REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION NAMES ITS CANDIDATES.

Fell Renominated for District Attorney Llewellyn Renominated for Prothono tary, Koons Again for Clerk of Courts Office, Moore for Jury Commissioner.

Office, Moore for Jury Commissioner.

The Republican county convention was held at Wilkesbarre on Tuesday.
The following ticket was nominated:
District attorney, Daniel A. Fell, Wilkesbarre; prothonotary, George J. Llewellyn, Plymouth; clerk of courts, Walter
B. Koons, Wilkesbarre; jury commissioner, James W. Moore, Slocum township.

lyn, Plymouth; clerk of courts, Walter B. Koons, Wilkesbarre; jury commissioner, James W. Moore, Slocum township.

The convention was the most harmonious held by the party for some years past. The ticket nominated was slated by the leaders, and though strong efforts were made to break the combination the attempt failed. A stiff fight was waged against the nominees on the ground that a ticket composed of office-holders would be a weak one to place before the voters, but this argument failed to influence the delegates. Fell and Llewellyn are at present occupying the offices for which they are nominated, while Koons was until recently chief clerk of the office to which he aspires.

After the convention organized with C. L. Wilde as chairman, the contest from the third district of Freeland borough was considered. It was decided in favor of Genero Bonomo, who was given the seat claimed by A. L. Riley.

When the preliminary business of the convention was disposed of, the nominations for district attorney were received. George Urquhart named D. A. Fell and Daniel Kline placed J. M. Carr's name before the delegates. Both speeches were very good. Charles E. Keck, who had been a candidate until Tuesday morning, occupied some time explaining why he withdrew. When the balloting began the tendency appeared to be towards Fell, and before the roll-call was completed Mr. Carr withdrew and Fell was given the nomination by acclamation.

The resolutions adopted endorse the St. Louis platform, as well as the platform adopted at Harrisburg, denounce President Cleveland for the abuse of the civil service law and endorse the administration of President McKinley. Thanks are extended to Congressman Williams for the interest shown in the welfare of his constituents. Senators Quay and Penrose are extended thanks for the interest they have taken to secure a public building for Wilkesbarre. The actions of State Senators Scott and Vaughn and Representatives Roberts, Coray, Miller, Powell and Riley in the last legislature were indorsed.

The support of the party was pledged to the state ticket and the county candidates, and Hon. John Leisenring's candidacy for governor received a hearty endorsement. The resolutions deplore the present conflict between labor and capital in various parts of the state and hope that some plan may be adopted to speedly adjust all trouble.

Arrangements were made to fill yacancles that may occur on the ticket, and to establish permanent headquarters for the party at the county seat.

that popular barrister, P. A. O'Boyle. Everybody conceded that Mr. O'Boyle was the man for the place, but he was carried down to defeat by the swift current which was then running against the Democratic party. Under the circumstances it made no difference who his opponent was, he was bound to be elected. Mr. Fell was fortunate enough to secure the Republican nomination and his election followed. He was the creature of good luck, as it were.

But, like most men, Mr. Fell loves power. A taste of public offlice has filled him with a desire for more, and more he will have if it is in the wood. But he is not going to have the free sailing he had in the campaign of 1894. Then he was on the defensive. Now he will have to assume an aggressive position. he was on the defensive. Now he will have to assume an aggressive position. He will have to give the voters an account of his stewardship for the past three years and tell them on what ground he expects another lease of official life. Will he be able to convince the voters of Luzerne county that he is entitled to a second term? We think not. He has been tried and found wanting. The next district attorney will be a Democrat.

entitled to a second term? We think not. He has been tried and found wanting. The next district attorney will be a Democrat.

George Llewellyn, the nominee for prothonotary, was swept into office with Fell on the Republican tidal wave three years ago. He has not given satisfaction in his office. Charges have been repeatedly made, and not contradicted, that the office is run in a slipshod manner. Controller Lloyd is now supposed to be at work investigating some of the charges made. As weak as Fell is, Llewellyn is still weaker.

The throw down of Wagner for Koons will be resented by the former's friends. If Fell and Llewellyn were entitled to a renomination, so was Wagner. The latter administered the affairs of his office with ability and good judgment. If merit counted for anything, then Mr. Wagner was deserving of better treatment at the hands of the convention.

One of the strongest men who could have been named for jury commissioner—Ed. A. Morgan—was ignored. That will not help the ticket, either.

On the whole we think the ticket is a weak one and if the Democratic source.

Democratic State Convention.

The Democratic state convention was held at Reading on Tuesday. By a vote of 290 to 124 W. F. Harrity was deposed from the national committee, and Colonel Jāmes M. Guffey, of Pittsburg, was selected to fill the vacancy. The convention was a spirited one at the morning session and turbulence and disorder was the rule.

The trouble in the morning grew out of an attempt made by the Harrity followers, led by John T. Lenahan, to wrest control of the conventien from the legally-elected officers. An organized raid was made on the platform and several free fights ensued. The Reading police finally quelled the disturbers and most of the rioters were hustled out. state treasurer. The ticket is considered a strong one, and stands squarely upon the Chicago platform, with state issues added.

The only flutter of the proceedings in the afternoon was the report of the committee on resolutions, in which was a plank affirming the action of the executive committee and the state central committee in deposing Harrity. A Philadelphian offered a minority report which created much disorder and confusion. After order was restored it was

School Board Meeting.

The borough school board met last evening with Messrs, McCarthy, Sweeney, Timony Johnson and Ferry present. John M. Carr, Esq., on behalf of the Hummelstown Brownstone Company, notified the board that Contractor Riebe owed $1,000 on account of the stone which was furnished for the Daniel Cove school. President McCarthy claimed that the part of the contract relating to the stone work was not fulfilled by Mr. Riebe and advised that at least 15 per cent of the amount due on stone work be retained. The board adopted the suggestion. The following bills were ordered paid: TRIBUNN, printing notices, 50e; William Birkbeck, supplies, 60e; John Murrin, labor, $1. A bill from the Kress Stationary Company was laid over.

Status of the Strike.

The striking employes of VanWickle & Co., at Coleraine, are still out. They have refused to accept the proposition submitted to them by Superintendent Roderick and are determined that operations shall not be resumed until all their grievances are adjusted. At Milnesville the men agreed last night to go to work, a compromise having been effected by the officials and the men. An advance in wages was granted to laborers and breaker hands, and the company batcher and company store questions were laid over until the head of the firm returns home. It is believed the Coleraine men will march again on Milnesville and shut it down.

On account of the slowness of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre officials in investigating the complaints of the employes, the men became suspicious, and on Monday work was stopped again at all of the company's South Side collieries, Several conferences have been held since, but a settlement has not yet been reached. The situation is becoming serious for this company, as the men are gradually growing bitter against the officials for their apparent laxity in considering the grievances.

There is some talk that the strike may spread to this side in a short while, but nothing definite can be given.
