Notes from the Courts.

In court yesterday John McGlynn, Jr., was called to answer the charge of breaking into Lehigh Valley cars at Freeland station and stealing beer therefrom. It is expected that the sentence will cause the disbandment of the gang of which he was a member.

Harry Hughes, a ten-year-old boy of Jeddo, pleaded guilty to the larceny of a horse and buggy, the property of Dr. O. F. Pierson, of Hazleton. The boy said he took the horse and carriage for a ride. The plea was accepted and Judge Bennett suspended sentence.

Special Council Meeting.

The members of the borough council met on Monday evening in special session for the purpose of conferring with J. Sharon McNair, who is making profiles of some of the streets in the northern part of the borough. Mr. McNair explained the system proposed, and the lines of the streets were adopted as laid out by him. The disposition of the $37.87 received from the state treasurer was left over until some future time.

Street Commissioner Boyle was authorized to extend the sewer north from Chestnut street on Centre as far as the grade will allow, and have the same laid with ten-inch pipe. It was also agreed that the eight-inch sewer from Luzerne street along the alley be extended about fifty feet north. The secretary was instructed to draw an order on the treasurer for $35.53 in favor of J. A. Hutchins & Co. to pay for the pipe already laid on the above alley.

Council agreed to convene in special session whenever Mr. McNair is prepared to meet them again and go over Johnson, Walnut and Carbon streets.

Complete State Returns.

Complete returns, most of them official, from all the counties in the state show the vote at last week's election to have been as follows:

State Treasurer.—Beacom (Rep.), 371,622; Brown (Dem.), 243,298; Swallow (Pro.), 118,525; Thompson (Ind.), 15,597. Beacom's plurality over Brown, 128,354.

Auditor General.—McCauley (Rep.), 411,270; Ritter (Dem.), 265,933; Lathrop (Pro.), 58,326. McCauley's plurality over Ritter, 145,337.

Fifteen counties are returned without recording any votes for Thompson (Ind.).

County Must Pay the Costs.

Judge Bennett has given a decision of great importance to criminal practice. The act of 1890 made all costs payable by the county, but in 1874 the legislature passed another act covering all costs except "acquittal in felony." Controller Lloyd, by advice of his attorney, refused his approval of all costs in felony cases where the defendant was acquitted. A case stated was taken before Judge Bennett and he has decided that the county must pay the costs. The costs held back for the past four months will amount to about $2,000.

Beer Keg Causes Trouble.

While viewing the alley between Walnut and Chestnut streets on Tuesday, Street Commissioner Boyle found a beer keg there and placed it near the rear fence of Joseph Latz's lot, out of the way of passing teams. Joe objected to this, and a wordy war ensued, which resulted in the saloon man and the street commissioner "mixing up." Mr. Boyle carried off the honors.

Latz had a warrant issued in Hazleton yesterday for the street commissioner. The latter waived a hearing and entered bail for his appearance in court.

Looking for His Horse.

The horse captured and impounded by High Constable Molik a month ago and sold by him has been claimed by Michael Loss, of Wilkesbarre, who alleges the animal was stolen by a man named Baron. The horse was found roaming on Freeland streets. After the sale it passed through several hands and at present is owned by J. C. Berner. Loss was here this week, but went home without the horse.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Board of Trade Members Last Evening Chose Officials for Another Year.

The Board of Trade, met last evening in the council room. H. E. Sweeney, chairman of the committee on nominations of new officers, reported that they had met several times and decided unanimously to recommend the election of the present officials. President Price wished to step out and give some one else a chance, as he has served two terms. After a discussion on the withdrawal, the following officers were elected:

President—William Williamson.
First vice president—H. B. Price.
Second vice president—N. J. Owens.
Secretary—W. D. Kline.
Treasurer—W. H. Butz.

There being no important matters likely to come before the board during the winter months, it was decided to hold the next meeting in January.

Mr. Sweeney reported that there was yet $2,500 unpaid on the $15,000 issue of silk mill bonds. The company expects that some of this amount will be taken by parties with whom arrangements are being made, but there will still be some left for any who desire them.

The order having been placed for machinery to double the present capacity of the mill, the silk company will, by January, be ready to employ at least fifty additional girls. About $800 was paid out for wages last month.

A vote of thanks was tendered Messrs. Price and Kline for their attendance and work in behalf of the board. Both gentlemen thanked the members and promised their best endeavors in the future. The former, although having vacated the president's chair, has no desire to sever his connection with the board, but will work on quietly in the future as the past.

DRIFTON ITEMS.

The D. S. & S. Company is experiencing much trouble with its engines lately. Nearly all had to be overhauled within the past few months. The hard work which they do, together with the burning of bituminous coal in the fire-box, wears out the flues more rapidly than when the locomotives were new.

The hop of the Cross Creek Club at Cross Creek hall last night was well attended. The affair was ably managed and the club members made the evening a pleasant one for their invited guests.

Hazle township politics are causing a stir among the local statesmen and aspirants for the offices to be filled next spring are seen in town quite frequently.

Rowland Walbert, a clerk in the general office, and Miss Emma Hartig will marry in the near future.

It Lives Have a Big Time.

The South Side towns were visited this week by a gang of thieves who held high carnival and ran things to suit themselves. Starting out on Sunday night at Jeannetteville they began by house-breaking and committing depredations all along the road. The Jeannetteville supply store was first broken into and what material they could not conveniently take away they destroyed.

The telephone system of the Lehigh Traction Company they then attacked and cut off all communication south. Koon's powder house, at Treckow, was next visited, and a large quantity of dynamite was scattered about. The telephone station there was also destroyed. The cigar store and office of Squire Robinson was broken up and tobacco and cigars stolen.

From there the gang went to McAdoo, breaking into the other telephone station. The office of the McAdoo Siftings was broken open. The furniture store of Abraham Levinton was entered and shoes and wearing apparel amounting to $50 stolen.

On Monday night two terrific explosions which awakened all the people in the neighborhood took place in Arnold's brewery, Hazleton. It was found that two large safes in the office had been destroyed with charges of dynamite by the robbers, who operated on them for the purpose of plunder.

Nothing was obtained from the safes, as the money was in another safe which the thieves overlooked. The robbers failed to gauge their charge of dynamite and the loud explosion and hurry approach of people scared them off.

Lafferty's hotel, at Silver Brook, was also entered by burglars the same night and considerable money, liquor and cigars stolen.
