MINERS IN SESSION.

National President Addresses the Union Men of the Upper Region.

The miners' delegates from Anthracite District No. 1, of the United Mine-workers of America, extending from Forest City to Glen Lyon, met at Wilkes-Barre on Monday and Tuesday. National President Mitchell was present both days. The main thing to be considered was the request to be submitted to the operators and this took up most of the time. The nature of the request was not given out for publication, but the Record says it learned from one of the men that an effort will be made during the next month or two to have an understanding with the operators of the entire region respecting everything concerning which there is at present dissatisfaction.
An effort will be made to have a uniform scale of wages, which will mean that in nearly every instance there shall be an advance. The scale will be submitted to all of the operators between Forest City and Glen Lyon. The long talked of powder question will also be brought up and an effort will be made to have a reduction. These will be the main things to be submitted to the operators.
Before the requests are submitted an effort will be made by District No. 1 to have the unions in the other anthracite districts join in a similar movement, so that there may be uniformity of action.
During the session an address was delivered by President Mitchell, in the course of which he said:
"If the miners do their duty there will be changed conditions before the snow flies. At any time there is a fighting chance we are willing to make an attempt for an amelioration of present grievances. Although not favorable to demands are refused I say strike and strike until you win."
"There is a large intermingling of nationalities in the anthracite coal fields. Nationality should not be a factor for dissension among miners. The operator does not require the man who wears a coat to be an Englishman, or an Irishman, or a Welshman, or a Pole, or a white or black man. He wants the cheapest miner. Let the miners consider themselves as miners irrespective of nationality. Let them join the organization and in a very short time there shall be no cheap miner, but miners paid a fair day's wages for a fair day's work."
"Partisan politics must be kept out of the organization. Partisan politics is too bitter in this country to be introduced into a labor organization. Politics and labor do not make a composite mixture. We have more than enough of disrupting influences without introducing this element into our organization."
"Beware of the character assassin in your union. The man who cannot openly make his charge, if he has any to make, before the man he accuses, should be driven from your organization."
Charged With Killing a Policeman.
Thomas Luddon was put on trial at Scranton on Monday for the killing of Police Officer Patrick Rafferty at Old Forge on Sunday, December 7, 1899. The entire day was consumed in securing a jury. The crime for which Luddon is being tried grew out of the disturbances arising from the strike at Jermyn and Co.'s mines. Luddon was acting as a deputy sheriff. After work was resumed he was employed as a watchman. He became embroiled in several altercations with his fellow-workmen, with whom he was very unpopular. On Sunday evening Luddon went to the engine-house of the breaker, where he placed three of the employees under arrest. A large crowd of persons soon congregated at the breaker. Among them were Police Officers Rafferty and Thomas McKenna. As the two officers entered a shot was fired and Rafferty fell, mortally wounded. McKenna was also wounded.
Wounded in the Philippines.
Of the nine Freeland boys who are enrolled under Uncle Sam's flag in the Philippines the first to meet a bullet fired by the enemy is Harry Dougherty, a son of Patrick Dougherty, of Washington and Walnut streets. His wound is a serious one, but it is not believed to be dangerous. He is receiving treatment at one of the army hospitals near Manila. Harry is well known to our townspeople and the news of his misfortune will cause regret among his friends. He is a member of Troop I, Fourth cavalry. This troop has seen active service from the beginning of the war, and two horses were shot under Dougherty before he received his wound.

Easter Monday Ball.

The annual ball of St. Patrick's cornet band will be held next Monday evening at Yannes' opera house, and the members have all the arrangements completed to make the occasion an enjoyable one for their friends. The Easter Monday balls of the past have always been successful, and the coming one promises to be no exception to the rule. The dance music will be furnished by DePierro's orchestra.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Notwithstanding the fact that the nominee of Monday's convention is diametrically opposed to the methods, aims and principles of the "insurgents" of his party, the chief organ of the anti-Quayites in this district lost no time in falling in line and proclaiming its allegiance to Mr. Haworth. The Sentinel scented a new daily in its field and the least sign of waverling would have brought on the scene a vigorous competitor for Republican favors.
The Republican candidates for county offices who have announced themselves thus far are: Benjamin R. Jones, of Warrior Run, for district attorney; Reese Lloyd, of Freeland, and John Miller, of Hazleton, for clerk of courts; James W. Moore, of Slocum, and John Bersch, of Kingston, for prothonotary; A. G. Watson, of Duryea, and S. H. Suttiff, of Shickshinny, for jury commissioner.
Few conventions held by Republicans please as many people as the late legislative gathering. In Mr. Haworth the Quayites believe they have a winner, while the Democrats think him an easy victim. The anti-Quayites hold the balance of power, and few of them are talking for publication.
An effort will be made by certain anti-Quay Republicans to foist upon the Democratic legislative ticket a candidate who would serve their purposes as fully as one of themselves. Nothing, we are informed, will be lacking to accomplish this object.
The most disgusted set of politicians in the state are the Quay leaders at Wilkes-Barre. Their defeat on Monday in four of the six districts has taught them that the way of the transgressor is not plain sailing.
Hazleton Republicans, including those friendly to Quay, made wry faces when they saw the Freeland candidate winning at Monday's convention.

