He was sergeant of the company, and while going from camp to the railroad for rations, a distance of fifteen miles, having with him ten men, all mounted, they were suddenly fired upon by thirty negroes lying in ambush. Two of his men were wounded and five of their horses killed. When the scrimmage was over it was found that sixteen negroes had been killed and several wounded. He also burned their village."

ROUND THE REGION.

Indignant citizens in all walks of life are anathematizing the Scranton Railway Company. The reason is the announcement that after Monday the company will not issue transfers on connecting lines, but compel patrons to pay two fares. Several of the company's franchises were granted upon the express stipulation that transfers be given, and at tomorrow night's session of council the first step toward the abrogation of these franchises will be taken.

Car of Powder Explodes.

The whole of the Wyoming valley was shaken by a terrific explosion at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when a car of black powder, on the Central Railroad of New Jersey tracks, near Laurel Run, exploded. Train No. 424 was pulling up the mountain, when an engine dashed around a curve and plowed through the caboose, knocked over a car of beer and then struck the car loaded with black powder.

An explosion followed which tore the front of the engine to shreds and piled up a dozen cars in a heap.

The engineer and fireman on the light locomotive leaped twenty feet from the point of the collision, and the two men in the caboose and the rear brakeman on the train jumped at the same time. Knowing there was a car of powder on, they wasted no time in getting as far as possible away from the wreck, and this saved their lives. No one was injured, despite the fearful force of the explosion.

Persons who suffer from indigestion can not expect to live long, because they can not eat the food required to nourish the body and the products of the undigested foods they do eat poison the blood. It is important to cure indigestion as soon as possible, and the best method of doing this is to use the preparation known as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and restores all the digestive organs to perfect health. Grover's City drug store.

THEATRICAL.

The attraction at the Grand opera house on Friday evening will be that record breaking success in the farce comedy field, the Rays' big Eastern "A Hot Old Time," which is this season more than duplicating its hit of last year, when it won recognition as the most prosperous organization of its kind on the road. The success of the attraction is easily explained. Not only has it a consistent plot, a fund of humor that is irresistibly contagious and a liveliness of action that, while escaping actual violence, is both constant and comic, but it is entirely free from that element of vulgarity and suggestiveness that has handicapped so many recent productions. It was in this production that the popular song of this season, "Lady," a song that is sweeping this country from ocean to ocean, was first heard. Strong specialties are introduced by Gracy and Burnett, the Gladstone sisters, Pearl Revere, Kate Frayer and other names familiar to patrons of high class comedy.

Jas. B. Mackie will appear at the Grand opera house this evening in his well known farce comedy of "Grimes' Cellar Door," ably assisted by that clever comedienne, Louise Sanford, and company of seventeen people. Among the company with Mackie are the two Bernard Sisters, Jack Ammons and a host of pretty girls. Mackie has been doing a phenomenal business at every town this season, and is the only one of Hoyt's comedians that has made himself famous.
