Declaration of Principles.
In an address to the voters of Pennsylvania, adopted on Thursday and signed by William Sellers, president, and William T. Tilden, chairman of the executive committee, the Business Men's Republican League of Philadelphia sets forth the following declaration of principles:

"The unswerving effort of the Business Men's Republican League, since its organization in 1896, has been to improve the character of our state government by opposing—within party lines—the selection of improper candidates by the Republican party for state offices.
"The league has invariably, actively or by its silence, aided the election of Republican nominees, firmly believing that the rising sentiment against the abuses in the management of state affairs by the corrupt Quay machine would become strong enough within the party to overpower the machine in spite of its high-handed methods and the frauds through which it has maintained control.

"In the past this league has suffered unfit candidates to go unopposed for the sake of party regularity. But the time for such compliance is gone.
"A corrupt candidate for United States senator, after being repudiated by the chosen representatives of the people, is appointed by a servile governor, in violation of the constitution, and the party convention is packed to endorse this unconstitutional act.
"Candidates of conspicuous unfitness are thrust upon the ticket.
"Members of the legislature are offered bribes to vote for the notorious McCarroll jury bill in the interest of a criminally indicted senator.
"Members of the legislature are offered bribes to vote for the machine candidate for senator.
"The head of the machine is forced to the degrading necessity of pleading the statute of limitations to save himself from the penitentiary.
"In the interest of the tax-escaping corporations and the brewers, the appropriations for the public schools are cut down by unconstitutional acts.
"In the interest of the tax-escaping corporations and brewers, the state's insane wards and hospital patients are cruelly deprived of the money needed for their care.
"In the interest of the tax-escaping corporations and the brewers, the tax burdens of all unfavored citizens have been made heavier.
"In the interest of the spoils-hunting machine, the cause of civil service reform, to which the Republican party is committed, is abandoned in the machine-made state platform of Pennsylvania.

"For the maintenance of a system of repeating at the polls, by which, in the city of Philadelphia alone, more than fifty thousand fraudulent votes can be counted, constitutional amendments in the interest of an honest ballot are vetoed in defiance of the constitution.
"A state chairman is appointed who was dismissed from office for aiding in an attempted treasury loot, and who is notorious for complicity in the wrecking of a state financial institution—a man who has declared through resolutions prepared by himself and adopted by a county convention under his control that those who oppose the machine and his shameful acts are 'cowards and traitors.'

"For these and other crimes against the Republican party and state, this league refuses to accept the ticket of the Quay machine as a ticket representing the Republican party.
"Therefore, the Business Men's Republican League of Pennsylvania, while declaring anew its faith in the principles and policies of the Republican party, and supporting the candidacy of Hon. J. Hay Brown, Republican nominee for the supreme court of the state, who is believed to be an upright and able man, personally and professionally, does, in defense of Republican honor, appeal to the Republican voters of Pennsylvania to oppose the election of the unfit candidates put forward by this Quay machine.
"And we further declare that the professional standing of Candidate Josiah R. Adams renders him unfit for any public office, especially for judicial office, where learning and integrity should be essential qualifications.
"The Hon. William T. G. Creasy, Democratic nominee for treasurer, is known as an honest man, beyond the reach of the influence which must necessarily surround any machine-chosen candidate. We commend his public record to the consideration of all Republicans."
