HOT WEATHER GOODS.

The seasonable productions for lessening the discomfort of this too-degree weather are still in demand. As long as the demand continues we shall endeavor to supply it. We invite special attention to our

LADIES' DRESS GOODS.

The newest patterns from the most up-to-date manufacturing establishments. In Ladies' Dress Goods we endeavor to carry a reliable stock. Quality should be considered before price. However the price is also a factor, and in this we are confident of giving you entire satisfaction.

DRY GOODS.

Everything in Dry Goods suitable for the season. We have just received a new line of Plain and Figured Lawns. A large line of good fabrics at small cost.

NOTIONS.

Ribbons, Ladies' Ties, Fans and all other seasonable Notions at correct prices.

THE CHANCE FOR SHOES.

Our Shoes are fast disappearing before the large number of buyers that have been thronging the store during pay-day week. The bulk of the stock has been sold out, but there are many pairs of Fine Shoes left that will bear a moment's inspection when you are contemplating a purchase.

GROCERIES.

The choicest edibles and all the delicacies of the season.

Corner Centre and Luzerne Streets.

S. WENNER & SONS

Are You Looking for

BOOTS? SHOES? SLIPPERS?

There is no doubt but that you are looking for Shoes at least, because everybody wears Shoes. We have what you are looking for. We don't know what kind of a Shoe it is, but if it is anything at all in the Shoe line we have it, for we have everything that the manufacturers can supply us with.

All Summer Goods at Reduced Rates.

Special sale of Tan Shoes and Misses' Slippers.

STAR SHOE STORE.

Hugh Malloy, Prop. Corner Centre and Walnut Streets.

In The Neck

Is where you feel it when your collars are sent home from the laundry with a saw edge. When this happens to you, you say to yourself, "I'm tired of this. Believe I will make a change. I'll try another place." You will like the way we do up your collars and cuffs and shirts.

Returned To You Clean and White.

We are careful of your linen, handle it gently, use machinery that won't tear it. Let your bundle come, we're always ready—our wagon will call. It will be returned to you the day promised too.

Drop in postal.

Freehand Steam Laundry.

BREVITIES.

The interest and enthusiasm at the Danville district Methodist camp meeting, which is being held at Mountain Grove, continues to grow. Sunday found all of the cottages and tents filled and the attendance was a record breaker.

Milton Koons has accepted a position in A. Oswald's store.

The Democratic county committee on Saturday decided to hold the county convention on September 11. The primary elections will be held on Saturday, September 8.

The remains of Theresa, a three-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, of Hazle Brook, arrived here via Lehigh Valley train at 11:45 o'clock this morning and were interred at St. Ann's cemetery. The child died on Saturday.

The bans of marriage were announced yesterday at St. Ann's church between Thomas Conahan and Miss Annie McGinley, both of town. They will be married the latter part of this month.

John, the one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gyos, died at Eckley yesterday and will be buried tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment at St. Ann's cemetery.

The household goods of Thomas O. Oberender have arrived here from Wilkesbarre and the family have taken up their residence in the Bachman block, Centre and North streets.

Wednesday will be the Feast of the Assumption and will be observed in several of the local churches.

Miss Mary Stehling, of North Centre street, who was overcome with heat on Friday, is still quite ill.

The funeral of Martin Macknevlitch, who was killed in No. 5 colliery, Jeddo, on Friday, took place yesterday afternoon. Interment was made in St. Ann's cemetery.

A large number of people appreciated the concert given by St. Ann's band on Saturday evening from the porch of the Central hotel.

The rent of dwellings houses in Freeland is gradually increasing.

Dr. S. S. Hess, of Freeland, and Miss Lillian Smith, of Butler valley, will be united in marriage on the 28th inst.

Rev. W. Hartman yesterday assisted Rev. J. C. Bickel at Audenried in conducting the funeral services of the late James Leonard Andrews.

Mrs. William Carter, of Walnut street, who has been seriously ill, is somewhat improved.

Mrs. W. R. Flad was taken with a severe attack of illness last evening, but is slightly improved today.

The New York Times this morning says that John M. Garman will probably make his home in that city in the near future.

P. X. O'Donnell, whose hand was injured recently while at work at Phillipsburg, N. J., is at his home in Drifton. The wound is improving rapidly and in time the hand will be O. K. again.

Mrs. Peter Carr, the mother of P. B. Carr, is dangerously ill at her home on Pine street.

Emery Kisolo, of Highland, and Miss Paraske Stobitzki, of Freeland, were married yesterday at St. Kasimer's Polish church.

