WORKING FOR CHRIST.

SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION HELD BY THE TRI-COUNTY UNION.

The Christian Endeavorers' Tenth Yearly Convention held on Friday—Large Attendance and Earnest Attention Manifested by the Delegates.

The Christian Endeavor societies of Luzerne, Lackawanna and Wyoming counties, composing the Tri-County Union, held their annual convention in Freeland on Friday. Delegates from nearly every town in the three counties where there are branches of the union located, were present, and numbered several hundred. The convention was carried on with admirable success. All of the sessions were largely attended, the work done was peculiarly appropriate to Christian Endeavor aims, and the subjects were treated and the addresses delivered in an able manner.

The work of the convention was divided into three sessions. The day sessions were held at St. John's Reformed church and the evening session at the Grand opera house. This morning session was opened with a prayer by Rev. J. J. Kuntz, of St. Luke's Lutheran church. Rev. J. W. Bischoff, of Upper Lehigh, warmly welcomed the delegates, and President J. C. Manning, of Pittston, responded. The session was mainly taken up with the business of the union. The reports of Secretary C. E. Daniels, of Scranton, and Treasurer A. W. Brittain, of Freeland, showed the union to be in good standing financially and continually growing.

Prof. and Mrs. Lowe, of Philadelphia, sang together sweetly and solemnly and their work was highly appreciated by the delegates and others who attended. Rev. T. A. Mills, of Wilkesbarre, delivered the convention sermon. Dr. Mills proved to be an able speaker and did full justice to the part assigned him.

The afternoon session comprised the real business of the convention, and the church was taxed to its utmost to accommodate the large crowd in attendance. Rev. S. Cooper, of St. Paul's Primitive Methodist church, opened the session, after which Prof. and Mrs. Lowe, assisted by the delegates and others, sang. B. F. Armstrong, of Wilkesbarre, superintendent of the Luzerne County Bible Society, spoke on "Essential Preparation for Service." Mr. Armstrong showed the efficacy of prayer at all times, and urged more sincere and earnest effort to carry out that part of their pledge which relates to reading the bible every day.

"Essential Part of Christian Endeavor" was the subject of a paper treated by Miss Margaret Morgan, of Wilkesbarre. Miss Morgan's paper was one of the most brilliant of the day and was full of instruction to the delegates. Christian endeavor, from Miss Morgan's point of view, did not consist solely of mere society work, but it had a broader and more liberal meaning which was the instilling of Christian fervor into all great movements of public and private importance, and the particular necessity of more earnest work along the lines of good citizenship and honest government.

The Upper Lehigh Juniors, under the leadership of Superintendent Hoover, conducted a meeting similar to the manner in which they hold their services every Sunday afternoon. The meeting showed the Juniors to be well trained.

Ex-President Thomas F. Wells, of Scranton, and Rev. C. I. Junkin, of Philadelphia, who were to address the convention, did not appear, and James J. H. Hamilton, of Scranton, opened a question box. Among the questions submitted were the following: "Is the Christian Endeavor pledge in conflict with the pledge taken on entering the church?" "Is the Christian Endeavor pledge superfluous?" "What is the best way to have societies pay monthly dues?" "Should names of delinquents be carried on the rolls of societies?" "What are the causes of lukewarmness in societies?" "What is the condition of a church without a Christian Endeavor Society?" "Is the Christian Endeavor Society considered a stepping-stone to the church?" "What will be the ultimate future of the Christian Endeavor movement?" The questions were answered by Mr. Hamilton, and suggestions on the various topics were made by the pastors and delegates.

Ten minutes were devoted to the pastors to speak of the good done by young people's societies. Several responded within the allotted time, all approving of the societies in the heartiest manner. The nominating committee reported a list of officers, which owing to some declinations was referred for consideration to the evening session. The session closed with consecration service by Chas. G. Richards, a student of Princeton university, and singing by the convention.

One of the largest gatherings ever assembled in the Grand opera house was present at the evening session, which opened with prayer by Rev. R. E. Wilson, of the Methodist Episcopal church. The Freeland Glee Club rendered several selections which were highly enjoyed.

The nominating committee reported the following officers, who were elected unanimously: President, Rev. E. Flack, Plymouth; vice president, Rev. J. J. Wagner, Hazleton; secretary, Miss Della P. Evans, Scranton; treasurer, Jos. J. Shaw, Freeland; superintendent of good citizenship work, James J. H. Hamilton, Scranton; superintendent of evangelistic work, Rev. W. F. Gibbons, Dunmore; superintendent of junior work, Mrs. J. C. Campbell, Wilkesbarre; executive committee: J. C. Manning, Miss Louisa Stark, R. M. Grosser, Rev. T. A. Mills, of Wilkesbarre and Parker Price, of Hazleton, were selected by the nominating committee for the presidency and secretaryship respectively, but declined owing to lack of time to devote to the duties of the offices.

