BRIEF ITEMS OF NEWS.

PARAGRAPHS GATHERED FROM ALL PARTS OF THE REGION.

Synopsis of Local and Miscellaneous Occurrences That Can Be Read Quickly. What the Folks of This and Other Towns Are Doing.

Mrs. Emma Horlacher was on Friday appointed postmistress at Lehigh Tannery.

Mauch Chunk ball club was defeated on Saturday by Slatington by a score of 4 to 0.

Frank O'Donnell, of Drifton, leaves today for Baltimore to resume his studies for the priesthood.

Markle & Co.'s collieries at Highland, Jeddo and Oakdale will work six more full days this week.

Hazleton's shirt factory is to be enlarged in size and the number of employees increased to 450.

The three men injured on Thursday by the breaking of a rope at No. 5 Jeddo colliery are improving.

Anthony O'Donnell, who was admitted to Hazleton hospital on August 18 suffering from an injured knee, has been discharged.

Football is again interesting the athletic young men of town and a team will probably be organized by the Tigers Athletic Club.

Valerio Palaver, of Ebersvale, and Miss Maria Matuella, of Freeland, were married on Saturday at Hazleton by Father Forve.

The trial of John Zona, of town, charged with forgery by Francis Toth, of Hazleton, will take place at the county seat tomorrow.

John Martella, an Austrian miner, was hurt by a fall of coal in No. 1 mine, Drifton, on Saturday. His spine is probably fractured and he is otherwise injured internally.

A mule driven by Patrick Green, of Sandy valley, took fright on Friday and ran away. Green was thrown from his vehicle and dashed against a fence, cutting his face and head severely.

The services of Forty Hours Devotion opened yesterday at St. Ann's Catholic church. Last evening's sermon was delivered by Rev. Francis Mack to an audience which filled the large edifice to the doors.

Patrick Houston, of Pittston, has been acquitted at Wilkesbarre of the charge of killing his brother, who was found dead in the woods after the two men had been out hunting. The evidence against the accused was all circumstantial.

The city officials of Carbondele, including Mayor O'Neill and all the councilmen, are indicted for maintaining a public nuisance. The prosecutor is Constable Michael Moran, whose complaint is that they have neglected certain streets until they are a nuisance.

The internal revenue department has decided that the holders of an unstamped check may stamp it and cancel the stamp, in order that it need not be sent back to the maker to be stamped. This is common sense. The object of the cancellation is to prevent the re-use of the stamp.

Justice Schwartz fined Simon Shober $2 and costs of suit at Shamokin for failing to send his boy to school, as required by the compulsory education law. His fourteen-year-old son took a dislike to his teacher and refused to attend. The father did not insist upon his going, hence the suit.

LOCAL WAR NOTES.

Charles F. Hagany, who served with the First Penna. Volunteers, arrived home on Thursday evening. His regiment reached Philadelphia last Friday and the men were then given a furlough of thirty days. He will report at Philadelphia on October 16, when the First will be mustered out of the United States service.

Charles L. Stoffel, whose death occurred last week and was reported as the twenty-fifth victim of the Ninth Penna., was not a member of this regiment. It was the Ninth New York to which he belonged.

Company K, of the Ninth, attended in a body the funeral of Mrs. John Talbot, mother of one of their members, who was pushed under a train while waiting for the soldiers to arrive at Bethlehem.

Lieutenant Sylvester is having remarkable success in enlisting men for the artillery service. Over 300 have been sworn in by him since opening the Wilkesbarre office.

Major John S. Harding, who left Wilkesbarre a confirmed bachelor, has recently made known his engagement to a beautiful California girl whom he met at Chickamauga.

John McKinley, who is sick at Camp Wikoff, is not dangerously ill. His excellent constitution has prevented the fever from taking a strong hold on him.

Jeremiah Brennan, the only man in Luzerne county who was a member of Roosevelt's Rough Riders, has returned to his home in Wilkesbarre.

THREE MINERS ENTOMBED.

Sudden Rush of Coal in a Nanticoke Shaft Buried Three Men.

Three men were entombed in No. 1 shaft of the Susquehanna Coal Company, at Nanticoke, Friday afternoon. They are: John Shannon, aged 32, has a wife and one child; John A. Jones, aged 28, single; George A. Morgan, aged 34, has a wife and three children.

