Parallel Crimes

 The star strain of the start of the second highest court of the start?
Since the notorious People's bank, of Philadelphia, which was founded by Bill Kemble, of "addition, division and silence" fame, and who was convicted of bribing Harrisburg statesmen to vote for the Pittsburg riot bill, was wrecked by its casher, who blew out his brains, and which dragged down into the vortex with it the Guarantee Trust, another rotten financial and political concern that was managed by the Quay gang, the Quaker City bank, of the state motropolis, has become Quay's pet bank. If is kept stuffed with state treasury money, while the school authorities in the various counties are clamoring for the funds due them with which to pay the salaries of poor teachers. Whenever Quay honors Philadelphia with a visit he hastens to the Quaker City bank a straight as the crow files to fix up his financial affairs with its president, which was organized down with the stock of the National Electric Company, which was organized to blaokmail the Electric Trust of Philadelphia, and which scheme is a great public scandal. Of course the state's morey is public which was organized to blaokmail the Electric Trust of Philadelphia, and which scheme is a great public scandal. Of course the ing tiven, as was proven in the Quay trial. The state treasury being with ot scandars. From the Philadelphia North American. The Vorwaerts of Berlin, which is the organ of the Social Democracy, im-proves the Dreyfus occasion to make a few remarks that will not be kindly received by those to whom they are ad-The Vorwaerts is as much dressed. shocked as any of its contemporaries by the court-martial's infamous verdict, but while it detests injustice it also dis-likes hypocrisy, or rather that clearness of sight as to others' faults which so frequently goes with blindness to one's own. It reminds the European nations that not one of them is without a skeleton in its closet that, to the eye of the moral anatomist, bears a fundamental must wait for his meager salary. If "Farmer" Creasy is elected state treasurer this gambling with the state's money and this gorging of favorite banks with state deposits will cease. Every school teacher in the state who has a vote should cast that vote for "Farmer" Creasy, since he would be casting it for the protection of his own pocket. resemblance to that which France has exhibited to the world. England's treatment of the Boers moves the Vor maerts to say that "in London an attempt is being made to strangle not one innocent man, but a whole nation.'

That is a hard saying, but true. The British excuses for setting out to rob the Boers of their country and their independence are really not a bit more worthy of respect than those which impelled the court-martial to condemn Dreyfus, or which induce so many Frenchmen to applaud that atrocity The judges can plead that to have done justice to Dreyfus would have involved France in civil war, and, therefore, that they were as patriots justified in sacrificing him. The anti-Dreyfusards in general have their sense of right and wrong perverted by an unreasoning and passionate devotion to the army, whose honor they hold superior to any evidence as to the truth in the Dreyfus case. The judges com-mitted a horrible crime for France's sake and France approves the crime for the army's sake.

England goes about her crime against justice and human liberty in a strictly businesslike spirit. The Boers may insist that they have a right to be masters of their country and themselves that their right to liberty and selfgovernment is inalienable; that the just powers of government in any land are derived from the consent of the governed, and that to subjugate them by force of arms is brutal tyranny. England's answer to all that-her actual answer, though not the one given by her government and press-is simply this: "You have very rich mines and valuable lands. We shall take them away from you because we are stronger than you. It is true that in the process of exchange you must lose your liberty, but that circumstance, however regret-table, is an unavoidable incident of the grand march of Anglo-Saxon civiliza-If you resist we shall kill you.

Drevfus is one and the Boers are many, but the Boers have no more chance to escape from the cold greed of England than Dreyfus had to get justic from the Rennes court-martial.

Nothing bears stronger witness to the growing unpopularity of the war upon the Filipinos than the reluctance of men to enlist. In all California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada and Utah, the recruiting sergeants have been able to drum up but 235 men willing to lend a hand to the work of slaughter, and in order to complete the regiment that was to have been raised in these states, orders have been issued to draw upon the East, where the poverty and ignor-ance of the slums and stews of the great cities make plenty of fish for the recruiting net.—San Francisco Star.

