Big Sale Is Still Going On.

The Great Sale at our store has so far broken all records in Free-land in this line, and we feel compelled today to thank the people for their unusually large patronage. We also desire to extend to our many new patrons our appreciation of their confidence in us, despite the efforts made to keep them from the only Bona-Fide Sale now going on in Freeland. Every buyer has found every article just as advertised. Those who have not yet taken advantage of the opportunities we offer are requested to do so at once, as the sale will positively close when the thirty days expire.

Charles Billy, the other detained witness, gave the same testimony as Sofranko, adding that Boyle held the reakover about a foot from Brezenski's head when he fired.

William Boscowski, the suspected man, was sworn and detailed his whereabout until he was arrested about 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and was the result of a shooting affair which took place Saturday ovening in John Staski's saloon, corner of Carbon and Adams streets.

Thomas J. Boyle and William Boscowski, both of Highland, are in the lockup on suspicion of having been implicated in Brezenski's death, and Joseph Sofranko and Charles Billy are held as witnesses in the same case.

Thomas J. Boyle and William Boscowski, both of Highland, are in the lockup on suspicion of having been implicated in Brezenski's death, and Joseph Sofranko and Charles Billy are held as witnesses in the same case.

The victim, the prisoners and the witnesses were together, with several others, in the Adams street saloon Saturday evening. All had been drinking more or less after arriving in town, and were apparently enjoying themselves.

So far as can be learned there was no quarrel nor a dispute of any kind, never-

At 1.12 o'clock this afternoon there arrived at Freeland the remains of Hugh McFadden, a young man who was born in Eckley thirty years ago and who spent his early life in that town and Highland. He was a son of John McFadden, now a resident of Lackawanna county, who is known to all the earlier residents of this section. The remains were taken to the home of his uncle. were taken to the home of his uncle, Patrick McFadden, on South Washington street, from which place the funeral will take place tomorrow at 9 a. m. A requiem mass will be read at St. Ann's church, and the body will be interred at St. Ann's cemetery.

The deceased was employed as a lineman by the Diamond Electric Company, of Philadelphia. On Tuesday last he went into the office of the firm and complained of being ill. He was given an extra cost and started towards home. The Philadelphia Times says that "a short time later McFadden was picked up on North Seventeenth street by a policeman of the Twenty-second district in a delirious condition. He was taken to the Samaritan hospital immediately.

"The diagnosis of the case made by the physicians at the Samaritan hospital was delirium tremens. No such cases are taken in at the Samaritan, so without any attempt at treatment the unconscious man was bundled into the Twenty-second district patrol wagon and hurried off to the Philadelphia hospital.

It is alleged that Boscowski, the other prisoner, was not present at the shooting and that he will have no difficulty in establishing his innocence. Sixth district, and lives at 122 Camac street. He is now engaged in an investigation of his brother's death. It is asserted that the dead man was suffering from typhoid fever when he was taken to the hospital. He had been feeling ill for several weeks prior to quitting work. About a year ago he had an attack of what is commonly called walking typhoid, and his relatives believe that it was a recurrence of this disease which caused his death."

Ing and that he will have no difficulty in establishing his isnocence.

HOLDING THE INQUEST.

Deputy Coroner Bowman arrived in town from Hazleton this morning to hold an inquest in the case. He was accompanied by a jury of six, composed of John B. Nicholas, David Thomas. Loughran and Joseph Solomon, all of Hazleton. Dr. Bowman and the jury viewed the body of the dead man at Highland. Witnesses were then subpoened, and at 11 o'cleck the hearing of testimony began in the public room on the third floor of the Municipal building.

Dr. W. L. Richards was the first witness. He stated that he was called to the Stask house to attend Joseph Brezenski and found two wounds in the head which were apparently caused by two builets. The wounds were of a rather ragged nature and slightly burned by powder. Dr. Richards, at the suggestion of Dr. Bowman, used Dr. Deardorf as a manikin to explain the wounds, location, etc., to the jury. Did not probe much for ball as man was very weak and unconscious.

Dr. Deardoff testified that he was called on the case. He gave much the same testimony as Dr. Richards. No post-mortem examination having been made, an order was given to Doctors Richards and Deardoff to make one.

Chief of Police Filler was instructed to bring up the suspected men and witnesses who were locked up. Some not being able to speak English, John Rugans acted as interpreter.

Attorney Carr suggested that the men be told that anything they might say would be of their own volition. After being so informed, they stated that they be wanted to testify.

Joseph Sofranko, one of the detained witnesses, stated he was present wen be retwended to testify.

were apparently enjoying themselves.

So far as can be learned there was no quarrel nor a dispute of any kind, nevertheless a shot was heard about 9 o'clock by the people in the saloon and Brezenski fell, mortally wounded.

Doctors Deardorff and Richards were summoned and did what they could for the injured man. A bullet hole in the head showed where the missile of death had entered.

Rev. Charles Pajchisak, of St. John's Slavonian church, administered the rites of the Catholic Church to Brezenski after he regained consciousness and at midnight he was removed to his home in Highland, where he lingered until yesterday morning, when he expired.

Boyle surrendered himself to the authorities, and Boscowski was arrested yesterday on statements sald to have been made by the victim before he died. Brezenski was aged 30 years and unmarried. He had been a resident of Highland since boyhood and bore a good reputation. Some years ago his mother was missed from her home in that town and was found dead in the woods between Highland and Jeddo after a lengthy search. The remains will be interred tomorrow at St. Ann's cemetery by Undertaker McNulty.

Thomas J. Boyle, one of the arrested men, is also a well known resident of Highland. He is married and has a large family. Much sympathy is expressed for him and his friends hope he will be able to clear himself of the grave accusation.

It is alleged that Boscowski, the other prisoner, was not present at the about. Birthday Party.

The tenth birthday anniversary of Mamie Timney was celebrated on Saturday afternoon at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Timney, on North Centre street. The class-mates and young friends of Miss Timney, to the number of fifty-three, gathered at her home at 2 o'clock, and until evening came they spent the hours in games and other amusements. A very pleasant afternoon was had by the young people, and at its conclusion lunch, fruits and ice cream were served. A number of pretty and useful gifts were received by Miss Timney from her friends.

THEATRICAL.

Fine acting, singing and scenery characterize "Lost in Egypt," which appears here tomorrow evening. Special scenery is used. In the fourth act the scene, "On board the battleship Olympia," is a fine setting. The entire show is the same as produced in New York city during its long run there. Those who enjoy melodrama, interspread with rich comedy and high-class specialties, will be pleased.

"Gayest Manhattan," which was booked to appear here next Friday evening, has been cancelled. Manager McMenamin learned that this operatic farce-comedy, as it is called, was not in the class which the patrons of the Grand have been treated to for some time past, and the company was promptly notified that it could not play here.
