WAS SCOTT COUNTED OUT

Candidate for the Senate Makes Allegations.

Believes Underhand Work Was Done in Lackawanna Portion of District—Official Result of the Voting.

Senator William J. Scott, who was beaten for a renomination by William Drury, of Pittston, is out this morning with a statement which throws discredit on the result of the recent trial of the Crawford county system of making nominations. He will probably make charges which will not be relished by some of the politicians of the county. He says that if he has not been counted out he believes some underhand work has been done and will not let the matter rest until he has made an investigation.

The returns from that portion of the senatorial district which is in Lackawanna county showed the vote to be Drury, 712; Hay, 18; Scott, 11. The senator and his friends say this is a preposterous vote and that the work of the Quay men is responsible for it. While the senator did not expect to carry the district, he has fully a hundred friends there of whose votes he was sure, and the fact that he only got eleven, and his friends claim is evidence that the Quay men overreached themselves.

The small vote at once aroused suspicion of unfair dealing. If it had been seventy-five or 100 he would not have made any objection, but as it is he will make inquiries.

There is also suspicion that the vote in Luzerne borough was tampered with and there are a few other districts which it is believed will bear inquiry.

OFFICIAL VOTE.

Count of the Ballots Makes No Change in the Published Result.

The return judges elected by the Republicans Saturday evening met at Wilkesbarre yesterday and the vote cast under the new rules was counted. The count has not altered the result as published on Monday. Following are the official figures of the vote cast for the leading candidates for each office:

The county convention met and adopted resolutions of fidelity to the party and assuring the nominees support at the polls. F. W. Whoston, Esq., was chairman.

An amendment to the rules was adopted which gives the primary election officers $1 each for future services of this kind and $3 to judges for making returns.

The rules appear to have pleased nearly all the interested parties and will undoubtedly stand for some years.

Successful Applicants.

Following are the miners who will receive foremen's certificates, having passed the recent examination of the examining board of this district: Patrick Green, Jeddo; John Aubrey, Summit Hill; James Kennedy, Dighton;

Manus McFadden, Eckley; Thomas J. Jenkins, Nesquehoning; Morgan West, Lansford.

Those who were successful in passing the assistant mine foremen's examination are: Peter Dougherty, Harwood; Peter McMonigle, Jeddo; William Frey, Gowen; Edwin Winwood, Jeddo; Hugh Gallagher, Sandy Run; Jeremiah Moy, Lattimer; James Powell, Summit Hill; James Thomas, Jeddo; Neil Gallagher, Sandy Run; Patrick Conahan, Hazleton; Adam Gluck, Stockton; Henry Polgreen, Hazleton.

There was a class of twenty applicants. All but two succeeded.

TROUBLE BREWING.

Jersey Central Employees Threaten to Tie Up the Whole System.

Conditions have developed among the employees of the Central Railroad of New Jersey which, it is said, threaten a strike on the entire system. The railway brotherhoods have polled the employees from Jersey City to Scranton, and it is said nearly all the men favor a general tie-up of the lines.

The federated brotherhoods held a largely attended meeting and a member of the general grievance committee said it would not be over two weeks before the entire system would be tied up.

He says there are many grievances, among them being the reduction of crews on coal and freight trains. The crews formerly consisted of a conductor, head and middle brakemen and flagman.

By a recent order the middle brakeman is dispensed with, and while not discharged, only three men are allowed to a crew, the time being divided among the brakemen so that each gets but three-quarters of the running time.

Mrs. David Davis Dead.

Mrs. David Davis, of Lansford, died at that place yesterday. She was the mother of Postmaster B. F. Davis and William and David Davis, of town, also of Harry Davis, of New York city, and Mrs. John Evans, of Lansford. Her death came unexpectedly, and was due to cholera morbus.

Mrs. Davis was aged 74 years, 9 months and 20 days. She was well known to many people here and spent several months in Freeland last summer. She was a lady who was respected by her numerous friends and acquaintances. The funeral takes place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Interment at Summit Hill cemetery.

Property for Sale.

At 10 a. m. tomorrow the property of the late Mrs. Sarah Gallagher, situate on Main street between Centre and Ridge, will be offered at public sale. The property consists of a lot, 50 by 150 feet, improved with a double two-story frame dwelling and kitchens and a large stable.

