Wanted Citizenship.
County Judge Hurd of Kings county, New York, who is just now devoting part of his time to the work of converting aliens into citizens of the United States, had a trying time of it yesterday in the Brooklyn court house with a number of applicants for citizenship. Biejo Scavall, a Coney Island Italian, presented a fair sample of the degree of intelligence Judge Hurd had to contend with. "What is the name of this country?" asked he court. "Ma-keen-lee," replied Biejo, promptly. "Who makes the laws?" "Ma-keen-lee!" returned Biejo, confidently. "What state do you live in?" "Ma-keen-lee." "You seem to be impressed with the belief that McKinley is the whole thing over here," remarked the court. "Biejo, I guess you won't do."

The Ills of Women overshadow their whole lives.
Some women are constantly getting medical treatment and are never well. "A woman best understands women's ills," and the women who consult Mrs. Pinkham find in her counsel practical assistance. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass.

Mrs. MABEL GOOD, Correctionville, Ia., tells how Mrs. Pinkham saved her life. She says: "I cannot thank you enough for what your medicine has done for me. I can recommend it as one of the best medicines on earth for all women's ills. I suffered for two years with female weakness and at last became bedfast. Three of our best doctors did me no good so I concluded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking a few bottles of your medicine, I was able to do all my household work. I know that your medicine raised me from a bed of sickness and perhaps death, and am very thankful for what it has done for me. I hope that every suffering woman may be persuaded to try your medicine." Get Mrs. Pinkham's advice as soon as you begin to be puzzled. The sick headaches and dragging sensation come from a curable cause. Write for help as soon as they appear.

Mrs. DOLE STANLEY, Campbellsburg, Ind., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I was troubled with sick headache and was so weak and nervous, I could hardly go. A friend called upon me one evening and recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, saying that she knew that it would cure me. I then sent for your medicine and after taking five bottles of it, I was entirely cured. I cannot praise it enough."

ARMY HORSES HARD TO GET.

Purchasing Department Finds Difficulty in Meeting the Requirements.

The entire northwest is being ransacked by agents of the war department in quest of horses suitable for the cavalry and artillery of the army. The horses procured are for the most part brought to Chicago, where they are inspected, and then distributed wherever there is need of them. Among the requirements are the color of the animal, its weight and its height. The owner must stand the expense of having the two front shoes removed, furnish a halter and have the animal weighed. "It would require the animals to be molded," said a horse trader at the stockyards. "As yet there are few horses that we have received that come up to the requirements of the order, and an owner having a horse that would answer the style that is wanted by the army demands a larger price than the government offers to pay." The local horsemen state that the government will have to make some allowance on the order or it will not get the requisite number from this territory. Horses are being secured that will come up to the requirements in many respects, but it is feared that they will be turned down by the government buyer the same as they were last year.—Chicago Chronicle.

There are many uniformed employees of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad who have spent the better part of the lives with the company, but very few people are aware of their length of service stripes for these men, that has made them valued men. Vice President and General Manager Underwood will shortly issue an order, providing for service stripes for these men, that the public may know of their faithfulness and ability. A gold stripe will mean five years of service, and a silver stripe two years. Some of the Baltimore and Ohio conductors will be entitled to from seven to nine gold stripes. The Company will also furnish conductors, brakemen and baggage men of all classes, with badges, so that they may be easily distinguished by those unfamiliar with the service.

readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Catarrh is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and curing the patient by rebuilding the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, J. C. Monument for Soldiers of Four Wars.
A monument recently placed in a cemetery in Louisville, Ky., bears inscriptions to the memory of James Austin, a soldier of the revolution; James Allen Austin, his son, a soldier of the war of 1812; James Grigsby Austin, his grandson, a soldier of the war with Mexico, and James Richard Gathright, his great-grandson, a confederate soldier, who was killed at Murfreesboro, Tenn., Jan. 1, 1863. All were privates.

A Kruger Story.
President Kruger recently refused an interview to a celebrated Englishman, who thereupon sent back word that he must see him; that he was no ordinary person; that, in fact, he was a member of the house of lords. The servant went away and returned with the message: "The president says he cannot see you, and adds that he is a cattle herder."

FUNERAL BY TROLLEY CAR.

