Friday Jan. 7.
In the United States senate a few bills of minor importance were passed. In the house there was another animated debate on the workings of the civil service law, the present system being attacked by Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio and defended by Mr. Johnson of Indiana. The currency reform bill prepared by the monetary commission was introduced—An Anglo-Japanese alliance is said to have been formed to maintain the status quo in China and Korea. The Russian occupation of Port Arthur will compel the Chinese court to move from Peking to Nankin, the southern capital. Emperor William has decorated Count von Bulow with the Order of the Red Eagle as an indication of his satisfaction with the success of Germany's policy in China. Great Britain will insist on the opening of more Chinese ports if she guarantees the Chinese loan—H. H. Hanna, chairman of the executive committee of the monetary conference, is spoken of as a candidate for senator to succeed Turpie of Indiana—W. T. Buckley, formerly a well known dry goods merchant in New York, was found dead at his home at 74 Rockaway, having apparently shot himself with a Temple cup, the famous baseball trophy, has been returned to its donor, who may present it to the Duquesne Athletic club to be contested for on the field or track—The Hamburg-American line has just ordered a new ship of 14,000 gross tonnage, which, with five others, will give it the heaviest tonnage in the world—The steamer Corona has sailed for Alaska from Tacoma with 225 passengers. Two army men from the Fort Presidio barracks are on board. They go to examine the Skagway trail in order to help advance the government relief expedition—it was reported in New York that De Lancey Iselin Kane, the only son of Colonel De Lancey Kane, had decided to enter the Roman Catholic priesthood—A jury in the United States circuit court gave Anthony Comstock 6 cents damages against Dr. Montague R. Levenson, who had called him "a notorious blackmailer"—It was stated that J. Pierpont Morgan had bought the New York, Susquehanna and Western railroad, and turned it over to the Erie—The Republicans of the New Jersey senate nominated Senator Foster Voorhees for president of that body, which will make him acting governor when Governor Griggs retires to become attorney general in the McKinley cabinet.

Thursday, Jan. 6.
Congress reassembled after the holiday recess and both branches were absorbed in civil service discussions. In the house the debate was based on the proposed appropriation for the civil service commission. In the senate the discussion arose in connection with the census bill and the report of Secretary Sherman as to the working of the civil service rules in the state department—it was announced in Berlin that China had leased Kiau Chou to Germany for a term of years, said to be 50.

AN OPEN LETTER TO MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.
I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher wrapper. This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," which has been used in the homes of the Mothers of America for over thirty years. LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought and has the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President.

McCLURE'S MAGAZINE FOR THE COMING YEAR

- Some Notable Features
- CHAS. A. DANA'S REMINISCENCES—These reminiscences contain more unpublished war history than any other book except the Government publications. Mr. Dana was intimately associated with Lincoln, Stanton, Grant, Sherman, and other great men of the Civil War. He had the confidence of the President and his great War Secretary, and he was sent on many private missions to make important investigations in the memoirs are bits of Secret History and Fresh Recollections of Great Men. These Reminiscences will be illustrated with many Rare and Unpublished War Photographs from the Government collection, which now contain over 5,000 negatives of almost priceless value.
- The Christmas McClure's contains a complete Short Story by Rudyard Kipling entitled "The Tombs of His Ancestors," a thrilling story of a soldier in the Indian army, and a religious tale, by Col. George E. Waring, Jr., a powerful, grim, moving story of War Ships. It will be superbly illustrated. Mr. Kipling will be a frequent contributor.
- RUDYARD KIPLING STORIES & POEMS—"The Prisoner of Zenda," in splendid illustration, in characters, in dramatic situations, it is the noblest and most stirring novel that has ever been written.
- ANTHONY HOPE'S NEW ZENDA NOVEL—Rudyard Kipling, Robert Barr, William Allen Miller, Ian MacLaren, Octave Thanet, Stephen Crane, and many other of the best story writers in the world, will contribute to McClure's during the coming year.
- EDISON'S LATEST ACHIEVEMENT—Edison's Wonderful Invention. The result of eight years' constant labor. Mountains ground to dust and the very ore extracted by magnetism. The Fastest Ship. An article by the inventor and constructor of "Turbina," a vessel that can make the speed of an express train. Making a Great Leap in the Air. A character sketch and substance of a conversation with this eminent scientist on undervalued problems of science.
- Drawn from fifteen years' personal experience as brakeman, man and engineer, by Herbert H. Hamkin. It is a narrative of work, adventure, hardship, accidents and terrors, and is as vivid and dramatic as a piece of fiction.
- THE RAILROAD MAN'S LIFE—The account of this terrible fight written down by Hamlin Garland as it came from the lips of Two-Moss, an old Indian Chief who was a participant in it.
- NEW YORK IN 1950—Its houses, streets, means of travel, water supply, safeguards of life and health, sports and pleasures—the conditions of life of the perished city of the next century, by Col. George E. Waring, Jr., Commissioner of the Street-Cleaning Department of New York.
- MARK TWAIN—Mark Twain contributes an article in his old manner, describing his voyage from India to South Africa. The illustrations are by A. B. Frost and Peter Newell, and are a drill and humorous as the articles themselves.
- André: His Balloon and his Expedition, from materials furnished by the brother of Mr. Strindberg, André's companion. Sans l'indien in Lander in Tibet. His own story. He was captured, tortured and finally escaped to India. Tactics in the War North. The famous explorer writes of the years he lived in regions far north of the boundaries of human habitation.
- NANSEN—The great Arctic explorer has written an article on the possibilities of reaching the North Pole; on the methods that the next expedition should adopt, and the important scientific knowledge to be gained by an expedition; concerning the climate, the ocean currents, depths and temperature of the water, etc. This knowledge will be of the greatest value to science.
- The best artists and illustrators are making pictures for McClure's Magazine. A. B. Frost, Peter Newell, C. D. Gibson, Howard Pyle, Kenyon Cox, C. A. Lincoln, W. D. Stevens, Alfred Brennan, and others.
- ILLUSTRATIONS

The November Number will be given free with new subscriptions. This number contains the opening chapters of Dana's Reminiscences, Mark Twain's Voyage from India to South Africa, the account of Edison's great invention, and a mass of interesting matter and illustrations.
Be sure to ask for it in subscribing.
