EIGHT HOURS EACH DAY.

BORO LABORERS AND MECHANICS MUST WORK NO LONGER.

Persons Employed by the State and Municipal Corporations Have a Limit Set Upon the Number of Hours They Shall Tolerate for a Day's Pay.

The Farr eight-hour law, mention of which was made in the last issue of the TRIBUNE, is given below in full. Inas- much as it affects the employment of all mechanics and laborers in the borough, it will likely prove of considerable inter- est to many of our citizens. It will be noted that the law applies not only to persons employed directly by the municipality, but also to persons em- ployed by any one doing contract work for the same, and that it prohibits the employment on public work of all except resident citizens or those who have declared their intentions to become citi- zens. The text of the bill is as follows:

"An act to regulate the hours of mechanics, workmen and laborers in the employ of the state or municipal corporations therein or otherwise engaged on public works.

"Section 1. It is hereby enacted that on and after the passage of this act eight hours out of the twenty-four of each day shall make and constitute a legal day's work for mechanics, work- men and laborers in the employ of the state or any municipal corporation, there- in or otherwise engaged in public works.

"Sec. 2. This act shall apply to all mechanics, workmen and laborers now or hereafter employed by the state or any municipal corporation therein, through its agents or officers or in the employ of persons contracting with the state or said corporation for the per- formance of public work, and in all such employment none but citizens of the United States or aliens, who shall have legally declared their intention to be- come such, who have been residents of the municipality in which such work is done for six months next preceding the date of such employment, shall be em- ployed by the state or any municipal corporation therein or by any person or persons contracting with the same, and every contract hereafter made for the performance of public work must com- ply with the requirements of this sec- tion. Provided, that nothing in this act shall affect contracts in existence at the time of the passage of this act.

"Sec. 3. Any officer or officers or agents of the state or any municipal corporation therein who shall willfully violate or otherwise evade the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of malfeasance in office, and upon conviction thereof may be removed by the governor, or head of the department, to which said officer is attached.

"Sec. 4. Any persons or persons con- tracting with the state or any municipal corporation therein, and any officer or agent of state or any municipal corpora- tion therein, who shall fail to comply with or attempt to evade the provisions of this act, shall, on conviction there- of, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine not exceeding $10,000."

MURDER AT BEAVER MEADOW. An Austrian Brutally Beats a Fellow-Countryman to Death.

The details of a shocking drunken fight, in which Alexandro Martini killed Andrew Albertini at Beaver Meadow on Thursday night, were made known on Friday. The murder is said to have been caused by a love affair. Both were born in Austria. Thursday was pay day, and in the evening the foreign element imbibed freely. The Austrians met in a saloon, and while at first no manifestations of animosity cropped out they became involved in a heated discus- sion and attracted the attention of those in the place.

From the saloon the men went to a boarding house, and it was here that the crime was committed. Albertini during the violent brawl was struck on the head with the butt end of a shotgun in the hands, it is said, of Martini and his brains were knocked out. He was dragged out on the street in the dark- ness and while praying for mercy was clubbed so severely that his cries were not heard for more than a few minutes. The brains were strewn about on the pavement and the head of the dead man presented a most horrible sight.

The intelligent people of the town were not at once acquainted with the facts of the affair and Martini escaped at midnight. Follow-countrymen insti- tuted a search, but they supposed that the alleged murderer had remained in Beaver Meadow, which he did not, for he made for Hazleton, where he was seen next morning.

The police on Friday commenced a search. Sheriff Setzer, of Carbon coun- ty, was on the ground, too, but no trace of the supposed murderer was discov- ered. Neither he nor his alleged victim is over 25 years old.

Martini was arrested at Hazle Brook Friday night and taken to Mauch Chunk jail.

On Friday night Charles Burkhardt, of Harwood, stepped from a D. S. & S. train at the Lumber Yard. Coal and Iron Policeman John Cook, who was prowling about the vicinity in search of the murderer, saw him and when he failed to stand the officer fired and sent a bullet into the young man's right hip. Burkhardt was taken to Hazleton hospi- tal, where the ball was removed. Cook is roundly censured for being too free with his gun.

Girl Elopee With an Arabian.

One of the most singular elopement or abduction cases on record in this county is that of fifteen-year-old Mary Kearney, of Wilkesbarre, and John Saba, aged 35, a native of Arabia, to whom she was wedded at Phillipsburg, N. J., Thursday evening. Mary's father is John T. Kearney, a well-known grocer at the county seat. The elopement caused a great sensation, and the Kearney family is heartbroken over her disappearance. Mary is attractive and accomplished, and had but recently returned from Bloomsburg Normal School. Thursday morning her mother prevailed upon her to visit friends at Plainville for a few days, and the girl's sister saw her get on the Plainville car. That was the last seen of the girl by her friends.

John Saba, the eloping bridegroom, was employed by Mary's father in his grocery business. He had been "casting sheep's eyes" at the child since her re- turn from school, and so, when she dis- appeared he also was not to be found. Mary's parents jumped at the conclusion that she had been abducted.

Friday evening Chief of Police Briggs received a telegram from the police au- thorities at Phillipsburg, N. J., stating that the Arabian and the girl arrived there and were married by the pastor of the Methodist church. The father of the girl and an officer at once started for Bethlehem, and will endeavor to locate the girl and her alleged abductor.

Saba and his wife were found at Beth- lehem on Saturday. The girl was taken home by her father. Saba will begin proceedings to get possession of her.

DROWNED IN A RIVER.

TWO YOUNG MEN OF TOWN GO OVER A DAM AT LAURY'S.

William Roberts and Robert P. Williams ventured too near the danger line at the Pleasure Resort and met death in the Lehigh River Saturday Afternoon.

Luther League excursions were run on Saturday from all parts of the Lehigh Valley to Laury's Island, a beauti- ful picnic ground on the Lehigh river, a few miles this side of Allentown. Free- land sent a large delegation, among them being William Roberts and Robert P. Williams. During the day the young men went boating. Feeling secure of their power to row against the strong current of the river, which at present is more dangerous than usual on account of recent heavy rains, they drifted too close to the dam below the island and were swept over. Many people on the shore saw their danger and called to them before the accident, but when they attempted to turn the boat they were unable to overcome the strength of the water.

The bodies did not rise after going over the dam. An immediate search was instituted and at noon yesterday the corpse of Mr. Roberts was found. It was brought here last evening. The search for the remains of Mr. Williams was continued until 8:30 o'clock last night. At daylight this morning the dragging began again, but up to the time of going to press the work had been without success.

Both men were well-known residents of town and the news of the accident was received here with deep regret for their untimely death.

William Roberts was aged 34 years, 1 month and 28 days. He was born at Cefn Mawr, Wales, and was a son of Jonathan and Mary Roberts. His father resides at Newport, this county, and his mother is buried in Freeland cemetery. He resided at the home of William Jenkins, Centre and Luzerne streets, from which place the funeral will take place at 3 o'clock tomorrow. Services will be held at the residence by Rev. J. T. Griffiths. Interment at Freeland cemetery.

Robert P. Williams resided with his parents, Rice and Jane Williams, on Washington street. He was aged 28 years and 28 days, and was born at Llanddwrog, Carnarvonshire, Wales.