Owing to the lateness of the arrival of Rev. Dr. Wayland Hoyt, of Philadelphia, the speaker of the evening, Rev. J. W. Bischoff was called upon to address the convention. Rev. Bischoff made a telling address, showing the humble origin of the Christian Endeavor movement and tracing its gradual spread over the whole world.

Prof. and Mrs. Lowe and the delegates sang several times, and the newly-elected president was introduced by the retiring president, Mr. Manning. Rev. Flack was warmly received and made a favorable impression.

Soon Rev. Hoyt arrived and addressed the convention on the subject of "Vanquishing." The subject was happily chosen, and the vanquishing of those things which have a tendency to lower and degrade the human race was treated by Dr. Hoyt in a manner which could not be other than beneficial to all his hearers. He also gave many good suggestions on vanquishing evil thoughts from the mind. He was at times humorous and his practical illustration of how a man should not conduct himself at a Christian Endeavor meeting was highly appreciated. He held the closest attention of his audience throughout.

The convention closed with prayer by Rev. Hoyt and singing by the audience. The local society was fully alive to the comfort of the visiting delegates, and the latter had none but words of praise for the manner in which they were treated during their stay here.

JEDDO NEWS.

Anthony McNelis is on jury duty this week.

David Renshaw, Jr., and Miss Lillie Petch will wed on Thursday.

The 5.30 Lehigh Valley passenger train struck and killed a cow at Pink Ash crossing Saturday afternoon.

The marriage of Thomas McLaughlin, of Freeland, and Miss Ellen Sweeney, an estimable young lady of this place, will be solemnized at St. Ann's church next Wednesday.

A valuable mule had its leg broken in No. 5 colliery on Thursday by having it caught between a loaded car and a door frame. The animal was immediately shot to relieve its sufferings.

Announcement has been made of the coming wedding of our former townsman, Dominic Timony, to Miss Sophia Boyle, of Freeland. Mr. T. is one of the Traction Company's most popular conductors and a host of friends wish him and his prospective bride good luck.

A boisterous Hun from Highland was here for his pay on Saturday. He became involved in a quarrel with a fellow-countryman and was arrested by Constable Dornbach. When last heard of he was on his way to Freeland lock-up, having been committed by Squire Shovlin.

DRIFTON ITEMS.

Miss Sarah Coyle, of Harleigh, was a visitor here yesterday.

Mrs. James Brennan, of Onedia, called on friends here last week.

The breaker will work four five-hour shifts this week. Wednesday and Saturday will be idle.

Charles Hoffman, a son of A. Hoffman, of No. 2, fell off a fence and broke his arm Saturday evening.

Alfred Widdick, who is employed in the machine shops, had the top of one of his fingers taken off last week by having it caught in a machine.

A large delegation of sports from Mauch Chunk witnessed the ball game here yesterday. Among them were the manager of the Carbon team and Pitcher Luckey.

Lewis Ortnor, one of the students at Lehigh university, Bethlehem, was awarded second prize in mathematics, freshman class, at the commencement exercises last week. The prize was $10.

UPPER LEHIGH NOTES.

Dr. H. M. Neale is in Philadelphia today.

Guy S. Hoover has accepted a position as local editor of the Mt. Carmel Item.

Charles Keenan was slightly hurt in the mines on Thursday by falling rock.

Work at the shaft has been suspended until July 1. In the meantime a large hoisting engine will be placed in position.

Rev. J. W. Bischoff will preside at the installation services at White Haven on June 30, when the pastor of the Presbyterian church of that town will take formal charge.

BRIEF ITEMS.

Miss Annie Sensenbach, of Freeland, has been appointed a teacher in the Mt. Carmel public schools.

Cherries are beginning to ripen in Butler Valley, and several fine basketfuls were brought to town yesterday.

The Republican state convention will be held at Harrisburg August 28. The Democrats will meet at Reading on August 31.

Mountain Park has been engaged by eighty-nine organizations for the coming season. Several will be there on the same dates.

The directors of the Young Men's Christian Association, of Hazleton, have secured a secretary for that city in the person of C. N. Chase, of Lewistown, Me.

Dr. G. W. Stinchcomb, whose resignation as assistant to Dr. Kalb was noted some time ago, has left for his home in Ohio. He is succeeded by Dr. Richards, of Jeddo.

The Cross Creek Coal Company is determined to prevent the dumping of garbage on their land without permission. A contractor of town was arrested for this offense on Friday and fined $5 and costs.

Mauch Chunk people are not pleased at the recent action of the Valley Company in taking so many engines from the round house in that town. A Freeland firm which ships goods there has been requested to send its freight over the Jersey Central to its Mauch Chunk patrons.

