AN INTERESTING STUDY.

Great Fact Required in Crowds Which Bring All Classes Together.
The behavior of people in crowds would make an interesting study of itself. In an ordinary crowd the majority are apt to be unacquainted with any formal etiquette, and the rest seem to follow all they ever know; only those who are possessed of natural politeness and unflinching good nature are saved from becoming savages under such circumstances. Of course it is unpleasant for people of refined nature to be brought into very close contact with the ruder populace, and very frequently happens that the very ones who have had most training in courtesy are the most disagreeable when in the midst of a crowd. The nerves of the common people are less easily disturbed, and the physical discomforts common to crowds are not greater than are accustomed to in ordinary daily life. Unless you can be sure of bearing yourself with a cool and good humor, you should avoid crowds for your own sake as well as out of consideration for others.
If, from choice or necessity, you flock with birds that are not all of your own fine feather, your aim should be to respect the rights of others without relinquishing your own. You are not a door mat, to allow yourself to be trampled upon without remonstrance; nor yet a cur, to snarl and snap at those who, perhaps, through no fault of their own, encroach upon you too closely. Even in the highest circles people are apt to lose their heads, to say nothing of their hearts, when massed in large numbers, as witness the frays that are reported to take place among the fair "gentlewomen" who attend the queen's drawing room.

The congregation of St. Patrick's church at Audenried has decided to build a handsome edifice at McAdoo. The Audenried church had to be abandoned owing to the settling of the ground on which it was built.

NOTES AND COMMENTS FROM THE PENNSYLVANIA CAPITAL.

All Hope of Electing a United States Senator at This Session of the Legislature Has Been Given Up—Some of the Bills Which Have Been Signed.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 14, 1899.
Pennsylvania's general assembly has not yet agreed upon a scheme that will produce sufficient revenue to cover the deficiency of nearly four millions dollars in the state treasury, complete the capitol building and meet the ordinary expenses of the state government for the next two fiscal years. The commonwealth is practically bankrupt, and unless the present legislature provides the means by which the state revenues will be increased, the private charities, hospitals and universities will receive no aid from the state.
Governor Stone has served notice on the legislators that he wants the deficiency wiped out, and that he will not sign away a single cent in excess of the estimated state revenues for the next two years. The appropriation bills for private charities are held back by the house committee until the revenue bills have gone to the executive. Chairman Hosack, of the ways and means committee, says that before the session ends the legislature will have passed bills providing for sufficient revenue for the state's ordinary expenses, charities, schools and all other objects including the nearly four million deficit and the completion of the capitol building.
Quite a number of bills have reached the governor. So far about twenty-five measures have received his approval, and

NONE HAVE BEEN VETOED.
The seven months' school term bill received his approval, and also the following: To validate deeds and acknowledgments of certain justices of the peace holding office de facto and not de jure.
To establish a board for the examination of accountants and providing for granting certificates.
To enable city, borough, township and other tax collectors to collect taxes for the payment of which they have become personally liable.
The act relating to the annexation of land by boroughs; the act providing that constables' fees shall be paid by counties; the act requiring amendments to pamphlet laws to be printed in different type.
The bills requiring written notice to be served upon county commissioners of the time and place of holding any view, review or re-view for a public road; repealing certain local road laws; providing for maintenance of good order at agricultural fairs.
In addition to signing the above bills Governor Stone to these resolutions: Authorizing the appointment of eight members and five senators to represent the legislature at the unveiling of the Grant monument in Fairmount park, Philadelphia, on April 27, without any cost to the state; authorizing the appointment of two senators and three members to confer with similar committees from other states with a view of amending the federal constitution to bring about the election of president, vice president and United States senators by a direct vote of the people; instructing the capitol building commission to furnish in the state house a suitable reception room for lady visitors; presenting to Lieutenant Colonel James E. Barnett, of the Tenth Pennsylvania, the desk and chair used by him as deputy secretary of the commonwealth.

There are yet a number of bills in the executive's hands for his disposal. Among the lot is the measure increasing the number of employes about the legislature.

