BRIEF ITEMS OF NEWS.

Crusade Against Sunday Selling.

A movement has been started in town which has for its object the closing of a number of business establishments on Sunday, and this, if successful, is to be followed by another movement which will have for its object the enforcement of every state law bearing on the Sunday question.

The first movement is in the hands of some of the local ministers. Rev. E. C. Murphy, of the English Baptist church, and Rev. W. C. Hall, of St. Paul's Primitive Methodist church, called on saloon keepers, grocers, clothiers and others this week and served notice to make no sales hereafter on Sunday and to keep their places of business closed.

The second movement is being agitated by people who are opposed to discrimination in this matter. Those back of it claim that if any one business must close, every other business must do likewise, and it is said that they intend to vigorously retaliate in a manner which will surprise those who have induced the ministers to enter the first movement.

Interesting developments are looked for when the crusade begins.

Slavonian Orphan Home.

The executive committee of the National Slavonian Union met here this week and decided to make a start immediately on the orphan home which the union has agreed to build at the Honeyhole on land donated for the purpose by Michael Zemany.

Part of the tract will be cleared without delay and work will also be commenced on a two-story frame structure. The latter will be occupied by the caretaker of the tract, and will also serve the purposes of a home for the children for a few years until a larger and better-equipped building can be erected.

The officers of the union viewed the land yesterday and selected the location for the house. They are confident the project will be a success from the start and that the home will easily support itself from the produce of the farm.

Passes are Perilous.

Judge Gunster made permanent the temporary injunction restraining the Pittston and Scranton Traction Company from running the lines through the borough of Old Forge, ruling as the Citizens' committee contended, that the franchise was secured by corruption and fraud.

In the opinion accompanying the decision Judge Gunster unhesitatingly says that certain of the councilmen accepted bribes. He also scored the borough officials generally for accepting street car passes, saying that such action was pernicious, dangerous and clearly against the constitution. The injunction was sought by a Citizens' committee which deemed the franchise too sweeping in its privileges.

Ball in Campbell's Court.

William A. Campbell, a prominent hardware merchant, of Shickshinny, was found dead in the rear of his store Monday morning with a bullet hole through his heart. On the floor beside his remains lay a revolver with one exploded cartridge. It was at first thought to be a suicide, but later developments point to either accidental shooting or murder. Campbell was a prominent Mason, ex-postmaster and served two terms as county superintendent of schools. He was one of the leading Democrats in the Second legislative district.

Curiosities in the Mines.

Down in the bowels of the earth, where the fossilized vegetation of thousands of years is garnered for use at our firesides in the shape of shining anthracite coal, the miners sometimes come across interesting relics of prehistoric ages. At the Reading Company's Eagle Hill colliery, near Ashland, John Malovich, a miner, uncovered a distinct impression of a large scaly reptile, nearly four feet in length. It is probably of the carboniferous era.

Died at Allegheny City.

Nicholas Podash, a half-brother of John and Andrew Guido, of town, and Michael Guido, of Drifton, died on Tuesday in Allegheny City from the effects of a sunstroke. The remains were ordered shipped to Freeland, but the Board of Health of Allegheny City refused to sanction this. The funeral will now take place at his home. John and Michael Guido started for Allegheny City yesterday.

Frank Schultz, of Sandy Run, while on his way home from this place on Saturday evening, walked into the brush and laid down. While sleeping he was shot in the left leg by some unknown parties who were also returning from Freeland. His injuries will keep him from work for two weeks or more.

Dr. G. K. Swank, agent for the State Live Stock Sanitary Board, was at Lehigh Tannery and tested a cow with tuberculosis for Frank Wisler, the test proving she had consumption. The animal was killed and the autopsy showed that the glands of the neck, udder, large and small intestines, were tubercular.

Miss Maggie Lloyd is spending her vacation at Asbury Park, N. J.

Mrs. R. A. Dodson is visiting relatives in Ohio.

MINES AND RAILROADS.

Advertising the Outing.

The Tigers Athletic Club usually adopts original methods to advertise its affairs, and the Hazle park outing and trolley excursion on Saturday evening will not pass without something new being introduced to attract the attention of the public to the date.

Tonight the decorated car of the Lehigh Traction Company will make a tour over the entire line. It will leave Freeland about 7.30 o'clock, and go to McAdoo, West Hazleton, Milnesville and Lattimer, arriving here again about 11.30 o'clock.

St. Ann's band and members of the club will ride on the car, and while the former discourses music in the several towns the club members will distribute advertisements telling of their outing and excursion to be held Saturday evening.

The excursion cars will leave here in three sections on Saturday evening. The first is scheduled to go out at 7 o'clock, the second at 7.15 and the third at 7.30. Two sections will be run from the South Side. The first will leave McAdoo at 7.20 and the second at 7.35 o'clock.