There has just been opened at Wor-cester, Mass., a school of household economics and cooking, where women can learn practical housekeeping under competent teachers just as their chill-dren learn the three Rs in the public schools. There is a short course in marketing and lectures on the chemis-try of food, history of foods, supplies and care of the same. Special classes at moderate prices are also held for clubs, teachers and housewires, twelve lectures once a week and also for housekeepers. The pupils are not only maght to cook on proper lines, but also to serve the vinnds so that they will please the eye as well as the palate. At present fifty pupils can be accom-modated as boarders within the walls, in addition to those living outside. Each has a room to herself, furnished neadly with a white enameled folding oak, very cozy and home like. Any woman over 18 years of age with satisfactory references and in good health will be admitted to any of the special classes, but for regular a diploma from high school, or an equally advantagecous education to be determined by examination. Governor Stone, who is a man of all work for Boss Quay, stands as a break-water between the people who demand, but are denied, honest elections and the thugs, repeaters, hallot box stuff-ers, padders of the voting lists, pro-fessional vouchers of bogie voters, the midalght alterer of election returns, the plug ugly, the pilmp, the coloniza-bing shark who thrive through police protection in return for his crocked work at the polic, the unnaturalized seamp who has the freedom of the franchise, the speak easy proprietor who exchanges his vote for his immu-nity, and the grand chorus of unhung and unjailed rascals that debauch the ballot and make voting a farce in philadelphia, Pittsburg and the other big cities of the state. Is it any won-der that Governor Stone said to him-self, "To hell with the constitution." and then vetoed the legislative resolu-tion favoring the personal registra-tion of votras in cities and the intro-duction of voting machines? Stone knows well what a valuable and indis-ponsible ally the repeater, the false counter and the ballot thief generally is to the Republican party, as he him-self received not less than 60,000 frand-ulent and Higgal votes for governor, Neither he nor the Quay gang want any honest elections in theirs. Neither he nor the Quay gang want any honese elections in theirs. "I am prepared to meet every issue my friend Creasy raised here yester-day by facts and figures," should the triple expansion office grabber, Gen-eral Gobin, to the farmers at William's Grove, and then he discovered that he was not really prepared, since he sheered off from Creasy's facts and fig-ures and began to shoot holes in the insurgents, Quay, Elikin, Reeder, Gobin, Barnett and in fact Quay's entire stock company are afraid of Creasy's facts and figures. They ran away from them at Quay's state convention faster than the Spanish from the Rough Riders at El Caney, and they will run away from them on the stump and in their machine press during the eam-paign. But yelling for McKinley, shootin' niggers in the Philippines and calling it expansion and cracking the thorax over the flag won't save their hide and tallow this "joad of poles." The Heart of a Child,

The Heart of a Child, Why was I given a child's wild heart? I am tired of acting a woman's part-And the world seems sortid and dull and course. It was different in the days of play, When the soul was brave and the heart was gay. And one rode away to fairyland on a painted rocking horse.

My friend, you are fair and strong Colonel Barnett returned home with his soul on fire to mount the hustings and set the state affame with his elo-quence as to national issues. He want-ed to immediately open a lurid cam-paign, the American flag for a ganfa-lon, and to lead a regiment of orators in a charge against the Democratis and insurgents. But Colonel Barnett was quickly called down by the boss, who probably sent him a message similar to the one he transmitted to a distinguished but voluble candidate a few years ago, and which read: "Dear Beaver. Don't talk." Colonel Bar-nett has suddenly discovered that his liver is disordered, that he is filled with malaria germs, and that he re-quires a course of treatment at a san-itarium. The opening of the lurid campaign has been indefinitely post-poned. Colonel Barnett will not ac-cept "Farmer" Creasy's challenge to jointly debate state issues. The army of spellbinders who were to arouse and to enthuse the state have been direct-ed 'to lay on their cars." The cam-Colonel Barnett returned home with true, With your sun-gold hair and your eyes so blue; But why have you stolen my heart to-day? Latest Way to Support a Husband.
