"OLD GLORY."
THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER.
O say, can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars thro' the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
O say, does the star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
On that shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, now conceals, now discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream;
'Tis the star-spangled banner, O, long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!
And where is that band who so vauntingly swore
'Mid the havoc of war and the battle's confusion,
A home and a country they'd leave us no more?
Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave;
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

PERSONALITIES.
Daniel J. McTigue, a student at the Catholic university, Ottawa, Canada, arrived home on Saturday and will spend his two months' vacation here.
Among the graduates at Bloomsburg normal school last week was Miss Anna Simon, daughter of S. Simon, of Freeland.
Andrew Kresge and family have taken up their residence in Freeland again after living in Hazleton for some time.
Mrs. James Reed, of Scranton, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Condy Boyle, Ridge street.
John Gallagher, of Wilkes-Barre, is spending the Fourth with his sister, Mrs. David Hannon.
Edward Dugan, of the Ashland House, New York city, is spending a month's vacation in town.
Bernard McDevitt, of South Bethlehem, is spending the day with his mother here.
Charles J. Boyle, of Plymouth, attended to matters political in this region on Friday.
Miss Bella Crawford, of town, graduated last week at West Chester normal school.
W. E. Oberrender and family are spending the Fourth in the Wyoming valley.
Matt McGreick, of Pittsburg, is calling upon relatives and friends in town.
Lincoln Cunningham, of Baltimore Dental college, has returned home.
Miss Mary Crella, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stroh.
Daniel Mulraney, of Philadelphia, is visiting his parents on Ridge street.
Miss Maggie Harvey, of Minersville, is visiting relatives here.
Myron Zimmerman is about again after a severe illness.
Crash suits for boys at the Guarantee Clothing Co., in their new location, the Refwick building.

Flag Raisings on Saturday.

The residents of the Second ward of Freeland borough showed their patriotism on Saturday evening by throwing three handsome flags to the breeze. The first and most important raising took place at Schreiner's corner, where a fine flag-pole was erected some time ago. The exercises were opened by Councilman Kline with an appropriate address, in which he introduced George C. Farrar as chairman. Mr. Farrar made a stirring speech and won much applause for the sentiments he expressed. The music for the occasion was rendered by the Citizens' band, and the flag was raised by Henry Wilson, who was mainly instrumental in making the exercises the complete success they were. When the flag reached the top of the high pole patriotic songs were sung by a quintette of young girls, followed by solos by Miss Irene Schreiner. The orator of the day, Scipio John G. Davis, then delivered an address that did him credit and was warmly applauded by his auditors. Ben Walker, a colored gentleman from Silver Brook, sang several songs and captured the large crowd with his choice selections. The flag is 9x16 feet, and was made and presented to the Second ward by the lack of Alwintown. The other raisings then took place, one near the residence of James Wilson, which was raised by George Cutler, a veteran of the civil war, and the other near the residence of Joseph Iles, which was raised by John Iles. Taking it all in all, it was a big day for the Second ward, and will long be remembered.

The second raising of the borough flag took place at 6 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. The pole in front of the council building, which is painted white, straight as an arrow and eighty feet high, was surrounded by a large crowd when Frank DePiero, president of council, opened the exercises with a short speech. Rev. E. C. Murphy, of the English Baptist church, followed with prayer. Rev. W. H. Wintman, of the Park M. E. church, delivered a stirring address and Rev. J. Kuntz, of St. Luke's Lutheran church, pronounced the benediction. Music was furnished by the Citizens' band. The flag was raised by Councilman Meehan and presents a fine appearance at its great height.

Resignation of Elmer H. Lawall.

For some time past the close friends of Elmer H. Lawall have been expecting his resignation as general superintendent of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company. At various times during the past two years it was rumored that he would sever connections with the company, and at last the rumor has become a fact for a few days ago Mr. Lawall tendered his resignation to take effect July 1 and on Friday a circular was sent out from the main office of the company's headquarters. It said that Mr. Lawall has been granted a leave of absence, and that W. J. Richards is appointed acting general superintendent.
Mr. Lawall will leave on an extended tour for the benefit of his health, he having been for some time a sufferer from insomnia. He and his family will visit the Omaha exposition and other places of interest, and on their return Mr. Lawall will give his attention to his business interests, among which is the Cole Valley Engineer, of Scranton, in which he holds considerable stock.
While the circular states that Mr. Lawall has simply been granted leave of absence, yet it is quite certain that he has permanently severed connections with the company. W. J. Richards, who succeeds him, has been chief mining engineer of the company since 1888.

