A discussion on sidewalks followed and the street committee was ordered to look up all records relating to sidewalk notices, etc.

An offer from the Freeland Brewing Company, to place on Main street the clay from their excavations, was accepted.

High Jump Did Not Save Him.

Mike Hoynch, a Poleander from Eckley, made a jump on Tuesday night that nearly cost him his life. He had secretly removed his trunk and effects from Eckley to a house on Ridge street, Freeland, with the intention of leaving that night. He had received his pay at Jeddo in the morning. A warrant was issued for his arrest and to avoid capture he jumped out of the garret window to the ground, a distance of twenty-four feet. He was arrested, however, and taken before Squire Buckley and given a hearing, and upon paying costs was released.

About ten minutes afterwards his boarding boss from Eckley came to hunt him up, but he made good his escape and left town. Beyond a thorough shaking up he was none the worse for his fall.

The Fourth at Eckley.

The first annual picnic of the Transvaal base ball club, of Eckley, will be held at Cycle Path grove on the Fourth of July. The features of the day will be two games of ball between the Silver Brook and Sandy Run clubs, a $50 shooting match between Charles Wald and T. Cooper and a bicycle race between W. J. Hoffman and W. H. Baskin.

The boys propose to make the day one of the greatest Eckley has seen in many years. The picnic and sports will commence at 2 o'clock and continue during the afternoon and evening. Music will be furnished by the Junior band.

The contract for the erection of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel Company's mills from Scranton to Buffalo has begun. The mills employ 3,000 men and their removal is a heavy blow to Scranton.

CUPID'S BUSY DAYS.

Several Couples Have Joined Hands for Life During the Week.

In the Catholic church at Providence, Scranton, yesterday morning, James B. Ferry, of Freeland, and Miss Annie Haggerty, of Providence, were joined in marriage during a nuptial mass. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Bid Haggerty, and the groom by James McKiney, of New York city. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of friends of the contracting parties, and at the conclusion of the mass they were warmly congratulated. Both are well-known in Freeland, the bride having resided here and in Upper Lehigh for several years. The groom has lived in town the greater portion of his life and has just ended six years' service as a school director of the borough. Mr. and Mrs. Ferry arrived here last evening and took possession of their handsomely furnished home on Washington street, near Luzerne. They begin life with the best wishes of a host of friends.

John J. McLaughlin, of Philadelphia, and Miss May Guckivan, of Milnesville, were married in St. Gabriel's church, Hazleton, yesterday morning. A number of North Side friends of the couple attended the ceremony. The groom is a son of Patrick McLaughlin, Sr., of North Ridge street, and was a resident of town until a few years ago. He was at one time engaged in newspaper work on the TRIBUNE and was later employed by Hazleton Truth and the Mahanoy City American. The bride was a teacher in Hazle township until recently. Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin left for Philadelphia yesterday afternoon and will reside in that city.

At Eckley today Miss Elizabeth James, of that town, and Charles Shalters, of Reading, will be united in marriage at the Episcopal parsonage by Rev. J. P. Buxton, of Drifton. The bride is a popular young lady who has taught school for some time past in Foster township, and Mr. Shalters is one of Berks county's rising young attorneys. They will take up their residence in Reading.

At White Haven yesterday Rev. Frank Marshal, of town, performed the ceremony which united Douglas Rute, of Freeland, and Miss May Gettle, of White Haven. Asa Rute, brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Mary Britton, of Wilkesbarre, was bridesmaid. A large number of friends attended the wedding.

Harry Burger, of Highland, and Miss Anna Zeeb, of Hazleton, were married on Tuesday at the residence of the bride's parents. After the ceremony they departed on a wedding tour. Upon their return they will reside at Highland.

Patrick Gallagher, of Hazleton, and Miss Bid Boyle, of Jeddo, will be married this afternoon at St. Ann's church.

Hugh McDevitt, of Hazleton, and Miss Grace Campbell, of Eckley, will be married at the latter place today.

PERSONALITIES.

Miss Clara McDonald, who is attending school at Scranton, has finished her studies for the term and is at her home here.

Simon and Miss Nettie Neuberger attended the commencement at Bloomsburg school yesterday.

