PERSONAL POINTERS.

Of the 62 men who have served as mayor of New York since 1665 William L. Strong is the only one to celebrate his 70th birthday in office. He looks 49 years younger, and but for his gout he would be one of the most active men in the city.

George D. M. Pixoto, of Cleveland, is painting the portrait of Lyman J. Gage. He will also paint three portraits of President McKinley. They will be placed in the Union league clubs in Chicago and New York, and the Union club of Cleveland.

President McKinley is now riding a white horse, and if he would wear a cocked hat he would look very much like Napoleon, but he insists upon wearing a silk hat and a frock coat made of black broadcloth, which gives him a clerical instead of military appearance.

The late Postmaster-General Von Stephan, of Germany, was the inventor of postal cards and the founder of the Universal Postal union. Lord Amthill once said that he was almost the only example in Germany of a self-made man rising to a high position in the government.

Paderewski, having refused any fee for his recent performance at Sir A. C. McKeezie's Scotch concerts at the Philharmonic society, London, the society will award him their gold medal, hitherto awarded to only a few artists, among them Arabella Goddard and Adelfina Pattit.

THE WAIFS OF NEW YORK.

TENEMENT HOUSE CHILDREN WANT TO COME TO FREELAND.

The Advance Agent of the New York Tribune's Fresh Air Fund was here yesterday in the interest of these Little People—A Committee Appointed.

J. Frank Dechant, of the New York Tribune Fresh Air Fund, was in town yesterday in the interest of that great charity. He called upon our pastors and a number of our citizens with the encouraging results that a concentrated effort will be made by the different congregations to sufficiently interest the people of this community to have a car-load of these little waifs from New York city brought among our people for a two weeks stay during the mid-summer months. This charity has now been in operation for twenty years. During that time the number of children who have been taken from poverty-stricken homes, where a breath of fresh air is an almost unobtainable luxury, and have been transported to the midst of green fields, to be ministered to by the kind hands of loving friends, has increased year by year until it is now rapidly nearing the splendid aggregate of 300,000, surely a record of which they may be proud, and one, perhaps, unsurpassed by any similar charity in existence.

Who shall attempt to estimate the amount of good which has been accomplished? What standard can be used to measure the happiness that it has brought into hundreds of families? It has restored to health many thousands of little children, who, but for the Tribune Fresh Air Fund, would have gone down to early graves. More than this, it has been the means of bringing renewed hope to many a home darkened by misfortune.

The children come from all parts of Brooklyn and New York city. They are selected by missionaries, bible teachers, physicians, and Christian workers among the poor. They are sent to the country during the months of July and August and they range in age from 4 to 12 years. They all undergo a thorough physical examination before being sent out, so that no child showing symptoms of any contagious disease is among them. Each day the Board of Health supplies a list of all infected houses, and thus it is impossible for the children to carry with them any contagious disease.

Ever since the inception of the Fresh Air Fund there has been a bitter warfare waged on vermin. This year particular pains will be taken to stamp them out and Dr. Vinton, the Tribune examining physician, has printed and distributed circulars showing the best means of overcoming the evil. The car fare is paid by the fund. All that is asked of our people is that we provide food and shelter for one or more of these little ones, for a fortnight.

Mr. Dechant was favorably impressed with Freeland as a spot to accommodate some of the thousands who will be sent out from the tenement districts this summer, and he made arrangements to have the movement conducted in a systematic manner. The following committee was selected to represent the several churches of town: Rev. J. J. Kuntz, chairman; Rev. S. Cooper, Rev. R. E. Wilson, Rev. M. J. Fallhee, Wm. Williamson, J. J. Brobst, Freeland, and Rev. J. P. Buxton, Drifton. The matter will be brought before the congregations at the earliest opportunity and applications for children will be received by the above committee. The little ones will arrive here about July 1 and will remain two weeks.

Already considerable interest has been aroused among all persons whose attention has been called to this subject, and the prediction can be freely made that Freeland will give noble assistance in furthering this truly charitable work. No donations, no money is asked for. All that the Tribune's great namesake of New York requests is that responsible families will give a home for a few weeks to one or two of the little waifs. There are nearly one million little ones in the metropolis who have never inhaled anything but the contaminated air of their surroundings and who have but a vague idea of what "the country" is like.

Children of whatever sex, age or religion will be sent, according to the applications received by the local committee. Every family in Freeland and vicinity that can do so should arrange to accept one or more of the little New Yorkers.

Vicious Elephants with the Circus.—From the Wilkesbarre Newsdealer.

Of the thousands of people who viewed the herd of elephants with the Forepaugh-Sells Bros.' shows, very few had any idea that among the lot were two vicious beasts. Both of them are females, and of the large-eared African variety. The one has to be kept continually heavily harnessed and weighted down with chains, and when being exhibited her four legs are secured by chains to stakes. She is owned by the Sells Bros. and has been in their possession a long time. She is one of the oldest beasts on exhibition, and her nature is so vicious that she has to be closely guarded and watched at all times. Every man employed about the elephants never turns his back within reach of her. She has become greatly attached to the baby elephant and the two always travel together.