Cuban Giants Defeat the Tigers.

The Tigers were shut out yesterday afternoon on the local grounds by the Cuban Giants. The colored gentlemen were too strong for our team, although they were beaten at Mauch Chunk on Saturday by practically the same club. McGill was in the box for the Tigers and did his work fairly well. He kept the Giants' hits scattered and received good support from Gaffney. The visitors took advantage of a few costly errors during the game, scampering around the bases like deer at every opportunity. The Tigers were unable to connect with Howard's delivery, eight of whom striking out. Some pretty double plays were made by the home club. Following is a summary of the score:

Cuban Giants 0 10 10 3 11 x—7 8 2

Wheelmen's Meeting.

A meeting of the Associated Wheelmen was held at the Cottage hall on Thursday evening. Committees were appointed to solicit members and subscriptions in the surrounding towns, and Charles Farrell, Neal Gallagher, and Joseph Birbeck are to look up a route for the proposed new track to White Haven. Victor Oswald, H. S. Hausse, John Duschek and G. Bonomo are to confer with the White Haven wheelmen and secure their assistance in pushing it to completion. The directors are Eckley B. Cox, A. Oswald, H. C. Koons, Joseph Birbeck, George Rippe and H. S. Hausse.

Thieves Taken to Jail.

William Welsh and Hugh Schaffer, who were arrested at Hazleton by a squad of officers charged with robbing freight cars in this and the Schuylkill regions for a year past, were given a hearing Thursday afternoon before Alderman Heidenreich, who committed both men to the county jail in default of bail. Schaffer was placed under $2,000 and Welsh under $1,100 bail. The officers were out next day on another search, and more goods were recovered but not identified. The coal and iron police and detectives from all surrounding towns were working on the case.

The Guarantee Clothing Co. has removed to 37 Centre street, known as the Refwick building. We now have more room and we carry more stock. Drop in and see the new novelties for boys.

BRIEF ITEMS.

Jonah Evans' trotter, "Mack," has been entered in the races to be run at Mt. Laurel park tomorrow.
Simon P. Gearhart, of Coxe addition, and Miss Gertrude Wollvoer, of Drifton, will be married in the near future.
Mine Inspector Davies' report for June gives twelve serious accidents in this district, four of which were fatal.
The St. Patrick's band serenaded Mr. and Mrs. James B. Quigley at their home in Highland on Saturday evening.
H. C. Mills, C. E. Butler and S. B. Starlevant have been appointed by the court to view roads in Foster and Hazle townships.
It is said that Foster school teachers will be appointed some evening this week. The borough directors will appoint on the 13th inst.
Edward M. Jones, of Freeland, was married on Thursday at Laceyville to Miss Bertha Christian, of the latter place. They will reside here.
The borough council will meet tonight. No business, it is expected, will be transacted, but an adjournment to another evening will take place.
William Smithkors, aged 22 years, a Lehigh Valley brakeman living at White Haven, was drowned in the Lehigh river while bathing on Friday afternoon.
Emory Shelly, who was seriously burned by an explosion of powder in his blacksmith shop at South Heberton last Wednesday, is still suffering from his injuries.
Edward Boyle, a young son of W. F. Boyle, was badly burned about the face with powder on Friday. The injuries were painful for awhile, but no serious results will follow.

The report of Auditor C. F. McHugh in the case of M. Potokchney et al vs. St. Mary's Co-operative Association, of Freeland, was confirmed absolutely by the court on Saturday.
John Ward, who died in Slatington, will be buried today at 3:30 p. m. in St. Ann's cemetery. He is survived by one sister and brother, viz. Mrs. Coy Brislin, of Milnesville, and Patrick Ward, of Freeland.
A charter was granted to the Dreck Creek Fishing Association in court on Saturday. The directors are Henry B. Cox, Eckley B. Cox, Jr., Arthur McGeelan, E. A. Oberrender and S. P. Wolventon.
Glen Summit has a distinguished visitor over the Fourth in that of Governor Hastings. His Excellency's wife and Attorney General McCormack and wife will also enjoy the hospitality of the mountain hotel.

All members of Mt. Horeb Lodge, Odd Fellows, of town, who may enlist in the United States service during the war, will be kept in good standing during hostilities and will receive full benefits if wounded or killed.
The saloon keepers and brewery agents have not yet settled their differences concerning who shall pay the war tax on beer. So far the saloonists are paying the tariff, but it is being done in any but a pleasant manner.

