionably one of the best enjoyed ever held here. The superb decorations of the dancing hall attracted many there, and the excellent arrangements, with the good order maintained, held the crowd almost intact until 5 o'clock next morning. The decorative feature eclipsed anything before attempted in that line, every portion of the hall being given generous attention. Master of Ceremonies P. J. Dever and Miss Mary Dougherty led the march.

New Year's Shooter Shot.

William Gilbert and Charles Stegler were celebrating New Year's Day near Plymouth by discharging firearms. Gilbert got in the way of Stegler as the latter pulled the trigger of his weapon, and the charge entered Gilbert's breast, instantly killing him. He was 28 years old and married. Stegler surrendered himself and the coroner's jury returned a verdict of involuntary manslaughter.

Anthracite Coal Trade.

The last of the anthracite companies completed their fiscal year on Thursday. With prices weak, consumers wary and stocks on hand large, the obvious thing, from their point of view, is to reduce the production sharply and this proposal meets with more general favor in trust circles than it did a month ago.

The probability is that the January output will not exceed 3,000,000 tons and may be only 2,500,000 tons, some interests urging the lower figure strenuously. This will enable the companies to work off their stocks at tidewater and prevent an accumulation of coal, and also means that mine workers will have another month at one-third or one-half time.

Young Men's Corps Elect Officers.

The Young Men's C. T. A. B. Corps yesterday elected the following officers: President—D. J. Boyle. Vice president—Hugh Kennedy. Recording secretary—Condy Johnson. Financial secretary—J. J. Gallagher. While engaged in barring down a lump a great mass of coal and clay fell on him from above and crushed out his life instantly. Loyas boarded at Sandy Run. He was aged about 30 years and a wife and two children survive. His family lives in Hungary.

Officers of the Band.

The St. Patrick's band has elected the following as officers:
