STRIKE IS SPREADING.

SEVERAL NORTH SIDE COLLIERIES TIED UP THIS WEEK.

Drifton Employees Met Last Night and Presented Their Grievances This Morning—Troops Sent to This Side Yesterday. Situation Since the Massacre.

The strike situation is becoming more complicated every day. The entire South Side, except Coleraine, where the demands of the men were granted, is still out. These mines are now idle: Coxe Bros. & Co., Eckley, Beaver Meadow and Onedia, about 2,000 men; Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company's Honey Brook and Audenried mines, about 2,500; Frank Pardee's Cranberry and Crystal Ridge, 1,100; Lehigh Valley Coal Company, Hazle Mines, Yorktown, Jenksville and Audenried, 3,000; Calvin Pardee & Co., Lattimer and Harwood, 2,000.

Drifton employees met at the Grand opera house last night, and, after organizing, a committee of ten men was chosen to present at 6:30 a. m. today to Superintendent Smith a scale of wages which they want paid. If a favorable reply is not made by Saturday a general strike will be declared on. Also, if any member of the committee is discharged for taking part in this matter, a strike will follow immediately. The scale, as follows, was presented this morning:

Miners' wages, $2.10; laborers' wages, $1.60; Big vein, car price, 80c; team drivers, four mules, $1.75; two mules, $1.50; single mule, $1.25; car runners, $1.60; patchers, $1; door tenders, 75c; hitches, $1.60; stripping miners, $1.60; stripping laborers, $1.25; breaker men, $1; breaker boys, 50c; platform men, $1.35; outside men, $1.35; engineers, $1.75; head firemen, $1.60; helpers, $1.40; ash wheelers, $1.25; pumpmen, $1.60; company, timber and road men, $1.60. A reduction in price of coal to $2 per load, including hauling, and of powder to $2 per keg is also asked.

STRIKES ON THE NORTH SIDE.

On Monday Coxe Bros. employees at Buck Mountain marched to Eckley and induced the men there to quit work. Both places are now idle. Increases of from 10 to 25 per cent are asked. On Tuesday the collieries were paid, and all the leaders, as well as several who took no active part in causing operations to be suspended, were discharged by Superintendent Kudick and ordered to immediately vacate the company's dwellings.

On Tuesday the Eckley men marched to Highland No. 2 to call out the employees of Markle & Co. They were met by John Markle, who promised that any grievances of his men would be promptly remedied, and this was accepted, the Eckley men dispersing with no attempt to insist upon an immediate settlement.

At Upper Lehigh the same day the slate pickers went out for an advance. This was promised them. Immediately after No. 5 drivers stopped work. An increase was also granted them and they returned to their mines. Drivers are to get $1.66 and patchers 90 cents per day.

On Monday evening Jeddo employees to the number of 300 met at Japan school house, formulated their grievances and sent the same to Markle & Co. They decided to work until Saturday and if a favorable reply is not received by that time they will cease work. They ask for an increase of wages and the price of powder and mine supplies to be reduced.

MILITIA HAS NOTHING TO DO.

The 3,000 troops in the region have absolutely nothing to do. There has been no disturbance of any nature, and the soldiers are already tiring of camp life and are anxious to go home. The first appearance of the militia on the North Side was on Tuesday, when the City Troop, of Philadelphia, and the Governor's Troop, of Harrisburg, rode from Hazleton to Eckley and return, passing through Drifton and Jeddo.

Yesterday amid a lot of bluster and warlike preparations the Fourth regiment, 500 strong, arrived in Drifton over the D. S. & S. and pitched their tents in Drifton ball park.

Several of the soldiers have been arrested for drunkenness in the several camps. Their uniforms were promptly taken off them and they were sent home in disgrace.

On Tuesday Major General Snowden, state commander of the National Guard, accompanied by Adjutant General Stewart and other officers and were taken through the region over the D. S. & S. No arrangements whatever have yet been made in regard to sending the troops away. General Gobin says: "The troops will not leave for some time. It will be a week or ten days before any go, and then a detachment will be kept for any emergency case which may arise."

SAYS HESS GAVE THE ORDER.

Gradually the mystery which surrounded the starting of the firing by the deputies is clearing away. The testimony of disinterested witnesses is coming out and helps to place the responsibility on the proper parties. Andrew F. Adams, an agent for baking powder, on Monday was in Wilkesbarre and gave the Leader the following version, which is corroborated by others who were there:

"I took the Milnesville car to go back to Hazleton. This took me to Lattimer. At the junction the deputies got on our car and also crowded another special car. Hess seemed to be leading the men. He showed them how to use the arms and explained the mechanism of the guns while the car was waiting. When we got started the talk was all about shooting, and each man seemed to be eager, especially Hess.

