WITH THE LAW-MAKERS.

NOTES AND COMMENTS FROM THE PENNSYLVANIA CAPITAL.

President McKinley and Other National Officials to Visit Harrisburg on May 12. Summary of Important Bills Lately Introduced—Deadlock is Still On.

The senatorial situation remains unchanged. For more than four weeks ballots have been taken daily without result. The presence in the city the past few days of a number of leading Democratic politicians of the state gave rise to the belief that they were here to help break the deadlock.

The unveiling of the handsome equestrian statue of the late General John F. Hartranft on the capitol grounds, facing the new state house, will take place May 12 and will be an imposing event. President McKinley has given his assurance that he will attend, as will also Secretaries Alger and Long and General Miles. A resolution has been presented calling for the appointment of a legislative committee of five to assist in making arrangements for the event.

Another lot of bills have been presented, among the most important of which are these: Authorizing the election of two triennial assessors in townships and boroughs not divided into wards and one principle assessor in boroughs and authorizing judges to appoint assessors in cases of vacancy. Another railroad bill compels railroad companies to equip their cars and locomotives with couplers, continuous brake and grade irons; their locomotives with driving wheel brakes; fixing a standard height for drawbacks for freight cars and engines, and to adjust, fill or block all frog switches, guard rails and all other constructions which are a part of or are near their tracks so as to prevent the feet of employes from being caught therein.

MILITARY BILLS.
A bill pertaining to the National Guard has made his appearance. It provides that the Guard shall consist of 180 companies of infantry, five troops of cavalry, five batteries of artillery, four companies of engineers and a signal corps. There shall be one major general. The Guard shall conform to the regulations of the United States army.

Another measure bearing on military matters provides for the organization of a reserve force, to be called out in case of war, to suppress riots and to assist the civil officers in the execution of the laws. The members shall be enrolled by assessors, and shall include every male citizen between the ages of 21 and 45, except those mentally unsound, drunks, paupers, convicts and state officials. Assessors are paid 3 cents for each name they report liable for military duty, and the county commissioners are directed to publish the list and send the names to the adjutant general.

BEER BILLS.

A bill to tax beer, ale and porter brewed within the state, for revenue purposes, has again appeared, although a similar bill has been defeated at every session since 1891, because the brewers have been liberal contributors to campaigns, and it is very likely that such contributions were made with the understanding that no adverse legislation be passed, at least not until after the session of 1901. Another beer bill offered is to repeal the act of 1897, which requires manufacturers of liquors, who sold their product to licensed dealers only, to pay into the state treasury $1,000 a year for this privilege. This was one of a batch of revenue bills to help replenish the treasury and the brewers now want it repealed.

Captain George W. Skinner, who was pension agent at Harrisburg during President Cleveland's last term, has introduced a bill into the legislature providing pensions for Pennsylvanians who fought in the war of the rebellion. The rate of pension shall be a monthly rate of one cent per day for each day served in the war. Pensions shall not be paid to persons of grossly intemperate habits. Attorneys or agents prosecuting claims are not permitted to charge a fee of more than $10 for each claim. Pensions granted under this act shall cease when congress shall provide pensions for the class of soldiers receiving pensions under this act.

A bill presented authorizes the Pennsylvania Canal Company to abandon the public use of that portion of its canal from Newton Hamilton to Duncan's island. This is in the interest of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company so that it may straighten and otherwise improve its tracks along the canal.

A bill in the interest of public health and emergency cases was offered which empowers school directors in townships to organize themselves as a board of health to prevent the spread of contagious disease.

DEATHS.

Wald.—At Alvirton, Freeland. February 17, Augusta, daughter of Henry and Louisa Wald, aged 4 months. Interred yesterday at Freeland cemetery.

Death of Rev. J. H. Schmidt.

Rev. John H. Schmidt died at his home on Washington street at 2:30 o'clock Friday morning. For some time past the deceased had been in feeble health, but his condition was not considered dangerous until Thursday, when he was stricken with an apoplectic stroke. From the effects of this he did not rally, passing away calmly at the hour given above.

Rev. Schmidt was a native of Prussia. He was born August 9, 1827. From 1849 to 1851 he served as a soldier in the army of Prussia, after which he came to America. He entered the Lutheran seminary at Gettysburg and began his studies for the ministry. In 1861 he was granted license to preach, and in 1863 he was ordained by the Allegheny synod.

