GUTTA-PERCHA SCARCE.

Diment to Get Enough for a Pacific Cable.

In connection with the Pacific cable a very interesting question arises, says the Engineering Magazine. From where is the gutta-percha for this gigantic cable to come? Every whisper of the construction of z transpacific line sends the gutta-percha market at Singapore up by leaps and bounds. The ruling price of the gum is the highest that has ever obtained. It is stated, on what authority it is hard to say, that the visible supply of gutta-percha is insufficient for the task, and that if this cable is laid it will be the last—the last with a gutta-percha insulation at least.

AMERICAN LOCOMOTIVES.

English Workmen Have Many Objections to Their Introduction.

English workmen do not view with complacency the introduction of the American locomotives on the Midland railway. They are not only an afthe construction of z transpacific line sends the guita-percha market at slingapore up by leaps and bounds. The ruling price of the gum is the highest that has ever obtained. It is stated, on what authority it is hard to say, that the visible supply of guita-percha is insufficient for the task, and that if this cable is laid it will be the last—the tast with a guita-percha insulation at least.

While this pessiraism on the part of the guita-percha producers savors somewhat of a desire of stitution of the guita-percha producers savors somewhat of a desire of stitution of the guita-percha for each the market, there is yet a sufficiently reasonable foundation for it in the wanton destruction of the guita-percha for each line state acquires an island in the Carolines the building of the cable line seems possible, though expensive. If they do not find a landing place the operation of the cable seems to require a prohibitively costly plant. And meanwhile there is the question of the disappearing guita-percha tree.

Holding Himself High.

The Chicago Post tells of a doctor who hurried into a drug store. "I've been called to attend the Croesus haby," he said, "and I've given a prescription that calls for nothing but paragoric. When they send it over here you must tell them it will take at least an hour to put it up, and the cost will be $3.50. That's the only way to make them think I'm any good, and I want to keep their buisenss."

Mrs. Mollie Bareer, St. James, Mo., writes: "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during change of life, and have passed through that critical period safely. I suffered for years with falling of the womb and female weakness. At times could hardly stand on my feet, also had leucorrhœa. I tried several good doctors, but instead of getting better, grew worse all the time. A friend advised me to try Mrs. Pinkham's Compound. I dd so and after taking six bottles, was cured of both leutorrhœa and falling of womb. I am now enjoying good health and feel very grateful for the good your medicine has done me. I would recommend it to all women suffering as I was."

Mrs. N. E. LACEY, Pearl, La., writes:

"I have had leucorrhea for about twenty years, falling of womb by spells for ten years, and my bladder was affected, had backache a great deal. I tried a number of doctors. They would relieve me for a little while, then I would be worse than ever. I then thought I would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Eleven bottles of Compound and one box of Liver Pills cured me and I am now sound in fifty-five years old."

Many people use borax or ammonia in the water. This is bad, for each dries out the natural oil. If the hair is naturally dry immediately after washing rub in a few drops of the best olive oil and brush well. Most of the fashions in hairdressing come from the stage, as actresses are invariably clever in arranging their hair to suit their style of feature or to harmonize with a special costume. Then they spread until everyone adopts the new hair arrangement, often without stopping to learn if it is becoming to the character and form of their features.—Chicago Record.

The iconoclast is never a popular person, least of all when his irreverent hammer assails the derished heroines of history. We are willing to give up, if we must, King Cantuc and William Tell, the apple of Newton and the cherry tree of Washington, the hump of Richard III. and the cat of Whittington, but when the ruthless hand of modern investigation strikes at Lucretic and Goditwa, Jeanne d'Are and Pocahontas, we are ready to cry. "Vandal, stay thy impious hand!"

Around the story of Pocahontas and her reserve of Captain John Smith the charm of poetry and romance has ever lingered. Every child if amiliar with it. In his recent speech in the Senate, presenting to the United States an oil portrait of the Indian princess, Senater Daniel, of Virginia, thus described the incident which young America has always loved to believe as gospel history:

"Wrapped in a robe of coon skins sat the tall, gaunt, sour old Indian Emperor, and Smith, who had slain two of his Indian assailants in the fight on the Chickahominy, was condemned to die. Two stones were brought forth before I whatan and Smith was dragged to the sq. and clubs were raised to beat out his brains were raised to beat out his brains and laid the rown upon his to save him from death. HOW TO WASH FLANNELS.

Dissolve fine shavings of Ivory Soap in boiling water, and when cool enough to bear your hand in it, immerse one piece of flannel. Don't rub it with soap, but knead it with the hands. Don't rinse in plain water or in cold water, but make a second solution, warm and well blued, for this purpose. Use a clothes-wringer; hand-wringing is insufficient. Dry quickly in a warm place. If left to stand wet, flannel shrinks.

Cut out these directions and tell the laundress to follow them with Ivory Soap. It heeps the flannels very soft.

A New Legal Invention.

Some Missouri lawyer has invented a brand-new basis for a claim for damages against a railway compny. He has a client who was a member of the non-commissioned staff of one of the volunteer regiments enlisted for the war with Spain. While the army was being concentrated in Florida the soldier, by reason of alleged negligence of the Fort Scott and Memphis Railway, fell from a car at Jacksonville, sustaining injuries that necessitated his discharge from the army. Through his attorney he has now brought suit against the railway company for $25,000 damages. The peculiarity of the case lies in the fact that plaintiff sets forth in his complaint, as one of the principal damages for which he seeks recompense, "that by reason of defendent's negligence, plaintiff was deprived of his opportunity to win glory and honor as a soldier in the war with Spain, to his loss and damage."—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.
