THE GLASS OF FASHION.

The use of lace is increasing day by day. Revers, collars, gumples, boleros, garnitures, every possible application is seen.

The new collars of the ready to wear variety are extremely convenient and pretty. One style has a black velvet top with three folds of colored satin below.

The craze for velvet has reached the lowest ebb—the feet. Boots made of colored or black velvet to match the velvet costume is the extreme flight of fashion.

Empire jackets of guipure, with the designs outlined in creamy chenille, are among the dainty novelties of the season. Fringes of steel and jet beads are seen on some of the newest wraps.

One of the new Paris modes is the use of printed panne or foulard as trimming for cloth gowns. The soft printed fabric is applied in folds edged by plings of velvet the shade of the cloth skirt.

The Cuban military heel is the established favorite in women's high class shoes. It is a much more sensible and comfortable heel for walking, say those who wear it, than the extremely low or the Louis XV.

Green promised to be one of the favored colors for winter, but the promise has not been kept. One sees little of it even in millinery. Black, gold, brown, beige, pearl gray and deep red are decidedly in the lead.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At a regular stated meeting of St. Ann's Young Men's C. T. A. B. Corps, of Freeland, held at their hall, November 24, 1900, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our late brother member, Patrick Kennedy; therefore be it

Resolved, That while we bow with humble submission to the decree of Almighty God we sincerely lament the loss of a valuable member, and the society of one who, by his kind and gentle disposition, won the respect and esteem of those around him.

Resolved, That in the death of Patrick Kennedy St. Ann's Young Men's C. T. A. B. Corps has lost a useful and worthy member, and we a kind and faithful companion.

Resolved, That we mourn his loss, and tender our heartfelt sympathy to his relatives and friends.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on the minutes, and a copy be presented to the brother of the deceased, and that they be published in the Freeland Tribune.

Chas. F. McElwee, Committee
Alex. Mulhearn, on Edward McKeon, Resolutions.

BREVITIES.

The two dwelling houses at the upper end of Highland, known for many years as "Castle Garden," are in danger of being destroyed by cave-ins. The ground is gradually sinking and the occupants of the houses are alarmed.

The remains of George Edward, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Setzer, were taken on the 1.20 o'clock train this afternoon to Weatherly, where they were buried.

Willy Dougherty, who arrived here from St. Louis last week, is making preparations to repair and remodel the saloon property now occupied by Ollie Koch, on North Centre street, which he will occupy in the near future.

Thanksgiving Day passed off very quietly in town. Before the services held in some of the churches and the closing of business houses, there was no formal observance of the holiday.

David James, of Eckley, and Patrick McGuire, of Upper Lehigh, will serve as common pleas jurors next week.

An enjoyable evening was had by all who attended the ball of the Jeddo Base Ball Club on Wednesday evening. The affair was well attended.

The Durno-Emmet Combination, which appears at the Grand opera house tomorrow evening under the auspices of the Mining and Mechanical Institute, is rated one of the best of the series.

Mrs. James Brennan, of Coxo addition, is seriously ill.

Rev. J. W. Bischoff, of Upper Lehigh, will conduct the memorial services for the Hazleton Lodge of Elks in that city on Sunday evening.

The D. S. & S. Railroad depot at Roan Junction was broken into last night, but as the building contained nothing of value the thieves had their labor in vain.

The funeral of the late Edward Timony, of Wyoming, a former Free-

A Happy Circumstance.

They who think there are no kind and sympathetic hearts in Freeland would be obliged to concenter their opinion if they were at the Primitive Methodist preacher's home on Thanksgiving Eve, for it was literally invaded, carried by storm. Young and old sallied forth to the home, and their implements of warfare were those things which every hungry person likes to see. To add to its good cheer a nice purse of money collected by Misses M. O'Donnell and E. Carter was presented to the pastor.

The social feature was not the least, for the friends with eagerness liked to listen to the many anecdotes related by the much esteemed brother, George Bird. The pastor and family extend many thanks to all who helped to make the occasion what it was, and hope to continue to enjoy the sympathies of so many friends.

Thanksgiving Weddings.

Harvey Shelhamer, of Allentown, and Miss Tinnie Dittbrenner, of Hazle Brook, were married on Thanksgiving Eve by Rev. J. B. Kerschner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shelhamer, Coxo addition. They will reside in Allentown.

At St. Ann's church yesterday Denis Welsh, of South street, and Miss Katie Tully, of Adams street, were married. At the same place yesterday August Zimmerman and Miss Mame McGinley, of South Centre street, were joined in the bonds of matrimony.

Degree of Monsignor.