Mrs. Condy O. Boyle is visiting her mother and brothers at Priceburg, Lackawanna county.

Miss Sarah Dodson, of Wilkesbarre, is the guest of her mother on Walnut street.

Attorney E. J. Moore, of Warrior Run, called upon friends here last evening.

N. L. Butterwick, of Danville, is visiting his son, W. L., on Front street.

Miss Bessie Johnson was a visitor at Stroudsburg this week.

Miss Celia Faltz, of Berwick, is visiting relatives here.

Junior Mechanics' Officers.
Freeland Council, No. 348, Jr. O. U. A. M., elected the following officers Tuesday evening:
Councillor—George Welch.
Vice councillor—James Paul, Jr.
Recording secretary—Joseph McClelland.
Assistant—A. M. Shiva.
Financial secretary—James M. Dwyer.
Treasurer—John R. Boyd.
Conductor—Jerry Fritzing.
Warden—Charles Eastwood.
Chaplain—Milton Koons.
Representative to state council—Jos. McClelland; alternate, Thomas Klingerman.

Ice Cream Kills a Girl.
Miss Maria, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Joseph Collier, of Jeunesville, died early Tuesday morning as a result of eating ice cream. The girl was in Hazleton the previous night and after eating the ice cream bore no traces of ill effects until about midnight, when she became seriously ill and died a few hours later.

The work of removing the Lackawanna Iron and Steel Company's mills from Scranton to Buffalo has begun. The mills employ 3,000 men and their removal is a heavy blow to Scranton.

James A. Sweeney Nominated.

James A. Sweeney, of Hazleton, was nominated on Monday by the Democrats of the Fourth district for the assembly over P. F. Boyle, also of Hazleton, by a vote of 22 1/2 to 21 1/2. This was brought about by the combination of the delegates controlled by Michael Campbell, of East Foster, and George McLaughlin, of Freeland, who threw their entire strength to Sweeney on the third ballot. The ballots were as follows:
Sweeney 11 1/2 11 1/2 22 1/2
Boyle 21 19 21 1/2
Campbell 7 7 ..
McLaughlin 5 1/2 5 ..

The resolutions reaffirm the Chicago platform, endorse W. J. Bryan for the presidency, condemn militarism and the refusal of the Republican national committee to adopt resolutions of sympathy in favor of the Boers, pledge the support of Fourth district Democrats to the platform to be adopted at Kansas City, and instruct the candidate of the convention to work and vote for the establishment of a new county.

John H. Biglow, Esq., is the new district chairman, and proposes to wage a vigorous campaign in behalf of the nominee. Mr. Sweeney has an honorable record and is popular with the laboring people of the district.

Burgess is a Citizen.
It has been satisfactorily shown to the court that Burgess P. J. Calpin, of Sugar Notch, is a citizen of the United States and the bottom at once fell out of the quo warranto proceedings to oust him from office. It was alleged that Mr. Calpin was not a citizen, but still a British subject, and certificates were laid before the court from the clerk of the courts and the prothonotary to the effect that the records of their office did not show that Mr. Calpin had ever taken out naturalization papers.

On Monday District Attorney Martin moved that the quo warranto proceedings be dismissed and the writ quashed. He stated that Mr. Calpin came to the United States with his parents when a child and that the records showed that his father had become naturalized before his son, the present Burgess of Sugar Notch, was 18 years of age. As this was sufficient proof that Mr. Calpin is a citizen, the motion was granted.

Anthracite to Be Advanced.
While comparatively no anthracite coal is being sold this month, the trade is in fairly good condition. At a meeting of the coal sales-agents in New York last week the whole situation was discussed and it was decided to reduce the production and make an advance of 25 cents a ton at tidewater points on July 1. The anthracite companies have been mining a large amount of coal this year, the production up to May 31 being nearly 1,500,000 tons greater than for the same period last year. Even with this increase, stocks are smaller than usual at this season, and it is stated the amount is fully one-half below what it was in 1899. The feeling is that actual prices will be little changed until after the summer months.

