Commenting on the lack of school funds in Hazle township, the Plain Speaker sizes up the situation clearly when it says: "If the coal companies and other corporations whose property is valued far below its worth at present through a bad system of assessment were obliged to pay taxes on the proprionate worth of their property as compared with that of the poor man, Hazle township would be rich."

The Kaiser Is Menaced.

Warnings are multiplying in Germany that an attempt will soon be made on the life of Emperor William. Never were the German police so active.

This plot of king butchery is not only of long standing, but is known to an extraordinary number of conspirators and to their friends.
A letter dated "New York" was intercepted in the mails at Rome yesterday,
It was signed "Zannomi" and was addressed to the writer's brother. It contained this question of sanguinary significance: If you don't like today's news from China, wait until tomorrow, when an entirely different story will be laid before you. The Chinese strive to please

When 16 to 1 was included in the the Republicans protested; now that Bryan is going to leave it out of his speech of acceptance, the Republicans protest again. There is no pleasing some people.

The Gold Democrats have refused t put up a third ticket, which would mean a good many half votes for Mc-Kinley, and will go, each man, to the side where his predilections lead him.

Advices received by the Democratic national and congressional campaign committees show that the Germans are largely breaking away to Bryan, following the lead of the prominent men amongst them who have already de-clared for him. If one-third of the German vote of the middle west shifts sides—and it now seems that two-thirds will do so—McKinley will be defeated.

One consolation to be derived from the prevalence of war this year is that we hear less talk from the pugilists.

A Mrs. Joy, of Chicago, who was a Miss Schwizkocswitchski, has sued a divorce. So far as known, however, took roughings in Macdongai styret, hear Bleecker. There is every reason to believe that Bresci was the man so often in "La Bella Teresa's" society here. Bresci, anarchist, does not believe in the sanctity of mar-riage. Indeed, he may have more than one wife—she who was Sophia Knieland, now penniless with her babe in West Ho-boken, and another woman, who is indi-cated in a cablegram from Brussels yes-terday: she has not asked for the restoration of her maiden name.

ATTEMPT ON THE SHAH'S LIFE.

This and Recent Assault on Prince of Wales and Assassination of Humbert Believed to Have Same Inspiration—Czar Threatened,

New York, Aug. 3.—Cablegrams from all the European capitals declare the continental secret police believe a plot is being put into execution to assassinate all rulers who have rigorously tried to stamp out anarchism, who have sent anarchists to distant prisons, exiled them or executed them.

King, czar, kaiser, shah, president—the anarchist equally hates and fears all.

A young man, an Italian probably, perhaps a border Spaniard, certainly of the south of Europe, desperately attempted to assassinate the shah of Persia in Paris yesterday.

leader and editor of a Paterson anarchist publication, was the principal speaker.

Bresci, he said, had not been sent to kill the king; he did the act of his own free will. An anarchist was free to do as he pleased. An anarchist, he said, might decide in his own mind to kill a king and know when he had done it that he would have to give his life for it, but he would pive his life gladly. Bresci, he said, had killed the king, and he was glad, although he kuew he would have to suffer for his act. All knew the king was dead. Esteve said that he would not cry and that he was not sorry. He asked if any one present was sorry. This was greeted with laughter and applause, Esteve ended his speech with the exclamation, "I am not sure what you people think over the death of the king, but for me I don't care that," snapping his fingers as he said so.

Speeches were also made by Pedro Moresi, Francis Widmer and A. Aimore, each saying that there had been no plot for the killing of the king.

Mr. Bryan's Plans.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—The Record says that William Jennings Bryan in a large measure will be his own campaign manager this year. Directly after the notification ecremenies at Indianapolis next week Mr. Bryan will return to Chicago and, with the help of his party's leaders, formulate plans for the campaign. According to the programme as outlined by J. G. Johnson, chairman of the national executive committee, Adlai E. Stevenson will come back with Mr. Bryan to this city, and the two will have a large share in arranging the lines for the coming political fight. Mr. Johnson was told by Mr. Bryan over the telephone of his intention to return to Chicago from Indianapolis to help in arranging the programme for the campaign. Mr. Johnson said the candidate would probably be here three or four days. Practically the full roster of Democratic leaders will go to Indianapolis for the notification, and they will return here with Mr. Bryan for a session that will determine in its broad lines the way the campaign is to be conducted.

Set Child's Dress on Fire.