Rev. Eugene A. Garvey, one of the two vicar generals of the Scranton diocese and rector of St. John's Catholic church, Pittston, has received a notable honor from Pope Leo, having had conferred upon him the title of domestic prelate. The brief containing the appointment has just been received from Rome by Bishop Hoban and yesterday he handed to Father Garvey the evidence of the Vatican's favor.

The office carries with it the degree of monsignor and the title of right reverend. In the new office Father Garvey will be vested with the purple robes of the episcopacy. Father Garvey's new office gives him no new powers, the office being simply an honorary one. The honor is conferred by the Pope as a mark of learning or high qualifications.

Monsignor Garvey's exalted position among the priests of the Scranton diocese has twice been brought to the attention of the Pope, having been twice submitted as worthy of elevation to the office of bishop. His friends in the diocese will be pleased to learn of the honor he has received.

Pastor Appointed.

Bishop Hoban has acceded to the petition of the congregation of St. Kasimir's Polish Catholic church for a pastor. He has appointed Rev. Thomas Miskicki, of Reading, a Polish priest, to temporarily fill the vacancy, and the new pastor is expected to arrive and take possession of his charge before Sunday.

Rev. Miskicki will act as pastor until such time as Bishop Hoban can secure for the congregation a Lithuanian priest.

The Finnegan Case.

The application of D. L. O'Neil, Esq., attorney for James Finnegan, asking that the court order the proper officers of Foster township to levy a special tax to pay the indebtedness of the township, has been granted by the court, and attachment was awarded against Patrick Campbell and Patrick Sweeney, supervisors, and Joseph Roberts, treasurer.

Street Parade Today.

The "Down on the Farm" Company arrived in town this morning from Shamokin, and shortly before noon the band carried by the show paraded the streets and rendered some good music. The company has been playing to big houses since entering the coal regions.

Best 5c cigar in town at Keiper's.

ROUND THE REGION.

Scranton street car men say that they do not wish to go on strike, but they have grievances which must be redressed. They wish a straight ten-hour day, instead of twelve and sixteen hours for a day, and a flat wage rate of 20 cents an hour. At present new men receive 13 cents per hour and the oldest hands only get 16 1/2 cents an hour. Unless these three wrongs are righted there will surely be a strike and twenty-eight miles of trolley line will be tied up.

The school children of Hazleton on Wednesday contributed enough provisions and household necessities to supply every poor family with three hearty Thanksgiving meals.

Thomas Williams, aged 14 years, of Wyoming, was on his way to a pigeon shooting match yesterday afternoon, when he slipped and fell in some brushwood. His gun was discharged, the load entering his groin. He was taken in a dying condition to the hospital.

Watch repairing at Keiper's.

Robert Hunting, who, with his circus, made several tours of the coal regions, is broken down financially and was admitted this week to the Soldiers' Home at Erie, where he intends to spend the balance of his life.

Alderman James McGroarty, of Wilkesbarre, died suddenly at noon yesterday from apoplexy.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best liver pills ever made. Easy to take and never gripe. Grover's City drug store.

Scranton will make a decided effort to have the next convention of the American Federation of Labor held in that city.

The mother of ex-Prothonotary George J. Llewellyn died Wednesday evening at West Pittston, aged 67 years.

Margaret Kelly, a sixteen-year-old school girl, is believed to have been kidnapped by two strange men late Wednesday afternoon from Miner's Mills, where she resided.

Many people worry because they believe they have heart disease. The chances are that their hearts are all right but their stomachs are unable to digest food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and prevents the formation of gas which makes the stomach press against the heart. It will cure every form of indigestion. Grover's City drug store.

George L. Wolff, of Cincinnati, committed suicide yesterday at Wilkesbarre. He was a member of Howson's band, which is playing with a theatrical company at one of the theatres in Wilkesbarre.

By a stove upsetting in James Delaney's house, at Locust Gap, yesterday, four residences were burned to the ground before the flames were extinguished.

You can't afford to risk your life by allowing a cough or a cold to develop into pneumonia or consumption. One Minute Cough Cure will cure throat and lung troubles quicker than any other preparation known. Many doctors use it as a specific for grippe. It is an infallible remedy for croup. Children like it and mothers endorse it. Grover's City drug store.

Standing in a trench buried to his chin, the blood spurting from his nose, mouth and ears, Domingo Degillimo, an Italian laborer, died yesterday morning with a thousand persons watching his last agonies. He and two other laborers were caught by a cave-in of the sides of a Scranton sewer, on which they were at work. The other two were dug out alive, but Degillimo was squeezed to death before he could be extricated.
