Samuel Herring, an aged and prominent resident of town, died at his home on Thursday afternoon. Mr. Herring was a veteran of the late war and served his country with credit and distinction. He had been ill but one week, and pneumonia was the immediate cause of his death. He was a member of Coxe Post, G. A. R., of Freeland, and his death is generally deplored by a large circle of friends. The funeral took place on Sunday, and interment was made in Freeland cemetery. Owing to the illness of his pastor, Rev. J. W. Bischoff, the funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. B. Kerschner.

Deputies to Be Tried Again.

The attorneys for the prosecution of the Lattimer deputies are busy preparing for another trial, which they hope to have heard at the next term of court in May. Whether a change of venue will be asked for or not is not decided, but if it is not the prosecution will insist on some other judge than Stanley Woodward trying the case. On his part Judge Woodward would doubtless deciline to preside over a second trial. The five weeks' continued sitting just after he had recovered from a long illness proved to be a severe strain upon his physical powers, and in order to recuperate he hurried away to Atlantic City to spend a week or two. Attorney Palmer has also left town and Attorney Lenahan and Wheaton will probably go on a short trip.

The attorneys for the prosecution.

Lenahan and Wheaton will probably go on a short trip.

The attorneys for the prosecution, however, have all remained in town except Scarlett, who has gone home to Danville. They say the second trial will be of eleven of the deputies and that the commonwealth's witnesses will be few. Whether the charge will be murder or felonious wounding is not decided. It will probably be felonious wounding, because the prosecuting committee feels sure that it can prove that at least eleven ran after the fleeing strikers and shot them down, wounding several.

Mining More Coal Than Last Year.

Notwithstanding the firm hold on the coal trade which Morgan is supposed to have, the machinery of this big trust is not working just right. There is no effort made to disguise the fact that the trade is disappointing and that prices are not heling held. Contracts are reported to have been made last week, not by individual operators, who are always willing to sell a little under the circular or the market price, but by one of the largest of the coal companies. These contracts are said to have been 10 to 20 cents per ton below the low prices which have been prevailing.

The total shipments of coal in February were 2,740,000 tons, against 4,073,000 in January, and 2,519,000 in February, 1897. The recommendation of sales agents that the February output shou'd not exceed 2,500,000 has thus been disregarded. For the first two months this year the production is greater by 500,000 tons than last year for the same time.

Whole Town in Distress.

The people of Sugar Notch are agitated by the prospect of distress and hunger which seems imminent. The town is made up of miners and their families, and all were startled on Friday by the shutting down of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre No. 9 colliery for an indefinite period. The colliery employs 700 hands, and is the mainstay of the town. Friday night a large public meeting of the employes, property holders and business men was held to discuss the situation. Hon. P. F. Caffrey told of the distressing results which the shutting down of the colliery would entail, and others made remarks in the same tenor.

A nicely dressed young man has been visiting this section of the country claiming to be a teacher of art painting. He arrived at a neighboring town one day last week and proceeded to organize a class. It was successful in his undertaking and each one of the twelves scholars whom he had secured paid him $1.50 in advance. The first lesson was to have been given the following day, but in the meantime the professor's laped and has not been heard from. The "professor" is about thirty years of age and about five feet and six inches in height. He is making a tour of the state and may strike this town, so people should keep on the lookout for him.

"If you would just get over your foolish pride about carrying bundles it would save us a good deal that we now spend for expressage," said Mrs. Tompkins to her husband at the breakfast table one Saturday morning. "I'm sure that I see other men carrying bundles—lots of them. And here you go right by the markets and it wouldn't be any trouble at all for you to run in and get some things. Mr. Jones and Mr. Smyth and others do it and it would save us ever so much."

Tompkins, who is a suburbanite, happened to be in a saving mood that morning, says the Detroit Free Press, and he surprised his wife by saying:

"I don't know but you're right, my dear, and I'll try it. As you say, I comeright by the markets on my way to the train, and we've simply got to cut down our expenses in some direction. Make out a list of things you want to-day and I'll bring them home with me."

It was a good deal beyond his usual time when Tompkins came home that evening. His wife had been wedded to him long enough to know that her liege lord was, to put it mildly, mad, before he opened his mouth, but she said cheerily:

"You're late, my dear."

"Late!" he burst forth. "It's a wonder to me that I ever got home at all!"

"Why?"

"Why!" mimicked Tomplins, "you ever give me another marketing list and you'll find out why!"
