AN AMENDMENT

amending Section second and any part thereof at any time and from time to time, and to be amended, amended therein; also changing the dates of the redemption of said bonds and coupons.

The remains of the late Abraham Stroth were laid at rest in Freeland cemetery Thursday afternoon. The funeral was in charge of veterans of the civil war. Several hundred friends and acquaintances throughout the region were present to pay their last respects to the deceased. Services were held at his late residence by Rev. W. W. Hartman, of the Park M. E. church.

PERSONALITIES.

Misses Lizzie O'Donnell and Bella Gallagher, of town, and Miss Katie Gillespie, of Drifton, left today to enter Philadelphia almshouse hospital to prepare themselves as trained nurses.

Miss Hannah Gallagher, of Adams street, left this morning for Philadelphia, where she intends to remain for some time.

Miss Mame Manalis, of Wilkesbarre, returned home Saturday evening after a visit to friends in town.

C. D. Rohrbach and family removed from Hazleton to the Shovlin block on South street last week.

Misses Arima and Estelle Rosenthal, of Tyrone, are the guests of Miss Gertrude Wise, Jeddo.

Miss Jeannette Keenan, of Upper Lehigh, is the guest of Summit Hill relatives.

Evan Watkins, of Gowen, has been appointed mine foreman at Eckley.

Mrs. David P. Jones attended to business in New York city last week.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.—In accordance with a resolution of the borough of Freeland, passed finally October 13, 1899, authorizing the undersigned officers of said borough to advertise, etc., for bids for the erection and completion of the new town hall, etc., in accordance with plans and specifications regularly adopted, proposals will be received at the office of Chas. Orion Stroth, borough solicitor, until November 4, 1899. Plans, specifications and the architect can be seen at the solicitor's office, Freeland, Pa., any evening from 7 to 8 o'clock p. m.

Parties receiving the contract will be required to furnish bonds in the sum equal to the amount of his bid to the borough of Freeland, Pa.

The undersigned, or a majority, reserves the right to reject any or all bids. Contract will be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder.

Daniel Kline, president of council.
Approved: James M. Gallagher, burgess.

BRIEF ITEMS OF NEWS.

PARAGRAPHS GATHERED FROM ALL PARTS OF THE REGION.

Synopses of Local and Miscellaneous Occurrences That Can Be Read Quickly. What the Folks of This and Other Towns Are Doing.

A benefit hop will be held at Yannes' opera house next Saturday evening.
Bernard J. Keenan and Reuben Booth, of Foster township, are serving this week as jurors.

Joseph Greshko and Mary Kondrak, both of town, will be married tomorrow morning at St. Mary's Greek Catholic church.

The sale of the personal property of the late Fred Haas was postponed until Wednesday, October 18, at 2 p. m. at the Cottage hotel.

Edward Harleman, aged 66 years, a well-known Lehigh Valley engineer, dropped dead near his home at Weatherly Friday morning.

Lehigh Valley Improvements.

Lehigh Valley surveyors have recently been making surveys between Penn Haven and Glen Onoko with a view to building a new road bed. It is said to be the intention to build a new track from Penn Haven south on the east side of the Lehigh river instead of crossing the bridge and the Central Railroad to the present tracks on the west side of the river.

The proposed changes will be quite expensive, including as they do, several tunnels through spurs of the mountains that extend to the river, but it is maintained that the expenses will be warranted for the reason that it will greatly lessen the distance and will avoid many dangerous curves.

At present traffic from the main line is often congested between Penn Haven and Glen Onoko with traffic from the Mahanoy and Hazleton divisions. All this will be avoided.

Football at Drifton.

An exciting football game took place at Drifton ball park yesterday afternoon between the club of that town and a picked eleven from Freeland. Drifton outplayed the local men in every way during the first half, but in the latter half the contest was more equally divided. The score was 10 to 5 in favor of Drifton when the game stopped.

The full time of the second half was not played, Drifton players leaving the field under the impression that time was up, and on this ground Freeland players claimed the game.

Sudden Death at Oneida.

Ferdinand Reinschissel, a former resident of town and a brother-in-law of Street Commissioner Benhard Dinn, died suddenly on Thursday at Oneida, where he was employed as foreman of the machine shops. He was a member of Harri Garri Lodge, D. O. H., of Freeland.

Mr. Reinschissel was aged 41 years and is survived by a wife and family. The funeral took place yesterday. Interment was made in Eckley cemetery.

Football at Villanova.