These men, with John Jones and John Wolford, were engaged in driving a plane in one of the lower workings in order to get out some coal which was rather difficult to reach from the main gangway. The work was very dangerous owing to the plane being very steep and the coal through which it was cut being loose and running, so that at any time a rush of coal might occur. To guard against this a box had been built to hold back any which might come down.

Shannon, Morgan and John A. Jones were some distance back when the accident occurred. Wolford and his companion heard a sudden crash, followed by a prolonged roar, and at once knew what had happened. The coal was rushing down upon them. They ran for their lives and escaped just in time.

Once out of danger, they waited expectantly for their companions, but they did not come. Knowing they could do nothing, they carried the news to the surface. Assistant Superintendent Tonkin and Inside Superintendent Edwin Davis at once organized a rescuing party and they have been at work since.

While it is generally believed that the entombed men have been killed, there is a chance of their being alive. In its descent the coal may have blocked, and if this occurred the men may be in a safe place. As the coal is loose, they get plenty of air and might live for several days.

Later.—Late on Saturday night the bodies of the three men were recovered. All were dead.

Lower Freights for Hard Coal.

W. G. Thomas, of Pittston, chairman of the subcommittee on railroads, appointed at the recent convention of business men held in Scranton for the purpose of devising means for improving the anthracite coal trade, conferred with other members of the committee at Hazleton on Friday. Alleged discrimination on the part of the anthracite carrying roads against anthracite coal and finds the subject of discussion, and it was finally agreed to address a letter to the presidents of the various coal carrying roads, requesting a conference, at which an agreement amicable to both parties is to be entered into. If no concessions are made by the companies, then the Interstate Commerce Commission will be appealed to by the business men's association.

New Courthouse to Be Built.

The indications are that the work of demolishing the present courthouse will soon begin. The new structure has been agreed upon, and nothing further is expected to delay its erection. It will be built upon the site of the old courthouse. The estimated cost is half a million. It is stated that the commissioners intend to have the plans drawn by a Luzerne architect, the building erected by a Luzerne contractor and the material to come from the county as far as the same is practicable. Work will begin as soon as quarters for the officials are procured.

A Change of Pastors.

Rev. John E. Stas, pastor of St. John's Slavonian church for the past three years, has been transferred to Olyphant, Lackawanna county, to take charge of the Slavonian church of that place, the priest there having been transferred to Passaic, N. J. Rev. Stas was one of the hardest working clergymen in town and did much to build up and improve St. John's congregation in numbers and influence. He leaves for his new charge next Wednesday and his successor will be Rev. Charles Pajchisak, who was recently ordained.

To Be Ordained a Priest.

Bernard J. O'Donnell, of Freeland, will be ordained a priest at St. Thomas' church, Villanova, on Thursday by Monsignor Martinelli, and will read his first mass next Sunday at St. Ann's church at 10:30 a. m. Rev. L. A. Delury, president of Villanova college, will preach the sermon here and act as deacon at the mass. Mr. O'Donnell is the first Freeland young man to become a Catholic priest, and his first mass will undoubtedly be largely attended.

This Was a Windfall.

The heirs of Augustus S. Van Winkle, the coal baron of Hazleton, who recently died by the accidental discharge of his gun, have received $2,500 from the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. Mr. Van Winkle had made payment of his premiums amounting to $2,681.25 but a short time ago and thus gave his heirs a return of $59,818.75 over the cost of his insurance.

POLITICAL PICKUPS.

Charles R. Jones, state chairman of the Prohibition committee, in a recent interview at Pittsburg said: "Dr. Swallow will have a plurality of 50,000 to 75,000. I sincerely believe that he will win by that much. It is going to be a clean sweep. We are going to capture Republican strongholds we had not thought of getting some time ago. We are going to get Luzerne county, for example, and that is one of the last counties in the state you would think we could carry."

Congressman Williams' liking for the soldier boys of the Ninth regiment did not appear until the Republican party renominated him for congress. When the Ninth was suffering at Chickamauga, and when the men really needed assistance and had a right to expect their congressman to help them get their camp location changed, Mr. Williams was not heard of. It is small politics to make capital out of soldiers' sufferings.

