In 1837 the appropriation to the bank-ing department was again fixed at $124,000, and the commissioner and his deputy and his three clerks and his the examiners continue to luxuriate on the fat of the land, while the banks go on collapsing in greater number and with greater loss to the taxpayers than ever bafere.

ten examiners continue to luxuriate on the fat of the land, while the banks no noollapsing in greater number and with greater loss to the taxpayers than ever before. In addition to being a gross fraud upon the taxpayers, the banking de-partment exists in violation of the ex-press mandate of the constitution, which requires that all such matters as come under its supervision shall be subject to direction by the secretary of internal affairs. When the miners of the state scuight to have a mine de-partment created as a thing separate and distinct by itself, which the miners themselves should have some voice in controlling, the law officers of the com-monwealth were quick to find that such a project would infract the fundamen-tal law, though how that instrument can be construed to permit a separate bank department, only a condi-ring attorney, in the pay of the ma-chine, cen explain. The 1536 report of the commissioner of bashing, which is the last printed volume we have from his hand, shows banks and trust companies made re-port to him. In the state of Pennsyl-vania there are 450 national banks. The United States are a great power, with apparently unlimited means, and yet they manged, in the interest of a proper economy, though each bank is work without any expense to the gov-ernment, the regulations exacting from the banks a sum that in the total bal-need the cost of the department. An-ther somewhat significant fact is that only five examiners were required to look after the 450 national banks, while work without any expense to the gov-ernment, the regulations exacting from the banks a sum that in the total bal-need the cost of the department.
