LOCAL NOTES WRITTEN UP

Short Items of Interest to All Readers.

Happenings of the Past Two Days in and Around Freeland Recorded Without Waste of Words.

As a New Year's gift Benhard Dinn received a package yesterday from his son, Harry, who is serving Uncle Sam in the Philippines. The package contained a box of the finest cigars manufactured in Manila, silk handkerchiefs and several Oriental trinkets. Harry is a member of Troop F, Third Cavalry, and is enjoying excellent health.

Andrew Gresko, a Fern street youth employed in No. 5 colliery, Jeddo, as a patcher, had his right knee crushed between cars on Monday. He was brought to his home, and was removed yesterday to the Miners' hospital. The injury is serious, and it is not yet known whether the leg can be saved.

1901 was greeted by the people of Freeland without any formal celebration. Services were held at many of the churches. With ringing of bells, blowing of horns and shooting of firearms, the new year was ushered in in a manner which was satisfactory to all.

Tobacco of all kinds at Kelper's. J. F. Beltz is suffering from an injured knee cap which he received last week while at Perth Amboy, N. J., with his D. S. & S. train.

Ex-Congressman John Linsenring, of Upper Lehigh, who is receiving treatment at the University hospital, Philadelphia, has improved considerably during the week he has spent in that institution.

At St. Ann's church yesterday, John Boyle, of Silver Brook, was married to Miss Mary Gallagher, of Highland, formerly of New Silver Brook. James McKelvey, of McAdoo, was groomsman, and Miss Fannie Gallagher, of Philadelphia, was bridesmaid. The couple will reside in New Silver Brook.

Quality and not quantity makes DeWitt's Little Early Risers such valuable little liver pills. Grover's City drug store.

Miss Celia Faltz is the guest of her father, George W. Faltz.

T. J. Connors, of Shamokin, spent New Year's in town.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Abraham Stroh took place this afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Vanauken, on East Main street. Services were conducted by Rev. W. W. Hartman, after which a large number of friends of the family, including many people from out-of-town, followed the remains to Freeland cemetery.

Proving for coal in Butler valley still continues. Thomas Brown, Sr., of North Centre street, is one of the latest to begin searching for veins of the black diamonds.

Such little pills as DeWitt's Little Early Risers are very easily taken, and they are wonderfully effective in cleansing the liver and bowels. Grover's City drug store.

Mrs. John M. Carr and family are visiting Wilkesbarre relatives.

Miss Lizzie Ruddy, of Miners Mills, and Miss Bessie Sterling, of Pittston, are the guests of Freeland friends.

Mrs. M. E. D. May, Contal hotel, most successful who has ever been here. Low price two days longer.

George H. Hartman is preparing to remove his meat market to the Bachman building, now occupied by Joseph Birkbeck, who will remove his store to the Givens block, next to the Wear Well Clothing House.

Frank Clemens, of Lansford, fell beneath the wheels of a mine locomotive on Monday and was cut to pieces. He was a son of ex-Poor Director Clemens.

Charles Sundmacher, employed as a clerk in Superintendent Kudlich's office at Drifton, has tendered his resignation to accept a position in Long Island city.

The merited reputation for curing piles, sores and skin diseases acquired by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, has led to the making of worthless counterfeits. Be sure to get only DeWitt's Salve. Grover's City drug store.

Yesterday the blacksmith and wagon shop owned by the estate of Simon Croop, in Hunlock township, was destroyed by fire, together with the contents. The loss is $1,000 and no insurance.

Daniel Griffith, aged 57 years, inside foreman at colliery No. 8, Lansford, while eating his breakfast Monday morning was stricken with paralysis and died at the table.

Groom Could Not Come.

Miss Edith Drasher, of North Ridge street, and Charles Geisenger, of Sayre, were to be married yesterday, but on account of the rush of work on that division of the Lehigh Valley Railroad the groom could not get leave of absence to be present and the ceremony has been postponed.

All the necessary preparations had been made for the wedding and no delay had been anticipated. Mr. Geisenger, not having arrived on the appointed train, was telegraphed to, and a reply was received stating that he had been compelled to work.

Died Last Evening.

