FREELAND, PENN'A, JUNE 3, 1897.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, June 1, 1897.
A real investigation on the sugar scandal—one that would go to the bottom of things and not get frightened off when on the track of information that would incriminate senators-would be a would incriminate senators—would be a be a good and desirable thing to have, but another fizzle like the last one would be worse than useless, because it would do more harm than good. The people recognize a job of whitewashing as quickly when it is done by senators as by humble wielders of the brush. Senator Jones, of Navada, who was in-ferentially charged by Senator Aldrich with having given out the sugar schedule before the tariff bill was reported to the senate, is chairman of the committee on contingent expenses, to which Senagation committee whether it will mean business or a farce. Senator Tillman will be chairman of the committee. If he be given four colleagues as fearless as himself, the guilty senators, if there be any such, will be brought to book, and the sugar trust, the head of which got cleared on that other indictment, will also be shown up: but if he be given colleagues who are afraid of their shadows, nothing will come of the investigation. come of the investigation.

The selection of Whitelaw Reid and his brother-in-law, Ogden Mills, to be respectively special ambassador and secretary to the ambassador to represent respectively special ambassador and secretary to the ambasador to represent the United States at the Queen's jublice ceremonies in London, is another indication of Mr. McKinley's disposition to cater to the wealthy. Whitelaw Reid, thanks to his father-in-law's money and some never very clearly explained business manipulations, acquired a controlling interest in the paper established by Horace Greely, and later by political trickery got. Levi P. Morton turned down by the Republican national convention and himself substituted for Benjamin Harrison's running mate in his last campaign. These may be reasons why he should be especially honored, but why Mr. Mills, who has never been anything but an idde society man, should be honored is inexplainable on any other ground than that of moneyworkly at the period. on any other ground than that of mone worship on the part of Mr. McKinley

The Republican steering committee it the senate is slowly but surely undoing the work of the sub-committee that pre-pared the amendments to the Dingle-tariff bill, and by the time the bill get throught the senate the rate of dutie aposed therein will average almost on hite as high as the Dingley bill. The ax on tea and the increased tax on bee are doomed, and we are likely to have an internal revenue tax on bank checks, mortgages, etc., in their places, unless the Republicans get frightened out of the idea by protests,

From all directions come authentic news of a change in sentiment since last November. For instance, S. W. M. Petters, of West Virginia, said: "West Virginia cast its electorial vote for Me-Virginia cast its electorial vote for McNormal Schweiter Cheese Sandwiches, fail to cast their vote for Bryan, if the opportunity were again presented. The next legislature will be strongly Demo-cratic, and a Democrat will be chosen to succeed Senator Faulkner."
Sardines, Etc.

many times more if the bill becomes law in anything like its present shape, but they are already engaged in taking part of their profits.

Sugar has risen considerably in anticipation of greatly increased duties, and merchants all over the country are laying in stores because still higher prices are expected. The Sugar trust is consequently busy and rolling up profits. In April it imported 757,799,527 pounds of raw sugar, valued at $\frac{41}{3}$, 474, 139. An extra profit of one-half cent per pound on this amount—which is already realized or guaranteed—means nearly $\frac{2}{3}$4,000,000 to the trust.

If the bill is two months longer is its passage, the trust will surely pocket $\frac{2}{3}$10,000,000 extra profits before the bill becomes law. Who says protection is not a good thing? And why shouldn't Senator Aldrich push it along and in turn get his street railway syndicates pushed along by the Sugar trust? In't this reciprocity? Wouldn't Aldrich be an Ingrate if he should desert his friends and backers when he has an opportunity to help them? ty to help them?

Why Dingley Rates Are So High.

Afraid to open your chops about the McKinley bill before the election, having won, you are out-Heroding Herod, out-McKinleying McKinley, because the men who furnished the money to carry the election are relentless task-masters, elamorous for their remuneration. They have such ravenous appetites that you have been compelled to make the rates higher than in the McKinley bill. Let this not be forgotten, inscribe it on the tablets of your memory. Be it known that the average tariff tax under the McKinley bill was 49.58 per cent ad valorem; under the Wilson-Gorman bill, 39.94 per cent, and under the Dingley bill, 57.03 per cent. Hence the average rate of taxation on something like 4,000 articles of every day consumption is 8 per cent higher under the Dingley bill than under McKinley's law, and 17 per cent higher than under the Wilson-Gorman bill. Her Class. Why Dingley Rates Are So High. law, and 17 per cent higher than under the Wilson-Gorman bill.—Hon. Champ Clark in Congress.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

opportunity were again presented. The next legislature will be strongly Democratic, and a Democrat will be chosen to succeed Senator Faulines.

Speaker Reed's readiness to reverse rulings made by him as speaker and opinions given by him as speaker and opinions given by him as speaker and parliamentary law would be amusing, if the matter was not of too serious an anture to be so regarded. Whatever standing as 'an authority on parliamentary rules and practice Mr. Reed had previous to the present session of congress, has been lost by his decisions, which have made it plain that he recognizes nothing higher than his own will in making decisions. Heretofore many people who disagreed with Mr. Reed's parliamentary rulings in many particulars have been willing to give him eredit for conscientious belief in them himself, but they are not now.

T. G. Peyton, a well-known Virginin Gold Democrat, thus sizes upthe present situation: "It seems to me now that those of us who contributed to the success of the Republican ticket have been the victims of the confidence game. As I view it now, a very great mistake was made last November. It would have been much better for the country to have elected Mr. Bryan. I am satisfied that if Bryan had been elected the country would have recovered more quickly from the ills that have afflitted it."