A. Oswald was taken suddenly ill on Saturday evening and for a few hours his condition was serious. He improved rapidly yesterday and is able to be about again.

The funeral of the late W. F. Hoch was largely attended on Saturday afternoon and many beautiful floral designs were presented by friends.

The bond of Andrew Hudak, of Freeland, as treasurer of the Pennsylvania Roman and Greek Catholic Slavonic Union, has been placed on file at Wilkesbarre. It is in the sum of $12,000 and John Shigo, Peter Magagna, P. M. Sweeney, Joseph Johnson and Patrick Meehan are the bondsmen.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

ESTATE OF JANE GALLAGHER, late of Hazle township, deceased.

Letters of administration upon the above named estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make payment, and those having claims or demands to present the same without delay, to Joseph V. Gallagher, or Carr & McCarthy, attorneys.

UPPER LEHIGH.

During the storm early this morning a bolt of lightning struck an electric wire and caused considerable commotion. Nearly every man in town thought it was his particular house that was struck. The town was in total darkness for several hours as a result.

Julius Lesser visited friends at White Haven yesterday.

John Kemmerer has just purchased two beautiful horses. Both are said to be record breakers.

Miss Mame Reley is visiting friends in Freeland today.

Rev. J. Reneka, of St. Johns, officiated at a baptism at the home of Levi Dreisbach yesterday. The little lady's name hereafter will be Beatrice Alice.

Benjamin Drumm, of Freeland, was the guest of Levi Dreisbach yesterday.

Misses Mary and Louisa Leisenring spent last week at Summit Hill.

Al. Snyder is kept busy doctoring two injured mules.

A. C. Leisenring is visiting at Cementon.

William White left this morning for a short stay at Wildwood, N. J.

Misses Hayes and Agnes Reley enjoyed a drive to the Rocks yesterday.

A new stripping was started this morning near No. 3 slope.

Misses Annie and Teresa Bonoma, and Emmett McGill, of Freeland, visited friends in town yesterday.

Misses Madeline Passarella and Mary Gallagher, of Freeland, spent yesterday in town.

Here is an excellent chance for some of our hunters to do some missionary work. In Oley valley last week a fox stole seven chickens from a farmer in broad daylight. The fox is still alive.

Two cows belonging to Mr. Krommes, of Honey Hole, were shot by some hunters last week. They were evidently practicing at hitting the broad side of a barn door.

To satisfy the curiosity of many people we would like to state that only deserving widows have been employed by the Butler township board to take care of the school buildings, namely, Mrs. Herron, Mrs. Mehling and Mrs. Kresgo.

Thomas O'Donnell and Roger Dever, of Freeland, spent last evening in town.

Mrs. William Silk, of Scranton, is visiting her mother, Mrs. William Challenger.

Miss Linn and Miss Sinyard, of Summit Hill, are the guests of Miss Jeanette Keenan.

The breaker, engine rooms, carpenter shops, and a number of private dwellings were wired with electric wires last week. The company is getting ready for a long stretch of full time. The work was done by W. M. Morrison, of Catawissa.

Death of Mrs. Quinn.

Mrs. Ann Quinn, a resident of town for a number of years, died on Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Harvey, in Eckley, where she was visiting. Mrs. Quinn enjoyed a large acquaintance throughout the region, as was attested by the numbers who attended the funeral from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. James J. Maloy, of Freeland. A requiem mass was read over the remains at St. Ann's church this morning, after which the interment was made in St. Ann's cemetery.

The deceased is survived by three sons and two daughters, as follows: Cornick, of Beckville, Lackawanna county; Patrick, of Drifton; Con. of Haverhill, Mass.; Mrs. Charles Harvey, of Eckley, and Mrs. James J. Maloy, of Freeland.

School Board Meeting.

Freeland school board met in special session on Saturday evening to decide upon the style and number of electric lamps to be ordered for lighting the Daniel Cox school. The contract was awarded to the Electric Light Company to install one eight-lamp chandelier in the high school room and seven two-lamp fixtures in the corridors. The cost of the work and fixtures will be $54.75.

The following bills were ordered paid: William Solt, janitor and carpenter work, $47.62; Mrs. William Solt, cleaning, 63c; Mrs. Elliott, cleaning, $12.50; Mrs. Murphy, cleaning, $10; total, $70.75.

The supply committee was ordered to procure bids for printing 1,200 parents' report cards.

The solicitor was ordered to have the bond of ex-Treasurer Everitt satisfied.

Accident at No. 5.