The Traction Company is able to furnish only a limited number of cars, consequently no more trolley tickets will be sold than the cars will carry. Persons who desire to accompany the excursion should purchase tickets before Saturday evening.

At the park the Tigers will take charge of the pavilion and the various stands and will put forth every effort to make the affair the success that usually marks whatever they undertake.

Practically Out of Politics.

From the Nanticoke News.

The know it alls, who are once more endeavoring to revive the Garman-Lenahan fight among the Democrats, will be disappointed when they learn that on Monday Mr. Garman and his wife left for Hot Springs, Arkansas, and will not return until October 1. "Yes," said Mr. Garman, "I am practically out of politics this year. My health will not permit me to bother with this fall's campaign. I am after my health. Life holds too many charms for me to get broken down."

"What do you think of the chances for Democracy in the county this fall?" was asked of Mr. Garman. "Nothing but a united party can win. Neither faction can be successful without the united support of the other. That is all there is to it. Luzerne is naturally Democratic and only dissension and a desire to rule, combined with lying and misrepresentations of good Democrats, has placed it in the control of the Republican party. I hope to hear of a good ticket being nominated," concluded our townsman.

A Day Ahead of the Almanac.

An interesting circumstance incident to Magellan's circumnavigation of the globe and discovery of the Philippines is that every degree Magellan sailed westward added four minutes to his day, until, when he reached the Philippines, the difference in time amounted to sixteen hours. Curiously enough, this escaped the notice of all. Elcano, the only Captain who made the entire circuit, was not aware, "when he returned to the longitude of his departure, that his ship's logbook" was about a day behind "the time of the port his long-continued westward course had brought him back to. The error remained unnoticed also in the Philippines till 1844, when it was decided to pass over New Year's Day for once altogether." Thus it appeared that the Philippines, instead of lying far to the west of Spain, the direction in which the discoverers had sailed, might more properly be spoken of as lying about eight hours east of Spain. When it is noon in Madrid it is about 8:20 in the evening in Manila, and about 7:10 in the morning at Washington.

CHURCHMEN ARE AT WAR.

The two trustees of the First Welsh Methodist Episcopal church, Wilkesbarre, who side with Rev. H. P. Morgan, the pastor, are under arrest at the instance of the six trustees who are opposed to Rev. Morgan. The defendants are William R. Evans and John L. Morris, and they are charged with forcible entry and making threats.

The prosecutors say Evans and Morris recently took possession of the church, which they had locked up in order to prevent Rev. Morgan from conducting services. The windows were all screwed down, but Evans and Morris broke a window and gained entrance. They slept in the church all night and were seen by one of the other trustees the next morning.

The discovery was reported to the majority of the board, and warrants were issued. The charge of making threats is preferred because one of the two trustees made the expression that he would "murder the other six."

The trouble is caused by the determination of Rev. Morgan to conduct each Sunday one service in English and one in Welsh, while six of the eight trustees and many of the congregation want all the services in Welsh. These six have kept the church locked for weeks, and Rev. Morgan has held services from the steps of the church. Welsh residents have taken sides in the fight.

Rev. Alexander G. Toth, pastor of the Russian Orthodox Catholic church, of North Wilkesbarre, has brought an action for $5,000 damages against Rev. Cornelius Iyosevich, pastor of the United Greek Catholic church, of the same city.

The action grows out of a peculiar occurrence. Rev. Toth was presented with a large gold cross and gold necklace by the czar of Russia, who is at the head of the Russian Orthodox Catholic Church, and he cannot officiate in his religious capacity unless he wears the cross and necklace, it being the main insignia of his office.

The necklace became broken and Rev. Toth sent it to a jewelry store to have it repaired. While the chain was being fixed Rev. Iyosevich saw the cross and chain, and recognized it as that of Rev. Toth. He attempted to purchase it, it is claimed, and on being refused, he went about town, it is said, circulating a story that Rev. Toth had pawned his jewels, and on that alleged false statement Rev. Toth bases his suit for damages.

A Tribute to the Tenth.

Welcome the brave Tenth Pennsylvania heroes. Next Sunday's "Philadelphia Press" (August 20) will be a souvenir in their honor. It will be filled with half-ton reproductions of the photographs taken in San Francisco by the "Sunday Press" photographer, especially for this edition. The landing of the troops, incidents of the rousing demonstration made in their honor, the individual heroes and snap shots of many scenes will be shown in this magnificent souvenir addition.

Colonel George Nox McCain, the only Philadelphia staff correspondent who went out to meet "the boys in blue," has written for this edition all about their work in the Philippines, the tragedies of war, incidents which make heroes, stories that will make you laugh and tales that will bring the tear. Artists and photographers will unite to illustrate the deeds of the sons of the Keystone state, in this great souvenir edition. Be sure to get next Sunday's Press.