Mrs. Tabitha Granaway, aged 63 years, died last evening at her home on South Washington street. She had been ill for some time past. Mrs. Granaway was the widow of the late Thomas Granaway, who was one of the early residents of Eckley. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Mrs. Jane DeFoy, corner of Luzerne and Washington streets. Services will be conducted by Rev. F. Marshall. The remains will be interred at Freeland cemetery.

A Well Prepared Book.

The Wilkesbarre Record almanac for 1901 was received yesterday by the Tribune. It is a book which does credit to not only the Record, but to Luzerne county, and is one which should be kept convenient for reference by every person in this county who has occasion to write or speak on matters pertaining to county affairs. It has been compiled in a most accurate manner and apparently nothing in the line of local data or statistics has been overlooked in its preparation.

Boyle Is Released.

Thomas J. Boyle, of Highland, who has been held on the charge of shooting Joseph Brezinski here on December 15, was given a habeas corpus hearing at Wilkesbarre this morning. The prisoner's interests were taken care of by Attorney John M. Carr.

The hearing resulted in the release of Boyle on bail until his trial is called. He is expected to return home this evening.

Site for Courthouse.

The question of a site for Luzerne county new million-dollar court house has been settled at last. In an opinion handed down, Judge Woodward removes all legal impediments, and decides that the building must be erected on the river common. For nearly two years the courts have been asked for injunction after injunction to prevent the erection of the new building.

Church Officers.

At the annual election of officers in St. Luke's Lutheran church on Sunday the following were chosen:
Elder—George Bechtloff.
Deacons—D. O. Krommes, Benj. Hontz, L. V. Steward, Gustav Motzkus, Treasurer—Herman Ruchotzki.
Sexton—Henry G. Fisher.
The officers will be installed next Sunday.

Died in Drifton.

Michael Rogers, of Drifton, died on Monday from miners' asthma after a lingering illness. The deceased was a well known resident of this section. He was aged 41 years and is survived by a wife and five children. The funeral will take place at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. Interment at St. Ann's cemetery.

News was received at Kingston today of the death of Dr. H. S. Clauser, of that town, at Redlands, Cal. His wife, within eighteen months, has lost father, mother, husband, brother and sister-in-law, the two latter being drowned in the wreck of the Mohagan on the English coast.

When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as it is dangerous to delay. We would suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indications of having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly and its early use prevents consumption. Grover's City drug store.

Rev. E. S. Phillips, of Hazleton, who took a prominent part in bringing about a union of the two branches of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, was yesterday presented with a purse of $1,300 by the order as a testimonial for his services.

Pepsin preparations often fail to relieve indigestion because they can digest only albuminous foods. There is one preparation that digests all classes of food, and that is Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It cures the worst cases of indigestion and gives instant relief, for it digests what you eat. Grover's City drug store.

A fire in the Hazle township portion of the Diamond addition, Hazleton, destroyed a large double and a single dwelling last night.

THEATRICAL.

One of those effervescent musical comedies that go with a vim and dash from commencement to finish will be the attraction at the Grand opera house tomorrow evening. "A Million a Minute" is the swift title of the piece; it is a satire on the Wall street New York brokers. It is uproariously funny in a refined manner, free from all horse-play and alleged humor of the rough and tumble order. It is replete with bright, catchy musical numbers of the popular order that one hears whistled on the streets. All the music is original and was composed for this production.

In addition to these there are solos by such well known singers as Claire Mitchell, whose rich mezzo-soprano voice will be remembered as a feature of the Duff Opera Company; J. J. Raffael, the glorious baritone, formerly of the McCaull and Corneil Opera companies; Beulah Esmond, England's famous lady tenor, and Harry Brown, the well known comedian.

Then there are specialties by Hyberta Pryme, a niece of President McKinley, and Jessie Burns, the celebrated German character comedienne. There are twenty-five in the company, all of whom are singers.

+++

Mildred Holland, a star of the first magnitude, is coming with her new and magnificent production of Theodore Kremer's romantic drama, "The Power Behind the Throne." Miss Holland has been seen in past seasons in a diversified lot of characters, from Shakespearian roles under Augustin Daly's management, to her last character success, Fan Fan, in "Two Little Vagrants." This year Miss Holland has a more serious and legitimate role, and the critics who have seen her in her new character, that of Aria, pronounce it one of the most artistic stage triumphs of the season.