Custom Growing in Chicago, Largely Because of the Great Saving in Expense.

INTERIOR OF CHICAGO TROLLEY FUNERAL CAR.

Undertakers dislike to give up the liberal commissions from livery establishments they once enjoyed, but popular feeling is too strong to withstand. It costs but $11 for a motor car and a trailer, with an extra charge of $3 for every additional car needed.

On the line of the Chicago Electric Traction Company, a special funeral car, the Virginia, is provided. It is dark green in color. At each end is a vestibule, having a door in its front for the admission of the casket. In one of these vestibules the casket remains during the journey to the cemetery, screened from the rest of the car by heavy curtains. The car proper is richly furnished, and accommodates twenty persons.

The Calumet Company has no special funeral car, but the back is removed from the seat of an ordinary motor car and on this the casket is placed. On either side of the casket the pall bearers take their places, while relatives and friends occupy the remaining seats.

On the Calumet line, which covers a wide stretch of territory, south of Sixty-third street, the number of trolley funerals sometimes reaches five a day. Arrangements with the undertakers in suburbs along the line are made by the company.

Million a Front Foot.
A mortgage of $20,000,000 on a tiny town lot is rarely recorded in real estate annals. The city of San Jose, Cal., has within her flowery limits a little patch of ground which has actually borne an incumbrance of the above named stupendous proportions.

This infinitesimal speck of California's map has represented in money precisely what America paid Spain for the Philippine archipelago.

And this San Jose lot, only a fair-sized flower garden, according to the California notion as to gardens, measures 1496 square feet, while the Philippine Islands comprise 114,000 square miles.

Allen's Sense of Humor.
No man in Congress has a keener sense of humor than John Allen, of Mississippi, who for various reasons has been much in the public eye during the past few months. Not long ago, in the midst of a very interesting speech, a member on the other side of the Chamber asked: "May I interrupt the gentleman from Mississippi for a moment?" "Is it for applause?" queried Mr. Allen. "The gentleman from Mississippi allows no interruptions except for applause."—Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post.

Sold With the Coal.
A new carman was engaged at a coal yard and he went off to deliver his first load. He failed to return and a search was thereupon instituted.

The missing man was found at the house where he had put the coal in the cellar and had taken up his quarters in the kitchen. The cook said she could not get him to leave, and the carman was asked what he meant by such conduct. "Why," he replied, "I thought I was sold with the coal—I was weighed with it."—Tit-Bits.

Flags Float Side by Side.
In view of the present strained relations between Canada and the United States over the question of the Alaskan boundary, the accompanying photograph is interesting. It was taken at the extreme summit of the White Pass, at the point where the boundary line between the possessions of Canada and the United States is at present fixed. On either side of the line is erected a tall staff. From one floats the Stars and Stripes and from the other the Union Jack. The men grouped around the flags are officers of the famous Canadian Northwest Mounted Police.

NEW YORK FASHIONS.
Designs For Costumes That Have Become Popular in the Metropolis.

NEW YORK CITY (Special).—Very long wraps are the most prominent among fall models. The peplum cloak, fastening in a drapery on the left shoulder, is the latest novelty. It certainly will be a success, as it is exceedingly stylish. Though it is of considerable length, it does not reach the foot of the skirt, but terminates ten or twelve inches above it. A very elegant redingote has a triple pelerine covering the shoulders, while in front shaped revers run the entire length.

COAT SUITABLE FOR LATE FALL.

Shown in the accompanying illustration is a new-model cloak suitable for late fall of white cloth, fitting closely over the shoulders, and from thence downward, flaring slightly and opening in the centre of the back over a double fold of white velvet. Garniture is of chinchilla; collar lined with the same fur. Lining is maize surah, slightly wadded. The design is from the Dry Goods Economist.

It appears now very distinctly indicated that wraps, cloaks and redingotes will be far more fashionable than jackets as the season advances, not, however, to their entire exclusion, as they are far too convenient and pretty for that to be possible.

Another stylish redingote, also sloped off in front, has three very narrow shaped flounces surrounding it, and continuing up the front, diminishing as they ascend, they are repeated on a sort of small pelerine covering the shoulders.

