MAY ADOPT NEW LIGHT.

COUNCIL RECEIVES A PROPOSITION FROM PHILADELPHIANS.

Kitson Light Company Makes an Offer to Furnish Forty Lights at $3,000 per Annum—Other Business Transacted at Monday Evening's Session.

The December meeting of the borough council attracted hundreds of people of town to the meeting place, and not one-half of the number who sought admission could be accommodated. There seemed to be an idea that the difficulty between Burgess Gallagher and Councilmen DePiero and Rudewick would be reopened, and with the expectation of witnessing a lively meeting crowds flocked to the borough building.

The most important matter which came before the body was a new proposition on the light question. Chairman Daniel Kline, of this committee, stated that he had sent out circulars to about 250 towns, asking the price paid for light, etc., and that he had received numerous answers and would ask council to meet at an early date to consider the same.

He also stated that he had communicated with the Kitson Light Company, of Philadelphia, and the Welsbach Company, and introduced to council Mr. Ober, an agent of the former.

Mr. Ober stated that the Kitson light was a vapor oil light. He claimed it to be the simplest and safest light on the market, and will cast its rays farther than any other light. Lamps are of 1,000 candle-power. On a three-years' contract he will furnish forty lights at $75 each per year, $3,000 per annum. It was decided to meet Mr. Ober on Monday evening.

One of the lights was exhibited on Monday evening in front of the Central hotel and on Tuesday evening on Johnson street. Opinions differ on the question as to whether it is as good as an arc electric light.

Next to the light question, the only other important subject taken up was the charge preferred against Officer James P. McNalis. President DePiero vacated the chair, placing Mr. Kline therein, and stated that he had brought charges against Mr. McNalis at the November meeting and asked that the same be taken up.

Councilman Smith took the position that there are rules laid down for the guidance of the councilmen and police and offered a motion that the police committee of council, the burgess and chief of police meet and investigate the charges and report at the next meeting.

Much to the chagrin of many of the spectators, the motion carried.

Solicitor Stroh spoke about the progress being made with the trustees of the K. of L., relative to the transfer of the lots at Centre and Walnut streets. He stated that he had drawn a deed for the same, covering the conditions named by the trustees, and that it was now in the hands of their attorney and would no doubt be returned soon.

A communication was read from Freeland Overall Company in reference to a

Conrad Schaub died at 11 o'clock Monday evening at his residence, corner of Centre and Chestnut streets. He was born on March 28, 1834, and was baptized April 5 of the same year. In 1848 he was confirmed as a member of the Reformed Church and continued as such until his death. He came to America in 1855. On March 23, 1856, he was married to Miss Mary Keuch. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. PRESIDENT'S MESSEGE.

WHAT THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF THE NATION HAS TO SAY.

The Important Questions of the Day Are Treated in the President's Usual Non-Committal Manner—Recommends Action on Numerous Minor Matters.

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

Notwithstanding the added burdens rendered necessary by the war our people rejoice in a very satisfactory and steadily increasing degree of prosperity, evidenced by the largest volume of business ever recorded. Manufacture has been productive, agricultural pursuits have yielded abundant returns, labor in all fields of industry is better rewarded, revenue legislation passed by the present congress has increased the treasury's receipts to the amount estimated by its authors, the finances of the government have been successfully administered and its credit advanced to the first rank, while its currency has been maintained at the world's highest standard. Military service under a common flag and for a righteous cause has strengthened the national spirit and served to cement more closely than ever the fraternal bonds between every section of the country.

A review of the relation of the United States to other powers, always appropriate in view of the momentous issues which have arisen, demanding in one instance the ultimate determination by arms and involving far-reaching consequences, which will require the earnest attention of the congress.

In my last annual message very full consideration was given to the question of the duty of the government of the United States toward Spain and the Cuban insurrection as being by far the most important problem with which we have been called upon to deal. The considerations then advanced and the exposition of the views therein expressed disclosed my sense of the extreme gravity of the situation.