THE SENATORIAL SITUATION
remains the same and notwithstanding the rumors it is not likely that any agreement will be reached by the warring element in the Republican party. It is now pretty certain that Quay will not withdraw from the contest and otherwise an election cannot be made. The session has only about a week to run and all factions are as firm as ever. The Independent Republicans, although united, changed their vote daily during the week to as many candidates whom they previously supported with scattered votes. The other Republicans and Democrats continued to vote for Quay and Jenks.

Catarth Cannot Be Cured

Hall's Catarth Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarth Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. outside of the state shall be inspected, and if found diseased shall be condemned. A petition has been in circulation during the past few days by the friends of Senator Snyder, of Chester county, for signatures to insure his election as president pro tem of the senate until the beginning of the next term. Nissley.

PERSONALITIES.

Miss Sarah Dever, whose illness in Philadelphia was mentioned in our last issue, arrived here on Thursday evening and is receiving treatment at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Edward Gallagher, Main street. Miss Dever was accompanied here by her sister Mary and Miss Ella Hahey.

George Hufford and family have taken up their residence in Drifton again, after spending two years in New York city.
John Gillespie, late of the firm of Gillespie & Curry, left this morning for Philadelphia, where he will begin work this week.
Misses Mame and Rose Boyle, of town, took part in a musical and literary entertainment at McAdoo last evening.
Conrad Zang is removing his household goods to Hazleton.
John Anon has removed his family to West Hazleton.

First vice president—George H. Schwabe.
Second vice president—Dr. N. Maloy.
Secretary—George T. Brown.
Treasurer—Bernhard Dinn.
Managers—M. Schwabe, W. E. Oberender, S. Salmon, George T. Brown, Bernhard Dinn.
General manager—R. R. Cross.
Another meeting will be held tomorrow evening, when further details of the business will be acted upon.

Lynch Pushes Woodward Out.

The Democrats in three out of the six legislative districts in Luzerne county have now endorsed Judge Lynch for the vacancy on the supreme court bench, and Judge Woodward has withdrawn from the contest. The Democrats of the First district, which comprises Wilkesbarre city, at their convention on Thursday, unanimously endorsed Judge Lynch as Luzerne's candidate. The judge was given authority to select his own delegates. The nomination of John M. Garman as chairman of the Democratic state central committee was endorsed and the convention requested the members of the said committee from this county to vote for his continuance as chairman.

False Alarm of Fire.

Shortly before 12 o'clock last night the fire alarm rang and a few moments later the firemen were speeding up Washington street with the apparatus, looking for their old-time enemy. After skimming around for some time it was learned that the cry of "Fire" had been raised by a young man from Hazleton named Cormac Brennan.
The latter was found and arrested by Officer Hartman. He could give no reason for calling fire and was locked up. This morning he denied all knowledge of his actions and regretted that he had caused the firemen and townspeople so much uneasiness and trouble.

Convention and Entertainment.

An unusually good program is being arranged for the entertainment at the Grand opera house next Sunday evening. Several of the delegates who will attend the quarterly district meeting of the C. T. A. Union to be held here that afternoon volunteered to assist in making the evening exercises a success.
Thomas Charles, a baritone singer who made a hit here with Taylor's Minstrels, has also been engaged for the evening. He will sing the popular song, "Born at Sea and a Sailor."
Cash and Jewelry Stolen.
Early Friday morning thieves entered the residence of Alexander Law during his absence and proceeded to the bedroom of Mrs. Law. She was rudely awakened and told to make no outcry or she would lose her life. To back up the threat the barrel of a revolver was pressed against her head. One of the burglars then ransacked the bureau drawers, securing about $100 and some jewelry.

The official production of anthracite coal in the month of March was 3,416,833 tons. There was quite an improvement in the average tidewater price, for the companies secured 12 cents more on an average of prepared sizes than they secured in February. The average received, however, was below last year, being about $3.43, against $3.67 in March, 1898.
The snow storm which swept over the region yesterday interfered with the public demonstration arranged by the Slavonian societies in honor of the dedication of the new bell at the Greek church. The church services were held, but the parade was declared off on account of the inclement weather.

Eckley is no longer listed as a station on the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

DEATHS.

