Gameweil System Adopted. The borough council met on Thurs-day ovening with Messrs. Kline, Davis, Smith, Meehan, Mulhearn and De-Pierro present. President Kline stated that the object of the meeting was to make further investigation into the various system of fire alarms from whom bids were received. The secretary read letters from various town and cities where the Gamewell system and cities where the Gamewell system is In use recommending it very highly. Mr. Smith offered a resolution author-izing the fire committee to draw up a contract with the Gamewell Company. Mr. DePierro stated that he had a message from Mr. Kiley, of Hazleton, who represented a Boston company, withdrawing his bid.

Mr. Mulhearn wanted some definite information in regard to the proposition of the Gamewell Company. The secre information in regard to the proposition of the Gamewell Company. COURT HOUSE MOVINGS.

Republican Commissioners. From the Wilkesbarre Record. Monday will be the annual moving day at the court house, and it will mark the departure of a few office-holders from some snug berths and a number of changes in some desirable clercial posi-tions. The offices that will be affected are the register's, treasurer's, and the commissioners'. In two of these offices —the register's and treasurer's—there will be a complete change in the force of clerks, while in the commissionera' office there is still a cloud of uncertainty office there is still a cloud of uncertainty office there is still a cloud of uncertainty hanging over the disposition of the clerkships, owing to a disagreement between Commissioners Hay and Jones over two or three of the important places in the office. will return to Hazieton and will prob-bably again enter the employ of the coal company with which he served before he was chosen register. Register Kuntz will retire from office with the hearty good wishes of all who have had busi-ness with the office during his incum-bency. He has been a capable official and gave the county an excellent ad-ministration. Register-elect Mainwaring has select-ed an entirely new set of clerks, all of whom are peculiary fitted for the posi-tions they have been chosen to fill. Mr. Mainwaring's clerks will be as follows: Deputy register-Robert P. Robinson, the retiring county treasurer. Clerk-David J. Linskill, Plymonth. Marinage license clerk-Charles B. Smith, Pittston. Deputy at Hazleton-Hiram P. Kuntz. Mr. Mainwaring will retain the present deputy register, Mr. Poetiger, until he and his assistants become familiar with the duties of the office. Treasurer Robert P. Robinson, who will turn the funds of the county over to the custody of Treasurer-elect Kirk-endall, has, as has been his custom in the various positions he has filled, given the county efficient service. As Mr. Robinson will follow his deputy to the register's office, the only member of the present staff in the treasurer's office who will leave the count house is George Reed. Mr. Reed will not leave the office, however, until April 1, Treasurer-elect Kirkendall having decided to totain him until his appointees are capable of carrying on the work with-out a hitch. out a hitch. Mr. Kirkendall's assistants are: Deputy—James P. Gorman, Hazleton. Clerk—George Kirkendall, Dallas. From what can be learned, there is an unfortunate disagreement between Commissioners Hay and Jones over the selection of their clerks. The commis-sioners have held several meetings, but up to yesterday they were still at log-gerheads, being unable to agree on a deputy and two of the important cler-leal positions. As Mr. Driesbach has decided to leave the office it becomes the duty of the commissioners to fill the place and their efforts to select Mr. Dreisbach's successor was the first cause of the breach. Mr. Jones favors Thomas Peters, who at present is filling the next place to the deputy, promoted to the vacancy. Mr. Hay, however, is in favor of Mr. Woodruff, another clerk. Were this the only difference between them an Mr. Kirkendall's assistants are:

the only difference between them an agreement would not seem so remote agreement would not seem so remote, but the commissioners also disagree on the disposition of one or two other clerkships. Mr. Jones believes he should be allowed to fill the place now held by George Henry, but Mr. Hay again thinks otherwise. The commissioners will hold another meeting and endeavor thinks otherwise. The commissioners will hold another meeting and endeavor to compromise their differences. The opinion among the politicians is that Messrs. Hay and Jones will not agree and that one or the other of them will combine with Commissioner-elect Finn and select the corps of clerks, county solicitor, etc. Should such come to pass the Democrats might secure a place or two in the office, as it is not likely that Mr. Finn would cast his vote with either Jones or Hay without being Cormas Brogan and William Ashman, of Upper Lebigb, spent last week in Scranton.