His first charge was located at Altoona, then he went to Hollidaysburg, Trevorton and White Haven. In the latter town he spent from 1868 to 1875, coming here in August of that year. Under his reign as pastor, St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran church grew from a small congregation to one of the largest in town, and the devotion of the members to their pastor continued without interruption until Rev. Schmidt voluntarily retired from active service in 1891.

Since his retirement he maintained the same keen interest in religious affairs which characterized him in earlier days, and he was a constant attendant at the monthly meetings of the Lutheran Ministerial Association of the Upper Lehigh Valley. Many papers of great importance were read by him at these meetings.

By the people of town Rev. Schmidt was respected and esteemed, and his unexpected death caused many expressions of sorrow from the people. He was a man of strong convictions, excellent judgment and his wide range of knowledge gave him high standing in the community. He took a deep interest in state and national affairs, and in his death the Democratic party lost a steadfast and consistent supporter.

Rev. Schmidt is survived by his widow, Mrs. Anna Louisa Newman Schmidt, to whom he was married in 1862 at Gettysburg; also by five children, as follows: Mrs. Adolph Weiss, Wilkes-Barre; Rev. N. E. Schwelensville, Miss Lulu, Freeland; Corporal W. J. of Company M, Twelfth regular infantry, and Edgar H., a student at Kutztown normal school.

The funeral takes place at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Services will be conducted by Rev. J. O. Schlenker, Hazleton; Rev. L. Lindenstruth, Mauch Chunk, and other clergymen. The interment will be made in Freeland cemetery.

All the children of the deceased have arrived home to attend the funeral except William J. The latter's regiment left New York yesterday afternoon for Manila.

Death of Mrs. P. M. Sweeney.

After an illness of many years Mrs. Patrick M. Sweeney died at her home on Washington street at 8 o'clock Saturday morning. Death was due to a complication of diseases which had kept their victim bedfast for nearly two years. During this period Mrs. Sweeney suffered intense pain at times and her death had been expected on several occasions.

The deceased, before her marriage, was Miss Nell Dugan, a daughter of Mrs. Catherine Dugan, of town, who, with a brother, Neal, of Highland, and a sister, Mrs. Charles Murrin, of Jeddo, survive her. Besides her husband she is also survived by four children, one son and three daughters, all of whom have the sympathy of the community in their loss. She was aged 30 years, 4 months and 28 days.

The funeral takes place at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. A requiem mass will be read at St. Ann's Catholic church and the interment will be made in the cemetery adjoining.

Miner's Terrible Death.

At 3 o'clock Friday afternoon a heavy fall of coal and rock occurred in the breast worked by Joseph Logan in Sandy Run mines covering the unfortunate workman with hundreds of tons of debris. Every effort was made to reach the body, and this was accomplished at 6 o'clock Saturday evening. The deceased was a well-known resident of this section, having lived in this vicinity upwards of thirty years. He was aged 60 years, and is survived by a wife and two sons and two daughters, William, of Freeland; Mattie, who is married in Philadelphia, and a young son and a daughter who live at home.

The funeral will take place from his late residence in Sandy Run tomorrow afternoon. Interment in Freeland cemetery.

A Queer Experiment.

W. H. Montgomery, a Hazleton florist, has been placed under $1,000 bail to appear in court and answer the charge of attempting to hang Bertha Greising, aged 10 years. The crime was committed on February 11 in Montgomery's green-house, after he had enticed the child there with money and flowers. He placed a rope around her neck, stood her on a box, then tied the rope and removed her support, holding her there until she fainted.

Montgomery says he was "experimenting." It is believed that the man is demented, and that his experiments were planned with a view of learning how hanging would suit his own suicidal views.

New Manager for Opera House.

The Young Men's Corps yesterday afternoon elected Patrick McGeehan, of West Walnut street, as manager of the Grand opera house to succeed George McLaughlin, Esq., who presented his resignation some time ago on account of lack of time to give the position proper attention. Mr. McGeehan, as a member of the board of directors of the opera house, has had much experience in the theatrical business, and will do all that is possible to procure good plays. The following were chosen to fill vacancies on the board of directors: Manus D. McLaughlin, Peter G. Gallagher, Hugh A. McMenamin.

