LIST OF FREELAND MERCHANTS

Standard Rebate Checks With Cash Purchases.

PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.

EXPLANATION

The merchants whose names appear in this Directory are the leading business people in this vicinity; they want your cash trade, and in order to secure it they are going to give Standard Rebate Checks. One check for every ten-cent purchase or ten with every dollar, etc.

When you have saved the required number of STANDARD REBATE CHECKS from any or all of these merchants combined, you exchange at our stores WHICH ARE PERMANENTLY LOCATED IN "THE BETHLEHEMS," or at any of our Branches, for useful and attractive articles to decorate your home. Rebate Checks bring cash trade and cash trade is always worth 5 per cent. The merchant makes no advance on his goods, but on the contrary, can and does sell cheaper. The merchant may not always think to give you Rebate Checks. For that reason, you must ask for them; they belong to you for cash trade; you are not begging for them, and it pleases the merchants to get your cash trade. The Standard Rebate Check puts business on a cash basis, enables the merchant to pay his debts, purchase his goods cheaper, and does not figure in his losses a lot of dead book accounts. Are you not entitled to a discount if you pay cash? Pay cash and ask for Standard Rebate Checks. They belong to you.

Just before the holiday recess, two important resolutions were introduced in congress, declaring the intention of the government in regard to the Philippines. These will lead to extended debate. One was by Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts, and the other by Representative DeArmond, of Missouri. Both refer to the declaration of independence as a criterion for the establishment of government, but vary in the scope of their declarations, although both are adverse to colonial government in this republic. That of Senator Hoar may be said to express very well the faith of the eastern anti-imperialists in the Renmbis can party, while the government, but vary in the scope of their declarations, although both are adverse to colonial government in this republic. The Wanamaker anti-Quay preclamation reads all right until yes strike the name of McKinley coupled with the names of Lincoln and Grant. "The party of Lincoln, Grant and McKinley" is to be saved by Mr. Wanamaker's coterie from the baneful influences of Matthew Stanley Quay. Without analyzing the taste which puts McKinley in the same class with Abraham Lincoln, we must ask for information as to just why William McKinley in the same class with Abraham Lincoln, we must ask for information as to just why William McKinley is to be saved from one of his most valued lieutenants in the conserss of the United States. And wherein is William McKinley any better than M. S. Quay?

Mr. Quay made beautiful promises of reform in 1895, and the mention of these promises now makes Mr. Quay laugh as if there were never to be any more woe in his life. Mr. McKinley made certain high sounding pledges and promises about Cuba and the Philippines—we don't know whether he laughs or not, but we do know that this pigmy Napoleon brazenly and insistently urges upon congress and the people a flat repudiation of all his now pathetic promises.

Mr. Quay once pleaded the ctatute of limitation. Mr. McKinley certainly didn't repudiate the surety he pledged himself to for another man, but we don't know what he might have done if Hanna, Hahn & Kohlsatt hadn't paid his $93,000 obligation and then had him nominated for the presidency.

M. S. Quay is a political cutthroat with the courage of his convictions. Mr. McKinley is suggestive of the villain in the play who wears a sniffe and a high hat with crepe on it and an a high hat with crepe on it and an anjolgetic droop of the eye lashes.

The Wanamakerites, if necessary to establish their claims to being true blue Republicans though opposed to cestablish their claims to being true blue Republicans though opposed to establish their claims to being true blue Republicans and research of the wears a sniffe and a high hat with crepe on it and an along and even chaper te the large consumers. Secretary Gage's estimater for the fiscal year beginning next June show that imperialism will be the most costly load for the United States According to these, the white man's burden for the coming year will exceed that for the present one by more than $34,000,000, in spite of the fact that there will be no $20,000,000 to pay to Spain, and that the Fillpino war is expected to be over before the next year begins.—Allentown Item.

CURRENT COMMENT.

CURRENT COMMENT.

President McKinley ignored the dictates of consistency, as he has often done before, when a few days ago he went to Mount Vernon to speak at the one hundredth anniversary of the death of Washington, the father of his country, whose teachings were as diverse from McKinley's practices as moon is different from midnight. Wille Washington admonished us to shun all foreign alliances and entanglements, McKinley goes electioneering fer foreign trouble and courts foreign complications. Though he isaults the memory of Washington by the utter disregard of his wise advice, he has the impudence to grow eloquest in his praise at his tomb. Emerson well says: "Who that sees the meanness of our politics but inwardly congratulates Washington that he was laid away sweet in his grave the hope of humanity not yet sublugated in him."

The chaplains in the regular array, these condenses and the was laid away says these condenses and the statement of the contact of the condenses and the statement of the contact of the condenses and the statement of the condenses and the condens sweet in his grave the hope of humanity not yet sublugated in him."

The chaplains in the regular army, those gentlemen who belie their profession by lending their saaction to war, with all its unholy influences, lost much of their zeal when called on to go to the Philippines. As long as they had a soft snap at home, and could earn good salaries by a little praying and singing and occasionally joining in, as some chaplains have been known to do, in drinking beer with the boys, war was a glorious exhibition of patrioti impulses; but when it came to go where disease lurks in every breath their padisease lurks in every breath their padisease lurks in every breath their patriotism weakened. Several of them pleaded to be discharged and three of them were released. One got off on the ground of bad health, another discovered that he had misstated the year of his birth and was already entitled to retire on pay, while the third crawled out because he had a pull with the powers that make and unmake appointees at their own sweet will.
