egacy Had a String to It in the Form of a Condi-tion That the Beneficiary Marry a Certain Woman.

Marry a Certain Woman. William S. Gill, a young man who appared in the role of "Ebenezer Tobb," the sexton of the Baptist church, In the production of "The Village Postmater" at Hazleton opera house Monday even-ing, has been placed in a very odd posi-tion by a will made by his uncle, who recently died in Liverpool, England. It is a will that smacks more of the novel than real life. The will leares Gill £5,000 If he will marry the ward of his uncle. Gill is deeply in love with a young woman who is a member of the company and they are engaged to be married. He prompt-ly decided that if he cannot get the money without taking the ward also, the money is not for him. A letter was received on Saturday by Gill from his father, James Gill, of Bos-ton, apprising the young mon of the terms of the uncle's will. The uncle was Major John Reynolds, who died in Liverpool a shert time ago from the effect of wounds sustained while fight-ing in South Africa. The ward of the deceased is the Liverpool a shert time ago from the effect of wounds sustained while fight ing in South Africa. The ward of the deceased is the daughter of a brother officer who die sad event she was cared for by Reynolds as if she was his own daughter. It was his hope that his nephew would marry his ward and with a view to encouraging this idea he shaped his will. Fate de creed that this should not be. Gill has never seen his uncle's ward, but notwithstanding this he does not hesitate to say that she is not for him. "I did not hesitate a moment in mak-ing a cholee," he said in talking about the matter. "What is 25,000 as com-pared to a life's happiness. Money is a good thing, but it is not everything, and with me it would not weigh for an instant against the woman I hope will one day be Mrs. Willam S. Gill." Officiale Vialata Peromices DLAND, PA., WEDNE one cent an hour to the engineers, amounts far below what were needed to bring their wages up to the Lebigh Val-ley rate, while the firemen, brakemen and others received no increase. Those of the employes who had be-lieved in the promises made by the of-ficials were naturally disappointed at the manner in which they were hood-winked, but others who have had similar experiences with these people were not in the least surprised at the deceit which the Drifton corporation exhibited. There was a time when a statement received from the managers of the Coxe interests was accepted as truthful and was relied upon by all whom it concern-ed; but this was when men with brains and honest principles were in charge. Unfortunately for the employes of the Drifton companies, these men are no more, and the fair name which years of work established is gradually becoming a synonym for hypocrisy, of which the D. S. & S. "increase" is only one of many instances furrished. The railroad men are determined that the matter will not be allowed to prest until they receive what is due thoud a general meeting of the em-ployes of the road to take action on the refusal of the company to live up to its promise. TICKET NAMED.

TICKET NAMED.

Democratic Candidates Nominated on Monday Evening.

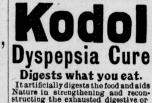

Monday Evening. The Democratic convention of Free-land borough was held in the Municipal building on Monday evening. Chair-man John McCole called the meeting to order, and after the credentials of the delegates were presented and read a permanent organization was effected by the election of R. J. O'Donnell, Esq., as chairman and John E. McHugh as secretary.

Both nominees are acceptable to the voters of the party, and the delegates and workers have no doubt of the suc-cess of the ticket at the polls.

UTICIAIS VIOLATE Promises. The trainmen on the D. S. & S. Rail lives yesterday when they opened their pay checks and found that the official rade to the railroaders to increase their wages to the scale recently adopted on the Lehigh Valley Railroad. Some weeks ago the D. S. & S. men asked for an increase in wages, taking the new rate of the Lehigh Valley Com-pany as a basis. Several Funerals.

Several Funerals. Vera L. Tripp, aged 13 years, was buried this faternoon in Freeland come-tery from the residence of her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Koons. The girl died in New York city on Tuesday, and the remains arrived here yesterday. Ser-vices were conducted at the Koons resi-dence by Rev. F. Marshall. The remains of the late Mrs. Rose Ward, who expired suddenly at Hazle Brook on Sunday, arrived here at 0.17 o'clock this morning. A requiem mass was read at St. Ann's church by Rev. F. Mack and interment was made in St. Ann's cemetery.

Mack and interment was made in St. Ann's cemetery. The funeral of the late Conrad Kim-mel, who died last week in New Jersey, took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of his sister, Mrs. John Osch-man, North Centre street, and was at-tended by many of his former acquaint-ances.

ances. Joseph Laury, a resident of Ferri street, Woodside, died yesterday. He was aged 50 years and is survived by a wife and eleven children. The deceas-ed was a prominent Italian. The fun-eral will take place tomorrow. Inter-ment at St. Ann's cemetery. William Starnech, of Highland, died yesterday after a long illness. He will be buried tomorrow afternoon at St. Ann's cemetery.

Death of D. K. Laubach. D. K. Laubach, of Fairmount Springs, this connty, died yesterday. He was the father of J. B. and B. C. Laubach, of Freeland; Mrs. Charles Wolfe, Wilkes-barre, and Jonathan, Kester, Martha and Sarah Laubach, of Fairmount Springs. The deceased was well known in this end of the county and his death was a surprise to his acquaintances and relatives here. The funeral will take place at his late home tomorrow after-noen.

Tonight's Play.

Tonight's Play. "Side Tracked" contains enough en-tertaining diversity to keep an audience in continual hilarity, and runs the gamut of sensation, farce, melodrama and variety. A murder is committed, a theatrical company arrives and gives part of an entertainment at a railroad station, a pretty lunch-counter girl fails in love with a tramp who eventually be-comes as attractive a lover as any girl could wish. Pretty girls sing and dance themselves into popularity, and "Side Tracked" moves along without a duil moment, with the soubrette and tramp in the lead. Sensational climaxes are found in the scenes of railroad con-trivances. The company numbers some clever performers, and considerable special scenery is used for the play.

Celebrated at Harrisburg.

Celebrated at Harrisburg. Among those who attended the ses-sions of the legislature at Harrisburg yesterday were the following Freeland eltizens: Postmaster B. F. Davis, W. J. Morgan, William Anderson, George Anderson, John James, S. J. NeuBur-ger, Rev. Carl Houser, S. DePierro, N. Butterwick, Thomas Edmunds, Frank DePierro, John McFarlane. The visitors were nearly all Quay men, and the election of their idol yestorday to the United States senate gave them an opportunity to join in the big cele-brations held at the capital.

Painfully Injured. At the Oneida colliery of Coxe Bros. & Co. Tuesday afternoon John Barnhart, aged 17 years, was run over by two mine cars. He was employed as a patcher on a lokic and in attempting to make a dy-ing switch, slipped and fell under the cars. He was taken to the Miners' hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate his left leg at the thigh and the right foot at the Instep. Notwith-standing the terrible injuries, the lad may recover. Painfully Injured.

Opened Last Evening.

Upened Last Evening. The fair of the Young Men's Corps opened last evening at Yannes' opera house with a large attendance. The committee has the large hall prettily decorated and well filled with elegant articles. Amusements of various kinds are conducted at the fair and it prom-ises to be one of the most successful the corps has yet conducted. St. Aon's band was present last evening and rendered several selections.

When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as it is dangerous to delay. We would suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indica-tions of having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly and its early use prevents consumption. Grover's City Drug store.