Dunkirk, N. Y., Aug. 3.—Bertha Baldwin, 6 years old, and a companion were playing in the yard of the Baldwin girl's shome when Joseph Deland, 6 years old, a neighbor of the girls, declared he would set fire to their dresses if they did not get him a piece of pie. The little Baldwin girl refused, and the Deland boy, it is said, coolly lighted a match, went up to the girl and set fire to her dress. The little girl's dress was immediately in a mass of flames. She was crazed by the pain and ran around the yard, shouting for mamma. Some one had presence of mind sufficient to rescue the child. The child's clothing was entirely burned off her back. Her flesh was burned to the bone in places. The child is in the hospital here and will probably die.

Cart Northfield, Mass., Aug. 3.—The eighteenth annual general conference of Christian Workers opened here last evening. There were over 1,000 persons in the auditorium. William R. However long they have plotted, the secret police know the anarchists have been spurred to their present audicative by the escape of young Sipido, who on April 4 last tried to shoot the Prince of Wales when the prince was passing through Brussels from England to Denmark.

On July 5 the assize court found Sipido guilty of attempt to kill, but held that he acted without discerment. Sipido, 16 years old, was sentenced to a reformatory until he should attain his majority. The very next day it was announced that he had escaped across the frontier, and he is still at large.

In the bouse of commons yesterday A. J. Balfour, the government leader, said, answering a question, that the government had represented to Belgium that they thought there had been most unfortunate miscarriage of justice in the Sipido case. No reply had been received, American Anarchists Imported.

Andecious as they have become, the anarchists have grown more cunning too. They have imported from America men and women either unknown to the European police or whom the police have forgotted during their absence in America.

One strand of this murder web is strongly planted in New York and its environs. Teresa Brigoli, arrested in Italy on Wednesday, accused of having accompanied Bresci and Antonio Lana from America, can be none other than from America, are no none other than from America, are not no no other than man and the west fadies—and took lodgings in Macdongal street, near Bleecker.

Boston, Aug. 3.—Orders have been received at the Charlestown navy yard to put the gunboat Baucroft into commission as soon as possible. She has been lying in ordinary for more than a year. It is thought likely that she can be ready to sail Aug. 13. The inference at the navy yard is that the Baucroft will be sent to China.

And that arch fiend of anarchy, Enrico Malatesta, whose appearances and disappearances are followed by the death of some one who sits on a throne, has been discovered in London by The Journal's correspondent.

Malatesta ifed about himself of course He said he does not even know Bresci. There is indubitable proof that Bresci was pupil and associate of Malatesta when he was preaching and publishing narchism at Paterson. Bresci himself told the Italian police he knew Malatesta. Thus terrible evidence of the extent of this conspiracy accumulates.

The Italian police yesterday arrested at Prata Bresci's brother, a shoe dealer, another kinsman named Marozzi and seven marchists. Natale Possanzini, who was arrested at Ancona, admitted traveling with Bresci from Milan to Monza.

Lendon, Aug. 3—"China regards the march of the allies on Peking as an unfriendly act, if not tantamount to a deciration of war," said Sir Chih Chen, the Chinese minister, last night. He added: "Unless the powers promptly assure the imperial authorities that they do not intend to do more than release the ministers and the other foreigners the Chinese regulars will be ordered to oppose the invaders. There is no other course open to the Chinese government; if it were idle while a foreign army marched to London? What would Englishmen say of the British government if it were idle while a foreign army marched to London? What would Americans say of the Washington government if it were limp in the presence of an alien foe? China has not yet received an official and specific promunciamento setting forth the intentions of the powers. She must regard all armed invaders as enemies until they solemnly proclaim themselves friends."

The minister says that even if formal war breaks out the Peking authorities will do everything they can to protect the Caucasians in the capital. He fears, however, that the advance of the allied troops will send the entire Chinese population over to the Boxer's idea and provoke the murder of all defenseless whites within reach of the mob.

"Nor will the slaughter stop," said he, im my opinion with the foreigners. I anticipate that the emperor and the empress, as well as every Chinaman who has sought to save the lives of the legationers, will be slain. If the powers pull down the dynasty infinite difficulties will come tumbling about their heads."

British and American Plans. It is still rumored in diplomatic circles that the United States and Great Britain have agreed to aid the Chinese troops in overtrhowing the rebels, if the former were found to be acting in good faith. It is also said that the two countries will act together, averting, if possible, a technical war with China. It is certain, at any rate, that the foreign offices in both London and Washington are in constant communication conc

This dispatch from its special correspondent at Shanghai is published in The Daily Mail:

"An official telegram from the tsung-liyamen, dated Monday, states that the ministers in Peking were all well on that date and that vegetables, fruits and other entables had been sent to the legations on several occasions. Friendly intercourse, it added, was now being carried on between the foreigners and the Chinese government."