Villanova, Pa., October 12, 1899.
Villanova has a very strong team this year and expects to do very good work. Captain Nallin, of Scranton, is doing his best to make the team a success. He is just the man we want. Matt Broderick is thinking of joining the football team next year. Bernard McFadden will not play on the team this year. George Shigo is substitute on the second team.

To Erect a Building.

Work will be commenced this week on a frame building, 18x26 feet and 16 feet high, which will be used by St. Ann's band for rehearsals. One of the vacant Ridge street lots owned by Condy O. Boyle has been leased by the band as a site for the building. The structure will be built by the band specially to suit the purpose stated.

An unknown man was killed by a passenger train on the Jersey Central Railroad on Thursday near Rockport. He was aged about 55 years, was five feet eight inches high, had gray hair and gray mustache, and wore a dark blue suit and brown overcoat. The remains were taken to Laurotown almshouse.

The editors of a Scranton newspaper have caused the arrest of several parties who furnished a reporter with false information which caused the paper to be involved in a libel suit. It may seem fun to advise untruthfully a public journal in a matter of news, but the law bears heavily upon such jokers.

A notice was posted on Friday at all the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western collieries around Wilkesbarre, notifying the employes that there would be work ten hours a day until further notice. The collieries have been working only seven hours.

The old boiler and house at the artesian well west of Freeland, which supplies water to Drifton, has been replaced by a new and up-to-date boiler, which will be enclosed in a more substantial structure.

Failed to Fill the Vacancy.

The borough school board met Friday evening, J. W. Everitt was elected president pro tem. The resignation of John B. Houston as a teacher was accepted. Applications were read from George C. Farrar, Mary Herron, Mary Dougherty, Mattie Brown and C. E. Edmunds.

Three ballots were taken, the directors voting as follows:
For Farrar—Bell, Krommes, Loubach, VanHorn. For Miss Dougherty—Ferry, McCole, Schaub. For Edmunds—Everitt, Trevaskis.

President Kline arrived during the fourth ballot. He recorded his vote for Miss Dougherty on this ballot, also on the eighth.

Twelve ballots were taken in all, the directors voting as above, except that President Kline voted for Edmunds on all ballots except those mentioned.

The board agreed to allow the matter to go over until Saturday evening next. In the meantime the substitute teacher, Miss Dougherty, is filling the vacancy.

HAD NOTHING TO SAY.

Members of Council Refuse to Divulge the Secret of That $100.

Another meeting of Freeland borough council was held Friday evening with all the members except Messrs. Smith and Keck present. On motion of Councilman DePiero the fine imposed some time ago on Mr. Meehan was revoked.

An ordinance authorizing the burgess to collect a lockup fee of 50 cents for each prisoner placed there and a fee of 15 cents for each permit issued was passed finally, Messrs. Kline and Rudewick voting against it.

The September report of Burgess Gallagher was taken up. The report showed that $93.75 was due the borough and $38.75 due the burgess, and was accepted.

The specifications of the proposed building, as drawn by the architect, Frank Salmon, were read, and a resolution accepting the same and authorizing the proper committee to advertise for proposals was adopted. The resolution was ordered published in one paper.

The cost of erecting the building is not to exceed the sum named in the ordinance, $10,000. Council agreed to meet the following evening to examine the specifications.

Mr. Mulhearn again called for information regarding the change in the architect's contract, wherein the figures $400 were altered to $500, but none of the councilmen volunteered to acknowledge who authorized the architect to saddle this additional $100 on the taxpayers.

Solicitor Stroth, who was present, explained what he knew of the affair. He stated that $400 was agreed upon as the price to be paid Mr. Salmon at a conference in his office, that the architect consented to accept this amount, and $400 were the figures placed in the contract. The document was then taken from his office and he knew nothing more about the matter until after the meeting on October 5, on which date council passed the resolution as altered.

The men implicated in this scheme had nothing to say.

At the session on Saturday evening Messrs. Smith, Meehan and Keck were absent. The amendment to the bond ordinance was passed finally and on motion of Messrs. Rudewick and Mulhearn was ordered published immediately in the TRIBUNE.

The printing committee was instructed to advertise for proposals to erect the building according to the plans and specifications agreed upon.

Council then adjourned until November 6.

The building committee, consisting of Burgess Gallagher, President Kline, Secretary Davis and Councilmen Davis, Mulhearn and Schwabe, met and decided to advertise for proposals in the TRIBUNE, Press and Progress, of town, and Hazleton Plain Speaker and Wilkesbarre Record.

Heavy Frost at Hazleton.