James Gallagher, of town, and Miss Bridget Malloy, of Carbondale, were married on Saturday morning at St. Ann's church by Rev. M. J. Fallheer. Patrick Gallagher and Miss Cassie Gallagher were groomsmen and bridesmaids. The young couple will reside at Carbondale.

The Democratic Wächter, for many years owned and published by Robert Bauer at Wilkesbarre, has been purchased by Herman Barring and will pass into the latter's control July 1. This paper was established in 1842. It was Democratic until last year, when it advocated the gold doctrine.

BASE BALL DOTS.

Sandy Run lost to Upper Lehigh last week, 23 to 7.

The Fearnots and Stars will play at Drifton on Sunday and Hazleton at Lattimer.

Ed. Gaffney, of town, played rightfield on Saturday for Holy Cross college team, of Worcester, Mass., and helped to defeat Harvard university by a score of 6 to 2.

Teams from the Drifton boiler shop and the blacksmith shop met Saturday afternoon and the former won, 11 to 6. The victors will play the machinists next Saturday.

At Drifton yesterday the Fearnots had their own way with Hazleton club. The league leaders found their opponents easy in every respect and won the game without much effort. The score was 24 to 8.

Mauch Chunk club came in first in the voting contest of the Philadelphia Press, to determine the most popular amateur ball team. The prize consists of a complete uniform outfit. Mauch Chunk won by over 20,000 votes.

The Stars and Lattimer played a listless game at the park yesterday. The Stars batted the ball hard all through the game, compelling Lattimer to place Brislin, Boyle, Ryan and Costello in the box. The latter took Ryan's place in the last inning, Ryan having thrown his arm out of place. The score was 19 to 12 in the Stars' favor.

Anthracite league clubs stand as follows:

Club	Won	Lost	Percentage
Drifton	5	2	.714
Freeland	4	3	.571
Hazleton	3	4	.429
Lattimer	2	4	.333

AGED WOMAN KILLED ON SATURDAY.

While on her way from Freeland to Drifton, to visit relatives in the latter town, on Saturday, Mrs. Mary O'Donnell, of Washington street, was struck by a Lehigh Valley passenger train and instantly killed. She was walking along the railroad track, which shortens the distance considerably between the two towns, and when at a point about sixty feet below the Traction Company's crossing the Wilkesbarre train which left here at 2.34 o'clock came along. The whistle of the engine, the ringing of the bell and the shouts of people on a trolley car apparently bewildered the aged lady. She stepped from the track, but immediately returned and was struck by the forepart of the engine, which threw her to one side. When picked up life was extinct.

Deputy Coroner Bowman, of Hazleton, viewed the scene of the accident on Saturday evening and decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

Mrs. O'Donnell resided with her son, Michael C. J., and besides him is survived by a married daughter in Bristol. Her age is stated to be 59 years. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, followed by a requiem mass at St. Ann's church. The interment will be made in St. Ann's cemetery.

ORDINATION OF DAVID M. EVANS.

On Saturday last a council of ordination convened at the Welsh Baptist church at Audenried to consider the propriety of ordaining to the work of the ministry Mr. D. M. Evans. The council was organized by electing Rev. D. L. Evans, of Shenandoah, chairman, and Rev. Spaulding, of Hazleton, clerk. After thorough examination of the candidate respecting his conversion, his call to the ministry and his views of Christian doctrine, the council recommended him for ordination. The ordination services were held at 6 p. m., in the church, as follows: Sermon, Rev. D. L. Evans, from 1st Corinthians 309; ordination prayer, with the laying on of hands and charge to the church, Rev. J. T. Griffith, of Freeland; hand of fellowship and charge to the candidate, Rev. C. A. Spaulding; benediction by the candidate. Mr. Evans starts out under favorable prospects and his success is wished for by a great number of friends on the North Side.

ELEVEN RIOTERS ARRESTED LAST NIGHT.

Late last night a fight was started at Centre and South streets, the combatants being Hungarians and Magyars. The melee was furious for awhile, and finally developed into a stone fight, the large quantity of crushed stone at that point furnishing lots of ammunition. Officers Boyle and Kennedy, assisted by several citizens, bagged eight of the rioters and placed them behind the bars. Later Burgess Gallagher gave them a hearing. One man paid $7.50 for his liberty and the other seven are doing time. Constable Kennedy, of Hazleton, captured three more of the participants a short distance out of town and took them to Hazleton. During the racket a trolley car was struck several times with stones.

PAROCHIAL SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.

Tomorrow evening the annual entertainment given by the scholars and music pupils of St. Ann's parochial school will be held at the Grand opera house. Previous entertainments by these pupils have been so successful that the public intuitively felt that this year's exercises would be no exception, and the seats were nearly all disposed of as soon as placed on sale. The entertainment will be repeated on Thursday evening, and tickets for the second night can be had at Woodring's store. The pupils will have a complete rehearsal of the programme at the opera house this afternoon.

