POLITICAL POINTERS.

About Local and County Candidates and Their Aspirations.

The battle for supremacy in the county between the Lenahan and Garman factions is being waged fiercely. Of the elghteen delegates from Luzerne county to the state convention, the Lenahanites have captured three in each of the First and Sixth districts, while the Garmanites won in the Second and Third. The Fourth is claimed by the Lenahanites, and in the Fifth both factions have elected three delegates each.

elected three delegates each.

Foster Democrats are putting up a strong fight for their ticket in that township. The nominee for tax collector, Erasmus Snyder, of Upper Lehigh, is well booked in local politics and has a united party behind him and his colleagues. Every district in the township promises to do well for the entire ticket.

Hugh Malloy, the Democratic candidate for tax collector, is out working for a complete victory for himself and the whole ticket, and when Mr. Malloy goes to work in politics there is trouble browing for the other fellows—as election forms to be a second of the collection for the tion figures in past years in Foster and Freeland abundantly prove.

The Democrats made no mistake in choosing John F. Boyle as their candi-date for burgess. A sober, industrious young man, qualified in every respect to be the chief executive of the town, is what the people want, and Mr. Boyle fills every requirement.

Henry Beineman, the Democratic nomines for poor director, served in that capacity during the years 1882-83-84 and made an ideal director. He will be well supported in this end of the county.

A convention to choose delegates to the next state convention will be held at Hazleton on the 26th inst. by the Democrats of the Fourth district.

Condition of Coal Trade.

The anthracite trade has not mater The anthracite trade has not materially improved any since our report last Monday. It is not by far in as good condition as recently, owing to the much reduced demand. Cutting of prices is quite general and contracts below the circular rates are being made, notwithstanding protestations to the contrary from local interested parties. The circular price at the mines for pea coal is $1.75 per ton, and contracts have coal is $1.75 per ton, and contracts have been made at $1.35; stove and chestnut is listed on the circulars at $2.95, and is listed on the circulars at $2.95, and contracts are quite frequently made at $2.70 to $2.80; broken, which is quoted on the trust's agreement at $2.45, is being sold as low as $2.15. Among the large retail dealers in the cities it is firmly believed that prices will go lower.