South Ward Division.

Commissioner Wilhelm took testimony on Saturday at Squire Shovlin's office on the rule of court to show cause why the petition for a re-view of the South ward should not be dismissed. Attorney Stroth represented the petitioners for a re-view and Attorney Carr represented those who oppose a re-view. The names of thirty-four of the petitioners were stricken off by mutual consent, leaving but sixteen property holders on the list. The hearing was not concluded on Saturday, and another session will be held next Thursday afternoon.

An Aged Lady Dead.

At Lehigh last Monday Mrs. Elizabeth Bauer died at the age of 95 years, 3 months and 3 days. She was one of the oldest residents of Carbon county, and is survived by seven children, thirty-eight grand-children, fifteen great-grand-children and a large number of great-great-grand-children. Among the grand-children are M. H. and Thomas Hunsicker, of Freeland, who attended the funeral on Friday.

A Good Exhibition.

Taylor's Minstrels, Hazleton's amateur theatrical organization, gave a good exhibition at the Grand on Saturday evening. The company as a whole, as well as individually, introduced a quantity of excellent and original fun, and they deserved the generous applause rendered. The house was crowded, and the proceeds go to the Mining and Mechanical Institute.

P. B. Connor Lodge, No. 173, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, changed its headquarters from Hazleton to Freeland last week, and will meet in P. O. S. of A. hall hereafter.

The engagement of Joseph Sarricks, of Sandy Run, and Miss Grace Palmer, of Jeddo, has been announced. They will be married in June.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Intelligent observers give it as their opinion that George Keller, Democratic candidate for school director in Foster, will be a winner tomorrow beyond question. His colleague, Edward Doudt, will not be far behind. Both men will receive the undivided support of their party, and each will get strong Republican support. This, it is said, has so demoralized their opponents that the latter have struck out for themselves, Richards leaving nothing undone to carry himself through and Kimmel doing likewise.

If the voters of the First ward elect J. P. McNeil to council they will be represented in that body by a young man who is a property owner, and therefore interested in the questions which council has to decide. His voice and vote may be depended upon for genuine reform and economy, and no corporation nor clique will own him. The same may be said of George Fisher, candidate for school director. He is worthy of the support of all.

The office of township supervisor is not the berth that some folks seem to think it is. The taxpayers never needed good men in this position more than they do today. The designs of the corporations must be met and overcome, and this is what Supervisor McGuire fearfully did during his term when the abandonment of roads and other schemes were afoot. Mr. McGuire's actions deserve endorsement by re-electing him.

Foster Democrats were never more hopeful of victory since the nominations were made than they are today. Chairman McGill has assuring reports from every district in the township, and from the detailed information at hand he looks for the election of every candidate on the ticket.

During his three years as councilman some time ago, A. A. Bachman made a record for himself as a careful legislator and a man who placed the interests of the taxpayers above all else in borough affairs. Such men are needed on council again.

Republican candidates in the uptown wards betray much uneasiness regarding tomorrow's vote. Notwithstanding the fact that these wards are overwhelmingly Republican, the party's candidates find it necessary to work very hard this year.

The next Republican county convention will vote upon the adoption of a revised set of rules. The new rules provide for the Crawford county system of making nominations.

Down in the South ward there is a dead calm, the Republican candidates making no effort to procure votes. All the Democratic nominees will have a walk-over.

The candidates for poor director did not make a very spirited contest for the office and little or no interest is taken in Freeland in the outcome.

The Tribune on Thursday will give its usual accurate reports of the results of tomorrow's election.

DRIFTON ITEMS.

Miss Madge Boner returned to her home here on Wednesday evening from Bayonne City, N. J. She is suffering from an abscess in her ear and is seriously ill from the effects. Dr. H. M. Neale has taken charge of the case, and Miss Boner's friends hope her recovery will soon follow.

Andrew O'Donnell, one of our popular young men, will receive a handsome vote here as Democratic candidate for clerk of Hazle township.

Thomas Young, who lately resigned as mine foreman at No. 5 Jeddo colliery, has accepted a similar position in No. 2 colliery, Drifton.

Daniel J. Boyle is confined to his home with injuries received in the mines on Tuesday.

Until further orders Drifton collieries will work only eight hours a day.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