"When we got to the point where the strikers were seen we were about twelve feet higher and they were in a clearing. It was here I expected trouble, as some one said: 'Let's fire into them now.' The car passed on until we got to Lattimer, where the deputies got off. Sheriff Martin was not within fifteen feet of his men at any time after he left the car.

"It was evident from the position of the deputies that they intended to fire and the motorman of our car halted for protection. The strikers came along with the American flag flying from a rough hewn staff, and halted about fifty feet from the armed deputies, who had their guns in their hands. Martin talked about thirty seconds and then stepped back.

"The firing was like the effect produced by setting off a bunch of firecrackers. Hess commanded the firing and gave orders until it ceased. He is the man who seemed to be in authority. The terror-stricken men passed our car and many dropped right near it. It was an awful sight to see and I don't want to witness it again.

"Yes," he continued, "Hess was the man who first said fire."

PUBLIC SENTIMENT.

The people of the region have experienced no change of feeling regarding the massacre. It is still looked upon as a cold-blooded murder and the first expressions of sentiment are not likely to be retracted. A concerted and vigorous attempt is being made since the early part of the week by the emissaries of the coal corporations to smooth over the excitement and to induce the public to view the killing of the men as something of no special importance, since all were foreigners. Another ruse, emanating from the same source, and adroitly worked, is to inject a religious and nationality issue into the matter at this time, with the intention of arraying the various elements of the region against one another and thereby break the unanimity that now exists among all workmen.

Both of these schemes are being pushed wherever it is thought they can be used to advantage. To the credit of the community it can be said that so far the plans to whitewash the murder and to stir up religious feeling on the subject have been ignominious failures, and in several instances the agents who are going about dropping the poison have been rebuked with scant courtesy. The contemptible system of espionage which is in vogue in this region prevents those who are under obligations to the coal corporations for their living from freely expressing themselves. The spies, since the trouble began, are sneaking about from group to group, picking up what they can and duly reporting the same to headquarters.

BURYING THE DEAD.

Monday was a day of funerals. Four of the victims had been buried the previous day and it was thought the crowds were large, but Monday's outpouring from every town and hamlet for miles around made the streets of Hazleton almost impassable. Twelve were buried that morning and the corpses were followed to the different churches by thousands of people. Three were buried from St. Peter's Greek Catholic church and nine from St. Stanislaus' Polish church. On Tuesday another was buried from McAdoo Polish church. All the Poles were buried in one plot and a monument is to be erected over them to tell of the massacre.

At the request of General Gobin, the saloons of the city were ordered closed by Mayor Altmiller. No disturbance took place, however, and there were no demonstrations made by the friends of the murdered, other than peacefully following the martyrs to their last resting places.

DEPUTIES CANNOT BE ARRESTED.

By orders of General Gobin the deputies who committed murder at Lattimer on Friday are secure from arrest until the militia leaves. He has prevented the warrants from being served by the constables, basing his action on some decision of Judge Paxson. Many of the deputies have placed themselves inside the military lines for protection, others have patrols of soldiers guarding them in their homes and the remainder of the gang has decamped. Gobin's action is severely denounced, but in order to save the community from a conflict with the militia the civil authorities are biding their time.

The feeling against the deputies has not abated any yet and the determination to prosecute them grows stronger every day. The local men who went out as deputies, but had no hand in the Lattimer affair, are also feeling the disgrace they have brought upon themselves. Respectable people shun them at every turn and even the small boys boot them on the streets.

A Light to Be Moved.

The members of the borough council held an adjourned meeting on Tuesday evening. Messrs. Mulhearn, Miller, Zenany and Meelan were present. The object of the meeting was to take up for third reading the ordinance granting to the Anthracite Telephone Company the right of way through the borough. The ordinance was read for the third time and passed, all the members present voting for it. The secretary was authorized to present it to the burgess for his approval. It was decided to start another manhole at Main and Washington streets. The president stated that he had visited the site of the proposed manhole at Ridge and Walnut streets, and he thought that council could dispense with it by turning the water on Walnut street further west in another direction. If necessary they could purchase a lot and open a street to run north and south from Walnut, and thus dispense with the water from the Hill coming down to Ridge street.

After discussing the matter for some time it was decided that the members of the street committee would view the proposed site for the street and report at the next regular meeting.

A number of persons were present claiming exonerations from dog tax, but no action was taken until the assessor can be seen by the committee appointed by council at its last meeting.

It was decided to have the arc light at the east end of Main street, near the Public Park, removed to Ridge and Luzerne streets by October 1, and the secretary was instructed to notify the Light Company of the decision of council.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Two Millions a Year.