A messenger who left Peking on the 21st has arrived at Cheft with messages from several of the ministers. United States Minister Conger sends the following dispatch to Consul Ragsdale:

"We have been besieged in the British legation for five weeks under a continual fire of the Chinese troops, but since the 16th, by agreement, there has been no firing. Fifty marines of all nationalities have been killed and more wounded.

"We have provisions for several weeks, but little ammunition. If they continue to shell us as they have done, we cannot hold out long, and a complete massacre will follow. We hope relief can come soon. Glad to hear of the victory at The gist of the other messages is that the missionaries are uninjured, but that the mission is destroyed. The customs staff and their families are uninjured.

Send a Demand That Envoys Be Excorted to Tien-tsin.

St. Petersburg, Ang. 3.—Yang Yu, the Chinese minister here, after consulting with the other Chinese ministers at the various foreign capitals, has telegraphed in their joint names to Yuan Shih Kai, governor of Shangtung, demanding that the ministers in Peking be immediately allowed to communicate direct with their respective governments and be escorted to Tien-tsin with their families and the members of their staffs.

The Russian general staff has received news from Tien-tsin that a majority of the Boxærs and imperial troops are concentrated at Yangtsun. General Nieh's forces have been demoralized by their heavy losses and are almost entirely scattered. The report that General Nieh was killed in action is confirmed. It is estimated that there are 50,000 imperial troops in Peking, besides a large number of Boxers, whose strength is as yet unknown. Russians regard the advance on Peking before the end of the rainy season as a risky undertaking.

Albany, Aug. 3.—The state board of tax commissioners has learned that several large corporations whose franchises are taxable have sent to local assessors circulars stating that they should deduct from the assessment on real property or corporations the amount of the assessment placed on their franchises by the state tax board. The effect of following this advice would be to completely annul the operations of the franchise tax net. The state board has referred the matter to Deputy Attorney General Coman, who is writing a letter of advice to the local assessors, pointing out to them their duty and telling them to pay no heed to the instructions given them by corporations.

Chinese Slaves In Chicago.

Chieago, Aug. 3.—It was reported to the city authorities that four Chinese women had been purchased by Chicago Chinamen and were being held as slaves. The women were said to have been exhibited at the Omaha exposition. It was claimed that $500 was the price of each and that they had been held in captivity nearly two years. Acting Mayor Walker immediately instructed the police officials to liberate the women.

Girl Wins Big Suit,
New York, Aug. 3.—Justice Smith has handed down a decision finding for the plaintiff in the long pending suit of May Thorne Brantingham against Ennice E. Huff over the will of Joseph Thorne, an inventor of improvements in typewriting and sewing manchines. Mr. Thorne and inventor of improvements in typewriting and sewing manchines. Mr. Thorne died on May 4, 1897. His wife had died only 11 days before. May Thorne was an adopted daughter. The suit was over a transfer to Mrs. Huff by Mr. Thorne of the record title of stock paying regular monthly dividends of 5 per cent on $300,000 and various other property owned by Mr. Thorne, estimated in all at something like $500,000. In 1803 Joseph Thorne and his wife adopted May Lillian Lee, the plaintiff, then nearly 2 years old. The child was the daughter of Lieutenant William Henry Lee of the British army. Lieutenant Lee was drowned at San Francisco. Mrs. Lee was ill at the time, and, believing that her condition was critical, she allowed the Thornes to adopt the child. The Thornes covenanted that she should inherit upon their death everything that was theirs. The plaintiff lived with the Thornes as their death everything that was theirs. War With Indians In Yucatan.
Oaxaca, Mexico, Aug. 3.—The military authorities here have received information that there has been continued fighting between the Maya Indians and the government troops in Yucatan for the last five days and that the rebels have been forced to abandon several of their strongest positions adjacent to the city of Chan Santa Cruz, where they have their headquarters and tribal government. The Indians were taken by surprise several days ago by a force of about 2,000 government troops commanded by General Bravo coming upon their right flank. After firing a few volleys, when this first onslaught was made by the government troops, the Indians retreated a short distance and then made a determined stand, which they have held with persistence and great bravers.