The conversion of the Cross Creek Coal Company and its appendages to Quaysim has been announced and surprises only those who failed to keep tab on recent movements of the "Drifton gang." It is alleged that some solemn promises have been made on behalf of Stone in exchange for this corporation's support which would open the eyes of new county Republicans if the same were published.

The following nominations were made by Schuylkill Prohibitionists on Friday: Congress, S. G. M. Holloper, Shenandoah; district attorney, A. J. Pilgram, Pottsville; coroner, John P. Schwenk, Schuylkill Haven; poor director, Benjamin Rieckert, Tower City; surveyor, Joseph Seaman, Frackville. Legislative and senatorial candidates will also be named.

D. J. McCarthy delivered an address in favor of W. A. Stone for governor in Lycoming county on Friday. Dan two years ago was the Democratic candidate for state senator in this district, and last June completed a term as school director of Freeland, given him by the party. His change of political faith receives the unanimous approval of all Democrats who know him.

Hugh Sheridan is making a quiet but effective and thorough canvass of the Fourth legislative district and finds the general feeling to be in his favor. Not in many years has a more worthy candidate sought the office of representative in lower Luzerne, and workmen will not be true to themselves and their interest if they fail to elect him.

The meeting of the Democratic county committee and candidates at Wilkesbarre on Thursday was well attended and encouraging reports from every district were received. Chairman Paul Dasch intends to wage a vigorous fight for the success of every man on the ticket.

Dr. J. J. Synthe, who was a candidate for coroner before the Democratic county convention and claims to have been counted out, presented a petition in court on Saturday, asking that the name of Dr. J. A. Singer be stricken off the ballot and his name inserted.

Democratic conferees of Carbon, Monroe and Pike counties met at Mauch Chunk on Friday and nominated John E. Lauer, of Lansford, for congress. In the same district Congressman Kirkpatrick was renominated on Saturday by the Republicans.

At a meeting of the Republican County League Saturday night the following officers were elected for the year: President, George J. Llewellyn; vice-presidents, A. D. Hay and C. N. Gresh; treasurer, George A. Reed; secretary, William G. Ash.

Judge Albright's decision on the Democratic trouble in Carbon county says the certificate filed by the Lauer convention is wholly void, and directs that the candidates named by the Barber convention be put upon the ticket.

DEATHS.

Herring.—At Upper Lehigh, September 22, Mattie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Herring, aged 4 months. Interred on Saturday at Upper Lehigh cemetery.

McGill.—At Laurytown, September 25, Mrs. Edward McGill, aged 67 years. Funeral on Wednesday at 10:30 a. m. Requiem mass at Laurytown Catholic church. Interment in Laurytown cemetery. Breslin.

"Don't you come around here with any more of your patent frauds," said Uncle Reuben. "I've been took in once but you ain't goin' to catch me agin."

"What's the matter?" asked the gentlemanly agent. "The lightning rods I sold you are all right, aren't they?"

"All right! Well, mebby you call them all right, but they've been up for more'n six months now and the lightning hasn't hit 'em once!"

SOME OF THE GAME LAWS.

Season in Which Birds and Animals May Legally Be Killed.

Following is a digest of the game laws in force in this state at the present time with the season in which birds and animals may be legally taken:

Quail and partridge, from October 15 to December 15.
Pheasants, ruffed grouse and prairie chicken, October 15 to December 15.
Wild turkey, October 15 to December 15.

Rail and reed bird, September 1 to November 30.
Plover, July 15 to January 1.
Squirrel, October 15 to December 15.
Hare and rabbit, November 1 to December 15.

Under the new law no more than ten pheasants or ruffed grouse, two wild turkeys, ten woodcock or fifteen quail, may be killed by one person in one day, and no more than two deer in any one year. Market hunting, buying, selling, and the shipment of game birds and animals are prohibited. The killing of birds other than game birds is prohibited. Sunday gunning is prohibited. Decoys may be used in hunting geese and ducks only.

All game must be shot with a gun. Dogs must not be used to hunt deer or elk, or to capture or kill them in the waters, streams, ponds or lakes. The use of ferrets for hunting game is prohibited. English and Mongolian pheasants are protected for five years from July 4, 1898. Killing or wounding, or catching with a trap, net, snare, birdlime, poison, or drugs is prohibited. However, the English sparrow, kingfisher, hawk, horned owl, green heron and night heron are not protected. Fifteen days' time is allowed after expiration of season to dispose of game.