Had it not been that the announcement was made in the papers of the appearance in Hazleton of Major J. W. Killian, of the First Nebraska Volunteers; General James W. Latta, of Philadelphia; Major General George W. Neff, Captain Harvey J. Watson, Lieutenant Blaine Aiken and Adjutant Oliver S. Scott, of the Tenth Pennsylvania Volunteers, who are touring the state in the interest of Colonel Barnett, candidate for state treasurer, the general public would have known nothing of their visit to Hazleton on Thursday.

A dozen Republicans met them at the depot and escorted them to the Central hotel, where an informal reception was held. From the fact that in naming the reception committee not one of the city committee, or even the district chairman, was selected, there was enthusiasm whatever.

No meeting was held, as had been announced, and a trick bicycle rider, who gave an exhibition on Broad street, drew a crowd one hundred times larger than the spellbinders.

Favorable for the Democrats.

Councilman Frank DePiero, of Freeland, who has always been regarded as a hustling worker for the success of Republican candidates in his bailiwick, was in the city Tuesday. When questioned as to the political outlook in Freeland borough and Foster township, Frank remarked that it looked very favorable for the Democratic ticket this fall.

Dedication of Soldiers' Monument.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad will sell tickets at the low rate of one fare for the round trip to Allentown and return, on October 18 and 19; good returning until October 20. The Soldiers' Monument will be unveiled at Allentown on October 19, and there will be a grand parade commencing at 1 p. m. on that day.

Consult Lehigh Valley ticket agents for further particulars.

PLEASURE CALENDAR.

October 21.—Benefit hop at Yannes' opera house. Tickets, 25 cents.
October 27.—Second annual ball of Good Wills Athletic Association at Yannes' opera house. Admission, 50 cents.

TRUSTS ARE BLESSINGS.

SO SAYS QUAY'S GOVERNOR OVER HIS OWN SIGNATURE.

A Raucy Letter from "The Judge" on Things Political Throughout the State. Quay Won't Vote His Own Ticket—Republicans Counterfeiting Tax Receipts.

Philadelphia, October 13, 1899.

There are two conspicuous landmarks on the Delaware river front that command the eye of the traveler—one being in Philadelphia and the other in Camden. Massive, towering buildings, they are, and yet with no sign of life or activity about them. They are idle sugar refineries. The Philadelphia one is the old Haverney plant that in other days gave employment to a thousand men and kept a fleet of vessels busy bringing from the West Indies raw sugar to its wharf. The Camden concern was never in operation a single day. These are silent telltales of the greed of the sugar trust that acquired them only to shut them up that the production of refined sugar could be curtailed on the market manipulated. Giving these fine properties over to the bats has deprived thousands of willing men of employment, has raised the price of sugar to the consumer and has created the communities in which they stand of millions of dollars' worth of business. And yet Quay's governor has the audacity to declare over his own signature that trusts are blessings and are not a political issue.

A BOSS MAKES POLITICS PAY.

Practical politics as a pursuit must be profitable, after all, when exceptional advantages can be commanded. Here is Colonel Quay, for instance, who has been receiving a salary of but $5,000 per year as a senator of the United States, and who maintains homes in Washington, in Beaver, in Lancaster and in Florida, and rents cottages at the seashore. He has just directed the secretary of the treasury to transfer to his son, Major Quay, late of the regular army and who was educated at West Point at the public expense, $100,000 worth of United States 4 per cent bonds, while he has added an adjoining farm to his Lancaster plantation, paying $187 per acre. Surely Colonel Quay has other sources of revenue than the salary of a United States senator, and which has now ceased.

QUAY & CO. FAVOR TRUSTS.

Governor Stone's unqualified endorsement of trusts is directly in harmony with the record of his party in the legislature. For years it has obstinately refused to spread a law on the statutes that could not be driven through with a delivery wagon, wiping out the "block" stores, the curse of the mining and great industrial regions. For years the miners have been praying the Republican party to protect them from being outrageously robbed by the rapacious corporations that employ them, in the sale of blasting powder. At the last session the retail grocer of Philadelphia and Pittsburg asked for a law specially taxing the grocer monopolist, a new harp that has come along, and who runs as high as 50 retail stores, and by cutthroat prices and the marketing of inferior goods drives the legitimate dealer whom he squats alongside of out of business. This bill was strangled, however, in a senate committee, and not seriously so, for cash, although no measure in years had been so stoutly demanded and so largely petitioned for. Yes, the Republican party as conducted by Quay & Co. has a great respect for trusts and no respect at all for the common people who suffer from them.

HOW NAPOLEON QUAY AND THE REAL NAPOLEON DIFFER.