Death of Mrs. George McLaughlin.
Mrs. Celia McLaughlin, wife of George McLaughlin, Esq., died at 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon at their home on North Ridge street. Death came suddenly and unexpectedly, less than half an hour elapsing between the time the change in her condition occurred and her death. The news spread rapidly and was received throughout town with general expressions of sorrow.
Mrs. McLaughlin's illness dated from the birth of a daughter last Wednesday. She was improving daily since that event, and there seemed to be no danger until about 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when a fatal change occurred, and in a short while she was dead.

Mrs. McLaughlin was born twenty-five years ago at old Buck Mountain, but the greater part of her life was spent in Freeland. Last June she was married to Mr. McLaughlin. She was esteemed and respected by all who enjoyed her acquaintance and her death is deeply regretted in the community.
Besides her husband and little daughter, the deceased is survived by her father, Manus Brennan, one brother, John, of Philadelphia, and three sisters, Miss Bella, of Philadelphia, and Mary Ann and Margaret, of Freeland.
The funeral will leave the residence at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. A requiem mass at St. Ann's church will follow at 10 o'clock. The interment will be made in St. Ann's cemetery.

Itemized Statements Must Be Filed.

Clerk of Courts Walter B. Koons has given notice to township and borough auditors that the act of assembly of April 24, 1874, provides that the auditors of the several townships and boroughs within the commonwealth are required to file with the clerk of the court of quarter session an itemized annual statement of the receipts and expenditures of the borough councils, road commissioners, supervisors, overseers of the poor and school directors for the year preceding the annual settlements for their respective districts; which shall be at all times subject to inspection by any citizen thereof, and in case of neglect or refusal to comply with the provisions of this act, the auditors so neglecting or refusing shall each pay a penalty of $20.
Mr. Koons gives further notice that from and after this date the provisions of this act will be strictly adhered to in so far as it relates to the filing of an itemized statement. A mere summary or abridged statement of the receipts and expenditures of any township or borough will not be accepted nor marked filed.

Garbage Hauler Arrested.

John Butzko, a teamster, was arrested on Saturday afternoon by Constable Welsh, on a warrant issued by Squire Buckley on complaint of John Wagner, of Drifton, and Street Commissioner Dinn, charging him with dumping garbage along the road leading from Freeland to St. Ann's church. He was fined $5 and costs and in default was committed to the lockup for five days. Late that evening his friends took up a subscription among themselves and he was liberated.
This is the third conviction of this kind since the Cross Creek Coal Company has given the borough a dumping ground. Superintendent Wagner is determined to prevent the depositing of garbage on any other part of the company's premises and has given the street commissioner notice that the company will hereafter hold the borough authorities responsible for the proper observance of the compact between the company and the borough council.

Orchard Tea.

Of course, every one is aware that under the name of "tea" we often drink a beverage which has no acquaintance with real leaf. But there are several "teas" which are not fraudulent manufactures, though they are not made of the leaves.
In Mauritius, for instance, they make tea of the leaves of an orchid. In Peru they drink mate, a tea made from a native species of holly. The Abyssinians make a tea from the leaves of the catha edule, which has such stimulating qualities that even a leaf or two of it chewed has all the reviving effects of "the cup that cheers," and thus is most valuable to travelers. The Tasmanians are said to be the happy possessors of no less than a hundred substitutes for tea; while the Tonkinese have teas of their own made of berries, leaves, woods and bark of trees. In Sumatra coffee leaves are infused in the tea-pot, and the result is said to be an excellent beverage.

Denomination.

The Philadelphia Record tells of an old Pennsylvania farmer who recently came into possession of a check for $200. It caused him a great deal of anxiety, and for a long time he could not muster up courage to have it cashed. Finally on a trip to town, he summoned up nerve enough, and, strolling into the bank, presented the check. The teller glanced at it hastily, and then, after the fashion of his kind, brusquely asked: "What denomination?" "Lutheran, got darn it! But what's that got to do with it?" as brusquely replied the old farmer, to the great astonishment of the bank official. It required several minutes' explanation before the teller could get the old man to understand his question, and then the latter took his money and departed, with sundry growls derogatory to banks in general.

The Republican executive committee of the county has adopted the report of the committee appointed to revise the rules. The Crawford county system of making nominations has been adopted and will probably be approved by the next convention.