Comments on Our Change.
The FREELAND TRIBUNE, one of the North Side's brightest and well edited papers, makes the announcement that after July 2 the paper will be issued tri-weekly. The TRIBUNE is a good paper and we believe the residents of that borough will appreciate the efforts of the publishers.—Hazleton Standard.

The FREELAND TRIBUNE will finish its twelfth volume with tomorrow's issue. Hereafter the TRIBUNE will be issued as an afternoon tri-weekly. The management thinks this move necessary in order to keep in the van of the town's progress.—Freeland Corr. Hazleton Plain Speaker.

Fernwood Mine Riot Cases.
The Fernwood mine riot case was held in a Wilkesbarre alderman's office on Tuesday evening. William Holleran, who alleges that he was assaulted by a number of strikers when on his way to work several days ago, was arrested on the charge of feloniously wounding Joseph Sadie, who was shot in the leg, and of carrying concealed weapons. He was placed under bail for court.

After the hearing Joseph Sadie, the man wounded, John Gross and Mitchell Manturich were arrested by constables and were taken to Pittston for a hearing.

Life Insurance Payments.
A list of the life insurance claims paid in the United States during the past year, including money on death payments and endowment policies, has been published by the Insurance Press. Following are the figures credited to this and nearby cities and towns: Freeland, $6,545; Drifton, $38,545; Hazleton, $109,937; Jeddo, $9,350; White Haven, $20,000; Wilkesbarre, $204,324.

Celebrate the Fourth.
"A Patriotic Pair" is the title of a beautiful picture which will be given free to every reader of the Philadelphia Press next Sunday, July 1. The picture is 30 by 28 inches in size and presents two pretty children equipped for the celebration of the day. It is the work of a famous artist, and cannot fail to please every person. You had better order next Sunday's Press at once, so as to be sure to get this picture.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.

LARGE AUDIENCE ATTENDS PAROCHIAL PUPILS' EXERCISES.

Notwithstanding the excessive heat the Grand Opera House is crowded—a repetition of the creditable work will be given this evening.

The eighth annual entertainment by the pupils of St. Ann's parochial school was given at the Grand opera house on Tuesday evening. The curtain rose at 8 o'clock on a stage ornamented with fresh flowers and decorated with the national colors.

From the opening chorus, which was sung by nearly 300 little girls, to the "Good Night" closing, given by the same pupils, the large audience listened enraptured to the varied and lengthy program.

The musical features were very pleasing. The piano numbers consisted of tuneful selections arranged for quartettes, and were skillfully rendered. St. Cecilia's club won much applause by two well-rendered selections.

The various recitations were spoken artistically, and the drills by the girls were faultlessly performed. The boys distinguished themselves in the "Dudes' Drill," a funny affair of a high order.

The entertainment on the whole was a fitting ending to the year's work in the convent, and demonstrated a high degree of talent among the students. It reflected also the tireless energy of the Sisters in giving their pupils a good education and developing a deportment that commands the highest admiration.

The musical numbers were indicative of an exceptionally artistic training, while the language features of the recitations and the play, "Through Darkness to Light," were exceedingly gratifying. The pure English, the careful speaking and the faultless pronunciation are something that cannot be lost on the students in their future years, which bodes much for the beauty of language.

The entertainment was witnessed by an audience that crowded the opera house to the doors.

Below is the program in full:

Accompagnists, M. Capece and Miss G. Sweeney.

The entire program will be repeated this evening, and in addition to the above the valedictory will be delivered by Miss Mary Dever. Rev. M. J. Fall-hee will also this evening distribute graduation medals and diplomas to the following graduates of the commercial class: Misses Dever, Timony, Brogan, Jacobs, McTague, and Master Higgins; and to Miss Grace Sweeney for progress in music.

GET READY FOR THE FOURTH!

If all the men of Freeland actually knew of the fine, pure quality of our woolsens, and knew how hard we try to please our customers in every possible way, the cheap-price tailors would have but little to do.

If you intend ordering your Fourth of July suit of us, please do not put it off. The last days will go with a rush. Don't wait, come this week and see the new beautiful goods. Every style and color that you can possibly think of. We will make your suit in the height of fashion, or we will make it in a more practical fashion, just as you wish. Your word is law; tell us anything you want and we will do it.