The admirers of Matthew Stanley Quay love to compare him with Napoleon, and like Napoleon he has had his Waterloo and his St. Helena. How often do we hear Quay exploited by writers and speakers as the Napoleon of politics, although he has repeatedly said his state, which boasts of 35,000 Republicans, which his Napoleonic genius failed when confronted with the task of re-electing himself in the face of an organized opposition to the senate of the United States. But there is one material point wherein Napoleon Quay differs with Napoleon Bonaparte, and that is in the matter of trusts. The commercial trust is not a new thing under the sun. The East India company and the Hudson Bay company were the first trusts of which the modern world has knowledge. Their home was in England. Their success excited the cupidity of the world's financiers, Napoleon, when in the hey-day of his civic power in France, was compelled to give them attention. He had founded the great silk mills of Lyons and had inaugurated a policy for the preservation of the forests, which were coveted, while the government was pressed on all sides by private capitalists to surrender franchises. Napoleon summoned the greatest lawyers of Europe to Paris and submitted to them the question whether trusts were a blessing to the people or a bane to the state. This distinguished conclave concluded that trusts were both dangerous and unlawful, whereupon Napoleon drove them out of France, which is one country in Europe where they have never been able to obtain a foothold. John Russell Young, the historian of General Grant's trip around the world, wrote in the New York Herald of Quay voting alone in the United States senate to save the sugar trust. When by that act of Quay this desplicable trust is saved then it is the gravest offense against Pennsylvania since Dallas, by his casting vote, passed the tariff of the Polk administration. The trusts have no more servile slave than Matthew Stanley Quay, the people no greater enemy.

Republican machine, will not even take the trouble to cast his vote for the ticket that he has made. When the November election comes he will be idling in his bungalow on the Indian river, Florida. Colonel Quay has arranged a pair with a well known Democratic newspaper man of Philadelphia. This indifference of the boss will not be permitted to pass without notice, and thousands of disgusted Republicans will follow his distinguished example, only they will not put themselves to the trouble of hunting up Democrats to pair with them.

THE PROHIBITIONISTS KICK.

The People, of MILTON, the state organ of the Prohibitionists, has a true conception of the appalling frauds at the elections that are committed by the Quay machine in Philadelphia. It grumbles: "Philadelphia's farcical registration goes on piling up the names of voters. The whole proceeding is utterly ridiculous. The 'returns' of the assessors show that there are 218,151 voters in the city, an increase of 1,103 over the return in May. State Chairman Jones, of the Prohibition party, proved that dead men, unknown men, unaturalized persons and endless classes of individuals were put down simply that their names might be voted on by repeaters. Yet the assessors, who are the products of the rotten system, go on finding houses full of voters that have no existence. The frauds perpetrated in Philadelphia as a result of padded and wrongly made up assessors' lists are greater than any city in the Union ever dreamed of. Yet when an amendment to the constitution was proposed in order to give an honest registration law Governor Stone vetoed it."

WHY DIDN'T THEY GO?

Nearly 200 men of the Tenth regiment declined the invitation of the Republican state committee extended through Colonel Barnett to visit New York at its expense and incidentally act as a political "ad" for Colonel Barnett. There must be some embargo at the bottom of the bar! What so big a percentage of a regiment's membership thus snubs its commander.

IN THE COUNTERFEITING BUSINESS.

The Republican city committee of Philadelphia some years ago had a counterfeit lithographic plate made from which to print bogus poll tax receipts. These receipts, which are sold by the city for 50 cents each, constituted an onerous burden on the Republican campaign fund, so the counterfeiter's art was resorted to. Thousands of these spurious receipts are printed in each campaign, and the city cheated out of thousands of dollars. This is a pretty business for the party of God and morality to be engaged in—counterfeiting.

Insurgent Leader Martin's dash of chilled water on the Quay machine's prospects raised the goose flesh on the epidermis of the Quayites, and they became panic stricken and threatened with heart failure and collapse, when Director Brown, of Pittsburg, one of the machine's big wigs, supplemented with this bull's eye shot:

"This hippodroming of the state with military parties in a political campaign is all nonsense. It is worse, for it will lose votes. Instead of sending out two bands of soldiers to make spectacular display and appeal to the war feeling or hero-worship of the masses, the campaign should be made on principle and the pending public issues be discussed in an intelligent and dignified manner."

Reduced Rates to Philadelphia.

On account of the National Export Exposition the Lehigh Valley Railroad will sell tickets to Philadelphia and return, October 18, at one fare for the round trip, plus 50 cents for admission coupon to the exposition. Tickets will be honored, on any train, except the Black Diamond express, and good for return passage to October 27, 1899, inclusive.