The other vicious one is "Topsy," one of the largest of the Forepaugh elephants. She is easily picked out in the herd, due to having a crook in her tail. All employes have strict orders to always keep their eyes on "Topsy" when near her and when leaving her to always back away and under no circumstances to turn their back to her, as that is the opportunity she is always looking for. The man Howard, of New York city, a new man with the show, who was so seriously maimed and nearly killed by her at Allentown several days ago, was injured through his own carelessness in disregarding the orders about keeping his eyes on her.

He was tossed high in the air, his one arm was broken in two places, one leg was fractured and he was injured internally. The elephant was just about to trample him to death, when other keepers rushed up and beat back the beast. She was so infuriated that she loudly trumpeted and came very near stampeding the entire herd of elephants. The man's arm has since been amputated at St. Luke's hospital, South Bethlehem. The employees of the show, on receiving their pay here on Monday, made up a purse of $200 for the unfortunate man Howard.

"Topsy" came within an ace of adding another accident to her already long list at the afternoon performance in Wilkesbarre, during the grand entree. It is customary for the two English clowns, Butler and Kinko, to cut up all sorts of funny pranks during the grand entree by masquerading with monster grotesque heads. "Topsy" seems to have a perfect dread of these heads and just as the entree commenced Butler was very near her. She made a grab for him with her trunk, but failed to get a good hold, but she succeeded, however, in throwing him down. During the entire parade "Topsy" made repeated efforts to break the chains that bound her to another elephant, in order to give chase to the clown. The keepers had their hands full in keeping her under control until the end of the procession.

Corse Arose and Walked Away.

A peculiar and at the same time interesting story comes from Onieda. The principal in the case is Mrs. George Robbins, a buxom Hungarian woman. Some time ago the measles epidemic broke out in the town, and she was among the victims. She lingered until Friday last, when she swooned away, and the general opinion was that she was dead. An undertaker was summoned, and he placed the body, which had every appearance of life being extinct, in the ice box. The funeral was to have taken place on Sunday, and on Saturday evening the undertaker again visited the residence. The body was taken from the ice box, washed and placed in readiness for the casket. A wake was in progress at the time, but the undertaker had scarcely finished his task when the supposed corpse arose and passed to the other room. The undertaker, as well as the wakers were astounded, and several of them became so frightened that they fainted.

During the excitement the supposed corpse made her escape and not until a half hour had elapsed was she captured and returned to her home. She is unable to describe her feelings while in the trance. Though she is still delirious, the attending physician expresses hope for her ultimate recovery.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh

That contain mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten-fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists; price, 75c a bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

We expect to have Prof. Edwin J. Houston, Ph. D., of Philadelphia, to deliver the Founder's Day address and a number of the students will also take part in the programme with Hon. George D. McCreary as chairman. We shall be pleased to have all the patrons and friends of the institute present on this occasion.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS MEET.

Last Session of the Present Board Was Held Last Evening.

The regular monthly meeting of the Freeland school board was held last evening. It was the last session of the board as at present constituted, and was attended by Messrs. McCarthy, Sweeney, Ferry and Rute. The president reported that he had received $150.27 from the county treasurer, also that County Attorney Fuller had informed him that he would make a case stated out of the action of the county treasurer in retaining 4 per cent on the amount collected for the board. The money was paid to the treasurer.

The secretary was instructed to communicate with the architect and procure a decided answer from him in regard to the alleged defect in the wall which was brought to his notice recently.

A sample of the new bonds to be issued by the school district was presented for examination. After a few minor alterations they were ordered printed. A bill of $61.24 for insurance from Mrs. S. E. Hayes was ordered paid, and the policy ordered changed, to read "Freeland School District" instead of "Freeland School Directors."

The statement of the treasurer for the past term was read. It showed a total expenditure of $7,972 and a balance of $225.45 in the treasury.

The secretary's salary and postage expense, $102.72, was ordered paid, also a bill of $12 from the Cross Creek Coal Company for coal.

Director Rute, whose term expired with the meeting, was the recipient of many kind words from his fellow-directors. Messrs. McCarthy, Sweeney and Ferry each spoke and paid tribute to him for his considerate attention to the duties.

The board then adjourned until Monday evening, when Directors Johnson and Ferry, who were chosen again to serve, and Director Schaub, the new member, will take their seats, and with Directors McCarthy, Sweeney and Timony will reorganize the board for the ensuing year.

Ex-Deputy Recorder Is Short.

John R. Williams, of Wilkesbarre, at present private secretary to Congressman M. B. Williams, will be arrested in a few days, charged with misappropriating money of the county during the time he served as deputy recorder. A warrant on this charge was sworn out by William Leslie on Tuesday evening. The sum specified is $100, but it is said the shortage will go far beyond that figure, probably to $1,500. Controller Lloyd acknowledged yesterday that the books in the recorder's office show a discrepancy. Rumors of this shortage have been floating about for the past few months and the official accusation of the ex-deputy was only a matter of time.

