ELECTION RESULTS.

Mixed Victory in Luzerne County This Year-Light Vote Polled.

Samuel Baughner, D. S. & S. car in spector, is spending the week in Philadelphia.

Ground under the Jersey Central tracks caved in near Sandy Run yester-day, and the road is being relaid at that point.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael McLaughlin who were married on Tuesday in Phila delphia, arrived last evening at Eber vale, where they will reside. Seats for the lecture to be delivered next Thursday evening by Edwin F. Brightbill, under the auspices of the M. & M. Institute, were placed on sale at McMenamin's store this morning.

Dr. J. H. Cloud has surprised his many friends by resigning as assistant to Dr. H. M. Neale. He leaves on Monday for Philadelphia, where he will take a post graduate course at Jefferson col-lege Alvin Setzer went to sleep on the culm bank at a Scranton breaker Tues-day night and breathed the deadly dicated in the table above. There was practically no opposition to Judge Halsey, and he won as expectgases arising from the dump. Next morning he was dead. Setzer was 39 years of age.

to Judge Halsey, and he won as expect-ed. Kirkendall polled a surprisingly large vote everywhere, hence his victory over Raub, the Republican candidate for treasurer. Editor Lubrecht's defeat for register has a suspicion of treashory about it Scranton has practically closed its gates against itinerant merchants. By an ordinance recently approved tran-sient dealers must pay a license tax of $200 a month, or fractional part thereof, has a suspicion of treachery about it which will likely be investigated by his to do busines:

Daniel Sully and his company pleased an enthusiastic audience here on Mon-day evening in "O'Brien, the Contractday evening in "O'Brien, the Contract-or." The seating capacity of the opera house was entirely sold, excepting a few of the higher priced seats. The play was rendered in excellent style, and Mr. Sully and other leading members were heartily applanded during the evening. At the end of the second act the company responded to a curtain call. Mr. Sully then made a few re-marks, giving as a reason for the good last, has been denied a new trial by the supreme court, sitting at Pittsburg.