There will be a game of alley ball at William Gallagher's today. The contestants will be Patrick and Eddie Gallagher and Andrew Bronnan for a purse of $10. Game will be called at 3 o'clock.

Hazleton fax mill was destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. The loss is $40,000 and the origin unknown. It employed sixty-three hands and had lots of work. Hazleton is peculiarly unfortunate with its industries.
Delegates to the Democratic county convention are announcing themselves. It is said the Fourth district will be made the battle ground of another heavy fight as nearly all the candidates are anxious to carry the "lower end."

Employees of the Central Penna. Telephone Company are raising thirty-five foot poles on Centre street. They will rig them with wires this week and open the exchange in Evans' building on Front street in the near future.

The committee of the Schuylkill Coal Exchange has fixed the date of the meeting to be paid the miners in the Schuylkill region for the last half of June and the first half of July at $2.36, which is 5 per cent below the $2.50 basis, and the lowest rate of wages paid for some years past.

The Stars Athletic Association's ball on Friday evening was well attended, notwithstanding the intense heat. The fans which were distributed instead of programs were highly appreciated by the dancers. The waltz contest was won by William Carlin and Miss Jo Brennan.
Charles Felzer, of Plymouth, superintendent of the Miner-Hillard mill there, has been held under bail on the charge of embezzling. The members of the firm have no means of knowing the extent of Felzer's guilt. His recollections may not have exceeded $100, and they may have reached into the thousands.

JOURNALISTIC.

Weatherly Telegraph on Thursday announced its own suspension, and the publisher, Emory Washburn, will take the plant elsewhere. It is no fault of the paper that it did not live. It was ably edited and well conducted, but Weatherly is not big enough for two progressive publishers.
Owing to its editor being in jail for offending the powers that be, politically, Back Diamond, of Mahanoy City, has suspended publication, temporarily.
This is issue No. 1, Volume XI, of the TRIBUNE.
A. Oswald sells three bars of grand-ma's butter milk soap for the small sum of 5c.
Latest styles of straw hats for big and little boys at the Guarantee Clothing Co.

Hazle Township Teachers.

Hazle township directors met on Thursday and appointed school teachers for the coming term. Directors Welsh, Hinkle, Morgan and Neilson formed a combination against Directors Gallagher and Dinsmore and named all the teachers, as follows:
Alter street, Hazleton—John Ellwood, Esther Sergeant, Nellie Christy, Harleigh—Charles Kennedy, Jennie Burk.
Ebervale No. 3—Andrew Branigan, Bella McGinity, Kate Lannon, Seybert street—Bernard Costello, Agnes Gerard.
Hazleton No. 2—Neil McMonigle, Mame Barrett, Hannah Kennedy, Katie Martin, Sarah Ryan.
Stockton—William Guckivan, Madge Scott, Peter Laughran.
Laurel Hill—Michael McMonigle, Jeanesville—C. C. Smith, John A. O'Donnell, Katie McGinity.
Heaver Brook—Philip Clark, Jean Nolson, Julia McKennan.
Drifton—James P. Costello, Hattie Cunningham, Mary Sweeney, Esther Corrigan.
Jeddo—Frank McHugh, Maggie Dougherty, May Kerbaugh.
Cranberry—J. J. Thomas, Sue Gallagher.
Harwood—Charles Gallagher, Maud Carter, Jean Taylor.
Humboldt—Annie Conahan.
Milnesville—Alex. Dwyer, Nellie Coffman, Maggie Williams.
Hollywood—Mary Fullmer.
Lattimer—Fannie C. East, Carrie Crouse, Foster Monroe, Agnes Kinney.
North Side substitute—Kate Gillespie.
South Side substitute—Carrie Shaeffer.
The displaced teachers number twenty-two, as follows: J. L. Simmons, Charles Guscott, James Donohue, Rose Duffy, Ellen Duffy, Kate Gillespie, Mary A. Gallagher, Ella Quirk, Mary Guckivan, Maggie McCann, Kate Vaughn, Joseph Boyle, Andrew Higgins, Ellen Dougherty, Bid Curran, Grace Metzegan, Edward Mundie, John McCartney, Grace Coyle, Daniel Metzegan, Mary Campbell and Joseph Gallagher.

Hibernians Elect Officers.

