Yannes' opera house will be occupied from December 16 to December 30, inclusive, with the fair of the Clitzens' Hose Company. A hustling committee has the fair in charge and they propose to make those two weeks the liveliest ever seen about Yannes' building. Over $1,000 worth of goods, including bed-room and parlor suits, bicycles, watches, fancy clocks, silverware, jewelry, and hundreds of smaller articles, will be on exhibition. A number of contests are being arranged for valuable prizes.

tests are being arranged for valuable prizes.

A voting contest which will probably be one of the most interesting of its kind ever inaugurated hereabouts will be conducted with the door checks. Every person attending the fair will be entitled to cast a vote for the most popular school teacher in the Lehigh region. The lady or gentleman receiving the largest number of votes will receive a beautiful diamond ring from the fire company. The prize is well worth contesting for, and the honor is also something to be proud of.

Two Weddings Yesterday

Two Weddings Yesterday.

At noon yesterday at St. Ann's Catholic church, Patrick Dinsmore, of Hazleton, and Miss Mary Meehan, of Washington street, were married by Rev. M. J. Fallihee, John Dinsmore, of Hazleton, a brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Mary Ferry, of Washington street, was bridesmaid. The young couple will live in Hazleton.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at the same church, Rev. M. J. Fallihee performed the ceremony which united in marriage Charles J. Malloy, of Drifton, and Miss Cassie Gallagher, of Birvanton. The groom was attended by Thomas Sweeney, of town, and the bride by the groom's sister. Miss Mary Ann Malloy, of Drifton. Many friends called upon the happy couple during the evening and tendered their congratulations. They have taken up their residence on the Hill.

Strikers Shut Down Two Mines.
The slate pickers at the Gaylord collery, of the Kingston Coal Company, at Plymouth, struck Tuesday morning and the mine was shut down. The boys complaint was that they are compelled to work eight hours a day and that they get pay for only seven hours, There are about 200 boys and their grievance was promptly rectified by the officials. The employes at the Coleraine colliery went out on Monday because they were not paid their monthly wages at the same time other collieries were, but after considerable wrangling about the matter the employes agreed to go to work until a committee could consult Operator VanWickle regarding the matter.

Bathed in Burning Oil.

While sitting around the parlor table in William Cree's residence, Mahanoy City, Monday evening, engaged in conversation with Mrs Cree, Miss Hannah Reifsnyder was suddenly covered with burning oil by the explosion of a large lamp that was in their midst. Screaming with horror she dashed out of the house to the yard, where she fell into a swoon. Mr. Cree quickly followed with a piece of carpet. After she had been horribly burned he succeeded in wrapping her in and smothering the flames, but not until his own hands had been severely burned.

Sahn's Efficiency Recognized.

From the Wilkesbarre Newsdealer.
Days come and go, brooks run on forever, and so likewise does Mr. Sahn, deputy prothonotary. Through all the changes of administration, Mr. Sahn, by reason of his ability and knowledge of the affairs of the office, has retained his place, and there is every reason for believing that he will continue to hold his position under Prothonotary-elect Dasch. That such is the case is a tribute to Mr. Sahn's efficiency that is deserved.

Sisters Escape an Awful Death.
Five Sisters in the convent attached to Holy Trinity Catholic church, Hazleton, were almost smothered to death on Tuesday morning owing to a defective draught in the stove. During the night gas accumulated in such quantities as to fill all the rooms. Fortunately at an early hour one of the Sisters detected the presence of fumes and gave the alarm. Her companions by this time had been so badly affected they could not respond to the call. They were revived with some difficulty.

Blind Rat Led by Conrades.

A man employed at the sewage farm at Batchworth, in Hertfordshire, asserts that quite recently, when working on his farm, he has often seen an old blind rat carrying a piece of stick in its mouth, with two other younger rats leading it about with one end of the stick also in their mouths.

Sheriff Martin's Trial.

The judges of Wilkesbarre are determined that no technicality shall prevent the trial of Sheriff Martin and his deputies at the next term of criminal court, on the charge of murdering nineteen strikers at Lattimer on September 10. Immediately after court convened on Monday District Attorney Fell and District Attorney-elect T. R. Martin were called before the bench and given special instructions as to the drawing of the next jurors. Judge Lynch said they should consult together as to how the matter should be attended to.

This circumstance was especially called into question on account of the indictment against Sheriff Martin, as there was some question as to the legality of the jury drawn for the present term and which would have tried him had not his case been continued.

Thus T. R. Martin and D. A. Fell are to personally superintend the filling of the wheel, custody of the wheel and key, drawing of jurors, etc. Mr. Martin will take the oath of office December 6.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's catarrh cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials Address. Address,