+++

One of the most important productions that will be seen in Freeland this season is Chas. W. Chase's dramatization of "Quo Vadis." Aiden Benedict has been generous in preparing this piece for presentation. A company of great strength has been engaged, the scenic investiture is elaborate and of great beauty; the costumes have been carefully prepared from classic models and were made in Europe; the play, judging from what is said by those persons who have seen it, is strong and interesting.

+++

"Across the Atlantic" is the title of a monologue which will be delivered on the 17th inst. by Edward H. Frye at the Grand opera house. This will be the fourth of the series of entertainments conducted by the Mining and Mechanical Institute.

+++

The old reliable comedy, "Side-Tracked," will be here in the near future. The play always pleases Freeland audiences.

Two Great Nights.

The ball of the Tigers Athletic Club on Monday evening eclipsed anything of the kind ever before attempted in Freeland. Whether it was the beautiful decorations or the club's reputation for conducting enjoyable balls that drew the crowd, it is not possible to state. The paid admissions, however, broke the record at Yannes' opera house by nearly one hundred, and from 10:30 to 12 o'clock the crush in every portion of the spacious building was such as to cause some discomfort, but this was borne good-naturedly by the throng. The march was led by Master of Ceremonies Thomas F. Welsh and sister, Miss Annie. The decorations, as usual, compelled the admiration of the visitors, both those of town and the many from neighboring towns and cities expressing astonishment and pleasure at the wonderful artistic and harmonious effects placed before them. Not a square foot of space in the building was neglected by the decorators, while the half-dozen arc lamps and the hundreds of colored and shaded incandescent lamps shed a flood of light over all which brought out the work in a manner which made the hall a scene of splendor.

The handsome painting of a large Bengal tiger, placed over the stage, was one of the features which came in for a large share of favorable comment.

Last evening was practically a repetition of the previous night. The number in attendance was somewhat smaller, but notwithstanding this the hall was crowded for several hours, and when the pleasure-seekers dispersed this morning there ended an event which was a fitting welcome to the twentieth century.

Special Meeting of A. O. H.

There will be a special meeting of Division No. 41, A. O. H., at the Grand opera house hall on Friday evening, January 4. By order of Con McCole, president.

DR. GARRISON GOES INSANE

Well Known Dentist Placed in an Asylum.

After Being Released From Arrest at Scranton He Becomes a Raving Maniac on a Railroad Train.

Dr. William J. Garrison, of Dorrance-ton, this county, until recently a resident of White Haven and who at one time had a dental office in Freeland, appears to have parted with his senses. He was in Scranton a few days ago and acted so queerly that he was placed under arrest. He was locked up in the station house and later was allowed to go on a promise to go home.

Garrison was around the city distributing small paper stickers with biblical quotations on them. In the afternoon he went to Providence, where he entered a drug store and after conversing with the proprietor awhile he walked over to the window and put one of the stickers over a condensed milk advertisement. He then pulled out his knife and scraped sticker and advertisement off the window.

He was attracted by the yelling of the bus drivers and rushed out of the store without his hat and with satchel in hand. He jumped into the bus, frightening those already inside, and bade the driver proceed. The latter declined to do so. This enraged Garrison and he made a pass at the driver. He then threw the satchel at him and jumped into the front seat and attempted to whip up the horses. The police then arrested him.

After his release from the station house the dentist took a train for his home. On the way down he became violent and the Wilkesbarre police were telegraphed to take him in charge. He was again arrested and taken to Luzerne county jail. Such was his mental condition that it was necessary to bind him. He was later taken to the Retreat asylum, where he shows signs of violent insanity.

Illegal Hunting.

On behalf of the Freeland Game and Fish Protective Association, Thomas Roberts, one of the active workers of the club, yesterday furnished information which resulted in the prosecution of a young man of town on the charge of illegal hunting. He acknowledged the truth of the charge, which was killing a rabbit out of season, and paid a fine of $10 and the costs.

The club does not propose to spare any person in its efforts to put a stop to illegal hunting and fishing in Luzerne county. Whoever is found guilty will be prosecuted without favor by the members.

Persons who suffer from indigestion can not expect to live long, because they can not eat the food required to nourish the body and the products of the undigested foods they do eat poison the blood. It is important to cure indigestion as soon as possible, and the best method of doing this is to use the preparation known as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and restores all the digestive organs to perfect health. Grover's City drug store.

Gentlemen, for hats and caps go to A. Oswald. He has a nice variety.
