Bottles Made of Paper. A German paper-maker has recently obtained letters patent on bottles made of paper, for use on board of ships par-ticularly. It has been a cause of much damage to steamer lines that in bad weather a large number of bottles of wime and other liquors are broken in the storerooms, in spite of every pre-caution. The new bottles are made of a composition which, with the solution in which they are made water tight, is still the inventor's scrett. After being impregnated with this fluid the paper bottles are slowly dried in gas stoves, and this process of drying must be watched carefully, for otherwise the bottles would remain porous and al-low the fluid to leak out. These bottles can be handled roughly without the least apprehension; neither the pitch-ing nor the rolling of a great steamer during rough weather nor the break-irg down of a truck upon which they adamage a single paper bottle.—New York Herald. Superstition About the Turquoise. An ancient superstition connected with the turquoise is even to-day believed in. If it is given with love it carries with it happiness and good luck. If the well-being of the giver is in peril the faithful turquoise pales; if, on the other hand, the giver proves faithless, the stone turns dark. It is an emblem of prosperity and is also dedicated to December. A cluster composed of diamonds, loadstones and sapphires combined is guaranteed by the ancient faith to render the wearer almost invincible and altogether irre-sistible.

Stevenson, prom-inent in fashionable scenety, has left Philadelphia for a two months' tour of investigation of the Upper Nile. It is understood she goes as the represen-tative of the University of Pennsyl-vania and that she will conduct her researches in company with Flanders Petrie. Mrs. Stevenson comes of an old Quaker City family, although she was born in Paris. Reared in the household of Achille Jubinal, as a girl she imbibed from the noted antiqua-rian a thirst for archeeological study. When the university department was created by Provost Pepper in 1889 the choice of manager promptly fell upon Mrs. Stevenson. She is the only fem-inine member of the Oriental Club, and has lectured publicly on a num-ber of Egyptian themes. Mrs. Stevan-son is secretary of the department of archeeology and paleontology at the University of Pennsylvania and hon-orary curator of the Egyptian and Mediterranean section of the museum. Wide stock bands of white mousse-line de soie with hnge bow knots are worn around the throat, recalling old portraits.

Even the bost of mirrors is a libelous suffair. The reflection we see there does not accurately portray our likeness. The hair is wrong in tone, the eyes are not correct in color, and as for the com-plexion-well, if the looking-glasses spoke the truth, the sale of various complexion washes would decrease to half, for any fair skin looks gray and pallid in the glass. You may be cer tain that however plain your face seems, it is by no means so plain as it appears in the telltale mirror. Second by, you cannot assume your natural ex-pression while peering in the looking-glass. The eye must be in a certain position before you can see at all, and the eye, so far as e_pression is con-terned, governs the face.