Smart Autumn Jackets.
This season's jackets are fascinating with their wonderful curves and tailor finish. It is a mistake to suppose an outside garment can be made at home. It is the one thing that must have the stamp of the tailor, and an exceedingly "smart" one at that. Stitching is generally used on the new fall coats; and, although it is a finish, it must be kept thoroughly brushed, or the dust which settles on its threads will give even a new coat the appearance of having been worn a long time.

The short double-breasted type of jacket shown in the large engraving is most useful for autumn wear. This style is especially adaptable in blue cloth. Blue is a shade that always is serviceable, and seldom looks shabby even after a season's hard wear. The model is blue cloth, with white facings, and is lined throughout with white satin, which, by the way, is one of the best linings ever employed. Crystal buttons add considerably to the effect. The jacket flaps and a narrow band at the waist are of white. The other jacket shown in the large engraving is an open one, and simulates a double coat. This has a shaped edge inserted between the cloth and the lining. This inner coat is fitted with revers which turn outward over the other revers, and both are faced with white cloth. A vest of ivory satin or silk, with jabot of antique lace, adds much to its utility when something out of the ordinary is needed for afternoon or evening smart functions.

Gray Leads For Tailor Gowns.
The new tailor-made gowns, or rather the stuffs from which they are to be made, greet one as true and tried old friends, for they are chiefly the ever-popular gray shades.

Those Light-Sleeved Gowns!
The shoulders and the tops of the arms are so closely defined in the newest gowns that the woman with "wooden" shoulders, thin arms or a bad carriage is looking wistfully for ingenious ways of concealing her defects. The smart dressmakers say they will not attempt to clothe young girls or too slender women in these severely simple bodices. A fold or two or a suspicion of a frill of lace or chiffon covers deficiencies and does not interrupt the line which fashion ordains. A becoming pinafore dress is produced by wearing over a lace bodice a second half bodice of fondard or fine cloth, and inserting panels of the lace in the skirt, narrowing from the waist downward. The open part of the overdress may be connected by bands of velvet or stitched straps of cloth or silk, and similar bands can be adapted as shoulder-straps. Ever these lines render the closely fitted lace bodice less trying.

IVORY SOAP PASTE.

In fifteen minutes, with only a cake of Ivory Soap and water, you can make a better cleansing paste than you can buy.

Ivory Soap Paste will take spots from clothing; and will clean carpets, rugs, kid gloves, slippers, patent, enamel, russet leather and canvas shoes, leather belts, painted wood-work and furniture. The special value of Ivory Soap in this form arises from the fact that it can be used with a damp sponge or cloth to cleanse many articles that cannot be washed because they will not stand the free application of water.

DIRECTIONS FOR MAKING.—To one pint of boiling water add one and one-half ounces (one-quarter of the small size cake) of Ivory Soap cut into shavings, boil five minutes after the soap is thoroughly dissolved. Remove from the fire and cool in convenient dishes (not tin). It will keep well in an air-tight glass jar. COPYRIGHT 1898 BY T. M. PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

Early Marriages of Royalty.
Royal personages almost invariably marry young. The queen was not quite 21 when she married Prince Albert; the prince of Wales was not 22 when he wedded Princess Alexandra; the late czar of Russia was only 22 when he married Princess Dagmar, sister of the princess of Wales, who was 20; King Humbert of Italy was 24 when he married the 17-year-old Margherita, and the emperor of Austria was 23 when he wedded the lovely Princess Elizabeth, who was only 16. The king of the Belgians was first married at the age of 18; the late king of Spain was married first at the age of 19, and had a second wife when he was 22, and the German emperor was only 22 when he married the Princess Augustus Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein-Augustenburg.—Tit-Bits.

Ingenuous Expedient.
A local correspondent says that the other day a friend of his brought him a chunk of ice which he threw into his jar. But here was a difficult problem for him. The quantity of water was too great to be sufficiently cooled by that piece, which was melting as fast as our correspondent was himself doing in tears. At last a highly valued friend of his—who had spent the best portion of his life in scientific researches on the most original lines—came to his rescue and, after mature reflection, was of opinion that the best way out of the difficulty would be to evaporate the greater portion of aqua by heating while the ice would surely cool the remaining quantity.—Lahore Tribune.