The national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians finished its work on Friday night at Trenton, N. J., after performing the last act which consolidates the two branches. In the election of officers John P. Keating, of Chicago, was chosen national president; Patrick A. O'Neill, of Syracuse, N. Y., was elected vice president; James O'Sullivan, of Philadelphia, was re-elected national secretary; P. T. Moran, of Washington, was elected national treasurer, and P. J. O'Connor, of Savannah, Ga.; Edward J. Slattery, of South Framingham, Mass.; N. J. Burns, of Indianapolis, and another resident of Philadelphia, were elected national directors. Boston was selected for holding the next national convention, in May, 1900. In the resolutions adopted the Anglo-American alliance was condemned as well as any alliance with any European powers. Sympathy was expressed for the Cubans in their struggle for liberty and the members pledged the loyalty and support of the members in the present war with Spain. A resolution was adopted condemning the continued imprisonment of Irish political prisoners in English prisons. It was recommended that the organization establish a Hibernian Memorial Day, when the graves of the deceased members should be decorated.
Another resolution charged that in some sections of this country histories are used in the public schools which are biased and unfair to the Irish people. It was demanded that only impartial histories should be used. The convention made an appropriation of $1,000 for the suffering poor in Ireland.

Good News for the Miners.

The anthracite coal trust has at last opened its heart and orders are issued to allow the mining of 3,500,000 tons of coal in July, an increase over each recent month of 1,100,000 tons, a quantity which the statistical condition of the trade warrants, but which from a commercial aspect may be considered large. The buyers interpret this sudden increase in the present market as a sign that there is little change as compared with last week. Orders are becoming fewer and as the weather continues to grow warmer the demand becomes less.
Notwithstanding the reports put out by some of the large companies, cutting in prices is being freely indulged in by some who have more coal on hand than they wish to carry. The principal cutting is done at Buffalo and Chicago, where the price is anywhere from 25 to 50 cents a ton less than the regular.

Youthful Train Wrecker.

From the Hazleton Sentinel.
John Ruddy, a boy about eight years old, was found by the Lehigh Valley Railway on Friday afternoon charged with placing obstructions on the D. S. & S. Railroad near Harwood on the afternoon of June 24, which resulted in the derailing of an engine and doing considerable damage to the track. The boy is the son of Peter Ruddy, a Hungarian who resides in Harwood. The boy admitted the crime, but stated he was playing about the tracks and did not intend maliciously to block the track. D. J. McCarthy represented the company, and stated that he would be lenient, this time. He would ask that the boy's father pay the costs and part of the damages, and the case would not be pressed. This Mr. Ruddy consented to do, giving an order on his employers for the amount.

Reduced Rates to Omaha.

Oh the drum!
There is some Intonation in thy grum
Monotony of utterance that strikes the spirit dumb,
As we hear Through the clear And unclouded atmosphere
Thy rumbling palpitation roll in upon the ear.
There's a part Of the art Of thy music-throbbing heart
That thrills a something in us that awakes with a start,
And, in rhyme With the chime And exactitude of time,
Goes marching on to glory to thy melody sublime.
And the guest Of the breast That thy rolling robs of rest
Is a patriotic spirit as a Continental dressed,
And he looms From the glooms Of a century of toombs,
And the blood he spilled at Lexington in living beauty blooms.
And his eyes Wear the guise Of a nature pure and wise,
And the love of them is lifted to a something in the skies
That is bright With a blur of starry light
As it laughs in silken ripples to the breezes day and night.
There are deep Hushes creep
O'er the pulses as they leap,
And the murmur, fainter growing, on the silence falls asleep.
While the prayer Rising there
Will the sea and earth and air
As a heritage to Freedom's sons and daughters everywhere.
Then with sound As profound
As the thunders resound,
Come thy wild reverberations in a throng that shakes the ground,
And a cry, Flung on high
Like the flag it flutters by,
Wings rapturously upwards till it nestles in the sky.
Oh the drum!
There is some Intonation in thy grum
Monotony of utterance that strikes the spirit dumb,
As we hear Through the clear And unclouded atmosphere
Thy rumbling palpitations roll in upon the ear.
—James Whitcomb Riley.

A Truthful Remark.

One of our citizens remarked the other day that the money already invested in and the money yet due on the 4th stone crusher would pay for the sprinkling of the streets for many years to come. The most regretful part of the remark is that it is true. The crusher today is not a bit of use to the town, and it is very doubtful if it will ever pay for itself. The experience of Freeland with this machine is a repetition of the experience of every small town which has purchased one. Our streets are now as disgraceful as the day it was bought. The $1,300 and interest which it is costing would go a long way in either paving the town or drowning the dust.
