They Have Made Up.

From the Scranton Republican.

It was rumored last night that John M. Garman, chairman of the state Democratic committee, and John T. Lenahan, of Wilkesbarre, had met in Hotel Jermyn, smoked cigars from the same box and made up their differences. It is also said that they went a step further and exchanged confidences with the result that they agreed that at the coming state convention Mr. Lenahan would nominate ex-Marshal Walker, of Erie, as chairman and that Mr. Garman would second the motion. The trio was in this city yesterday and registered at the Jermyn, so there is probably more truth than poetry in the rumour.

truth than poetry in the rumour.

An Appeal to Patriotism.

The publishers of the Philadelphia Press announce that with every copy of next Sunday's Press will be given free a fine picture of the cruiser Philadelphia. This picture will be a companion to the fattleship Maine, which was given away by the Press and will be an appeal to patriotism. It will be larger than the Maine picture, printed in eleven colors, and will be well worth framing. Next Sunday's Press will be fifty pages with an eight page comic sections in colors, so altogether the offer is remarkable. The publishers announce that the supply of Philadelphia pictures is limited, so that it is well for everybody to place their orders at once.

"If the anthracite miners of Pennsylvania had been wisely led and firmly controlled in the early seventies, the Keystone State would now be spared many black chapters in her history. But such happiness was not foreordained. Owing to some degre to the tronblesome times, and in a greater degree to a group of beings more devillish than human, there sprang into active control of a portion of the commonwealth the most brutal, vindictive, terrible conspiracy that ever a civilized community had been cursed with in recent times—the genius of Franklin B. A Writer in the Above Magnatine Giver His Version of How English-Speaking Miners Were Driven Out of the Anthractic Coal Field-Groat Exaggerations.

The Century for April-has a group of papers on the coal region of lownship vania. Henry Edward Rood, who formerly worked in Hazleton and is a sonin-law of Geo. H. Troutman, Esq., writes of "A Polygot Community." Below is given his view of the anthracite region in general and this section in particular. That the pictures he presents are based on truth night be conceded, but the exaggerations in many paragraphs are togross to be endorsed as a whole. He says: "When anthracite came into general use, the original miners quickly estab lished themselves in their adopted homes and ceased to speak regretuliy of childhood associations in Wales or in England. They had an abundance of work here, and wages that would seem a fortune in the old country. In those days a Pennsylvania miner deemed it an unlucky month; and often exceeding this work here could be obtained food, clothing, toys, furniture, in fact, about all the necessaries and comforts and luxuries the miner had learned to use. Prices were high how do not not pentitud in this region. But they were credited fully on the books of the company, and they were bremitted, if not encouraged, to purchase goods at the control of the collicry took wife and children to New York and Philadelphia as often as in previous years, and that the superintendent wors clothing as costly as ever. He forgot, that while he had been spending his wages every month, and often exceeding his account at the company store, the operator and other officials had been saving a portion, if not the greater portion, of their armings.

No More Changes on the Valley.

For the present, says the Philadelphia Press, there are to be no more changes in the train service of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, except that when the new spring time-tables are gotten up, the service will be adapted to suit the public as owing to the withdrawal of a number of trains a few months ago there was some disarrangement made, which is, however, to be remedied.

The removal of the general traffle manager, general freight agent and general passenger agent's offices, from this city to New York, will soon be made. In all probability the general traffle agent will take his department over on April 30, but owing to the offices which the general passenger agent is going to occupy not being vacated until May 1, this department will not get into its new quarters until about the middle of May. The passenger earnings of the company are showing a steady increase, which is gratifying to the officers of the company, in view of the recent curtailment in operating and transportation expenses.

Death of Miss Annie Roach.

Miss Annie Roach, an estimable young lady of Sheatown, who resided with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Roach, died at the family residence early Monday morning from lung trouble. The deceased was born in Buck Mountain about 20 years ago. Fourteen years ago she moved with the family to Alden, where up to a few years ago they resided. They moved from Alden to Sheatown. Miss Roach had been a teacher in the schools of Newport township for the past seven years and had been reelected to teach for another term when she was prostrated by the illness which resulted in her death. The deceased was an estimable young woman and had a large circle of friends who will sincerely regret to learn of her death.—Newslealer,

Miss Roach resided at Highland for several years and had many friends in this vicinity. She was a netce of Mrs. Edward McHugh, of South Heberton, and frequently visited Freeland. The funeral took place this morning, and was attended by several lower end people.

Mining Operations at Ebervale.

Mining Operations at Ebervale.

Work on the big stripping at Ebervale is progressing very fast, according to the Hazleton Sentinet. The excavation has been started from a point immediately behind the old breaker and is now about forty feet in depth. The coal seams have been pierced, also the old breakers which were driven up by the miners in Ebervale mine years before the place filled up with water. Cave-ins have occurred in different places, caused by the rock above the face of the breasts giving way. They are now hoisting about 200 cars of coal per day from the slope, most of which is stripping coal. The company expects to take 600 cars per day from this mine as soon as the summer opens up.

Apportionment of License Money.

R. P. Robinson, county treasurer, has completed the apportionment of the money received for liquor licenses, and the amount due the state, county, cities, boroughs and townships. The total amount received was $292,475 and of this amount $164,100 goes to the cities, boroughs and townships, $45,275 to the county and the balance to the state. The apportionment is as follows for the cities, boroughs and townships in this end of the county.

More Trouble in Banks Township

Sheriff Breslin, of Carbon county, las week served subpoenss on the member of Banks township school board to ap week served subpoenss on the members of Banks township school board to appear in a suit of equity at Mauch Chunk, the board of Beaver Meadow borough having sued them for their share of the state appropriation, which they claim is due them, and over which there has been some contention for some time. All members of the board were summoned to appear. The Beaver Meadow board had to close their schools a month ago on account of a shortage in funds. Several attempts were made to have the two boards meet and settle the matter between themselves.

Banks township board received all the money for appropriation last year and this was to be divided, but on some account this has not been done and this is the suit instituted as a means to bring the matter to a settlement.