Patrick Gallagher, who boarded with his sister, Mrs. Susan McEneaney, at Drifton, was injured on Saturday at No. 5 colliery, Jeddo, by a fall of coal. His right thigh was fractured and he was otherwise hurt about the limbs. The unfortunate man was removed to the Miners' hospital. His injuries are not dangerous, but will disable him for some time to come.

Deadlock Unbroken.

No meeting of Foster school board was held Saturday evening, although a quorum was present. An informal poll of the members showed that the deadlocks on attorney and teacher could not be broken, consequently it would have been useless to hold a meeting.

PERSONAL.

David Jones, a Freeland young man who is now conducting a successful printing office at Bristol, is visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Trevaskis are spending a ten days' vacation at Ocean Grove, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Vanauker, of Hazleton, were in town yesterday as the guests of Mr. Vanauker's brothers.

Miss Hattie Rute is spending her vacation at Tunkhannock.

Miss Kate O'Donnell, of Philadelphia, is visiting Hugh O'Donnell and family on Walnut street.

Mrs. Alex Ewing, of New York city, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Lloyd, on Centre street.

Patrick McGoohan, of Allentown, is in town for a few days.

Mrs. John James has returned from a visit to Bradford county friends.

Miss Maggie Pryor, of Wilkesbarre, is the guest of Miss Annie McMenamin.

Miss Celia Gallagher, of South Heberton, has returned from a two months' stay in Philadelphia.

Miss Kate Winters has returned from a visit to Mauch Chunk relatives.

Prof. W. L. Houck has returned from his vacation, which he spent at Berwick.

James W. Bell and Robert Dunlap spent yesterday at Niagara Falls.

Miss Annie Shovlin, of Mt. Carmel, spent Sunday with Freeland relatives.

Charles O'Donnell, of Bayonne, N. J., spent Sunday at his home here.

Mrs. Charles Kulp and Mrs. Della Chambers returned yesterday from a two weeks' visit to Brookline friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Vanhorn, Miss Jennie Vanhorn and John Hodgins attended the Mountain Grove camp meeting yesterday.

Miners' Convention.

The convention of the United Mine Workers of the anthracite coal region was opened at Hazleton today by the national officers of the union. All the sessions will be secret, but a press committee will furnish the public with such matter that may be deemed advisable to give to the newspapers. Nothing of importance will be transacted today.

The questions to be considered are readjustment of the existing wage scale, reduction in the price of powder and the enforcement of the semi-monthly pay law.

A joint conference, in which the operators of the region and the mine workers will jointly consider the wage scale, will be called, probably the third day of the convention.

Young Men's Excursion.

On Tuesday of next week an excursion to Shawanoe Lake will be conducted by the Young Men's C. T. A. B. Corps. In order to give their employees an opportunity to enjoy a day's outing with this popular society, the superintendents of G. B. Markle & Co. and the Drifton companies have instructed their foremen to grant leave of absence to every worker who applies.

The Knights of Father Mathew, of Hazleton, numbering 128 men, have decided to attend the excursion in a body, and the committee in charge of the excursion have been assured that at least 400 others will leave that city.

The excursion promises to be one of the largest that Freeland has seen for several years past.

Came Tagged from Hungary.

Mary Urbana, an orphan, aged 10 years, arrived in Hazleton last night from Hungary, having made the voyage alone. She could not understand a word of English, but the officers aboard ship and the railroad conductors found the necessary information on a card suspended from a belt around her waist, bearing the words: "I am Mary Urbana. Send me to Hazleton, Pa."

It did not take long to place her in the hands of relatives.

A Trespass Case.

John Lutz, of Butler valley, was the defendant today in a case of trespass before Squire Buckley. He was charged by Daniel Walters with cutting down cherry trees and claiming ownership of a plow and harrow. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney Carr and Attorney Costello represented Lutz. Judgment was rendered in favor of Walters, who was awarded $175 damages.

Burned by Gas.

Walter Moses, a former resident of town, was seriously burned by an explosion of gas at New Buck Mountain colliery, Schuylkill county. His face and hands are severely injured, but his recovery is expected. Mr. Moses has many friends and relatives here.

Filled the Vacancy.

Miss Catherine Stumpf, of Hazleton, has been appointed by Butler township school directors to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Miss May Roth. Miss Roth has accepted the position offered her by the Foster township directors.

Lost a Watch.

Miss Lucy Waldron, of Upper Lehigh, lost an open face silver watch while in Freeland on Saturday, on either Birkbeck or Johnson street. Finder will please return to the owner or to the Tribune office.