It is one of the most valuable residence properties in town, being conveniently located, and should attract those who desire to buy a good home as well as persons who wish to make a profitable investment.

Crescents Elect Officers.

The following officers have been elected by the Crescent Athletic Association: President—J. B. McLaughlin. Vice president—T. A. Johnson. Recording secretary—M. A. Jacobs. Financial secretary—James Thompson. Treasurer—George Stoltz. Sergeant-at-arms—James McLaughlin. Guard—William A. Quigley. Trustees—H. B. Cunningham, James A. Boyle, Louis Stoltz, Charles DeJohn.

Arrested for Kindness.

Barney O'Keefe, a business man on Public Square, Wilkesbarre, after seeing a horse standing for over an hour in the heat, started to take the suffering animal to police headquarters. On the way the owner, Dr. S. N. Wolfe, met him and took the horse from him. Wolfe had O'Keefe arrested for horse-stealing, and O'Keefe was obliged to give $500 bail.

A Death in Eckley.

Mrs. Maggie Watchle, aged 28 years, died yesterday at Eckley. She is survived by her husband. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning, followed by a requiem mass at St. John's Slavonian church, Freeland. Interment at St. Ann's cemetery.

Patents Granted.

E. G. Siggers, Washington, D. C., reports the following patents granted to inventors: M. N. Clarke, Wilkesbarre, device for cleaning telephone mouthpieces. S. Kreisher, Shamokin, pipe wrench. The ladies of St. James' Episcopal chapel will meet tonight to complete arrangements to enlarge the chapel.

MINERS TO HOLD BIG MEETING

Anthracite Workers of the State to Confer.

Representatives from Wyoming, Lehigh and Schuylkill Regions Will Come Together on July 30.

A general meeting of the representatives of mine workers' unions in the anthracite coal fields will be held at Hazleton on Monday, the 30th inst.

It will be a conference of representatives from every city, town and hamlet in the Wyoming, Lehigh and Schuylkill regions, and will be the first of its kind held for several years past.

This action was decided upon yesterday afternoon by the officers of Anthracite District, No. 1, United Mine Workers of America, and it has the approval of the national executive board of the organization.

The main questions to be discussed at the coming conference are the reduction of the price of powder from $2.75 to $1 per keg, establishing of semi-monthly pay days, remedying of dockage, arbitration of grievances with operators to prevent strikes, and recognition of the union by operators.

"Does this mean a general strike?" was asked one of the prominent officials at Pittston yesterday.

"Anything but that," he replied. "We dread a strike as much as the operators; the union does not countenance them, except as a last resort. The condition is merely this, that the mine workers are well enough organized now to be a power such as the union of soft coal miners in Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia possesses."

"Out there they have obtained by the strength of their organization a uniform scale of wages, fair dockage and recognition as a union by the operators. Here we feel that it is time to try for the same things, and a lower price for powder as well. Our success lies in concerted action, and we think we can accomplish this."

It is certain that the coming convention will make history for the workers and operators of the anthracite field.

Shooting Case Tried.

Erecolo DePiero was given another hearing by Burgess Boyle last evening on the charge of feloniously wounding David Walker on July 4.

The injured man left the Miners' hospital on Monday and was present at the hearing. He produced two shirts, containing a number of blood spots, which he stated were worn by him on the Fourth. He also claimed to have found a small bullet lodged under the collar of his coat.

Dr. Brackett, of town, and Dr. Thomas, assistant at the hospital, testified to having treated the injured man.

Burgess Boyle placed the prisoner under $500 bail to answer the charge in court. Bail was furnished. Attorney O'Donnell was present on behalf of the commonwealth and Attorney McCarthy looked after the interests of the defendant.

Previous to this hearing Walker had DePiero arrested on a warrant charging him with carrying concealed weapons. He was taken before Squire Shovlin for a further hearing.

Jig-Runner Injured.

August Mattis, of Highland, is lying in the Miners' hospital suffering from injuries which may prove fatal. He is 10 years of age and was employed as a jig-runner in No. 2 breaker. While walking up steps yesterday a large rock fell upon him, fracturing his skull.

A brief examination showed that the boy's injuries were serious, and he was at once taken to the hospital. The physicians there pronounce him in a critical condition.
