A Few Facts
Worth Considering

The necessity of having stylish, distinctive footwear is becoming more apparent every day. We sell the kind that is different from the commonplace and ordinary. Come and see our

Medium-Weight Shoes

Before you buy your fall goods. Call on us and examine the fine lines we carry. Prices right.

For Fall Wear

We are now closing out some elegant shoes at cut prices. Wouldn't it be a good idea to come and see them and talk it over? We have the stock and will let it go right.

STAR SHOE STORE.

Wonder If He Saw This?

He was immured in the darkest dungeon beneath the castle moat. "If I had a saw, a file, anything—" he moaned, as he looked at the solid bars across the solitary window.

Then a thought struck him. His face brightened, like a Cripple Creek configuration.

He was free.

If he had his collars laundered at the Freeland Steam Laundry he would be in jail yet. We have a device for ironing the top edge of collars and cuffs and return them to you with a perfectly smooth edge. Try us.

TWO TICKETS NOMINATED

Luzerne Democratic Party
Rent in Twain.

Factions Unable to Agree and Each Places Candidates of Its Own in the Field.

By far the most exciting political convention ever held in Luzerne county took place yesterday at Wilkesbarre, where the Democratic delegates had gathered to name their county candidates for the coming election.

The convention, if the proceedings can be termed as such, was a disgrace to the people of the county.

C. F. Bohan, the county chairman, called the meeting to order at 11 o'clock. Two minutes later the uproar began and continued without interruption until evening.

The two factions of the party, led personally by John T. Lenahan and John M. Garman, were arrayed against each other, and the leaders and their lieutenants hurled invectives and threats against one another all day long.

A motion to suspend roll-call until after the report of the committee on credentials started the battle. The chairman declared the motion carried, despite appeals from his decision, and as a result each faction held a convention in the same building at the same time.

The ticket nominated by the Garman followers is as follows:

Judge—T. R. Martin, Wilkesbarre.

Congress—Asa K. DeWitt, Plymouth.

District attorney—Rush Trescott, Wilkesbarre.

Prothonotary—S. E. Jones, West Hazleton.

Clerk of the courts—John Dwyer, Wilkesbarre.

Jury commissioner—J. T. Rice, Pittston.

Lenahan's followers named the following candidates:

Judge—Stanley Woodward, Wilkesbarre.

Congress—Stanley Davenport, Plymouth.

District attorney—John Shea, Wilkesbarre.

Prothonotary—Paul Basch, Wilkesbarre.

Clerk of the courts—Edward Lynch, Plymouth.

Jury commissioner—John Hart, Pittston.

The court of Dauphin county will be called upon to decide which ticket is entitled to appear in the Democratic column of the official ballot.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are prompt, pleasant, powerful, purifying little pills. Grover's City drug store.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of a writ of fieri facias issued out of the court of common pleas of Luzerne county, there will be exposed at public sale, on Saturday, October 6, 1900, at 10 o'clock, a. m., at the Auction room, Courthouse, Wilkesbarre, Pa.:

All the right, title and interest of the defendant in and to the following described piece, parcel or tract of land, viz:

All the surface of all that tract or parcel of land situated in the township of Plymouth, county of Luzerne, and state of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, viz:

Beginning at the northwesterly corner of Orchard and Third streets, thence along said Orchard street north thirty degrees west fifty feet to a corner, thence south sixty degrees west one hundred and fifty feet to a corner, thence south thirty degrees east fifty feet to a corner, thence north thirty degrees east one hundred and fifty feet to the place of beginning, containing seventy-five hundred square feet of land. Being lot (No. 134) one hundred and thirty-four on plot of lots of E. A. Cutton, recorded in Deed Book No. 346, page 88, in said county. Being the same premises conveyed to Charles T. Snavin by the Industrial Savings and Loan Company by deed dated May 15, 1900, and recorded the seventh day of June, 1900, in Deed Book No. 383, page 325, in said county.

This property is sold subject to the reservations in said deed.

Improved with a two-story frame dwelling. Late the estate of the defendant in said writ named with the appurtenances.

Seized and taken in execution at the suit of the Industrial Savings and Loan Company vs. Charles T. Snavin.

Jan. G. Harvey, sheriff.

H. B. Payne, attorney.

CHARTER NOTICE.—In the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, No. 682—October Term, 1900.

Notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the court at common pleas of Luzerne county or one of the law judges thereof on Monday, September 17, 1900, at 10 o'clock a. m., under the act of assembly of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled, "an act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations," approved April 20, 1874, and the supplements thereto, for the charter of an intended corporation to be called "Women's Pennsylvania Savings and Loan Company." The said corporation is formed for the purpose of benevolence and charity, to assist members and relatives, promote religion, temperance and morality, to raise money by admission fees, fines and weekly or monthly dues from its members, and accumulate a fund to defray the expenses of burial of deceased members and to provide for sick members, and for these purposes to have, possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges conferred by said act of assembly and its supplements.

Witness my hand and seal of office, this 10th day of September, 1900.

CHAS. ORION STROH, solicitor.

ESTATE OF ANN QUINN, late of Freeland, land, deceased.

Letters testamentary upon the above named estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make payment and those having claims or demands to present the same, without delay, to

Ann Harvey.

No Change in Situation.

There has been no change in the labor situation since Monday. It is said that there are hopes of the employers and employes coming together, but the details are not yet public property. Labor men have been given to understand that several of the smaller firms and corporations and some of the individual operators are not averse to a conference to discuss the miners' grievances, but those backed by railroad interests are opposed to doing anything themselves or allowing other operators to do anything which might have a tendency to encourage the men.

The members of the United Mine Workers are obeying the instructions of President Mitchell to the letter by remaining at work, but they make no secret of the report that a strike will follow if present efforts on the part of their leaders and outside parties should fail.

In its daily comment on financial and like subjects, a Philadelphia paper devoted solely to these interests contained the following significant paragraph yesterday:

"In connection with the strike talk, it is of the utmost significance that a high official of one of the leading anthracite roads when asked if the companies had not made up their minds to fight to the bitter end, and that therefore the men would have to be the first to yield, replied: 'I am not so sure about that.'

"It is not believed that there will be an anthracite coal strike at this time or before the November election. The Republican campaign managers will see to it that the coal miners do not become too restless.

"In connection with recent statements to the effect that the anthracite miners had been egged on to their present position toward their employers by bituminous men a prominent soft coal operator said: 'Such statements are perfectly absurd. We cannot handle all the business offered to us now, so there would be no object for us to interfere with anthracite.'

Died From His Injuries.

Peter G. Smith, of Oakdale, died yesterday afternoon at the age of 65 years. Some weeks ago Mr. Smith fell down No. 4 slope at Oakdale. He entered the Miners' hospital and was discharged, apparently cured. He proceeded to his home at Oakdale, but several days later his limbs became paralyzed, resulting in his death. Deceased was a native of Sugarloaf township, and resided there the greater part of his life. He is survived by two brothers and one sister, viz: Jacob P., of Ohio; Josiah, of Hazleton, and Mary, of Sullivan county, Pa.

The funeral will leave Oakdale via trolley cars on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Hazleton.

Could Not Organize.

The workmen of the worst boss-ridden town in Pennsylvania tried to perfect their organization of a labor union last evening, but were balked by being refused the keys of the school building in which they desired to meet. Upwards of fifty men were at No. 2 school house, Drifton, but could not get in to carry out their plans, and for fear that an open meeting might be held a force of the Drifton companies' bosses surrounded the locality to spot out the men who might take part in the proceedings.

Prohibition Convention.

The Prohibitionists of the Fourth legislative district will meet next Wednesday evening at Lindsay's hall, Freeland, at 7.30 p. m.

After the convention a public meeting will be held. Addresses will be delivered by Emmett D. Nichols, Esq., of Wilkesbarre, and others on the political issues of the day.

Rich Miser Found Dead.

John Larrich, 87 years old, a miser, was found dead in his home at Weatherly Monday afternoon. In his pocket was found a roll of bank notes amounting to over $2,000. The coroner's jury at the inquest found that the old man came to his death through starvation. It is said he owned properties in Allentown worth $50,000.

Memorial Services.

Services in memory of the Latimer massacre on September 10, 1897, were held at that place Monday evening under the auspices of the Socialists of the state. The meeting was addressed by J. Mahlon Barnes, of Philadelphia, and "Mother" Mary Jones, of Chicago. The attendance was small.

Nominated for Senator.

S. S. Staples, of White Haven, was unanimously nominated yesterday by the Democrats of the Twenty-first senatorial district as their candidate for state senator.
