LOCAL NOTES WRITTEN UP

Short Items of Interest to All Readers.

Happenings of the Past Two Days in and Around Freeland Recorded With- out Waste of Words.

"The Span of Life" drew an audience to the Grand opera house last evening which gave an enthusiastic greeting to this thrilling melodrama. The exciting climaxes were loudly applauded and at the end of the third act the company received a curtain call. Barring a few of the high-priced seats, the house was sold out shortly after the doors opened, while on the gallery the people were solidly packed together.

The Fern street mains of the Freeland Water Company have been extended to permit connection to be made with the new brewery. Although the plant has a well of its own, the directors intend to provide for emergencies if their own supply should fail them at any time.

Candy, nuts, fruits of every description, etc. at Markt's.

District No. 7, of the United Mine Workers, will hold its annual convention tomorrow afternoon in Hazleton. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected, and action will be taken on the proposition for the erection of a home for National President John Mitchell.

James Ockranwz, of Drifton, while on his way home from his work in Hazle Brook colliery, was struck by a Lehigh Valley train at Foundryville on Wednesday. He was taken to the Miners' hospital, where several scalp wounds and a fractured leg are being treated.

Every 25-cent purchase at Laubach's gives you a chance on a handsome doll.

Philip Moyer, of Slocum township, yesterday disposed of his dwelling and lot on West Chestnut street, on the Hill, to Joseph Mackarewicz, of town, for $700.

A banquet will be tendered Hon. H. W. Haworth by a number of his friends at the Central hotel on Tuesday evening.

Walter Edgar, of Highbridge, N. J., spent Christmas with his father in Freeland and left yesterday for Pottsville, where he was married last evening to Miss Kate Williams, a former resident of town.

Gentlemen, for hats and caps go to A. Oswald. He has a nice variety.

Owing to a railroad wreck the New York and Philadelphia morning mail was delayed several hours today.

The cave-in in Oakdale mine, which caused a suspension of work in part of the colliery on Wednesday, is still giving the officials of Markle & Co. considerable trouble.

Pipes and tobacco at Markt's.

James Dougherty, of town, had one of his hands severely injured yesterday in Jeddo mines while unhitching cars.

The Anthracite Telephone Company's line will be connected with Wilkesbarre and other upper end towns next week.

Pure confectionery at Markt's. At the annual election for members of the consistory of St. John's Reformed church the following were elected: Elder, Amandus Oswald; deacons, Alonzo Woodring, J. W. Everett and George Sheaman.

Christmas candy at Kelper's. The senior class of St. Ann's parochial school were examined on December 22 by Professor Malkames, of Hazleton. The pupils passed a very successful examination, their averages far exceeding the standard required by the examiner.

W. H. Dunmoyer, superintendent of the Freeland district of the Prudential Insurance Company, was taken ill on Christmas while visiting in Tremont, Schuylkill county. Yesterday he returned to his home here.

Holiday novelties at Markt's. Elmer Newhart, the first trainmaster on the D. S. & S. Railroad, died in New York city from typhoid fever this week.

Don't use any of the counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Most of them are worthless or liable to cause injury. The original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a certain cure for piles, eczema, cuts, scalds, burns, sores and skin diseases. Grover's City drug store.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

ESTATE OF ANNIE HARVEY, late of Foster township, deceased. Letters of administration upon the above named estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make payment, and those having claims or demands to present the same without delay, to Charles A. Harvey, John M. Carr, attorney.

PERSONAL.

J. W. Miller and family, of Birkbeck street, are at Shenandoah today attending the funeral of George Lynn, a nephew of Mrs. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Brennan, of Anaconda, Montana, are the guests of Daniel Boyle and family on Carbon street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sweetman have returned to Harrisburg after spending Christmas with Freeland relatives.

Dr. J. P. Kennedy, of St. Joseph's hospital, Lancaster, is the guest of Drifton relatives.

W. J. Brogan, of the Third ward, attended to business in Philadelphia this week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Poyser will leave tomorrow to spend a week with Scranton relatives.

Thomas Brogan, a former Freeland resident, returned yesterday to Montana after spending a few weeks with relatives here.

Mrs. Daniel Gill is visiting relatives and friends in Schuylkill county.

Griffith Jones, of Upper Lehigh, spent Christmas with Wyoming valley friends.

Brother Joseph, of Villanova college, spent part of the week with his sister, Mrs. Hugh Malloy.

I. Refowich is transacting business in New York city.

Mrs. Joseph Hocklander, after a visit to Freeland relatives, has returned to her home in Hartford, Conn.

Charles Johnson, of Allegheny City, is visiting in town.

John B. Houston, of Jefferson Medical college, is spending the holidays here.

Wedded Last Evening.

