Two Killed While Fighting.

Despite the warning whistle and changing of the bell on a Philadelphia and Reading Railway express train Monday night, near Shamokin, Joseph Zunk and Conrad Kondrak continued in a desperate fight on the railroad tracks. Finally the pilot of the locomotive, which was running forty miles an hour, tossed the combatants into the air. They landed in front of the train and were ground to pieces. The remains of the two men were found strewn along the track for 500 yards.
 The victims, young unmarried Hungarians, had attended a christening during the day at Enterprise, and incurred each other's enmity. They walked down the Reading Railway a distance of seventy-five yards from the station. Removing hats and coats, they started fighting.
 When the crew and passengers hurried from the cars to see what had occurred a number of foreign residents from Enterprise assembled and began to make threats at the crew for not stopping in time to prevent the tragedy.
 The passengers kept the Hungarians back as the crew gathered the remains of the victims and placed them in the station to wait for the arrival of an undertaker, after which the train proceeded to Williamsport.
 As the train passed through Shamokin a shoe worn by one of the dead men was found on the pilot.

Married in Philadelphia.

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon John J. Gorman, of Freeland, and Miss Sallie A. McGarvey, of Philadelphia, were united in marriage at St. Patrick's Catholic church, in that city. After the ceremony the wedding party returned to the home of the bride's mother on South Twenty-fourth street, where the newly-married couple received the congratulations of their friends. A few hours later Mr. and Mrs. Gorman left for Washington, D. C., where they will spend their honeymoon. The groom is a well-known and respected business man of town, and is engaged as general manager of the store of T. Campbell.

Big Bank Dividends.

The First National bank of Scranton has long been the envy of investors. The regular quarterly dividend of 10 per cent has just been declared. The directors have also declared an extra dividend of 10 per cent. This makes, to the shareholders, dividends for the current year amounting to 50 per cent on the par value of their stock. This record is beaten by only two National banks, the Chemical and the First, of New York city.

Villanova Notes.

John Bonner played a very good game of football last Saturday at Wilmington. He made the touchdown that won the game. He is one of Villanova's star players.
 Bernard McFadden does not play on account of his hip. All the students miss Barney because he is out of the game for the season.
 Matt Broderick is playing good ball on the second team. Matt is all right, only in height and weight.
 George Shigo is getting to be a star player as quarter back on the first team.
 Thomas Campbell has resigned as captain of the second team on account of his health.

"Kidnapped in New York."

"Kidnapped in New York," which comes to the Grand opera house Monday evening, is spoken of as being one of the best comedy dramas touring the road this season. Barney Gilmore, who plays the part of Mr. Doolley, the Irish detective, obtained distinction in the last three seasons in "Hogan's Alley," and it is said that his success has been even more pronounced. The part fits him to a nicety and enables him to illustrate his skill as a character comedian. The play is written around the recent abduction of Baby Marion Clark. While the play is written to fit the times, it is said to be very carefully constructed, and is free from the hair-raising climax seen in later day dramas. The company supporting Mr. Gilmore is spoken of as being above the average. Special scenery is provided for the production.

James Gallop, aged 57 years, a well-known resident of Hazleton, died this morning. He is survived by a wife and eight children.

J. Bennett Smith, of Wilkes-Barre, will lecture on "Geological Formation" at the M. & M. Institute rooms tomorrow evening.

D. S. & S. engine No. 11 broke down near Eckley yesterday and had to be hauled back to Drifton shops for repairs.

Gentlemen, for hats and caps go to A. Oswald's. He has a nice variety.

Operators to Aid New Road.

The Individual Coal Operators' Association at Scranton ratified the action of their representative, Edward L. Fuller, in combining their interests with the new Delaware Valley and Kingston Railroad, which is to be the continuation of the Erie and Wyoming Valley Railroad from Lackawanna to Tidewater, by the route of the abandoned Delaware and Hudson canal. The projected railway of the independent operators will therefore be abandoned. The Operators' Association will at once transfer to the new company the 9,000 tons of heavy steel rails delivered to them some months ago at last year's low prices, and these will suffice to construct nearly one-half of the new road.

The Erie and Wyoming Valley Railroad, which is now placed in the strongest position possible for anthracite tonnage, will at once contract for upward of 1,000 large coal cars and no less than thirty big mogul locomotives, so as to be fully prepared for its increased traffic when the new road is completed. With the tidewater facilities at Kingston and Eastern markets at their command, Mr. Fuller said, in addressing the operators, there was sure to be an increased demand for anthracite. The new road, he further said, would tend to bring about considerable reductions in hard coal freight.