CANDIDATE FOR PROTHONOTARY.

The card of Paul Dasch, of Upper Lehigh, announcing himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination of prothonotary, appears in today's issue. Mr. Dasch proposes to make an earnest and sincere effort to obtain the nomination, and if successful he will put up a manly fight for the success of the entire ticket. He has a good record as a worker for his party, and his years of service entitle him to a place on this year's ticket. With his nomination a campaign of unusual strength can be planned and the county redeemed from the Republican ring which is misruling it.

FELL DOWN A FLIGHT OF STEPS.

Mary, the eight-year-old daughter of James Halpin, of Ridge street, met with an accident Thursday afternoon. She is a pupil at the parochial school and while waiting for her class to rehearse their part of the entertainment she fell down the Grand opera house balcony steps, fourteen in all. When picked up the little one was unconscious and remained so for some time after removal to her home. Her head and body were severely bruised by the fall. She is recovering rapidly and will probably take part in the performance tomorrow evening. Her escape from serious injury was a narrow one.

DOINGS AT HARRISBURG.

LEGISLATORS AGREE TO ADJOURN ON THE FIRST OF JULY.

However, Less Than One-Half the Necessary Work of the Session is Completed, and the Date May Be Changed—The Revenue Muddle.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 18, 1897.

Last week I made mention of the decision of Judge Hanna, of Philadelphia, on the new direct inheritance tax. He bases his decision on the fact that the law exempts $5,000 of inherited property from taxation and holds that this exemption is an infraction of that clause of the constitution which declares that "all taxes shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects." To overcome this defect in the bill, a new measure was introduced in the house. It strikes out the $5,000 clause and makes all inherited property taxable. The bill comes up for final passage in the house this week, then goes to the senate, where it will be hurried through as fast as possible, so that the governor can sign it. This amendment, it is thought, will settle definitely the constitutionality of the measure. The former measure was expected to raise a million and a half of revenue annually and this amendment added will increase it to two millions.

Last Monday evening a resolution was offered in the senate, setting July 1 as the time for final adjournment. The resolution passed and was sent to the house, where it was promptly passed. Later in the evening it was seen that a mistake had been made, and a resolution was offered reconsidering the motion, but it was lost. As it stands now July 1 will be the end, but it is generally understood this will be changed to July 15.

The senate, as usual, on Thursday adjourned, with leave of the house, until Monday; when the request was made of the house it unanimously objected. The house followed this up by refusing to concur in the senate amendment to the Hamilton road bill, reducing the appropriation from $1,000,000 to $500,000. It the senate does not recede from its former decision, the bill will be sent to a conference committee for adjustment.

Since the governor's message has been received, in which he opposes increased taxes, the question naturally arises where is the increased revenue to come from. It is the thought of those who are expected to suggest and conduct revenue legislation that the state income could be materially increased by passing laws that certain taxes now turned into county treasuries be diverted entirely to the state treasury. For instance, there is the personal property and interest taxes and the license fees. If these formed part of the state revenue the income would be very considerable and would relieve the state very much. In all probability something of this nature will be tried during the remaining weeks of the session. This would raise revenue for the state, without increasing state taxation, but the money returned to and used by the counties would have to be replaced and more than likely by increased taxes from other sources. The counties would then be held responsible for increasing taxes and not the state.

Unless the session is extended beyond the time fixed, many important bills will have to be dropped. None of the appropriation bills have been reported and experienced legislators say it is absolutely impossible to bring them out in time for final consideration before July 1. Both bodies are anxious to get away, they agree that final adjournment should be postponed, yet neither body is anxious to assume the responsibility.

Governor Hastings has signed the act of assembly to prevent wearing of any badge or button of any labor or fraternal organization without right to do so by membership. The act provides that any person who shall do so shall be subject to a fine of $100.

The governor has also signed the bill to prohibit the adulteration or coloring of milk or cream by the addition of so-called preservatives or coloring matter. The penalty for this is a fine not exceeding $100. He has also signed the acts regulating lunacy commissioners; authorizing state banks to pay interest on demand certificates; regulating location of hospitals, cemeteries and pest houses in second-class cities; regulating time of suits against sureties of constables; validating certain school district debts, and the act requiring that all corporations, associations, companies, firms or individuals employing persons who are not citizens of the United States shall, upon the receipt of a written notice from the tax collector of the district, deduct from the wages of such employes a sum sufficient to pay the respective amounts of taxes assessed against each and pay it to the collectors of the district in which said aliens are employed within sixty days after notice; also the amended dog tax bill, the act amending the school law to allow use of school books in vacation and providing for the ascertainment of damages for streets taken for opening.