BRIEF ITEMS.

John Meagher, aged 26 years, of Mauch Chunk, pleaded guilty in court at Mauch Chunk, to having broken open the trunk of Martin Gallagher, one of his father's boarders, and having stolen $265. Judge Craig sentenced him to a term of one year's solitary confinement at hard labor in the Eastern penitentiary. The deed was committed less than two weeks ago.
We learn from an authoritative source that matters pertaining to the construction of a trolley line between this city and Wilkes-Barre are being pushed with all possible vigor. The money has all been subscribed, several lines surveyed and there is every reason to warrant the statement that the new road will positively be constructed this summer.—Standard.

A letter written home by John Boyle of McAdoo, from the Philippines, states that Henry Griffiths, who enlisted in the army at Hazleton a year ago, was recently captured and put to death by the Filipinos. Boyle and Griffiths and a number of other men from Company G, Nineteenth infantry, were ambushed, but all escaped except Griffiths.
Owing to a big rush of orders from the Lake Erie district, the Union Coal Company at Shamokin gave notice yesterday that the collieries, employing 4,000 men and boys, in the Shamokin district, will be worked all week and the best part of the month, and that after May 1 steady time will likely result.

Prison Employes Appointed.

The Lenahan faction of the Democratic party of this county met with a severe defeat on Tuesday, when the prison commissioners held a meeting and ousted from office a number of employes in the county jail who were friendly to the Democratic boss. The bond consists of County Commissioners Finn, Jones and Hay, who are members by virtue of their office, and John J. Brazelle and Colonel E. B. Beaumont, who were appointed by the court last week. Brazelle and Beaumont are Democrats, but formed a combination with Hay, one of the Republicans, thereby controlling the board without requiring assistance from Finn, who is a staunch follower of the Lenahan flag.
The combination made the following appointments: Warden, A. W. Jackson; deputy, A. E. Detrow; matron, Mrs. A. W. Jackson; physician, Dr. Wolfe; watchmen, Frank Meehan, Miners Mills; John Kinney, James Gibbons, Plains; James Quinlan, Pittston; R. C. Hitchler, Nanticoke; Frank Lynch, Thomas Kearney, Wilkes-Barre.

Death Wiped Out Family.

Death this week wiped out the family of John Cummings, near St. Clair. The family consisted of parents and one son. Four days ago the aged mother died, and her funeral was held on Tuesday. Wednesday night her unmarried son, Martin, aged about 50 years, fell from his chair and died suddenly. Ten minutes later his father expired from the shock of his double loss. The latter was about 86 years old, and had been confined to his bed for some time.
These three were the only occupants of the old homestead, in which the family had lived for the past sixty years.

HAWORTH NOMINATED.

Freeland Candidate Wins Republican Legislative Nominations.

Harry W. Haworth, of Freeland, was named by the Republicans of the Fourth legislative district on Monday as their candidate for the legislature, and A. M. Eby, of Hazleton, and Chester Kerbaugh, of Hazle township, were selected as delegates to the Republican state convention.
Up to a short time before the convention opened there were three candidates in the field. William Hughes and William D. Gerlock, both of Hazleton, being aspirants for the honor captured by Mr. Haworth. At a caucus held by the Quay forces it was found that fourteen of the twenty-five followers of the ex-United States senator were for Haworth, and at this point Hughes withdrew and gave his support to the successful candidate.
The convention was held at the Cottage hall and was opened by District Chairman W. L. Richards, William Kemp and C. W. Wilde contested for the chairmanship, and the former won. John Powell, of Upper Lehigh, and Samuel Gundry, of Stockton, were voted for secretary, and Mr. Powell was elected.
For the legislative nomination Attorney Brown nominated Mr. Haworth and William Young named W. D. Gerlock, of Hazleton. The first and only ballot taken resulted as follows: Haworth, 24½; Gerlock, 20½. The nomination was enthusiastically received, and the nominee made a brief address, after which the usual resolutions were adopted.
Ex-Register Hiram Kuntz was chosen as district chairman and Jonathan Leibensberger district secretary.
The convention throughout was in the hands of the Quayites and the result was attained in spite of extraordinary efforts put forth by prominent people in the district and county who are opposed to Quayism.
The convention was attended by nearly all the prominent politicians of both parties in the district.
The nominee, H. W. Haworth, has been a resident of the district for several years. He is employed by Coxie Bros. & Co., and is favorable to the creation of a new county. He has taken an active part in borough and district politics for several years, and has held several positions in the party, but has never before aspired for anything more important than an election office at the hands of the voters.

