Doubtess two procedures from its friends among the state press many compliments upon its obvious prosperity, but the kindest of those will not be more gracious than this greeting which The Inquirer voluntarily sends. It is known to all Pennsylvania to ditors that we have in Pennsylvania more newspapers than in the vaunted Empire state. That is in itself a distinct claim; but The Inquirer has even a bolder argument to advance. There are, in our judgment, more able papers in the Keystone state than in New York, or any other state in the Union. The Fireeland Tributes, published twice a week, is one of these, but there are others—a fact which will afford that journal as much pride as it does The Inquirer. receive from its friends among the stat