Round House Abandoned.

All the locomotives in the Lehigh Valley round house at East Mauch Chunk, twenty-one in number, have been transferred to Packerton, and the building will be closed. The round house gave employment to seven men and eight boys. All of them excepting E. F. Sturdevant, the foreman, have been suspended for the present. Mr. Sturdevant, it is understood, is to have a position at the Wilkesbarre shops. Yesterday he and two of his men cleaned up the shop, putting it into condition. It is rumored that the round house is to be used for storing passenger cars. The people of East Mauch Chunk keenly feel the removal.

Will Probated Yesterday.

The will of Mrs. Ann Smith, late of South Heberton, was probated yesterday. By the terms of the will she leaves all her property, real and personal, to her two sons, Thomas and William Smith. The will is dated July 30, 1885, and is witnessed by Wm. E. Watkins and M. E. Grover. John D. Hayes, Esq., was named as executor. Owing to Mr. Hayes' death an administrator C. T. A. had to be appointed, and T. A. Buckley, of Freeland, has been appointed as such, upon the renunciation of the heirs, by the register of wills.

Young Woman Missing from Home.

The little borough of Nesquehock, across the river from Berwick, is excited over the mysterious disappearance of Miss Emma Sponenberg, daughter of Legrant Sponenberg. The young woman went away Thursday evening, leaving her watch and best clothes at home. Little attention was paid to the matter until yesterday, it being supposed she had met friends and accompanied them home. All efforts have failed to locate her, and her mother is prostrated with anxiety.

The St. Joseph Catholic church was dedicated with impressive ceremonies at Shepton on Monday. A large parade was held in the morning, in which societies from Luzerne and Schuylkill counties participated. The new church cost $6,000.

A picnic will be held at Mrs. Kroner's in South Heberton on Saturday night. This will be fully up to the standard of the one held there on Memorial Day, which was enjoyed by all who attended.

Fresh eggs and genuine butter can be had every day at Oswald's grocery.

Remains of a Suicide Found.

The dead body of an unknown man was found in the woods east of the Central Railroad station at Solomon's Gap, Saturday evening. About thirty feet from where the body lay was found a blood-stained razor, which, coupled with the fact that the throat of the dead man was cut from ear to ear, seemed to indicate that he had either been murdered or had committed suicide. The body was that of a man apparently about 35 or 40 years old. He had a light mustache, weighed 155 pounds and was dressed in a black suit and white shirt and collar. In the pockets of his clothing were found a pocket knife, small looking glass, two small pieces of soap and a pipe and tobacco. Deputy Coroner Gilbert was notified and impelled a jury of inquest.

Roger Boyle, of Hazleton, has been missing for some time and it is believed the man answers his description. An investigation will be made.

It was learned yesterday that the man was not Roger Boyle. The latter is employed as a bartender at the county seat and vigorously denies that he suicided.

American Protestants in Session.

The forty-ninth annual convention of the American Protestant Association will be held in Wilkesbarre this week. There will be 300 delegates present. It was thought that Senators Wesley, Thomas and Brown would be present, but this is impossible owing to pressing business which will keep them at Harrisburg. Hon. John Wanamaker is also expected. A great many people confuse this order with the American Protective Association, but the two are widely divergent. The first lodge was organized in Pittsburg about 1846. The main reason for its organization was to offset the animosity which was being engendered by class distinction. There are 236 lodges scattered throughout Pennsylvania having a membership of about 36,000.

Deputy Clerk Koons Retires.

Walter B. Koons, who has been deputy clerk under Clerk of the Courts J. L. Wagner since the latter assumed the duties of that office, has retired from his position. His resignation was submitted on Monday and took effect Tuesday. The place of Mr. Koons has been taken by George W. Thomas, heretofore second clerk. In Mr. Thomas' former position, Mr. Wagner has appointed Charles B. Smith, of Pittston. Mr. Smith is a well known newspaper man. Mr. Koons' intentions are not known, but it is understood he will be a candidate for clerk of the courts at the next Republican county convention. Mr. Wagner will also seek a re-nomination.

Picnic and Bicycle Races.

The Fourth of July will be celebrated here on the 5th by the St. Patrick's corner band. A picnic will be held at the Public Park and among the features will be two bicycle road races. The first will be open to boys under 16 years of age and the second open to all males over 16. The course will be from the park to Pond Creek brick works, returning via Alvin town. Several of the speedy bicyclists of the vicinity have signified their intention to compete. An entrance fee of 50 cents each will be charged the racers.

Railroaders to Build a Hall.

A movement has been started by the Railway Brotherhoods of Mauch Chunk to erect a handsome hall for their own use. There are five organizations in the two towns, engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and telegraphers, with a combined membership of fully 400. It should not be very difficult to raise the funds. The hall will be located in either Mauch Chunk or East Mauch Chunk, whichever town offers the best site on the most reasonable terms.