At St. Ann's Catholic church last evening Rev. M. J. Fallis united in marriage Daniel McLaughlin, of North Ridge street, and Miss Bid O'Donnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter O'Donnell, of Coxe addition. The ceremony took place at 7.30 o'clock. Brian McLaughlin, a brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Mary McElwaine, of Philadelphia, was bridesmaid.

The wedding party immediately returned to the home of the bride's parents, where a large number of friends were assembled to extend their congratulations and good wishes. At the conclusion of the festivities, Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin repaired to their furnished home on Ridge street, near Main. They received many handsome and useful presents.

Long Trolley Line.

The contract for the building of the trolley line from Richlandown to Hellertown, a distance of ten miles, has been signed and work will soon begin. With the closing of this link there will be a continued trolley road from North Wales to Allentown.

The Allentown trolley road will soon be connected with Mauch Chunk line, and the Perkastie-Doylestown extension will be constructed the coming spring. With this gap closed there will be a through line to Philadelphia from Mauch Chunk.

Boyle May Be Released.

John M. Carr, counsel for Thomas J. Boyle, of Highland, who is confined in the county jail charged with firing the shot that caused the death of Joseph Brozinski on December 15, will apply for a writ of habeas corpus and try to have his client brought before court and admitted to bail.

Will Outdo Previous Efforts.

The Tigers Athletic Club will this year outdo all previous efforts in entertaining its friends at Yannes' opera house on New Year's eve. The decorations will surprise and delight the friends and the committee expects this affair to be the most noteworthy in the history of the club. Freeland's Twentieth Century Ball will be something that will be long remembered in this town.

Now is the time when croup and lung troubles prove rapidly fatal. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results is One Minute Cough Cure. It is very pleasant to take and can be relied upon to quickly cure coughs, colds and all lung diseases. It will prevent consumption. Grover's City drug store.

John Makes, a victim of a Shenandoah bar-room fight, is in a critical condition. Louis and Christ Sellers and Joe Plenkina, charged with the crime, were arrested.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are dainty little pills, but they never fail to cleanse the liver, remove obstructions and invigorate the system. Grover's City drug store.

Christmas tree ornaments at Kelper's.

PLEASURE.

December 31.—Twentieth Century Ball of Tigers Athletic Club at Yannes' opera house. Admission, 50 cents.

SETTLED BY ARBITRATION

Kingston Strike Ends in a Satisfactory Manner.

Company Appoints a Man, the Union Appoints Another, and These Choose a Third Arbitrator.

The 1,800 striking miners of the Kingston Coal Company have been treated to their first lesson in actual arbitration. Yesterday the arbitration committee met and settled many of the differences that caused the strike of the men and boys, some weeks ago.

T. D. Nichols, district president of the United Mine Workers, represented the employes, and Cornelius Cronin was chosen by the company to appear in its interest. Professor Griffith, superintendent of the public schools, of Nanticoke, was selected by the two as the third arbitrator.

It was decided that hereafter each car shall contain not less than 103 cubic feet of coal. The cars in use at the mines vary in size, and a general order to put six inches topping on all brought about the trouble.

The differences between Foreman Thos. Morgan and some of the miners will be submitted to another board of arbitration. The men will return to work on Monday.

Chapel Dedications.

The new chapel recently erected at Laurytown almshouse by Mrs. Coxe, of Drifton, will be dedicated on Monday, Rev. Father Dever, of Beaver Meadow, who has been delegated by Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, will perform the dedicatory services. A high mass will be celebrated at 10 o'clock, to be followed by a sermon. Miss Nellie McLaughlin, of Freeland, will preside at the organ, and Misses Susie Cole and Mary Brady, of Beaver Meadow, will assist in the singing. Mrs. Coxe, the poor directors and a number of invited guests will attend the dedication.

The dedicatory services of the Protestant Episcopal church were performed on Wednesday at the chapel by Rev. J. B. Buxton, of Drifton, in the presence of Mrs. Coxe, the directors and other friends of the institution. Music was rendered by the choir of St. James' church, Drifton.

Will of John Hess.

The will of the late John Hess, of Freeland, was probated yesterday. He directs all his estate, real, personal and mixed to be given to his wife, Anna Hess, during her life, and after her death to be distributed among his five children, John Hess, Jr., Henry Hess, Mrs. Kate Scheidy, Mrs. Eliza Stuntz and Elizabeth Hess. Should any of the children die without issue, before the death of his wife, he directs that the portion of each child shall be equally divided among the remaining children.

Henry Stuntz and Peter Schnee are named as executors. Mr. Hess died on October 18 last. The signature to the will was witnessed by Peter Schnee and Daniel Kline.

When you need a soothing and healing anti-septic application for any purpose, use the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a well known cure for piles and skin diseases. It heals sores without leaving a scar. Beware of counterfeits. Grover's City drug store. Wilkesbarre newsboys, messenger boys and bootblacks of the city will be treated to a dinner at the Y. M. C. A. on New Year's day.

The most effective little liver pills made are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They never gripe. Grover's City drug store.