When people buy, try and buy again, it means they're satisfied. The people of the United States are now buying Casarets Candy Cathartic at the rate of two million boxes a year and it will be three million before New Year's. It means merit proved, that Casarets are the most delightful bowel regulator for everybody the year round. All druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c a box, cure guaranteed.

PERSONALITIES.

Rev. John T. Griffiths is attending the fifty-fifth annual anniversary of the Wyoming Baptist Association, which is being celebrated on a large scale at Nanticoke.

John Bellezza, the well-known little shoemaker, will sail this week for Italy. He will return with a bride in December and make Freeland his permanent home.

Hugh O'Donnell, who was one of the leaders in the Homestead strike in 1892, was here on Tuesday, viewing the situation for the Philadelphia Times.

Stephen Drasher and Samuel Forrest represented the Freeland Knights of Mystic Chain in the state convention at Pottstown this week.

Miss Annie McHugh, of Lansford, returned to her home today after spending several weeks with friends.

Miss Cecilia Sweeney, of Mauch Chunk, spent this week in town as the guest of Miss Rose Burke.

Daniel McGeehan leaves tomorrow for Philadelphia, where he will reside for the future.

Captain James B. McKinley, of Philadelphia, is the guest of relatives here.

Miss Mary McGlynn, of Girardville, is calling on friends in town.

Mrs. Bernard Mooney, of Wilkesbarre, is visiting here.

Carbon Republican Convention.

The Republican convention to nominate a county ticket in Carbon was held at Mauch Chunk on Monday. Samuel M. Down, of Mauch Chunk, was named for prothonotary on the fifth ballot. Charles Bensingler, of Weatherly, received the nomination for sheriff on the seventh ballot. Dennis Moyer was named for jury commissioner. The principal fight was on the selection of delegates to the state convention next year. James M. Dreisbach, of Mauch Chunk, and Dr. W. W. Keber, of Lehighton, contested for the honor with George M. Davies, of Lansford, and E. F. Luckenbach, of Mauch Chunk. Dreisbach, a Quaker adherent, and Davies, an anti-Quaker, were elected by narrow margins.

D. C. West, Lansford; Frank White, Weatherly; Isaac UX, Bowmanstown, and H. Dey Lentz, Mauch Chunk, were chosen senatorial conferees. For congressional conferees there were named: J. L. Gable, Lehighton; Dr. C. L. Allen, Beaver Meadow; R. B. Bowden, Nesquehoning, and William Zerby, Mauch Chunk.

Base Ball Next Sunday.

The Tigers play their first game of this season on Sunday at the local park, the famous Cuban Giants opposing them. The home team will be composed of the following artists: Pitchers, Pfrom and McGill; catcher, Culver; shortstop, Broderick; first base, McFadden; second, Bomer; third, Cannon; left field, McGarvey; centre, Gillespie; right, Earley. The colored men will find the above club as swift a set of players as they have met, and the game will undoubtedly be a fine exhibition.

Sermons Attracted Attention.

The Lansford correspondent of the Mauch Chunk Times had the following to say in Monday's issue: "Rev. J. T. Griffiths, of Freeland, yesterday delivered two eloquent sermons in the Baptist church. The Rev. Griffiths is one of those kindly benevolent divines whose voice and manner are an inspiration to do good. His sermons were two of the best ever heard in the Baptist Tabernacle."

Mr. Stroh's Latest Patent.

Abe Stroh, of town, on Tuesday of last week, was granted another patent on his famous grate-bar and shaker. Mr. Stroh has made a wonderful success of his invention since he first introduced it to the attention of users of steam, and his latest improvement, which will make the grate-bar more valuable, shows that the old gentlemen's head still contains many original and profitable ideas.

A man named Belcher died in Dawson City, in the Klondike gold regions, recently, with $25,000 under his pillow and a similar sum due him from a claim. Frank Belcher, of Jermy, Lackawanna county, left for Klondike two years ago and it is known that he was there until recently and friends are inclined to believe that he is the man.

The funeral of Joseph Logan, Jr., of Sandy Run, who was found dead alongside the railroad at Highland on Tuesday morning, took place Tuesday afternoon. Interment was made in Freeland cemetery. Deputy Coroner Bowman has selected a jury of Sandy Run citizens to investigate the death.

"The Sporting Craze," the most laughable of all farces, will be the attraction at Freeland Grand opera house on Tuesday evening next. The play since last season has been entirely revised throughout and is now complete with funny situations and bright dialogue, new music, songs and dances.

A. Oswald sells the Reliable root beer extract—three bottles for 25c. There is none better.