George J. Hartman, anti-Quay, of Wilkes-Barre, was nominated in the First district.
E. A. Coray, anti-Quay, of West Pittston, was renominated in the Second district.
Dr. William T. Mahon, anti-Quay, of Nanticoke, was nominated in the Third district.
William J. Strange, Quayite, of Plains township, was nominated in the Fifth district.
Philip Drum, anti-Quay, of Drums, was nominated in the Fifth district.

Used an Engine in Chase.

Chief of Police Kline and two officers of Wilkes-Barre made a daring capture of a desperate gang Tuesday night. Word was sent to police headquarters that five tramps had headed the store of P. N. Murray, in the southern part of the city, and, after assaulting the proprietor, had stolen a lot of clothing. The men made way with their booty and then started out of town by way of the Pennsylvania Railroad.
The police, boarding an empty engine, ran down the railroad until they overtook the tramps. The latter resisted and there was a hard scuffle, but the officers finally got their men handcuffed and brought them back to the city. The prisoners gave their names as Thomas Williams, Arthur Harrington, David Sullivan, John Thomas and William Blakely.

Telephone Men Organize.

A secret meeting of the representatives of the independent telephone companies of Pennsylvania and New Jersey was held at Harrisburg on Tuesday. The meeting was for the purpose of organizing an independent telephone association of these states for the purpose of mutual advancement and obtaining long-distance service for the various local telephone companies. The organization elected C. W. Kline, of Hazleton, as president.

Two Remarkable Gifts.

Everybody can have beautiful Easter lilies next Sunday without charge, for the Philadelphia Press announces that every reader of the Easter number will receive a splendid picture of Easter lilies. The picture is by a famous artist in ten colors and is 14x40 inches in size. It will not be creased by folding, so that every person who gets next Sunday's Press will get a perfect picture fit to adorn any home. And in addition to the picture there will be a finely illustrated booklet containing a remarkable love story—the kind you will sit up all night to read. This will also be free with next Sunday's Press. Announcement is made that the supply of pictures and books is limited, hence it will be well to send in your order early.

STATISTICS OF ST. ANN'S.

CENSUS ORDERED BY BISHOP HOBAN HAS BEEN COMPLETED.

English-Speaking Roman Catholics of the Parish Number 2,844, of Which Freeland Has More Than One-Half—Figures of the Census Given by Towns.

The census of the Roman Catholic population, ordered taken by Bishop Hoban, of Scranton, in each parish of his diocese, has been completed in St. Ann's parish, and has been forwarded by the pastor, Rev. M. J. Fallhee, to the bishop.

The TRIBUNE today, in the following table, presents the number of Roman Catholic adult males, adult females, children under 21 years of age and the number of families in the parish, which comprises the towns of Freeland, Woodside, Drifton, Upper Lehigh, Highland, Pinkash, Oakdale and Japan.

These are the figures gathered by the enumerators appointed by Rev. M. J. Fallhee to perform the work ordered done by Bishop Hoban. It includes only the English-speaking Catholic members of the church in the parish, the work of enumerating the Slavs, Magyars, Hungarians, Poles, Lithuanians, Austrians, Italians and Tirolese being assigned to the priests who administer to these people. Were they included in the census, the figures would undoubtedly be more than doubled.

The figures show that more than one-half the members of the church are from Freeland, which has 280 families, with a total of 1,516 persons. Drifton comes next, closely followed by Jeddo, as computed by the combined totals of Pinkash, Oakdale and Japan. Highland is fourth, Upper Lehigh fifth and Woodside, which is practically a part of Freeland, is sixth.

Following are the returns:

Towns.	Males.	Females.	Children Under 21.	Total.
Freeland	380	362	774	1,516
Woodside	26	19	40	85
Drifton	100	97	254	451
Upper Lehigh	36	28	66	130
Highland	45	40	159	244
Pinkash	14	17	42	73
Oakdale	22	16	59	97
Japan	68	55	125	248
Total	691	634	1,519	2,844

The number of pupils attending St. Ann's parochial school is 395—222 girls and 173 boys.

Several Little Ditties.

She sings soprano in a choir,
And when she isn't there,
It's ten to one she's on her wheel,
Also taking the air.

Said he: "Be all in all to me!"
She answered with a laugh:
"I think you should be satisfied
If I'm your better half."

If you tell her she stood a century well
She thanks you, and pleased appears;
But she'd cut you dead if you ever said
She had lived for forty years.

Said the innocent-looking banana peel,
On the pavement lying low:
"My mission here, I verily feel,
Is to get me under somebody's heel
And 'trip the fantastic toe.'"

Must Have Said "No."
He—Yes, she's very rich, they tell me.
Most uninteresting girl, though, I consider.
She can say nothing but "Yes!" and "No!"
She—Indeed! And which did she say to you?

Hie Hence.
"I have never loved any one but you!" sighed the young suitor.
"Go and get a reputation, then," replied the haughty beauty.—Philadelphia North American.

Not Always, But Sometimes.
"You mustn't always judge a man by his coat."
"Perhaps not, unless he's a painter."