Spain's Due.
Setting aside as logically unfounded or practically inadmissible the recognition of the Cuban insurgents as belligerents, the recognition of the independence of Cuba, neutral intervention to end the war by imposing a rational compromise between the contestants, intervention in favor of one or the other party and forcible annexation of the island, I concluded it was honestly due to our friendly relations with Spain that she should be given a reasonable chance to realize her expectations of reform, to which she had become irrevocably committed. Within a few weeks previously she had announced comprehensive plans which it was confidently asserted would be efficacious to remedy the evils so deeply affecting our own country, so injurious to the true interests of the mother country as well as to those of Cuba, and so repugnant to the universal sentiment of humanity.

The ensuing month brought little sign of real progress toward the pacification of Cuba. The autonomous administration set up in the capital and some of the principal cities appeared not to gain the favor of the inhabitants nor to be able to extend their influence to the large extent of territory held by the insurgents, while the military arm, obviously unable to cope with the still active rebellion, continued many of the most objectionable and offensive policies of the government that had preceded it. The war continued on the old footing without comprehensive plan, developing only the same spasmodic encounters, barren of strategic result, that had marked the course of the earlier ten years' rebellion as well as the present insurrection from its start. No alternative save physical exhaustion of either combatant and therewithal the practical ruin of the island lay in sight, but how far distant no one could venture to conjecture.

The Maine's Destruction.
At this juncture, on the 15th of February last, occurred the destruction of the battleship Maine while rightfully lying in the harbor of Havana on a mission of international courtesy and good will—a catastrophe the suspicious nature and horror of which stirred the nation's heart profoundly. Yet the instinct of justice prevailed, and the nation anxiously awaited the result of the searching investigation at once set on foot. The finding of the naval board of inquiry established that the origin of the explosion was external, by a submarine mine, and only halted through lack of positive testimony to fix the responsibility of its authorship.

All these things carried conviction to the most thoughtful, even before the finding of the naval court, that a crisis in our relations with Spain and toward Cuba was at hand. So strong was this belief that it needed but a brief executive suggestion to the congress to receive immediate answer to the duty of making instant provision for the possible and perhaps probable emergency of war, and the remarkable, almost unique, spectacle was presented of a unanimous vote of both houses on the 9th of March appropriating $50,000,000 for the national defense and for each and every purpose connected therewith, to be expended at the discretion of the president.

That this act of provision came not too soon was disclosed when the application of the fund was undertaken. Our conscripts were practically undefended. Our navy needed large provision for increased ammunition and supplies and even numbers to cope with any sudden attack from the navy of Spain.

Proceedings Against Councilmen.
Sheriff Martin on Tuesday served notice on Daniel Kline and A. Rudewick, councilmen of the Second ward, to appear in court on December 16 and show cause why they should not vacate their seats as members of the borough council. Mr. Kline is charged with holding the positions of tax collector and councilman, and Mr. Rudewick with having sold 70 cents worth of spikes and hammer handles to the borough, using the name of his brother.

Burgess Gallagher is the prosecutor and his side of the case is in the hands of Attorney Carr. The outcome is awaited with much interest by local taxpayers.

Faust Exonerated by the Jury.
The coroner's inquest, held at Mahanoy City, to determine the cause of the death of John Cull, rendered a verdict that death was due to over distension and paralysis of the heart, caused by over exertion. Cull and a man named Faust were having a friendly sparring match in which Faust received the worst of the bargain. Cull walked back about five feet and fell into the arms of his uncle. No blows were given that would have caused his death and the verdict was rendered accordingly.

The deceased formerly resided in Jeddo.

EVERY MAN

Ought to have two eyes open when he is awake and only one eye closed when he is asleep. It's the man with his eyes open—the wide-awake man, as we call him—who sees the opportunities of life; sees them and seizes them, nothing escapes him.

The Sleepy Man walks down the street and sees only a number of stores, all somewhat alike. He fails to become impressed.

On the other hand the Wide Awake Man notices the air of business about our establishment. The goods catch his eye, he prices them, he buys and he gets a bargain. He has made money. No wide-awake man passes our store. It is always attractive—something new every week. Our stock of