School Teachers After Money.

From the Hazleton Plain Speaker.

Hazle township school teachers are looking to the treasurer for money, but when he will be able to cash their orders is a puzzling question to every member of the board. Salaries for the last term are due and many of the ex-teachers are anxious for a settlement. Then, too, teachers who were reappointed do not know when their salary for the first month of the present term is to be paid. Hazle township was never before in so pitiable a condition financially and otherwise as it is today. In few years the term has diminished from ten to eight months and it is a question whether the board will be able to pay them for eight months' service. Corruption existed heretofore as charged against the various boards, but it has coupled with it today mismanagement, which is bringing about an alarming state of affairs.

Junior Mechanics' Convention.

The contest for vice counselor of the Junior Order United American Mechanics ended at New Castle on Thursday in the election of Charles P. Crall, of Monongahela. The vote stood: Crall, 227; Charles A. Westerman, 176. The report of the finance committee shows that there are 74,000 members in good standing in the state. For 1899 the per capita tax will be fixed at 15 cents each, or a total of $11,000. The tax to each member for the Orphans' Home will be ten cents for the year, or a total of $7,400. Scranton went after the next convention and got it.

Escaped Prisoner Returns.

William Hollar, who escaped from the Columbia county jail a month ago, returned and gave himself up on Thursday evening. While he was free he wrote and telephoned the sheriff that he would return in time for court, and his only remark when he returned was: "I said I would come back and here I am." Stephen Mensinger, the prisoner who escaped at the same time with Hollar, is still at large.

Not a Trust Product.

Bartel's beer should commend itself to every workman who is opposed to monopoly. The brewery at which this beer is made is not affiliated with any trust or combination, its employees are well paid and accorded every privilege workmen could ask for. Besides, Bartel's beer is not surpassed by anything in the market in purity. Ask for it. All up-to-date dealers sell it. Chas. Bozokowski, agent.

At Eckley on Saturday Night.

Make no mistake in the date. The biggest picnic of the season will be held next Saturday evening at Eckley Cycle Path grove by the Shamrock drum corps. It will be a great gathering and fun will flow freely. Dancing music by Eckley Junior band. The members of the drum corps respectfully invite Freeland people to attend this picnic.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING.

SPECIAL SESSION WAS HELD ON SATURDAY EVENING.

Tax Duplicate to Be Ready Today, the Secretary Reports.—Board is of the Opinion That It Is Being Discriminated Against in Appropriations.

A special meeting of the borough school board was held Saturday evening. The secretary reported he would have the duplicate ready today. A form of a warrant drawn by the secretary, with an additional clause from one drawn by the solicitor, was accepted and ordered placed in the duplicate.

In view of the fact that the board is being discriminated against at Harrisburg in the matter of state appropriation, the secretary was instructed to write the state department for definite information as to the number of taxables, pupils and teachers, as returned by the county commissioners and the rate per each as based by the state authorities.

The principal reported the attendance in the South Heberton schools as follows: Mr. Houston, 45; Miss Bilger, 64; Miss Winter, 20. It was decided to transfer a class from Miss Bilger's room to Miss Winter's. The board granted the principal one day to examine those schools and have them properly graded.

A list of books needed brought forth some criticism of the action of the text book committee. There being no member of the committee present the purchase of the books was laid over until the regular meeting, and in the meantime the principal is to see that Swinton's books are used.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the hearing restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

T. P. Ryder's Book.

Persons wishing to procure copies of the poetical and best prose writings of the late Thomas P. Ryder, in book form, which will be published by the Wilkesbarre Press Club, should send their names to the offices of any of the Wilkesbarre newspapers. The cost of the book will be $1 per volume, and the proceeds will be deposited in the People's bank, to be used in educating Mr. Ryder's little orphan daughter, Agnes. The object of the publication is a most worthy one, and each purchaser will be not only helping a good cause along but will secure a good return for his money.

For Mr. Ryder was recognized as one of the cleverest and most versatile writers in the Wyoming valley.
