Township Treasurer Threatened. The affliction of Pittston and Pittston township in the matter of contested elec-tions has become a byword in court. On Monday morning the old agitation was renewed when a number of interest-ed parties asked for a bill of particulars in contested elections in Pittston town-ship. The contests are on school direct. an partners asked for a bill of particulars in contested elections in Pittston town-ship. The contests are on school direc-tors, supervisors and treasurers. posited the money in the rockatenow bank and the entire sum was loss by the bank's failure. Suit was brought to re-over the amount from the guardian. The decision of the courts is that Mr. Evans is held responsible for the money deposited for the ethidren, but not for that deposited for the widow, on the ground that she was present when the money was placed in the bank. It was shown by the evidence that Evans had refused to loan the money on good se-curity and that therefore he was negli-gent. In answer to that Evans said he did not think it safe to loan the money on the security offered. This decision, it is claimed, will have the effect of making guardians more eareful of the disposition of money In-trusted to their care.

Yorktown Miners on Strike

Trusted to their care. Yorktown Miners on Strike. The 300 men employed at the York-town colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company failed to report for duty Tues-day morning when the colliery whistle called the employes to work, and a strike is now on. This decision was reached at ameeting of the United Mine Workers in Yorktown, on Monday night, but it was not thought that the men were as determined as they have shown them-selves to be hy absenting themselves en-tirely from the colliery. Every-thing is quite about the works and no violence is feared by the officials. The cause of the strike is dissatisfac-tion over the treatment of a fireman. John Boyle, who was reprimanded by Foreman Hayes for not keeping up a good fire with the bird-eye coal used at the colliery. The fireman claimed that the colliery. The fireman sufficient steam and he quit work. The matter was brought to the attention of the United Mine Workers, who notified Foreman Hayes that if the fireman was not reinstated they would order a strike. The company threatens to shut down the colliery altogether for an indefinite period. To Build Another Asylum.

A Libel on Freehand. From the Wilkesbarre Newsdealer. One peculiar feature of the anthra-cite mining towns is that it has two lives. The old town of Buck Mountain: which was at its height in war times, but which played out soon after the war ended, is again reviving. All of the Schuylkill county towns, St. Clair, Minersville. Ashland, and others, all of which had their days, are steadily re-viving, and towns like Hazleton, Free-land and Shenandoah are rapidly de-clining.

The parent plant is locafed in a nearby city, has 1,800 men on its pay-roll, manufactures an article of general use and works steadily. For obvious reasons the name of the firm and its location cannot be made public for the present. The members generally were of the opinion that no time ought to be lost in looking up this industry, and the follow-ing were appointed as a committee to make an investigation: W. H. Industrious Liars at Work

Industrious Liars at Work. A. A. Bachman, tax collector, author-izes the TEBENE to stamp as false the malicious rumor circuiated within the past few weeks, to the effect that Mrs. S. M. Dennenny, one of the borough school teachers, has not paid her taxes. Mr. Bachman's books show that the lady paid her taxes within the first sity days and there was no basis for the circula-tion of the rumor. Several other taxpayers in town have been subjected to annoyance from simi-lar rumors, and if these reports con-tinue to be spread some one is liable to find his hands full of trouble. Persons who pay their taxes promptly every year deserve credit, and should not be maliciously lied about by parties who are in a position to learn the truth.
